REGULATIONS.

MATRICULATION.

[Candidates for any Degree in this University must have passed the MATRICULATION EXAMINATION. No exemption from this rule is allowed on account of Degrees obtained on Examinations passed at any other University.]

[This Examination is accepted (a) by the College of Surgeons, (b) by the Incorporated Law Society, and (c) by the Pharmaceutical Society, in lieu of their Preliminary Examinations. It also exempts Candidates for admission to the Royal Military College from the Preliminary Tests, except in Geometrical Drawing. And it is among those Examinations of which some one must be passed (1) by every Medical Student on commencing his professional studies; and (2) by every person entering upon Articles of Clerkship to a Solicitor.—any such person who may have Matriculated in the Honours or in the First Division being entitled to exemption from one year's service.]

[This and all other Examinations of the University, together with the Prizes, Exhibitions, Scholarships, and Medals depending upon them, are open to Women upon exactly the same conditions as to Men.]

the Second Monday in January, and the other on the Third Monday in June.*

Every Candidate for the MATRICULATION EXAMINATION must, not less than five weeks before the commencement of the Examination, apply to the Registrar for a Form of Entry, which must be returned not less than four weeks before the commencement of the Examination, accompanied by a Certificate showing that the Candidate has completed his Sixteenth year† and by his Fee for the Examination.‡

Every Candidate entering for the Matriculation Examination for the first time must pay a Fee of Two Pounds to the Registrar. If a Candidate withdraws his name, or fails to present himself at the Examination, or fails to pass it, the Fee shall not be returned to him, but he shall be allowed to enter for any subsequent MATRICULATION EXAMINATION upon payment, at every such entry, of an additional Fee of One Pound, provided that he comply with the Regulations in the preceding paragraph.§

The Examination shall be conducted by means of Printed Papers; but the Examiners shall not be precluded from putting, for the purpose of ascertaining the competence of the Candidates to pass, visd voce questions to any Candidate in the subjects in which they are appointed to examine.

Candidates shall not be approved by the Examiners unless they have shown a competent knowledge in each of the following subjects, according to the details specified under the several heads:—

1. Latin;
2. One|| of the following Languages:—Greek, French, German, Sanskrit, Arabic;¶
3. The English Language; and English History, with the Geography relating thereto;
4. Mathematics;
5. Mechanics;
6. One|| of the following Branches of Experimental Science:—Chemistry; Heat and Light; Magnetism and Electricity.

The following are the particulars of the foregoing subjects of Examination:—

I.—LATIN.

One Latin subject to be selected by the Senate one year and a half previously from the works of the undermentioned authors:

Virgil.—Two books of the Æneid.

IV.—MATHEMATICS.

1. ARITHMETIC.

- The ordinary rules and Processes of Arithmetic, including — Proportion.
 Vulgar and Decimal Fractions.
 Extraction of the Square Root.

2. ALGEBRA.

- Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, and Division of Algebraical Quantities.
 Reduction and manipulation of Algebraical Fractions.
 Arithmetical and Geometrical Progression.
 Simple Equations and easy Quadratic Equations, with questions involving their use.

3. GEOMETRY.

- The subjects of the First Four Books of Euclid, and simple deductions.

V.—MECHANICS.

- Elementary notions as to Velocity, Acceleration, Force, Mass, Momentum, Work, and Energy Composition and Resolution of Velocities, Accelerations, and Forces, in one plane.
 Moments and Couples, in one plane.
 Centre of Gravity, or Mass-centre.
 Transmission of Pressure in Liquids; variation with depth of the pressure due to weight of liquids.
 Specific Gravity, and modes of determining it. Pressure of gases, and laws relating thereto.
 Atmospheric pressure.
 Common instruments and apparatus whose action depends upon the pressure of liquids, or of the atmosphere, or of both.

VI.—EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

- One or the more following subjects, at the option of the Candidate:—

1. CHEMISTRY.

- The following elements, and their compounds as enumerated below; their chief physical and chemical characters; their preparation; and their characteristic tests:—
 Oxygen, Hydrogen, Carbon, Nitrogen, Chlorine, Bromine, Iodine, Fluorine. Sulphur, Phosphorus, Silicon.
 Combining Proportions by weight and by volume. General nature of Acids, Bases, and Salts. Symbols and Nomenclature.
 The Atmosphere—its constitution; effects of Animal and Vegetable life upon its composition.
 Combustion. Structure and properties of Flame. Nature and composition of ordinary Fuel.
 Water. Chemical peculiarities of Natural Waters, such as rain-water, river-water, spring-water, sea-water.

2. HEAT AND LIGHT.

Heat.

- Expansion of Solids, Liquids, and Gases accompanying rise of Temperature: Laws relating thereto. Thermometry. Calorimetry. Specific heat. Liquefaction and solidification. Vaporization and condensation; ebullition; properties of vapours, saturated or unsaturated. Latent heat.
 Transmission of heat by conduction and convection.

Light.

- Propagation of light in straight lines in uniform media. Velocity of light and modes of determining it. Intensity of light, its variation with distance. Shadows. Photometry. Reflection and Refraction at plane or spherical surfaces. Formation of images by plane and spherical mirrors, and by simple lenses (excluding aberration). Decomposition of white light by a prism. The prismatic Spectrum.

3. MAGNETISM AND ELECTRICITY.

Magnetism.

- Simple experimental properties of Magnets. Effect of a magnet on a neighbouring piece of soft iron or of hard steel. Terrestrial magnetism: behaviour of declination needle and of a dipping needle at different parts of the earth's surface.

Electricity.

- The two Electrical States and their mutual relations. Attraction and Repulsion. Conduction and Insulation. Electrostatic Induction. The common plate and cylinder electrical machines. Electrical condensers. Distribution of electricity upon conductors.

Current electricity. Common forms of battery. Ohm's law and its simple applications. Heating, chemical, and magnetic effects of electric currents. Simple experimental methods of generating currents by relative motion of conductors and magnets. The simple laws of magneto-electric induction.

The Examinations shall be conducted in the following order:—

MONDAY.

Afternoon, 2 to 4. Latin.
4 to 6. Latin Grammar and Composition.

TUESDAY.

Morning, 10 to 1. Greek, French, German, Sanskrit, or Arabic.
Afternoon, 2 to 5. Arithmetic and Algebra.

WEDNESDAY.

Morning, 10 to 1. Geometry.
Afternoon, 2 to 5. Chemistry; or Heat and Light; or Magnetism and Electricity.

THURSDAY.

Morning, 10 to 1. English Language.
Afternoon, 2 to 5. English History, with the Geography relating hereto.

FRIDAY.

Morning, 10 to 1. Mechanics.

At Two o'clock on Monday in the week next but two after the Examination, the Examiners shall publish a List of the Candidates who have passed. And at Two o'clock on the Monday next following, the Examiners shall publish a List of the Candidates who have passed arranged in Three Divisions;—in the Honours Division in the order of proficiency* in the First and Second Divisions in alphabetical order.

If in the opinion of the Examiners any Candidates in the Honours Division of not more than Twenty years of age at the commencement of the Examination shall possess sufficient merit, the First among such Candidates shall receive an Exhibition of Thirty Pounds per annum for the next Two Years; the Second among such Candidates shall receive an Exhibition of Twenty Pounds per annum for the next Two Years; and the Third shall receive an Exhibition of Fifteen Pounds per annum for the next Two Years; such Exhibitions to be payable in quarterly instalments, provided that on receiving each instalment the Exhibitioner shall declare his intention of presenting himself either at the two Examinations for B.A., or at the two Examinations for B.Sc., or at the INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION in LAWS, or at the PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC and INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATIONS in MEDICINE, within Three Academical Years‡ from the time of his passing the MATRICULATION EXAMINATION.

Under the same circumstances, the Fourth among such Candidates shall receive a Prize to the value of Ten Pounds in Books, Philosophical Instruments, or Money; and the Fifth and Sixth shall each receive a Prize to the value of Five Pounds in Books, Philosophical Instruments, or Money.

Any Candidate who may obtain a place in the Honours Division at the MATRICULATION EXAMINATION in January shall be inadmissible to the INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION either in Arts or in Science in the following July.

APPENDIX.

I.

PROVINCIAL EXAMINATIONS.

THESE Examinations are appointed by the Senate from time to time, upon the application of any City, Institution, or College desiring to be named as a local centre for one or more Examinations; and are carried on simultaneously with the Examinations in London under the supervision of Sub-Examiners also appointed by the Senate.

Candidates wishing to be examined at any Provincial centre must give notice of entry (naming the centre they select, and inclosing their certificates) to the Registrar of the University of London, who will make all necessary arrangements.

* The places of Candidates in the Honours Division are determined by their respective degrees of proficiency in the subjects of the Examination taken collectively.

† Certificates are generally ready for issue about a month after the publication of the Classified List of each Examination; and, in the absence of any request to the contrary, they will be posted to the addresses given by the Candidates on their Schedules of Entry.

‡ By the term "Academical Year" is ordinarily meant the period intervening between any Examination and an Examination of a higher grade in the following year; which period may be either more or less than a Calendar year. Thus the interval between the Intermediate Examinations in Arts, Science, and Medicine, and the Degree Examinations of the next year in those Faculties respectively, is about fifteen months; whilst the interval between the B.A. Examination and the M.A. Examination of the next year, or between the B.Sc. Examination and the D.Sc. Examination of the next year, is less than eight months. Nevertheless, each of these intervals is counted as an "Academical Year."

A Fee usually varying from 1l. to 2l. is charged by the local authorities, in addition to the University Fee.

The Answers of the Candidates at the Provincial Examinations are reviewed by the Examiners at the same time with the Answers of the Candidates examined in London; and a List of the Candidates who have passed at each Provincial Examination is published, at the time fixed by the Regulations, at the place where such Examination has been held.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES FOR MATRICULATION.

1. Applications for Forms of Entry must be made to the Registrar by letter only, and not less than five weeks before the first day of the Matriculation Examination.

2. Every Candidate's Form of Entry, duly filled up, must be returned to the Registrar not less than four weeks before the commencement of the Examination, and with it, in the same cover, must be sent (a) the Candidate's Certificate of Age, and (b) his Fee for the Examination.

3. A Candidate's name will not be placed on the list of Candidates unless his Form of Entry Certificate of Age (but see 5 below) and Fee shall have been received at the University on or before the fourth Monday before the commencement of the Examination.

4. As soon as possible after the closing of the list, but not previously, each Candidate's Certificate and Fee will be acknowledged, his Certificate will be returned, and a number, by which he is to be designated throughout the Examination, will be assigned to him.

5. Candidates who have previously entered for the Examination need not produce their Certificates of Age a second time.

6. The age of a Candidate with regard to entry as reckoned up to and inclusive of the first day of the several Examinations, that day being computed to fall as late as the Regulations will allow. The two dates, in the case of the Matriculation Examinations, are January 14th and June 21st. Only such persons therefore as shall have completed their sixteenth year on or before either of those dates will be admissible to the January or the June Examination, as the case may be.

[The full marks obtainable at the Matriculation Examination are 2,500. Of these 1,900 qualify for a Prize, 1,700 for Honours, and 1,300 for the First Division. There is no fixed minimum of marks for the Second Division. No further details as to the marking at this or other Examinations can be furnished.

[The Alphabetical Pass-List will be sent, as soon as printed, to every College or School from which any Candidate (whether successful or not) has immediately proceeded to the Matriculation Examination.

[The Classified List will be sent, as soon as printed, to every College or School from which a successful Candidate has immediately proceeded. It will also be widely circulated among the leading Newspapers of the United Kingdom.

List cannot be supplied to individual Candidates or their friends.

[The Examination Papers of past Examinations are not published separately; but the papers of the previous academical year are printed in the University Calendar of the current year, which is issued annually early in April, and is to be obtained (price 4*s.*) of Messrs. Eyre and Spottiswoode, East Harding Street, E.C.]

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL, PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT—(MARINE), NOTICE TO MARINERS—No. (49).

BAY OF BENGAL.

ORISSA COAST.

Accident to Reddie Head Tripod and Spit Buoy.

THE Port Officer, False Point, telegraphs that Reddie Head Tripod and all Port boundary marks have been blown down; and that Reddie Head Spit, outer buoy, has drifted out of position about 2,000 feet westward.

A subsequent telegram intimates that the outer buoy has been replaced in position, and that anchoring mark for steamers now is Reddie Head Spit, inner buoy, with cross beacon on Reddie Head. This alteration has become necessary, as the whole Island from Point Reddie to the ballast ground is at present under water at high tide.

By direction of the Government of Bengal,

EATON W. PETLEY,
Offg. Port Officer of Calcutta.

NOTICE BY THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BENGAL.

SUPPLY BILLS.

Notice is hereby given that supply bills for sums of Rs. 500 and above in even rupees are usually obtainable on the treasuries named below at the rates of premium shewn.

Any person desiring to obtain a supply bill should send to the Bank of Bengal, Calcutta, a written application containing the following information—(1) his own name and address; (2) the name of the person to whom payment is to be made; (3) the treasury on which the bill is to be granted; and (4) the amount for which the bill is to be granted. With this application the cost of the bill (the amount plus the premium) should be paid into the Bank. If payment by telegram is desired (but this is admissible only in cases in which the name of the payee has been previously registered in the Accountant-General's office), the fact should be stated in the application, and an additional rupee paid with the cost.

The Bank of Bengal will, if the amount is available at the treasury named, receive the money tendered, and grant a receipt, returning the application therewith. The receipt and the application should then be sent to the Accountant-General's office, by which the bill will be granted.

The Bank of Bengal will be advised by the Accountant-General on the 1st and 16th of each month of the amounts available at the several treasuries, and will receive the amounts tendered by the first comers till those amounts are exhausted.

If the Bank refuses to receive any sum tendered owing to the amount not being available at the treasury, the application will be retained by the Bank and forwarded by it to the Accountant-General, who will advise the Bank and the applicant if the amount can be made available.

NOTICE.

It is hereby notified, for general information, that subscriptions to the complete series of the Indian Law Reports should be registered during the first three months of each calendar year. Subscribers are therefore requested to send in their subscriptions for the complete series before the 31st March in each year. Those who register their names after that date will understand that copies will be supplied only if available.

H. A. D. PHILLIPS,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th November 1886.

The following revised advertisement is published in substitution for that which appeared at page 1084, Part II of the Calcutta Gazette of the 9th July 1884:—

The Indian Law Reports,

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st April 1888, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

Terms of subscription payable annually in advance.

For the complete series, including postage, Rs. 22-8.

Without postage. With postage.

For the Calcutta Series	Rs. 10 0	Rs. 12 8
„ each of the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series	„ 6 0	„ 7 0

Persons desiring to subscribe for or purchase the Reports should apply to—

Superintendent, Government Press, Madras.

The Government Central Book Depot, Bombay.

„ Curator of Government Books, North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

„ Superintendent of Government Printing, Bengal.

Orders and subscriptions for 1888 should be at once registered and remitted.

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Municipal Affairs of the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the municipal limits of Calcutta and to consolidate and amend the law relating to the municipal affairs of the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889."

Short title.

And it shall come into force on the first day of April 1889.

Commencement.

But any election may be held under the provisions of this Act at any time after it shall have received the assent of the Governor-General, and such election thus held shall take effect from the first day of April 1889.

And section four hundred and sixty-one, and schedule referred to therein shall come into force from the first day of January 1889.

2. The enactments specified in the First Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof.

This repeal shall not revive any office, authority, or thing abolished by any such enactment, or affect the validity of anything done or suffered, or any right, title, obligation, or liability which may have accrued before the commencement of this Act.

And all bye-laws or rules prescribed, budgets passed, assessments, valuations, measurements, divisions, and appointments made, powers conferred, salaries fixed, and notifications published under any such enactment, and all other rules (if any) now in force and relating to the matters hereinafter dealt with, shall (so far as they are consistent with this Act) be deemed to have been respectively prescribed, passed, made, conferred, fixed and published hereunder.

And all references made to any such enactment shall, as far as may be practicable, be deemed to be made to this Act.

And all proceedings now pending, which may have been commenced under any such enactment, shall be deemed to be commenced under this Act.

In respect to all the matters aforesaid, the "Commissioners of Calcutta" under this Act shall be substituted for the "Commissioners of the Town of Calcutta."

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

Interpretation clause.

"Bazar" means any place of trade, where there is a collection of shops and warehouses, and any place where a market is held.

Whenever a separate procedure is prescribed for dealing with bustee land and the huts standing on it, by the term "Bustee land" is meant land which the owner lets out for the building of huts, in such manner that the tenant of the land is the owner of the hut: And "Hut" includes any structure erected on such land whether roofed with tiles or otherwise, and whether constructed with bricks, earth or other materials. "House" means any structure erected upon land the property of the owner of such structure, or for the use of which land the owner of the house holds a lease for not less than ten years. In the case of lands or buildings to which neither of these descriptions correctly applies, the Commissioners shall determine which of the two procedures can most equitably be applied, and shall classify the land and buildings accordingly.

When no separate procedure is prescribed, and when the contrary is not indicated by the context, "House" shall include a hut, shed or any other structure.

A "Bustee" means a plot of bustee land, not less than ten cottahs in area, bearing one number in the assessment book, or a collection of such plots adjacent to one another exceeding in the aggregate one bigha in area.

"Calcutta," subject to the inclusion or exclusion of any local area by the Local Government under section four hundred and fifty-eight, includes the area bounded as follows:—

By a line drawn along the southern and western bank of the Circular Canal from the river Hooghly to the south of Balliaghatta, till it meets the Pagladanga Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the Pagladanga Road to a point where it meets the Chingrahatta Road. Thence along the southern edge of the Chingrahatta Road to a point where it meets the South Tangor Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the South Tangor Road to a point where it meets the Topsea Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the Topsea Road to its junction with the Tiljulah Road. Thence westward to the South-Eastern Railway, then southward along the western edge of the line of the Railway, and westward along the south of the New Embankment to the Russapuglah Road, thence along the eastern edge of the Russapuglah Road to its junction with the Road leading to the Tollygunge Bridge, thence along the southern edge of this road and its continuations, the Sharpore Road, the Goragachee Road, and the Taratollah Road to Nimuck Mehal Ghât, where it joins the Hooghly. And thence along the left bank of the Hooghly to its junction with the Circular Canal.

But from this area there shall be excluded—

- (1) Fort William.
- (2) The Esplanade.
- (3) That part of Hastings north of the south edge of Clyde Row, which has hitherto been excluded from the Municipality of the Town of Calcutta.

"Carriage" means any wheeled vehicle with springs used for the conveyance of human beings and ordinarily drawn by an animal.

"Cart" means any cart, hackery, or wheeled vehicle with or without springs, not included in the definition of "carriage."

"Dépôt" means a place where bulky articles are stored, whether for sale or otherwise, in quantities exceeding fifty maunds.

"Drug" includes medicines for internal or external use.

"Market" includes any place where persons periodically assemble for the sale of meat, fish, vegetables or live-stock.

"Offensive matter" means dung, dirt, putrid or putrifying substances and filth of any kind not included in the term "sewage."

"Owner" includes—

(a) the person for the time being entitled to receive, or in receipt of, any of the rent of the house or land in respect of which the word is used;

(b) an agent of such person;

(c) a trustee for such person.

But no such agent or trustee shall be liable to do anything required by this Act to be done by the owner, nor shall he be subject to any fine for omitting to do such thing, unless he have sufficient funds in his hands as such agent or trustee to do such thing.

"Public Street" means any road, street, square, court, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, over which the public have a right of way, and also the roadway over any public bridge or causeway, and also the footway and drains attached to any such street, public bridge (other than the Hooghly bridge), or causeway within the town.

"Rubbish" means broken bricks, mortar, broken glass, kitchen or stable refuse, and refuse of any kind not included in the term "offensive matter."

"Sewage" means night-soil and other contents of privies, drains and cess-pools.

"Street" means any road, street, square, court, alley, or passage, not included in the definition of "public street."

"Railway."

"Railway" includes a tramway.

"Schedule."

"Schedule" means a schedule annexed to this Act.

"Section."

"Section" means a section of this Act.

"Slaughter-house" means any place used for the slaughter of cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or kids, for the purpose of selling the same as meat.

"The Commissioners" means the Corporation of Calcutta.

"Year."

"Year" means a year beginning on the first day of April.

CHAPTER II.

PART I.—Of the constitution of the Corporation.

4. The Commissioners of Calcutta shall consist of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and seventy-five members to be appointed or elected as hereinafter provided, and shall by the name of the "Corporation of Calcutta" be a body corporate, and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by such name shall sue and be sued.

The seventy-five members shall be male persons residing or paying rates in Calcutta, who have attained the age of twenty-one years.

5. All property, moveable and immovable, and all interests of whatsoever nature and kind therein now vested in, or held in trust for, the Commissioners of the Town of Calcutta, with all rights of whatsoever description now used, enjoyed, or possessed by the said Commissioners, and all rights and interests in immovable property situated within the area by this Act added to the town of Calcutta which are now vested in, or held in trust for, the Commissioners of the Suburbs of Calcutta, shall become vested in the Commissioners of Calcutta.

6. All moveable property and all interests of whatsoever kind therein now vested in the Commissioners of the Suburbs shall be divided by the Chairman of the Commissioners of Calcutta and the Magistrate of the 24-Pergunnahs between the Commissioners of Calcutta, the Commissioners of the North Suburban Municipality, the Commissioners of the South Suburban Municipality, and the Commissioners of such other municipality as may appear to be entitled, in such proportions as may to the Chairman and Magistrate seem fair and equitable.

If in making such division the Chairman and Magistrate disagree, or if the Commissioners of any of the Municipalities concerned are dissatisfied in any respect with the division, the point or points in issue shall be referred to the Local Government, whose decision shall be final and binding.

7. Of the said seventy-five members, fifteen shall be appointed by the Local Government as soon as may be after the declaration of the result of the elections hereinafter provided shall have been published, and such appointment shall take effect from the date from which such election takes effect.

8. Of the remaining members, fifty shall be elected as hereinafter provided by male persons residing or paying rates in Calcutta, who have attained the age of twenty-one years, and shall be qualified to elect in one of the following ways:—

(a) Being the owner and occupier of any land or house in Calcutta separately numbered and valued for assessment purposes at not less than Rs. 150 per annum.

(b) Being the owner of any land or house in Calcutta separately numbered and valued for assessment purposes at not less than Rs. 300 per annum.

(c) Being the occupier of any house in Calcutta separately numbered and valued for assessment purposes at not less than Rs. 300 per annum.

(d) Having taken out a license for the year in which the election is held under Class I, II, III or IV of the Second Schedule.

(e) Having paid on his sole account and in his own name not less than Rs. 24 either in respect of rates levied under Chapter IV or in respect of taxes under Part I and Part II of Chapter III, or in respect of both such rates and taxes for the year preceding that in which the election is held.

And ten shall be elected in accordance with rules to be made from time to time by the Local Government for the purpose of regulating the election as follows:—

four by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, four by the Calcutta Trades' Association, and two by the Commissioners for making Improvements in the Port of Calcutta.

9. A person qualified to vote under clauses (a) or (c) of section eight shall vote in the ward in which he resides or pays rates.

A person qualified under clause (b) of section eight shall vote in the ward in which the property is situated.

A person qualified under clause (e) of section eight shall vote in the ward in which he is an occupier.

A person qualified under clause (d) of section eight shall, if he pays rates direct to the Commissioners for his place of business, vote in the ward in which his place of business is situated; if he does not pay rates for any place of business direct to the Commissioners, he shall vote in the ward in which he resides.

A person claiming to vote under clauses (a) or (e) of section eight shall not be entitled to vote under any other clause, and may give two votes only in the ward in which he is entitled to vote under the last preceding section, or one vote only if only one Commissioner is to be elected.

10. A person qualified to vote under clause (b) of section eight may give two votes in each ward in which he is entitled to vote, or one vote if only one Commissioner is to be elected for that ward; as well as additional votes according to the following scale:—

If the aggregate annual value of all the premises owned by him in the ward is not less than—

Rs.
600	...	1 additional vote.
1,000	...	2 " votes.
1,500	...	3 " "
2,000	...	4 " "
2,500	...	5 " "
3,000	...	6 " "
3,500	...	7 " "
4,000	...	8 " "
4,500	...	9 " "
5,000	...	10 " "

11. A person qualified to vote under clause (c) of section eight may give two votes in each ward in which he is entitled to vote, or one vote if only one Commissioner is to be elected for that ward; as well as additional votes according to the following scale:—

If the aggregate annual value of all the houses occupied by him in the ward is not less than—

Rs.
600	...	1 additional vote.
1,000	...	2 " votes.
1,500	...	3 " "
2,000	...	4 " "
2,500	...	5 " "
3,000	...	6 " "
3,500	...	7 " "
4,000	...	8 " "
4,500	...	9 " "
5,000	...	10 " "

A person living in his own house is entitled to the votes assigned to him as owner as well as to those assigned to him as occupier.

12. A person qualified to vote under clause (d) of section eight may, if he holds a license under Class IV of the Second Schedule, give two votes for the ward in which he may be entitled to vote under this qualification; or one vote if only one Commissioner is to be elected; if he holds a license under Class III, one additional vote; if under Class II, two additional votes; if under Class I, three additional votes.

A person may give as many votes as he is entitled to under clauses (b), (c), and (d) of section eight combined, up to a maximum of ten additional votes in any one ward, but under no circumstances shall any person give more than twelve votes in any one ward, or eleven votes when there is only one Commissioner to be elected.

13. In sections nine, ten, eleven and twelve the word "person" includes a Hindu joint family, a company, firm, or other association of persons who may be registered as the owners of any house or land, or as the occupiers of any house under clauses (b) and (c) of section eight or may be stated in any license to be the holders thereof. Votes under clauses (a) and (e) of section eight can only be claimed by a single individual paying the rates or taxes in his own name.

14. Any person qualified to vote under any of the preceding sections shall, subject to the provisions of section thirty-two, be qualified to be elected a Commissioner for any ward in Calcutta:

Provided that his candidature is duly announced, and his name duly proposed, seconded and approved in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided also that no officer of the Corporation while in office shall be eligible for election.

15. For the purpose of the election of Commissioners, the town shall be divided into twenty-five wards, the boundaries of which are defined in the Third Schedule. The electors of each of the twenty-five wards may elect two Commissioners.

Every person qualified to vote may give all the votes to which he is entitled in any ward to any candidate in such ward or may distribute them amongst the candidates in such manner as he thinks fit.

The Local Government may, at any time, on the recommendation of the Commissioners in meeting, by a notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, alter the boundaries of any ward as defined in the said schedule.

16. If the electors of any ward shall elect but one Commissioner, or shall elect, Local Government may appoint not elect any Commissioner, the Local Government shall appoint, in the former case, one Commissioner, and in the latter case, two Commissioners.

17. If any person is elected a Commissioner for more than one ward, he shall, within five days from the date of the election, declare for which ward he will serve; and if he fails to make such declaration, the Chairman shall forthwith declare the ward for which such person shall serve; and in either case such person shall be held to be elected in the ward in respect of which either of such declarations has been made; and thereupon the electors of the other ward or wards in which such person has been elected shall proceed to elect a Commissioner in the manner hereinafter provided.

18. Whenever an equal number of votes is given to two or more candidates at any election under this Act, the candidate for whom the greatest number of rate-payers have voted shall be held to be elected; and in case of an equality of votes in this respect, the Chairman shall give a casting vote, and the candidate to whom such vote is given shall be held to be elected.

19. The first election under this Act shall take place at the end of the year 1888-89, so that the result of the election may be declared on or before the 31st day of March, and the election shall take effect from the 1st day of April 1889.

All subsequent general elections shall be held at intervals of three years, and shall take effect from the 1st day of April in the calendar year in which they are so held.

The votes at all elections shall be given personally at the polling stations.

The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules not being inconsistent with this Act for the purpose of regulating all matters connected with elections, and may direct that voting at elections shall be by ballot, and may from time to time cancel or modify any rules so made.

The Local Government may declare the penalties which shall be incurred by the breach of any such rules:

Provided that no higher penalty than a fine of Rs. 200 shall be incurred by the breach of any such rules.

The expenses incurred in respect of all elections under this Act shall be paid out of the funds of the Corporation, and the result of all such elections shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

20. The Chairman shall cause to be prepared from the registers in his office a list of all the Persons qualified to vote under classes (b), (c), and (d) of section eight, and of the number of votes to which they are respectively entitled, and shall publish such list at the Municipal office and at such other places as he may think fit, or as the Commissioners in meeting may direct, not less than sixty days before the date fixed for each general election, and such list shall be obtainable on payment of a fee not exceeding eight annas.

21. Any person qualified under clauses (a) or (e) of section eight may, within fifteen days after the publication of the list of voters, apply to the Chairman to have his name added thereto.

Any person whose name does not appear in the list, and who claims the right of voting under clauses (b), (c) or (d) of section eight may, within fifteen days of the publication thereof, apply to the Chairman to have his name added to the list or substituted for any name on the list.

Any person claiming more votes than are allotted to him in the list may, within fifteen days after the publication thereof, apply to have more votes allotted to him, or to have votes allotted to any other person transferred to him:

Provided that no claim to vote as an owner under clause (b) of section eight shall be entertained unless the name of the claimant is registered as such under section one hundred and twenty-eight, and no claim to vote as an occupier under clause (c) of section eight shall be entertained unless the name of the claimant is registered as such under section one hundred and twenty-eight or unless he can satisfy the Chairman that he has paid the rates as occupier for the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the claim is preferred.

No claim to vote under clause (d) of section eight shall be entertained unless the license is taken out in the name of the claimant.

Any person who considers that any name in the list of voters prepared under section twenty ought to be omitted, or that the votes allotted to any person ought to be reduced, may, within fifteen days after the publication of the list, apply to have such name omitted or the number of votes reduced as the case may be.

22. All applications for the revision of the list under the last preceding section shall be considered and decided by the Chairman with all reasonable despatch, and not less than fifteen days before the date of the election, the Chairman shall publish a revised list in the same manner as the original list containing all the alterations or amendments made by his order or by order of the Magistrate under the next succeeding section in such original list.

23. Any person whose application under section twenty-one has been refused may, within eight days after such refusal, apply to a Presidency Magistrate for an order to have his name inserted in, or a name omitted from, or the number of votes allotted to any person altered in, the list of voters, and such Magistrate shall, after enquiry, make such order as to the insertion or omission of the name or as to the alteration of the number of votes allotted to any person as appears to him to be just; and the Chairman shall, upon receipt of a copy of such order, give effect to the same, and such order shall be final and binding.

The list thus prepared and amended shall remain valid for all bye-elections under section thirty-three during the interval of three years, and such list shall be obtainable on payment of a fee not exceeding eight annas:

Provided that at any time any person whose name is not in the list may apply to the Chairman to enter his name therein, and sections twenty-two and twenty-three shall be held applicable to such claim.

And if such application is made not less than fifteen days before an election under section thirty-three, it shall be decided in time for such election, but not otherwise.

24. The Chairman shall, not less than thirty days before the date of election, send a letter to every Hindu joint-family, company, firm and other association of persons entitled to votes requesting them to fill in a form, which shall accompany such letter, with the name of the person authorized to vote on behalf of such Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons, and to return the same within seven days. Upon receipt of the form, the Chairman shall cause the name stated therein to be entered in the revised list published under section twenty-two, and the person whose name is thus entered in the revised list shall be deemed to be duly authorized to vote on behalf of the Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons which caused his name to be entered in the form until the contrary is proved.

25. If the members of any Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons cannot agree amongst themselves as to who shall give the votes to which they are entitled, they may at any time, not less than five days before the date fixed for the publication of the revised list, apply to the Chairman to decide, and his decision shall be final and binding so far as regards the right of voting at the forthcoming election, but shall have no other effect as regards the respective rights of the members of such Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons.

26. No vote shall be given by the Secretary of State for India in Council, the Government of India or the Local Government as owner or occupier of any house or land.

27. The Chairman may, with the sanction of the Commissioners in meeting, delegate to the Vice-Chairman or any officer of the Corporation appointed under section forty-one the duty of receiving and disposing of applications under section twenty-one or twenty-five, and the decisions of such officer in all cases made over to him by the Chairman shall have the same effect as if given by the Chairman.

28. The Commissioners in meeting may appoint a suitable person to perform all or any of the duties assigned to the Chairman under sections twenty-one and twenty-five.

Commissioners may appoint a person to act for the Chairman under sections twenty-one and twenty-five.

appoint such person to assist the Chairman in carrying out all or any of those duties, and the decision of such person shall have the same effect as if given by the Chairman. The Commissioners in meeting may assign to such person such remuneration as may seem to them reasonable.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners in meeting under this section shall be subject to the confirmation of the Local Government.

29. No election shall be deemed to be invalid or shall be in any way affected by reason of the name of any person qualified to vote being omitted from the list of voters, or by reason of the name of any person not qualified to vote being inserted therein, and no election shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of any failure to observe the dates hereinbefore prescribed or to comply with any rule made by the Local Government under section nineteen.

30. The Commissioners shall be appointed or elected, as the case may be, for a term of three years; at the expiration of that time they shall cease to be Commissioners, but may be re-appointed or re-elected.

31. The general elections shall be held on some convenient day to be fixed by the Local Government not earlier than the first nor later than the fifteenth day of March, unless the Local Government shall, for some especial reason, on the recommendation of the Commissioners in meeting, fix some other day.

Every person who is a candidate for election shall send in his name to the Chairman in writing not less than seven days before the day fixed for the election, together with the names of two electors in each ward in which he proposes to stand who propose and second his candidature, and eight electors in each such ward who approve his nomination, and shall state the ward or wards for which he proposes to stand. The Chairman shall publish a list of all candidates at the Municipal Office not less than three days before the day fixed for election. In the event of there being not more than two candidates for election in any ward, such candidate or candidates shall be deemed to be elected. In the event of there being more than two candidates, a poll shall take place in accordance with the rules made by the Local Government under section nineteen.

32. No person shall be qualified for election or shall continue to be a Commissioner who

- (a) is an uncertificated bankrupt or an undischarged insolvent: or
- (b) has been sentenced to rigorous imprisonment, or to simple imprisonment for six months or upwards, such sentence not having been set aside on appeal: or
- (c) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract made with the Commissioners in accordance with the second clause of section sixty-two:

Provided that no candidate or Commissioner shall be disqualified by reason only of his having a share or interest in—

- (a) a contract entered into between the Commissioners and any incorporated or registered company of which such candidate or Commissioner is a member or shareholder;

- (b) any lease, sale or purchase of land or any agreement for the same;
- (c) any agreement for the loan of money or any security for the payment of money; or
- (d) any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the Corporation is inserted.

But no Commissioner shall vote or take any part in any proceedings relating to any matter in which he is interested.

No Commissioner who shall be absent from Calcutta for six consecutive months shall continue in office as a Commissioner.

33. In case of the death, resignation or disqualification of any Commissioner, a person shall forthwith be appointed or elected in his stead in the manner hereinbefore provided, and such person shall remain a Commissioner for the residue only of the term for which the Commissioner in whose stead he was appointed or elected was originally appointed or elected:

Provided that no act of the Commissioners, their officers, or of the Commissioners in meeting, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that the number of the Commissioners at the time did not amount to seventy-five;

or that a disqualified person has continued to act as a Commissioner;

or that any Commissioner has taken part in any proceedings in contravention of the provisions of section thirty-two.

34. Whoever, being qualified to vote or claiming to be qualified to vote at any election under this Act, accepts or obtains, or agrees to accept, or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person, any gratification whatever as a motive or reward for giving or forbearing to give his vote in any such election, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence, and shall for seven years from the date of his conviction of such offence be disqualified from voting at any such election, and from being elected a Commissioner.

And whoever by any gift or reward, or by any promise or agreement, or security for any gift or reward corrupts or procures, or offers to corrupt or procure, any person to give or forbear to give his vote in any such election, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500 for every such offence, and shall for seven years be disqualified from voting at any such election and from being elected a Commissioner.

35. All property vested in the Commissioners and all funds received or raised by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the purposes expressly authorised by this Act.

36. The purposes expressly authorised by this Act shall be held to include the objects connected with the public safety, health, Improper omission or insertion of name in the list not to affect an election.

instruction and convenience hereinafter specified, that it is to say:—

- (1) Payment of the whole or any portion of the cost of the Fire-brigade for the extinction of fires in Calcutta.
- (2) Provision for lighting the public streets, places, and buildings, and for the securing or removal of dangerous places, buildings, and trades.
- (3) Defraying the cost of the construction and maintenance of hospitals and of charges of vaccination, registration of births, deaths, and marriages, and taking a census.
- (4) Construction and maintenance of public markets, slaughter-houses, and places specified in section three hundred and forty-five, latrines, privies, buildings for the deposit or discharge of night-soil, urinals, drains, sewers, drainage-works, water-works, wash-houses, public bathing places, drinking fountains, tanks, wells, squares and gardens, reclamation of unhealthy localities, and the like.
- (5) Watering the streets and cleansing the streets and sewers, scavenging, removal and disposal of offensive matter and noxious vegetation, and generally the abatement of all nuisances.
- (6) Regulation of offensive trades, of burial and burning grounds, and the removal of, and providing sites for, the same.
- (7) Construction, adornment, maintenance and alteration of streets, bridges, causeways, culverts and the like; regulation of buildings, naming streets and numbering houses, planting trees and removal of obstructions and projections.
- (8) Construction, adornment, and maintenance of public halls, offices and other buildings under the control of the Commissioners or required for municipal purposes.
- (9) Maintenance of establishments and cost of printing and stationery.
- (10) Survey of houses and land and preparation of plans.
- (11) Contribution to the cost incurred on the occasion of any public ceremony or entertainment in Calcutta.
- (12) Promotion of primary and technical education.
- (13) Contribution to any neighbouring municipality for sanitary purposes.
- (14) Provision of free libraries:

Provided that no expense shall be incurred under clause (11) without the previous sanction of the Local Government.

And generally all objects connected with the public safety, health, and convenience.

PART II.—Of the duties of the Corporation.

37. It shall be the duty of the Commissioners and they are hereby required to—

Duties of Commissioners.

- (1) provide for the payment of the interest on the municipal debt in the manner prescribed by sections four hundred and seven and four hundred and eight;

- (2) provide for the establishment of a reserve fund in the manner prescribed by the said sections, or for the annual repayment required by section four hundred and eleven;
- (3) complete and extend throughout Calcutta drainage works and open out and improve bustees, and for these purposes to expend annually a sum, being not less than two lakhs of rupees, or, with the sanction of the Local Government, any sum less than the above amount to be raised as provided by section four hundred and four;
- (4) maintain a water-supply in the manner and to the extent mentioned in Chapter VII;
- (5) make adequate and suitable provision for each of the following matters:—
 - (a) the cleaning and the conservancy of Calcutta;
 - (b) the maintenance and cleaning of drains and drainage works;
 - (c) the construction and maintenance of public latrines, urinals and similar conveniences;
 - (d) the regulation of slaughter-houses and of offensive and dangerous trades;
 - (e) the regulation of markets;
 - (f) the lighting, watering and maintenance of the public streets;
 - (g) the registration of births and deaths;
 - (h) the preventing or checking the spread of dangerous diseases;
 - (i) the naming of streets and the numbering of premises;
 - (j) the regulation of new streets and buildings;
 - (k) the abatement of nuisances in the manner provided by Chapter XII;
- (6) exercise the control over tramways with which they are vested by Bengal Act I of 1880.
- (7) devote to the improvement of the area newly added to Calcutta by this Act not less than three lakhs of rupees annually from the receipts of the revenue funds described in sections one hundred and two, one hundred and three, and one hundred and five: Provided that the instalments of interest and reserve fund payable on any capital sum expended under clauses (3), (4) and (5) of this section for the improvement of that area shall be taken as part of the three lakhs of rupees.

38. Upon complaint made to the Local Government that the Commissioners have made general default in the performance of any of the duties referred

duty is not performed within the time limited in the order, the Local Government may appoint some person to perform the same, and may direct that a reasonable remuneration to the person so appointed, the amount whereof is to be specified, and also the expenses of performing such duty, shall be paid by the Commissioners out of the moneys levied by them under this Act. Any person appointed under this section to perform any duty of the Commissioners shall, in the performance and for the purposes of such duty, be invested with all the powers of the Commissioners:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may, within thirty days from the receipt of any order made under this section by the Local Government, transmit through the Local Government a petition of appeal to the Governor-General in Council praying that such order may be set aside, and upon the receipt of such petition of appeal by the Local Government no further action shall be taken by the Local Government without the orders of the Governor-General in Council.

PART III.—Of the Officers of the Corporation.

39. The Local Government shall from time to time appoint a proper person to be Chairman of the Commissioners, who shall reside within the limits of Calcutta.

Appointment and removal of Chairman of the Commissioners.

Such Chairman may be removed from office by the Local Government at its discretion, and shall be so removed if his removal be recommended by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at a special meeting shall have voted, but not otherwise.

40. The Commissioners, at a special meeting to be held for that purpose, may from time to time appoint, for such period as they may think fit, a proper person to be Vice-Chairman of the Commissioners.

Appointment of Vice-Chairman.

Such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

41. The Commissioners may, at a special meeting from time to time, appoint proper persons for such period as they may think fit, to the several offices of Secretary, of Engineer, of Surveyor, of Health Officer, of Collector and of Assessor for the municipality, or may appoint a proper person to two or more of such appointments, or to one.

Every person so appointed, and also the Vice-Chairman, shall reside within the limits of Calcutta, and shall be under the orders of the Chairman, and shall perform such duties as shall be assigned by him, and may be removed by the Commissioners by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at a special meeting shall have voted, and another person may be appointed in his place.

This section shall, except as regards residence, apply to any other officer, the initial salary of whose appointment shall be fixed at five hundred rupees or upwards.

All appointments and resolutions under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

42. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall Chairman and Vice-Chairman not to engage in any profession or trade.

devote their whole time to the duties of their respective offices; and no Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall have, or engage in, any other profession, trade, or business whatsoever: Provided that—

(a) Any Civil or Military Officer in the service of the Government may hold the office of Chairman or Vice-Chairman, so long as such officer shall fill no other appointment than one of those specified in this section.

(b) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively may hold the office of Commissioner as interpreted in section one of Bengal Act No: V of 1870 (to appoint Commissioners for making Improvements in the Port of Calcutta).

(c) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively may also be members of the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for making Laws and Regulations.

(d) The Vice-Chairman may, with the sanction of the Local Government, be appointed to, and may hold, any other office in the employ of the Commissioners to which he may be appointed at a special meeting.

43. The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman

Allowances of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

respectively may receive such allowances as shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Commissioners at a special meeting.

Such allowance shall be—

(a) for the Chairman not more than three thousand or less than two thousand five hundred rupees a month (exclusive of house-rent, which may or may not, in the discretion of the Commissioners, be allowed):

(b) for the Vice-Chairman not more than fifteen hundred rupees a month.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

44. Every officer appointed under section

forty-one may receive such allowance as shall be from time to time fixed by the Commissioners at a special meeting.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

45. The Chairman may, from time to time,

Appointment and remuneration of Subordinate Officers and Servants.

appoint all such Subordinate Officers and servants, other than those referred to in section forty-one, as he shall think necessary and proper to assist in carrying out this Act, and may from time to time remove any of such persons and appoint another in his place;

and may pay such allowances to such persons respectively, or in case of absence on leave, such portion thereof as he shall think reasonable:

Provided that the allowances in respect of the offices filled by such persons shall have been included in the budget as passed by the Commissioners in meeting, under section seventy-one, or shall have been subsequently sanctioned by them, and that the total amount paid to an absentee and the person appointed to act for him shall not exceed the allowance sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting except upon a resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting.

But no person shall be appointed to, or removed from, any office, the monthly salary of which exceeds Rs. 200, without the sanction of the Commissioners in meeting. And the Commissioners in meeting may authorize the Chairman to nominate not more than three of the candidates for any such appointment as is referred to in this clause, and the Commissioners in meeting shall, upon such nomination being made, appoint one of the persons so nominated and no other.

46. Any person appointed to any office under section forty-one or the last preceding section may be suspended or fined by the authority by which he may be removed subject to approval or sanction of the authority (if any) empowered by this Act to approve or sanction such removal.

47. The Commissioners in meeting may, with the sanction of the Local Government, grant such leave of absence to the Chairman or any officer appointed under sections forty and forty-one, and may, if such officer be other than the Chairman, make such arrangements for carrying on the duties of his office during his absence on leave as shall to them seem proper.

In any case in which leave of absence shall be granted to the Chairman, the Local Government shall appoint one of the Commissioners to act as Chairman in his place, or shall make such other arrangements for carrying on the duties of the office as to it shall seem proper.

Any person appointed under this section to act for the Chairman or any other officer shall, while so acting, have all the powers and be liable to all the restrictions, limitations, and provisions, which the Chairman or other officer for whom he may be appointed to act would, under this Act, have or be liable to.

48. In any case in which leave of absence shall be granted under the last preceding section, such allowance shall be paid to the absentee, and such deputation allowance to the officer appointed to act for him as may be prescribed by rules, passed by the Commissioners in meeting under the next succeeding section. In special cases in which a departure from the rules seems requisite, the allowances must be sanctioned by a resolution of the Commissioners in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at the meeting shall have voted.

49. The Commissioners in meeting may, by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at such meeting shall have voted from time to time, make rules for absentees and deputation allowances, for granting pensions and gratuities to their officers and Provident or Annuity Fund, and for compelling all or any of the servants of the Corporation to contribute thereto, and may repeal, alter or add to such rules. No rule, and no repeal, or alteration of, or addition to, any rule, shall have effect until the same has been confirmed by the Local Government and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, in accordance with such rules for the time being in force, grant such pensions or gratuities to any of their officers or servants as to the Commissioners may seem fit.

50. No Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or other officer or servant of the Commissioners, shall be interested directly, or indirectly, in any contract made with the Commissioners, and if any such person be so interested, he shall become incapable of continuing in office or in employment as such Chairman, Vice-Chairman, or other officer or servant, and shall forfeit and pay the sum of Rs. 500, which may be recovered by suit brought by or on behalf of the Commissioners:

Provided that no such officer or servant shall, by reason of being a shareholder in, or a member of, any incorporated or registered company, be deemed interested in any contract entered into between such company and the Commissioners, or shall be precluded from tendering for any municipal loan or from holding municipal debentures.

51. Every Commissioner and every municipal officer and servant appointed under this Act, and every contractor or agent for the collection of any municipal tax, and every servant or other person employed by any such contractor or agent shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section twenty-one of the Indian Penal Code.

PART IV.—Of the mode of transacting business and entering into Contracts.

52. The Commissioners shall meet ordinarily not less than once a month for the transaction of business, and the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon a requisition made in writing by any ten Commissioners, call a special meeting of the Commissioners.

53. Four days' notice shall be given by advertisement in at least two of the daily newspapers published in Calcutta of the date fixed for every ordinary or special meeting and of the business to be transacted at such meeting, and a list of the business to be transacted at any meeting shall be sent to the address of every Commissioner resident in Calcutta, so that it may be in his hands forty-eight hours before the time fixed for such meeting; and no business shall be brought before, or transacted at, any meeting other than the business of which notice has been given:

Provided that any Commissioner may submit to a meeting any resolution beyond the matters mentioned in the notice given of such meeting, if he shall have given not less tention so to do, by leaving a copy of the resolution at the office of the Commissioners.

54. All acts authorized or required to be done by the Commissioners, and all questions which may come before them for decision, shall, save as is herein otherwise provided, be done, and decided by, a majority of the Commissioners voting at the meeting before which the matter may be brought.

55. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall attend all meetings of the Commissioners held under this Act, unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause; and the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at every such meeting, and shall have a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.

In the absence of both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, the Commissioners present at any meeting shall choose some one of their number to preside, who shall, in case of equality of votes, have a second or casting vote.

The President of any meeting at which a quorum of the Commissioners shall be present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place.

56. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of eighteen Commissioners be present at such meeting:

Provided that, if at any meeting there shall not be a sufficient number of Commissioners present to form a quorum as above mentioned, the President (whether he be the Chairman or not) shall adjourn the meeting to such convenient time and place as he shall think fit; and the business which should have been brought before the original meeting, had there been a quorum present, shall be brought before and disposed of by the adjourned meeting in the usual manner, at which a quorum of ten Commissioners shall suffice.

57. Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings shall be drawn up and fairly entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be signed by the President after each meeting; and the said minutes shall, at all reasonable times, be open at the office of the Commissioners to the inspection of any Commissioner without charge, and of any other person on payment of a fee of eight annas.

All meetings, the minutes of the proceedings of which have been duly signed by the President, shall be taken to have been duly convened and to be free from all defect and irregularity.

58. At any meeting, unless a poll be demanded by at least five Commissioners, a declaration by the President that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

59. If a poll be demanded as in the last preceding section mentioned, the votes of all the Commissioners present who desire to vote shall be taken under the direction of the President, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Commissioners at such meeting:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may, subject to such rules as may be framed by them under section sixty-eight, resolve that any question or class of questions shall be decided by ballot.

60. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall, except upon such holidays as shall be allowed by the Government, and unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, attend daily at the office of the Commissioners for the transaction of business connected with or arising under this Act.

61. The Chairman may exercise all the powers vested by this Act in the Commissioners:

Provided that he shall not exercise any power which by this Act is directed to be exercised only by the Commissioners in meeting. Nor shall he act in opposition to, or in contravention of, any orders passed by the Commissioners at a meeting; and if any order passed by him under the authority vested in the Commissioners is brought before a meeting of the Commissioners and modified or disapproved of by them, the Chairman shall, as far as possible, modify or cancel such order so as to bring it into conformity with the order of the Commissioners in meeting.

The Vice-Chairman may exercise the same authority as the Chairman on behalf of the Commissioners subject to his general direction and control.

All powers which may lawfully be exercised by the Chairman shall be deemed to have been exercised by him if exercised by any subordinate officer acting in the execution of the duties assigned to him by the Chairman.

62. The Commissioners may enter into and perform all such contracts as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

Every contract made by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman on behalf of the Commissioners the subject-matter of which exceeds Rs. 1,000 in value, shall be in writing, and signed by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and two other Commissioners, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Commissioners, and no such contract, unless made in accordance with a vote of the Commissioners in meeting, shall be concluded without inviting tenders thereon and without the approval of a Committee of the Commissioners.

Unless so executed, it shall not be binding on the Commissioners.

The Commissioners in meeting, or any Committee of the Commissioners, may compound with any contractor or other person in respect of any penalty or damages incurred by reason of the non-performance of any contract entered into as aforesaid, whether such penalty be mentioned in any such contract or otherwise, for such sums of money or other recompense as to the Commissioners may seem proper.

Every contract involving an expenditure exceeding Rs. 1,00,000 shall require the sanction of the Local Government.

63. As soon as may be, and not later than the first day of June, in each year, the Commissioners in meeting shall proceed to appoint a General Committee for the year, the members of which shall, provided that they are Commissioners, hold office till the election and appointment of their successors.

The General Committee shall consist of eighteen Commissioners, of whom twelve shall be elected, in such manner as the Commissioners in meeting may direct, by the Commissioners elected under the first clause of section eight.

And six shall be elected in accordance with such rules as the Local Government may prescribe, by the Commissioners nominated under section seven, and elected under the last clause of section eight.

64. The General Committee shall ordinarily meet once a week for the transaction of business. It shall be the Budget and Finance Committee of the Corporation, and shall also transact such other business as may be expressly referred to it by the Corporation, or as may not be referred to any other standing or special Committee.

The proceedings of the General Committee shall be submitted to the Commissioners in meeting, and the General Committee shall be bound by any resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting:

Provided that when the Chairman and the majority of the General Committee are in accord, and inconvenience is likely to result from delay, it shall not be necessary before action is taken to wait for the confirmation of the Commissioners in meeting, but if the Commissioners in meeting do not confirm the action of the General Committee, such steps shall be taken to carry out the orders of the Commissioners as may still be practicable.

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be ex-officio members of the General Committee, and the Chairman, or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside at its meetings.

In the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, the members present shall choose one of their number to preside.

65. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, appoint from among the Commissioners such other Committees, either standing or special, and consisting of so many members as they may think fit, for the purpose of enquiring into and reporting upon any matter connected with the conservancy or improvement of Calcutta not assigned by this Act, or by the vote of the Commissioners in meeting to the General Committee, or for the purpose of advising or aiding the Chairman or Vice-Chairman in the discharge of any portion of the duties exercisable by them, under section sixty-one which, in the discretion of the Commissioners, would be better regulated or managed with the aid of such Committee:

Provided that the Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be a member of every standing Committee.

66. The proceedings of every Committee, other than the General Committee, shall be submitted to the Commissioners in meeting:

and the Committee shall be bound by any resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting:

Provided that when the Chairman and the majority of the Committee are in accord, and inconvenience is likely to result from delay, it shall not be necessary before action is taken to wait for the confirmation of the Commissioners in meeting; but if the Commissioners in meeting do not confirm the action of the Committee, such steps shall be taken to carry out the orders of the Commissioners as may still be practicable:

Provided that if the Commissioners in meeting when appointing a Committee expressly prohibit any action being taken until the decision of the Committee has been confirmed in general meeting, no action shall under any circumstances be taken prior to such confirmation.

67. The General Committee or any other Committee may, subject to the control of the Commissioners in meeting, appoint such Sub-Committees as they may think fit, and make over to them such of their duties and functions as they may deem proper.

No defect in the constitution of, or the proceedings at any Committee meeting or Sub-Committee meeting, shall be held to invalidate such proceedings after they have been confirmed by the Commissioners in meeting.

68. The Commissioners in meeting may frame rules not inconsistent with this Act for the conduct of business at their meetings, and also for the conduct of business at meetings of the General Committee and other Committees.

PART V.—Of the Estimates of Income, Expenditure, and Audit.

69. At a general meeting to be held in the month of February in each year, the Chairman shall lay before the Commissioners a budget or estimate, prepared by him, of the income and expenditure of the Commissioners for the year commencing on the first day of April then next succeeding, in such detail and form as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time direct.

Such budget shall be completed and printed, and a copy thereof, as far as may be practicable, sent by post or otherwise to each of the Commissioners resident within twenty miles of Government House, at least three days prior to the meeting before which the budget is to be laid.

70. The budget shall show what expenditure it is proposed to incur during the period to which it relates, and the manner in which it is proposed to meet such expenditure:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall preclude the Commissioners in meeting from sanctioning expenditure not provided for in the budget.

Such budget shall be referred to the General Committee for consideration with such instructions as the Commissioners in meeting may think fit to pass when making such reference. The General Committee shall consider such budget, modify it at its discretion, and report upon it in time for consideration at the meeting to be held for fixing the rates under the provisions of the next succeeding section.

71. The Commissioners in a meeting to be held during the month of March shall consider the budget as modified by the General Committee, and shall pass it subject to such further modifications or additions as may be thought fit. The Commissioners shall thereupon at the same meeting, or, if such meeting be adjourned, at such adjourned meeting, fix, with reference to the budget as passed, the rates at which the rates and taxes hereinafter mentioned shall be imposed for the year commencing on the first day of April next ensuing, and the rates so fixed shall not be altered before the special meeting held in the next succeeding month of March, except by a resolution of the Commissioners passed at a special meeting.

No new work or series of works, the entire estimated cost of which amounts to Rs. 1,00,000, shall be commenced (though included and passed in the budget) without the sanction of the Local Government.

72. The accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Commissioners shall be audited and examined at least once in every year at such time and by such auditors as shall, from time to time, be appointed by the Local Government.

73. For the purposes of any audit and examination of accounts under this Act, the auditors may by summons in writing, require the production before them of all books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, and all other documents and papers which they may deem necessary, and may require any person holding or accountable for any such books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers, to appear before them at any such audit and examination, or adjournment thereof, and to make and sign a declaration with respect to the same.

74. Any person who, when duly required so to do by any auditor of accounts under the last preceding section, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such auditor, or to produce any books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers, or to make or sign a declaration with respect to the same, or to answer any question or prepare and submit any statement, shall be liable for every neglect or refusal, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 70 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

75. All auditors acting under this Act shall, in respect of each audit, be paid such reasonable remuneration as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time determine.

76. Before each audit and examination of accounts, the Commissioners shall give ten days' notice of the time and place at which the same will be made by advertisement in at least two of the daily newspapers published in Calcutta; and a copy of the accounts to be audited and examined shall be deposited in the office of the Commissioners and be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of all persons interested for seven days before the audit and examination, and all such persons shall be at liberty to take copies of or extracts from, the same, without the payment of any fee, and within fourteen days after the audit and examination shall have been completed, the auditors shall report upon the accounts audited and examined, and shall deliver such report to the Commissioners at a meeting, who shall cause the same to be deposited in the office of the Commissioners, and to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

CHAPTER III.

OF TAXES.

PART I.—Of the Tax on Carriages and Animals.

77. A tax at a rate not exceeding the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule shall be imposed upon all carriages and draught animals or animals used for riding kept in Calcutta, and shall be payable in advance. But it shall not be imposed on—

- (a) any animal which any person exempted from the operation of any municipal tax by an order issued under section three of Act XI of 1881, is bound, by the regulation of the service to which he belongs, to keep;
- (b) animals exempt from any municipal tax under section twenty-five of Act XX of 1869;
- (c) carriages or animals belonging to the Government or to the Corporation;
- (d) carriages none of the wheels of which exceed twenty-four inches in diameter;
- (e) carriages kept for sale by bond fide dealers in such carriages and not used for any other purpose;
- (f) carriages or animals certified by the Chairman of the Corporation or by the Commissioner of Police respectively to be used by the owner thereof for municipal or police purposes;
- (g) tramcars and animals employed in working street tramways.

78. The owner or the person in charge of a carriage or animal liable to a tax under the last preceding section, shall, before the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, forward to the office of the Commissioners a statement in writing signed by him, containing a description of the carriages and animals owned by him or in his charge liable to the tax.

Such person shall at the same time pay to the Commissioners such sum as shall be payable by him for the half-year commencing on the first day of April or October (as the case may be) for the carriages and animals specified in such statement, according to the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

Any person who becomes the owner or takes charge between the first day of April and the first day of October, or between the first day of October and the first day of April, of any carriage or animal shall, within a week of his becoming owner or taking charge, send to the office of the Commissioners a similar statement together with the amount payable for the whole of the then current half-year, according to the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

The Commissioners may, if they are satisfied that any such carriage has not been used within the half-year, or that any such carriage or animal has been kept for only a portion of the then current half-year, refund, or remit, the whole, or such portion thereof as they may think fit, of the amount so payable.

For the purposes of this section, a livery stable-keeper shall be deemed to be the owner or to be in charge of every animal in his stables.

79. Whenever any person shall pay to the Commissioners the amount of the tax which shall be payable by him in respect of all carriages and animals kept in Calcutta, the Commissioners shall grant to such person a license to keep such carriages and animals during the current half-year ending upon the thirtieth day of September or the thirty-first day of March next after the grant of such license, and no longer.

A license may at any time be granted for any previous half-year for which no license has been taken out on payment of the amount due for that half-year.

80. Whoever owns, or is in charge of, any carriage or animal without the required license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, and not being less than one and a half times such amount. And such fine shall, when levied, be taken in full satisfaction of the demand on account of such license.

81. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with livery stable-keepers and other persons keeping carriages for hire, or animals for sale or hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages or animals so kept by such persons in lieu of the taxes prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

82. The provisions of section eighty shall apply to any person who, having compounded for the payment of a certain sum under the last preceding section, refuses or neglects to pay such sum; the amount due for a license being taken as the amount thus compounded for.

83. The Commissioners may, by a notice in writing, require any person who shall carry on the trade or business of a livery stable-keeper to produce, for the inspection of the Commissioners, or of any officer authorized by them in that behalf, all books and accounts relating to such trade or business.

84. The Commissioners may, at any time between sunrise and sunset, enter and inspect any stable or coach-house or any place wherein they may have reason to believe that there is any carriage or animal liable to taxation;

and if the Commissioners at any time find any carriage or animal in respect of which no license has been obtained, the Commissioners may, if the owner or person in charge of such carriage or animal is unknown, by a written order authorize any of their subordinate officers to take possession of such carriage or animal, and the Commissioners shall make such order as they think fit respecting the custody thereof.

85. If any person within one month establishes his claim to the possession of such carriage or animal, the Commissioners shall order it to be delivered to him on payment of the tax due, together with such costs as the Commissioners may have reasonably incurred in taking possession of, and keeping, the same. If no person within such period satisfies the Commissioners that he is entitled to such carriage or animal, it may be sold for the recovery of the tax and costs aforesaid; and if any person whose carriage or animal has been sold establishes his claim to the net proceeds of such sale, the Commissioners shall order the proceeds of such sale, less the tax due and all costs incurred in consequence of the seizure and sale, to be delivered to such person.

86. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, cause to be prepared and entered in distinct columns in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners and to be open to the inspection of any person who shall apply for leave to inspect the same, a list of the persons to whom during the then current period of six months a license has been granted under section seventy-nine and of the carriages and animals in respect of which the same has been granted.

PART II.—Of the tax on Professions, Trades, and Callings.

87. Every person who shall exercise in Calcutta any of the professions, trades or callings prescribed in the Second Schedule, shall annually take out a license, and shall pay for the same such sum as is in the Second Schedule mentioned.

The Commissioners may in their discretion remit, or refund, any portion of the sum so payable if they are satisfied that any such person has exercised any such profession, trade, or calling for a portion of the year only.

They may also reduce any person from a higher to a lower class, or exempt any person altogether on the ground of his inability to take out such license.

88. The license mentioned in the last preceding section shall be granted by the Commissioners, and shall specify—

- (a) the date of the grant thereof,
- (b) the name of the person to whom the license is granted,
- (c) the profession, trade or calling, and if the license is a local license the place of business in respect of which it is granted, and the sum paid for such license.

Such license shall have effect and continue in force from the commencement of the year on account of which it is granted until the thirty-first day of March of that year.

89. The liability of any person to take out a license, and the class under which he shall be deemed bound to take out such license, shall be determined in accordance with the procedure laid down in rule (7) of the Second Schedule.

90. Whoever exercises any trade, profession, or calling without the license required by section eighty-seven on or after the first day of July in any year, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, and not being less than one and a half times such amount. And such fine shall, when levied, be taken in full satisfaction of the demand on account of such license.

91. The Commissioners may, by a notice in writing, require the occupier of any house to forward to them within seven days a list, signed by him, of the names of all male persons residing or carrying on any trade, profession, on calling, in such house, and of their respective professions, trades, and occupations.

92. Whoever, being the occupier of any house, fails to forward such list when required to do so under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

93. As soon as may be after the first day of April in every year, the Commissioners shall prepare a list of the persons licensed for the preceding year under section eighty-eight, which shall state the particulars specified in that section, and such list shall be kept in the office of the Commissioners, and be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

PART III.—Of the Registration of Carts.

94. Every cart kept or used within the limits of Calcutta or Howrah shall be registered in the office of the Commissioners with the name and residence of the owner, and shall have affixed thereto the number of such registration in such manner as the Commissioners shall direct.

95. Whoever keeps or is in possession of a cart not duly registered as required by the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such registration, exclusive of the amount so payable; and whoever, being the owner or driver of any cart, shall fail to affix the registration number required by the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.

96. The registration of carts under section ninety-four shall be made, and the numbers assigned half-yearly on or after the first day of April and the first day of October in each year, upon such days as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of Rs. 4 shall be paid for each registration.

The Commissioners may in their discretion remit any portion of the fee so payable if they are satisfied that the cart hereinbefore required to be registered, as mentioned in section ninety-four, has been kept or used for a portion of the half-year only.

When any registered cart is transferred within any half-year, it shall be registered anew in the name of the person to whom it has been transferred; and a fee of four annas shall be paid for every such last-mentioned registration.

The total net proceeds of the fees half-yearly received by the Commissioners for the registration of carts, after deduction of the charges incurred on account of such registration, shall be divided between the Municipalities of Calcutta and Howrah, and such other Municipalities adjacent to Calcutta or Howrah as the Local Government shall declare to be entitled to a share in such receipts, in such proportion as the Local Government may, from time to time, determine.

97. The three last preceding sections shall not apply to carts—

- (a) which are the property of the Government;
- (b) which are the property of the Commissioners of Calcutta or Howrah, or of any adjacent Municipalities; or
- (c) which are kept at any place more than eight miles distant from Government House and are only temporarily and casually used within the Municipality of Calcutta or Howrah.

98. If any person owns or keeps any cart hereinbefore required to be registered, without having caused the same to be registered, the Commissioners may seize such cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of the seizure in the conveyance of passengers or goods), together with the animals or cattle drawing the same, and may detain them.

And all Police Officers shall, on the application of the Commissioners, seize and detain any such cart, animals or cattle.

If the cart, animals, or cattle so seized be not claimed within ten days, they may be sold by auction by order of a Magistrate, and the proceeds of such sale may be applied to the expenses incurred on account of the seizure, detention, and sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the credit of the Corporation.

PART IV.—Of the Tax on Petroleum.

99. The Commissioners in meeting may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prohibit the introduction into Calcutta for the purpose of storage therein of petroleum intended for consumption elsewhere, and may thereafter, with the like sanction, levy a tax not exceeding four annas per case of ten gallons on all petroleum introduced into Calcutta for consumption therein.

100. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, make rules as to all or any of the following matters:—

- (a) the detention and examination of petroleum introduced into Calcutta for consumption therein;
- (b) the collection of the tax levied on petroleum;
- (c) Such other matters connected with the introduction of petroleum into Calcutta for consumption therein as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, think fit to regulate:

Provided that no rule shall render petroleum passing through Calcutta in transit for any place beyond it liable to taxation or to any detention or examination whatsoever under this Act.

And all petroleum introduced into Calcutta, contrary to any rules made under the provisions of this section, may be seized and confiscated.

All petroleum confiscated under this section shall become the property of the Commissioners.

CHAPTER IV.

OF RATES.

PART I.—Of imposing the Rates.

101. The Commissioners may, as provided in section seventy-one, impose Rates. the following rates upon all houses and lands within the town:—

- (a).—The general rate not exceeding 13 per cent. on the annual valuation.
- (b).—A water-rate not exceeding 6 per cent. on the annual valuation:
Provided that houses and lands, no part of which is within 150 yards of the nearest stand-pipe or other supply of filtered water available to the public, shall pay 3 per cent. less than houses otherwise situated.
- (c).—A lighting-rate not exceeding 2 per cent. on the annual valuation.
- (d).—A sewage rate not exceeding 2 per cent. on the annual valuation.

102. The water-rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in Appropriation of the Water-supply Fund. meeting with reference to the requirements of the Water-supply Fund.

The Water-supply Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the water-rate, with all receipts arising out of the sale of water, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the water-supply.

It shall be debited with—

- (a).—The annual interest on all sums borrowed from time to time, whether from Government, or by way of debenture loan for the construction or extension of water-works for the supply of filtered or unfiltered water.
- (b).—The annual expenditure requisite for the repayment of these loans, or for the creation of a Reserve Fund for their future repayment.
- (c).—The cost of maintaining in an efficient condition the supply of filtered water to Calcutta.
- (d).—The cost of maintaining in an efficient condition the supply of unfiltered water to Calcutta.
- (e).—The establishments and miscellaneous expenditure necessary for the purposes specified in clauses (c) and (d).
- (f).—Such a proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision and of the Head Office, as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time direct.

103. The lighting-rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in Appropriation of the Lighting Fund. meeting with reference to the requirements of the Lighting Fund.

The Lighting Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the lighting-rate, with the receipts, if any, arising out of the sale of gas or electricity, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the lighting of the town.

It shall be debited with—

- (a).—The annual interest on all sums which may hereafter be borrowed for the construction of gas-works or for supplying electricity for the lighting of Calcutta.
- (b).—The annual contributions to the Reserve Fund for the future repayment of such sums.
- (c).—All expenditure necessary for the efficient lighting of the town by gas, oil, electricity, or any other means.
- (d).—The establishments and miscellaneous expenditure necessary for the purposes specified in clause (c).
- (e).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, direct.

104. The sewage rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in Appropriation of the Sewage Fund. meeting with reference to the requirements of the Sewage Fund.

The Sewage Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the sewage rate, with the proceeds, if any, arising from the sale of night-soil, the receipts from licenses under section three hundred and eleven, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the working of the Night-soil Removal Department.

It shall be debited with—

- (a).—The cost of the establishments maintained under section three hundred and thirteen.
- (b).—The cost of maintenance of all public latrines and urinals and of the establishments for their cleansing.
- (c).—Such proportionate share of the cost of inspecting, maintaining, and cleansing the public sewers as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.
- (d).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.

105. The general rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in Appropriation of the General Fund. meeting with reference to the requirements of the General Fund.

The General Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the general rate, with all moneys paid to the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than those assigned to the Water-supply Fund, Lighting Fund or Sewage Fund, and with such other moneys received by the Commissioners as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time direct to be credited to the General Fund.

It shall be debited with all expenditure incurred in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than that debitable to the Water-supply Fund, Lighting Fund or Sewage Fund, and with all other expenditure that may be lawfully incurred by the Commissioners which the Commissioners in meeting shall direct to be debited to the General Fund:

Provided that, when any of the other rates are levied at a maximum, but not otherwise, grants may be made by the Commissioners in meeting in aid of any fund dependent on such rate if the receipts of the Fund fall short of the requisite disbursements.

106. These four rates, after having been fixed under section seventy-one of this Act, shall be levied as one consolidated rate, and the collections made on account of this rate shall be divided between the General Fund, the Water-supply Fund, the Lighting Fund and the Sewage Fund in the proportions at which the rates are being levied for the time being without reference to the year on account of which each payment is made.

Such deduction shall, however, be made from the proportion to be credited to the Water-supply Fund as may seem to the Commissioners in meeting to be approximately equivalent to the diminished productiveness of that rate, owing to the partial exemption of certain premises under clause (b) of section one hundred and one.

107. The consolidated rate shall be payable half by the owners of the houses and lands, and half by the occupiers thereof.

It shall be payable on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of October and first day of January for the quarters, respectively, commencing on those dates.

PART II.—Of the Owner's share of the Consolidated Rate.

108. If the annual value of any house or land as determined under Chapter V shall in any case exceed the amount of rent payable to the owner, the owner may in such case recover from the person who pays him rent the difference between the sum assessed upon him as the owner's share of the consolidated rate and the sum at which he would have been assessed had the house been valued only at the amount of rent actually payable to him, and such difference shall be added to the rent and shall be recovered by the owner from the person liable for the payment thereof.

109. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V has been vacant for sixty consecutive days during any year, the person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate shall, if notice in writing be given to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant, be liable to pay only one-fourth of the consolidated rate due on account of the period of vacancy—the period of vacancy being calculated from the date on which the notice is delivered; if more than one-fourth of the consolidated rate has been paid in advance, the surplus shall, on demand, be refunded.

110. No refund shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same shall be applied for within six months from the date of vacancy of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

PART III.—Of the Occupier's share of the Consolidated Rate.

111. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V is vacant, the person liable to pay the occupier's share of the rate up to the period of such vacancy shall, if he has paid for the whole quarter, be entitled to a refund of all the rate paid by him for the period during which the house is vacant, or for the period during which it may have been occupied by a new occupier, if notice shall have been given in writing to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant; and the date of vacancy shall be calculated from the date of delivery of such notice at the office of the Commissioners.

112. No refund of rates shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same is applied for within six months from the date of cessation of occupation of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

113. Whenever any house or land which shall have been unoccupied shall be occupied during any quarter, there shall be forthwith payable in respect of such house or land the full occupier's share of the consolidated rate for the period between the date of occupation and the last day of the quarter.

114. Whenever any person holding any house or land at a rent from the different persons to be deemed occupier, the person sub-letting to person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate in respect of such house or land has or may sub-let the same to different persons holding in severalty, the person so holding shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the occupier of such house or land.

115. If any house is occupied by more than one person holding in severalty, or is valued at less than Rs. 200, the Commissioners may impose the entire consolidated rate upon the owner of such house.

116. If the entire rate is paid by the owner of any house under the last preceding section, such owner may, if there be but one occupier of the house, recover from such occupier half of the rate so paid by such owner; and if there be more than one occupier, he may recover from each occupier half of such sum as shall bear to the entire amount of rate so paid by him the same proportion as the value of the portion of the house in the occupation of such person bears to the entire value of such house.

117. The entire consolidated rate imposed upon bustee land and the huts built thereon shall, after deducting therefrom a sum equal to one-eighth of such rates, be paid by the owner of such land. The sum deducted shall be retained by the owner of the land as a set off against the expenses which may be incurred in collecting the portion of the rate recoverable from the occupiers of the land or the owner or occupiers of huts built thereon, under the provisions of the next succeeding section, and as a commutation of all refunds in respect of huts which are vacant or which may be removed or destroyed during the continuance of the period for which the rate is imposed :

Provided that no additional rates shall be imposed on account of any new huts built or of any huts enlarged during the year for which the valuation remains in force, under the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-four.

118. Whenever a rate is imposed on bustee lands, the Commissioners shall cause the land and the huts standing on it to be separately valued, and the owner of the land may recover from the owner of each hut half the consolidated rate paid by him for the land on which the hut stands, and the entire consolidated rate payable on account of the hut.

119. Every owner who, under the provisions of sections one hundred and sixteen and the last preceding section may be entitled to recover any sum from the occupier of any house or of any portion thereof, or from the owner of any hut, shall have for the recovery of such sum all such and the same remedies, powers, rights, and authorities as if such sum were rent payable to him.

120. The Commissioners may by a notice in writing require the occupier of any house or land to furnish them, within fifteen days, with the name and address of the owner of such house or land, and such name and address, when so received, shall be registered provisionally in the assessment book kept under section one hundred and twenty-eight.

121. If the occupier of any house or land shall refuse or neglect to furnish the information so required of him under the last preceding section, he shall be liable to pay the rates payable by the owner on account of such house or land, and on non-payment thereof the Commissioners may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found in the house or on the land :

Provided that no arrear of rate which has remained due from the owner of any house or land, for more than one year, shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE ASSESSMENT OF HOUSES AND LAND.

122. For the purpose of assessment under this Act, the annual value of land and the annual value of any house built for gross annual rent at which such land or house might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, less, in the case of a house, an allowance of 10 per cent. for the cost of repairs; and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the house in a state to command such gross rent. The annual value of any house not built for letting purposes and not ordinarily let shall be 5 per cent. on the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of building the house, less a reasonable amount to be deducted on account of depreciation, if any, to the estimated value of the land valued with the house as part of the same premises.

When a house is occupied by the owner under such exceptional circumstances as renders a valuation of 5 per cent. of the cost of building, less depreciation, excessive, a lower percentage may be taken.

The value of land so estimated shall not include the value of any machinery thereon.

123. All valuations of houses made by the Commissioners prior to the commencement of this Act shall remain in force during the period for which they were so made, and on the expiration of such period, the annual value at which any house is to be assessed shall be fixed by the Commissioners for a period of six years, and thereafter for successive periods of six years :

Provided that for the purpose of dividing the town into districts under section one hundred and twenty-nine, the Commissioners may retain the valuation of the houses in any part of Calcutta for a further period not exceeding six years, or may, with the same object, make a re-valuation for a less period than six years.

124. Bustee lands with the huts upon them, or lands that are waste or used for agricultural purposes, may be valued annually at the discretion of the Commissioners, and shall be so valued on the application of the owner. When not re-valued, the former valuation shall remain in force from year to year until a re-valuation is made.

125. Any house, the valuation of which may have been cancelled on the ground of irregularity, or which for any other reason may have no annual value legally assigned to it, may be valued at any time under section one hundred and twenty-two for such period as remains unexpired in the district in which it is included under section one hundred and twenty-nine.

126. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-three any substantial alteration and improvement is made to any such house, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued, even though such period has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation.

127. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-three the value of such house shall suffer depreciation from any cause proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been beyond the control of the owner or occupier thereof, the Commissioners shall as soon as practicable, on application being made to them in writing by the owner or occupier of such house, cause it to be again valued, even though the current period of valuation has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation :

Provided that if any substantial alteration and improvement shall be made, prior to the expiration of the said period of valuation, to the house which shall have been again valued as aforesaid, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued as under the last preceding section.

128. The annual value fixed by the Commissioners as hereinbefore provided shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners, wherein shall also be written—

- (a) number of premises;
- (b) description of premises;
- (c) name of person primarily liable to pay the rate;
- (d) amount of valuation;
- (e) amount of rate payable quarterly;
- (f) if exempted, the ground of exemption.

This information may be contained in as many books as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine which shall together constitute a book to be called the "assessment book."

When the name of the owner or occupier is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the assessment book as the "owner" or "occupier."

Any owner or occupier may at any time apply to the Commissioners to have his name entered as owner or occupier in the assessment book, and the Commissioners shall, unless there is sufficient reason to refuse such application, (which refusal shall be in writing) cause such name to be entered in the assessment book.

Where there are gradations of owners or occupiers, and doubt exists as to who is entitled to be registered as owner or occupier of any premises, the Commissioners shall determine which of the several owners or occupiers is entitled to be registered as such, and their decision shall remain in force for the purposes of this Act till set aside by the order of a competent court.

No owner or occupier whose name is not entered in the assessment book shall be entitled to object that any bill, notice of demand, warrant or other notice of any kind required by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any house or land, has not been made out in his own name:

Provided that any person who has paid the owner's share of the consolidated rate for the last preceding quarter may, if there is no opposition to his application to be registered as owner, but such application is rejected or postponed for want of evidence, claim to have his name provisionally registered as owner, and when his name is so provisionally registered he shall enjoy all the privileges and incur all the liabilities attaching to the owner of any house or land under this Act so long as no other person claims to be registered as owner.

A list shall be published annually, in such manner as the Commissioners may determine, stating the names of all persons who are provisionally registered and the premises in respect of which they are so registered.

Any name provisionally registered as that of an owner of any premises shall after three years, if no objection be taken, be transferred to the assessment book as that of the owner of such premises.

129. For the purpose of valuing houses for a period of six years, the Commissioners shall divide Calcutta into such and so many districts as they may think fit, and proceed to make separate valuations district by district, and shall enter the same in the assessment book.

130. The Commissioners, by a notice in writing, may require the owner or occupier of any house or land to furnish them with returns of the measurements and of the rent or annual value thereof; and the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between the hour of seven in the forenoon and sunset enter on, and inspect, survey, and measure such house or land after giving a notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours.

131. Whoever refuses or fails to furnish any such return for the space of one week from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or knowingly makes a false or incorrect return, and whoever hinders, obstructs, or prevents any Commissioner, or any person appointed by the Commissioners as aforesaid, from entering or inspecting or measuring any such house or land shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 for every such offence.

132. When the valuation of any of the districts into which Calcutta may have been divided by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-nine shall have been completed, the Commissioners shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the statement of valuations of all the houses included in such district may be inspected. Such notice shall be by advertisement in at least two English newspapers, and in two Vernacular newspapers, published in Calcutta, and also by placards posted up in conspicuous places throughout such district.

And the person in whose custody the statement of valuations may be, shall permit any person, being the owner or occupier of any house or land included in the district or the agent of such owner or occupier, to inspect the records and to make extracts therefrom without payment of any fee, and any person, not being such owner or occupier to inspect and make extracts, in like manner, on payment of a fee of one rupee in respect of each entry extracted.

133. The Commissioners shall, in all cases in which any house is for the first time valued, or in which the valuation of any house previously valued is increased, give special land under section one hundred and twenty-four, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owner of the land that on or after a date, not less than fifteen days from the receipt of such notice by the owner of the land, such re-valuation will take place, and if the valuation so made exceeds the previous valuation, the Commissioners shall give to the owner a special notice of the amount of the valuation with full details thereof.

New valuations or measurement to be made.

Returns may be required for purpose of valuation.

135. Any person who is dissatisfied with a register to be maintained for the purpose, and on receipt of any objection, notice shall be given to the objector of a day and place when his objection will be investigated.

On the day and place notified, the Chairman or Vice-Chairman (if the case is referred to him by the Chairman) shall hear the objection in the presence of the objector if he shall appear, or the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may, for reasonable cause, adjourn the investigation. When the objection has been determined, the order passed shall be recorded in the register of objections, together with the date of such order.

137. Any person dissatisfied with the orders

Person dissatisfied with decision of Chairman or Vice-Chairman may appeal to Small Cause Court.

passed on his objection may appeal to the Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction in the place where the house, land or bustee land is situated. Such appeal shall be presented to the Court of Small Causes within thirty days of the decision of the objection under section one hundred and thirty-six, and shall be accompanied with an extract from the register of objections containing the orders objected to. No appeal shall be admitted unless an objection has first been taken under section one hundred and thirty-five.

138. The valuation by the Commissioners when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under the last preceding section when an appeal is made, shall be final and binding.

139. The valuation made by the Commissioners subject to such alterations as may from time to time thereafter be duly made, shall be entered in the assessment book, and the assessment calculated on the said valuation shall, subject to such alterations as aforesaid, be deemed to be the amount payable during the whole period for which the valuation is in force, and this period shall be calculated from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which any such amendment shall be so authenticated; and until such date the old valuation shall continue in force, notwithstanding that the period for which it was made may have expired.

Valuation to be entered in assessment book.

140. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may

at any time amend the assessment book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or by inserting any house or land liable to the rate, or by inserting a valuation when the house or land liable to be valued has not been valued, after giving notice to any person interested in the making of the amendment of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, when such amendment is to be made; the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may also strike out the name of any person, or any house or land not liable to the rate or reduce the amount of the valuation without notice:

Provided that no reduction shall be made inconsistent with the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-eight.

If any amendment shall be made in cases where notice is required, the same shall be deemed to have been made on the expiration of fifteen days after service of the said notice; and any person interested in such amendment may object by application in writing to the Commissioners to be left at their office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of sections one hundred and thirty-five, one hundred and thirty-six, one hundred and thirty-seven, and one hundred and thirty-eight shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to such objection.

CHAPTER VI.

OF LEVYING THE RATES.

141. When any rate is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be presented to the person liable to the payment thereof a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period and a description of the property for which the rate is charged.

Bills to be presented.

142. If the bill is not paid by the person

liable to pay the same within seven days from the presentation thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand in the form contained in the fifth Schedule, or to the like effect; and, if he shall not, within seven days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for non-payment of the same, such sum, with all costs, may be levied by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter, or if the defaulter be the occupier of any house or land in respect of which a rate is due, by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, whether actually belonging to the defaulter or not, under a warrant in the form contained in the Sixth Schedule; or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners:

Provided that when the premises in respect of which the default is committed are a place of business, and the moveable property distrained is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been left there for repairs or safe custody in the ordinary course of business, it shall be released.

For every notice of demand under this section which the Commissioners shall cause to be served upon any person, a fee, not exceeding one rupee, shall be payable.

Such fee shall be added to the amount of the rate in respect of which the notice is given, and, if not duly paid, may be levied in the same manner as such rate may be levied.

143. The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress under the last preceding section shall forthwith make an inventory of the moveable property seized under such warrant, and shall at the time give a notice in writing in the form contained in the Seventh Schedule, or to the like effect, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said moveable property will be sold as therein mentioned.

144. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold and the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure.

All distresses under this Chapter shall be reasonable and the amount of property seized shall be proportionate to the arrears due, and all sales of property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure now in force, or hereafter to be in force in the Court of Small Causes with respect to sale after distress.

Fees shall be payable upon warrants issued under this Act according to the rates set forth in the table of fees contained in the Eighth Schedule.

All officers and servants of the Corporation are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

145. The moveable property of any person from whom any rate is due may be distrained, wherever the same may be found, for default in payment of the money due from him.

146. If the sum due on account of any rate from the owner of any house or land remains unpaid after notice of demand has been duly served, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier or any of his sub-tenants for the time being of the house or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, as provided in section one hundred and forty-two, and, in such case, the occupier or his sub-tenant may deduct, from the next and following payments of his rent, the amount which may be so paid by, or recovered from, him:

Provided that no arrear of rate so due shall be recovered from the occupier if it has been due for more than one year, or for a period during which the occupier was not in occupation.

147. The purchaser of any house or land for which any sum is due on account of the rate payable by the owner at the time of such purchase shall be liable for the amount due on account of such rates for any period not exceeding one year prior to the purchase.

148. No distress levied under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser on account of any irregularity committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover, in any court of competent jurisdiction, full satisfaction for any special damage sustained by them.

149. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress and sale the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate, the Commissioners may sue, in any court of competent jurisdiction, the person liable to pay the same.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE WATER-SUPPLY.

150. The Commissioners shall provide a supply of water within all parts of Calcutta, and shall for that purpose cause such mains and pipes to be laid and such tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be made and constructed as shall be necessary for the supply of filtered water in the principal public streets, and shall also erect sufficient and convenient stand-pipes or pumps for the gratuitous use of the inhabitants for domestic purposes.

Ships lying at the jetties or in the docks of the Port Commissioners shall be entitled to the gratuitous use of filtered water for domestic purposes while so lying.

151. The Commissioners shall, on demand, be bound to supply every ship leaving the port with a reasonable quantity of filtered water for use on the voyage at such price, not exceeding five rupees for every thousand gallons, as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, determine.

152. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for animals, or for washing carriages, where such animals or carriages are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains, or for watering gardens or roads, or for any ornamental or mechanical purposes.

153. The Commissioners shall, so far as may be reasonably practicable, between the hours of six in the forenoon and eight in the afternoon, keep and maintain throughout their pipes and mains a sufficient supply of filtered water under a pressure of not less than ten feet for the domestic use of the rate-payers, and shall every day, for not less than two hours in the forenoon and one hour in the afternoon, maintain a pressure of water in the service pipes and mains sufficient to raise the water in all houses and places in which the same may be introduced within the area at present supplied to a height of not less than thirty feet, and shall test the purity of the water supplied once every week or at such intervals of time as the Commissioners in meeting may direct.

154. The Commissioners may supply water through a meter, for other than domestic purposes, if the person requiring such supply make application to the Commissioners in writing, specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

The Commissioners may thereupon, subject to such charges or rates as may have been fixed by the Commissioners in meeting, lay down, or allow to be laid down, the necessary communication-pipes and works of such dimensions and character as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

No meter shall be necessary in any case in which the applicant agrees to pay such sum per mensem for the use of the water as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

When water is supplied by the Commissioners through a meter, it shall be presumed that the quantity indicated by the meter has been consumed until the contrary is proved.

Any person using water supplied by the Commissioners for other than domestic purposes without the leave of the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

155. The occupier of every house connected with the water-supply shall be entitled to have, free of further charge, three thousand gallons of filtered water for every rupee paid to the Commissioners as water-rate on account of such house, to be supplied from the service pipes of the Commissioners for domestic use, through a ferrule of the size prescribed under the ninth schedule. If the Commissioners have reason to believe that the occupier of any house consumes more filtered water than he is entitled to as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide a water-meter at their own expense, and attach the same to the water-pipes of the said house; and any water which may be used over and above the quantity to which the occupier is entitled as aforesaid shall be paid for by him at the rate of one rupee for every three thousand gallons:

Provided that no charge shall be made by the Commissioners for unfiltered water supplied under the next succeeding section.

156. It shall be at the option of the Commissioners to provide filtered or unfiltered water for all latrines and water-closets; and wherever filtered water has been already supplied to such latrines or water-closets, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, at their own expense, and not otherwise, to stop the supply of filtered water, and in lieu thereof to provide unfiltered water for such latrines and water-closets.

157. All latrines and water-closets now supplied, or hereafter to be supplied, with water filtered or unfiltered, shall be provided with a cistern of such size and description and in such position as the Commissioners shall direct, and all such cisterns shall be put up at the expense of the owner of the house or land so supplied with water.

158. Whenever the Commissioners shall deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they shall allow any person living in a masonry house and paying the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned to lay down communication-pipes from the service pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of bringing into his house or land a supply of water for domestic use in accordance with the scale of ferrules prescribed under the ninth schedule;

Provided that if the house is so situated that the size of the ferrule prescribed for the use of such house under such scale is insufficient to pass the daily supply of water which the occupier of such house is entitled to receive under section one hundred and fifty-five, the Commissioners shall permit the use of a ferrule of such size as shall be sufficient to pass such supply:

Provided also that the Commissioners may at their own expense replace any ferrule, used for the supply of water to any house at the time when this Act comes into force which is of larger size than the occupier of such house under such scale is entitled to use, by a ferrule of the size prescribed under such scale for the use of such house:

Provided also that the Commissioners shall be at liberty to turn off or to cut off the supply of water to any house or land during the time the said house or land is unoccupied.

The communication-pipes leading the water from the service-pipes of the Commissioners into the house of any rate-payer, and the pipes and works within the house connected therewith, shall be of such character, dimensions, and material as the Commissioners shall fix and approve; and shall be made and constructed at the expense of the person requiring the same.

159. The ferrules, communication-pipes and all fittings thereon leading water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into any house or land, and the pipes, works, and fittings inside the house or land, must in all cases be executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Such communication-pipes, works, and fittings may be made by the servants and workmen of the Commissioners upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and the person requiring the supply, or subject to such charges as may be fixed by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may require the amount necessary for the execution of such works.

to be paid or deposited before such works are executed;

and such charges and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as the water-rate.

160. The Commissioners may, between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, enter into or on any house or land supplied with water as aforesaid in order to examine all pipes, works, and fittings connected with the supply of water, and to ascertain if there be any waste or misuse of such water;

and if the Commissioners at any such time be refused admittance into such house or land for the purposes aforesaid, or be prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, they may forthwith turn off or cut off the water from such house or land:

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall authorize an entry into any room appropriated for the zenana or residence of women, which by the custom of the country is considered private, unless a notice in writing of not less than four hours be given.

161. In the event of any pipes, works, or fittings connected with the supply of water to any house or land being at any time found on examination by the Commissioners to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off or cut off from the house or land, after giving notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours to the person in occupation thereof, and may recover the expense incurred for cutting off the water from the occupier of such house or land.

162. If any person supplied with water shall neglect to pay the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned at any of the times of payment thereof, or the charge made for the said water when supplied for other than domestic purposes, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off or cut off from the house or land in respect of which such rate or charge is payable, and may recover the expense from such person:

Provided that the turning off or cutting off the supply of water shall not relieve any person from any penalties or liabilities which he may otherwise have incurred.

163. The occupier of any house or land in which water supplied by the Commissioners under this Act is from negligence or other circumstances under the control of the said occupier wasted, or in whose house or land the pipes, works, and fittings for the supply of water shall be found to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

164. Any person causing waste of water supplied by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.

165. It shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners to allow any person not residing within the limits of Calcutta to take or be supplied with water for his domestic use on such terms as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time prescribe. And any person taking or causing to be taken for use outside the limits of Calcutta water supplied by the Commissioners without the permission of the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

166. It shall not be lawful for any person to execute any work in connection with the laying on of water from any service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land or in connection with the extension of such pipes or the supply of additional fittings after such water has been laid on, unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners authorizing him to act as a plumber under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may from time to time lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of his license.

Any person licensed by the Commissioners as a plumber, who shall infringe or break any rules or regulations under which he holds his license, shall be liable to have his license at once cancelled by the Commissioners, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20; and any unlicensed person executing any such work shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

167. Any owner or occupier of any house or land who shall cause or allow works, pipes, or fittings for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to be executed by any person other than a plumber licensed by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 50, and the Commissioners may cut off the connection until such pipes have been removed or replaced to their satisfaction.

168. Before a connection for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land is sanctioned by the Commissioners, the Engineer of the Commissioners shall cause all the works, pipes, and fittings within the said house or land to be inspected by a duly qualified officer; and the cost of such inspection shall be payable in advance at such rates as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time direct, by the person applying for the said connection; and until the Engineer of the Commissioners shall have certified that the said works, pipes, and fittings have been executed and put up in a satisfactory manner, a connection with the Commissioners' service pipes shall not be permitted.

169. The connection with the service pipes of the Commissioners, as also the laying of supply pipes under any public road or thoroughfare, shall be executed in the presence of an officer of the Commissioners authorized in that behalf and in no other way.

170. If any licensed plumber shall execute any works or put up any fittings within any house or land for the supply of water from the pipes of the Commissioners in a careless and negligent manner, or make use of bad materials or fittings, the said licensed plumber shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and upon a third conviction shall be liable to have his license cancelled at the discretion of the Commissioners.

171. Any person who shall unlawfully flush, draw off, divert, or take water from any water-work belonging to, or under the management or control of, the said Commissioners, or shall by any wrongful act damage such water-work or any pipe connected with it, or shall use such water-work for any purpose other than the purpose for which it has been set apart shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

172. The occupier of any masonry house holding direct from the owner thereof may, by notice in writing, signed by him, require the owner of such house to perform all such necessary works as may be required for bringing into such house a supply of water for domestic use.

Every such notice shall contain an agreement on the part of such occupier to pay interest at the rate of one per cent. per mensem, calculated from the date of the completion of the works on the cost of such works during the residue of his term of occupation:

Provided that, if the house and the premises belonging thereto shall not abut upon some street in which there is a supply-main, such occupier shall, in the agreement, undertake to pay the cost of connecting the house with the nearest supply-main.

173. If any owner shall not, within the space of one month from the service of such notice as is mentioned in the last preceding section, cause such necessary works as aforesaid to be completed, the occupier, who shall have given such notice, may cause the same to be completed, and may deduct from the rent payable by him the cost of such works save so much of such cost as may be incurred in connecting with a supply-main any house and premises belonging thereto which may not abut upon a street in which there may be a supply-main; and such deduction shall be made by six equal monthly instalments.

Interest on each such instalment shall be payable to the owner by the occupier at the rate of one per cent. per mensem, from the time when it shall have been so deducted.

174. In case there shall be any difference between the owner of any premises and the occupier respecting the cost or the sufficiency of the water-supply of such house either the owner or the occupier may refer such difference to the Commissioners, and the written award of the Engineer of the Commissioners, or of any officer authorized by them in that behalf, shall be binding on the owner and the occupier.

175. There shall be payable to the Commissioners in respect of every such reference a fee at the rate of Rs. 2 for every Rs. 100 of the monthly rent of the house or land in respect of the water-supply to which the difference may have arisen:

Provided that such fee shall in no case exceed Rs. 10, and shall be paid by the person making

176. Except in the case of a special agreement to the contrary, the owner of any house or land shall bear the expense of keeping all works connected with the supply of water to such house or land in substantial repair, and if he fails to do so the occupier may himself have the repairs executed and deduct the amount expended thereon from any rent which is due from him to the owner in respect of the premises where such repairs have been executed:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liabilities of parties under leases executed or made previous to the commencement of this Act.

177. Any owner to whom any sum is payable under sections one hundred and seventy-two and one hundred and seventy-three may recover such sum from the person liable to pay the same as if the same were rent payable by such person for the house, in respect of which the expenses have been incurred.

178. All public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works, whether made, laid, or erected at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all bridges, buildings, engines, works, materials, and things connected therewith or appertaining thereto, and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining to any public tank, shall become vested in the Commissioners.

179. If any person being the proprietor of any gas-works, or being engaged or employed in the manufacture or supply of gas, or being the occupier or owner of any place where an offensive trade or manufacture is carried on,

does any act connected with the said business whereby the water in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, aqueduct, or other water-works belonging to the Commissioners is fouled or corrupted, the Commissioners may, at any time between sunrise and sunset, lay open and examine any pipes, conduits, and works belonging to such person:

and if, upon such examination, it appears that the water has been fouled or corrupted by anything proceeding from, or contained in, the pipes, conduits, or works examined, the Commissioners shall forthwith take all necessary measures to purify the water and put the works in efficient order, and the expenses of such examination, purification or repairs shall be paid by the person to whom such pipes, conduits, or works belong, or under whose management or control they may be;

but if it appear that the water has not been so fouled or corrupted, then such expenses, and all damages occasioned by the examination, shall be paid by the Commissioners.

180. Any sum due for water supplied by the Commissioners under a meter, or by agreement when a meter is dispensed with, may be recovered as if the same were a water-rate due under this Act.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

181. The Commissioners shall keep in their office a register of all births and deaths in Calcutta, and for this purpose shall divide it into such and so many districts as they shall think fit, and for every such district shall appoint a person to be a registrar of births and deaths within such district; and the Commissioners shall at each registered or licensed burial and burning ground appoint a sub-registrar for the registration of all corpses brought to such burial or burning ground for interment or cremation.

182. Every registrar shall dwell within the district of which he is registrar, and every sub-registrar shall dwell in the vicinity of the burial or burning ground for which he is appointed; and they shall cause their names, with the addition of registrar for the district, or sub-registrar for the burial or burning ground for which they shall be so appointed, to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of their own dwelling-houses; and the Commissioners shall cause to be printed and published a list containing the name and place of abode of every registrar and sub-registrar in the town.

183. The Commissioners shall cause to be prepared and printed a sufficient number of register books for making entries of all births and deaths which may take place in Calcutta, according to the forms prescribed in the Tenth and Eleventh Schedules, and the pages of such books shall be numbered progressively from the beginning to the end.

184. Every registrar shall inform himself of every birth and of every death which shall happen in his district, and shall ascertain and register, as soon as conveniently may be after the event, without fee or reward, the particulars required to be registered according to the forms in the Tenth and Eleventh Schedules respectively touching every such birth and every such death, as the case may be, which shall not have been already registered; every such entry being made in order from the beginning to the end of the book.

185. The father or mother of every child born in Calcutta, or in the case of the death, illness or absence, or inability of the father and mother, the occupier of the house in which such child is born, shall, within eight days after the day of the birth, give information to the registrar of the district, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars by this Act required to be known and registered touching the birth of such child.

186. The nearest relative present at the death, or in attendance during the last illness, of any person dying in Calcutta, or, in case of the death, illness, inability, absence, or default of such relative every person present at the death, or in case of their default the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the person who shall have died, some person living in the house in which such death shall have happened, shall forthwith give information to the registrar of the district, or sub-registrar at the burial or burning ground where the corpse of such person so dying is buried or burnt, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, of the several particulars by this Act required to be known and registered touching the death of such person:

Provided that if any one person gives the required information all other persons are thereby released from the obligation imposed upon them by this section:

Provided also that, in lieu of the information hereinbefore stated, in the case of persons dying in any hospital in Calcutta, it shall be the duty of the medical officer in charge forthwith to send a notice in writing to the Commissioners in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule of the occurrence of any death in the hospital under his charge.

187. Any medical man in attendance during the last illness of any person dying in Calcutta shall, within seven days of his becoming cognizant of the death of such person, send a notice in writing to the Commissioners as near as may be in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule, stating, to the best of his judgment, the cause of death.

188. Any person whose duty it shall be to give information under the three last preceding sections, who shall refuse or neglect to give such information, or who shall give false information, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

189. Every person by whom the information contained in any register of births or deaths under this Act shall have been given shall sign in the register his name, description, and place of abode; and no such registration shall be deemed to be complete or of any effect until such person shall have so signed it:

Provided that the registrar may fill up and sign the register for any person who is unable to write:

Provided also that the registration of death shall be deemed to be complete on receipt by the Commissioners of the written notice from the medical officer in charge of a hospital prescribed in section one hundred and eighty-six.

190. It shall not be lawful for any sexton or keeper of a burial or burning ground, whether situated within Calcutta or not, to bury, burn, or allow to be buried or burned, any corpse of a person who has died in Calcutta, unless such corpse is accompanied by a certificate in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule, and signed by a registrar or sub-registrar appointed under section one hundred and eighty-one, or by a medical officer:

Provided that at every burial or burning ground where there is a sub-registrar who keeps a register in the prescribed form an entry in such register shall be deemed sufficient.

Every sub-registrar shall, within twenty-four hours of registering any death under this section, forward to the registrar of the district in which the death occurred a copy of the entry made by him, and the registrar on receipt thereof shall forthwith enter the death in the district register.

191. Whoever buries, burns, or allows to be buried or burnt, a corpse without the certificate or entry in a register mentioned in the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

Penalty.

CHAPTER IX.

OF TAKING A CENSUS.

192. At such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may from time to time appoint, an account shall be taken of the number of persons who at the time of taking such account shall be within Calcutta; and the persons employed in taking such account shall set down the several particulars respecting the same which are hereinafter prescribed.

193. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or any person specially appointed by the Commissioners in meeting for that purpose, shall superintend the taking of such account, and shall cause to be prepared and issued, for the use of the persons to be employed, such forms and instructions as he shall, with the sanction of the Local Government, deem necessary; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the Commissioners.

194. Each police division of Calcutta shall be formed into one or more enumeration districts.

195. At such times as shall be appointed under section one hundred and ninety-two, and as shall be notified in the Calcutta Gazette by the Local Government, every occupier of a dwelling-house, or of any part of a dwelling-house distinctly occupied, and every person to whom a form as mentioned in section one hundred and ninety-seven may have been delivered, shall afford such information in regard to all persons who were abiding in his house, or in the place under his charge, on the night immediately preceding the day appointed for the return of the form, and in such manner as may under this Act be required of them.

196. The Chairman, or the person appointed under section one hundred and ninety-three, shall select a sufficient number of competent persons to act as enumerators; and every such enumerator, under the direction of the Chairman, shall visit every house within his district, and, except as hereinafter provided, shall take an account in writing of the name, sex, age, caste, nationality, and occupation of every living person who shall abide therein on the night immediately preceding the day appointed as aforesaid, and shall also take an account of the occupied houses, and the houses then being built and therefore uninhabited, and also of all other uninhabited houses within his district, and in all respects conform to, and obey, the instructions which may be issued to him by the Chairman in this behalf:

Provided that no female shall be required to disclose her name or age.

197. The Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid, when he deems such a course to be advisable, may cause such a form as shall be sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting, subject to the approval of the Local Government, to be delivered to any occupier of any dwelling-house who may be able to write; and such occupier shall fill in all the particulars required in the form on the day to be appointed, and shall deliver the same to the person authorized to demand the same.

198. Any military or naval officers in command of bodies of military or naval men, or of vessels of war, or any master of a merchant vessel, or nacadah, or tindal of a vessel or boat, or any person in charge of a lunatic asylum, hospital or prison, or of any public or private charitable or scholastic institution, or any keepers of hotels or lodgings-houses, shall, if required, act as enumerators for the purpose of taking account of persons under their command or charge, or abiding in their houses, on the night immediately preceding the day to be appointed.

199. Whoever, being required under section one hundred and ninety-seven to fill in any form, or under section one hundred and ninety-eight to act as an enumerator, fails to do so, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence.

Penalty.

Every person so required to act as an enumerator shall receive and conform to all instructions in writing which may be issued to him by the Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid in that behalf.

200. The Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid, shall obtain, by such ways and means as shall appear to him best adapted for the purpose, and as shall be sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting, returns of the particulars required by this Act with respect to all houseless persons and all persons who, during the said night immediately preceding the day to be appointed, were on out-door night duty, or for any other reason were not abiding in any house of which account is to be taken by the enumerators.

201. The enumerators shall fill in all forms for those persons who are unable to write.

Enumerators to fill in for those persons who are for those unable to write.

CHAPTER X.

OF STREETS AND BUILDING REGULATIONS.

PART I.—Of the Streets.

202. All public streets in Calcutta (not being the property and kept under the control of the Government or the Commissioners for making improvements in the Port of Calcutta) and the pavements, stones, and other materials thereof, and also all erections, materials, implements, and other things provided for such streets, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

203. The Commissioners, making due compensation to the owners and occupiers of any houses or land which may be required for, or in connection with, any such purposes, may—

Power to make and improve streets.

- (a) lay out and make new streets;
- (b) build and construct new bridges and sub-ways;
- (c) turn, divert, discontinue, or permanently or temporarily close any public street or part of a public street; and
- (d) widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any such street.

Power to acquire premises for improvement of public streets.

204. The Commissioners in meeting may—

- (a) acquire any land required for the purpose of opening, widening, extending, or otherwise improving any public street, or of making any new public street, and the buildings, if any, standing upon such land;
- (b) acquire, in addition to the said land and the buildings, if any, standing thereupon, all such land with the buildings, if any, standing thereupon, as it shall seem expedient for the Commissioners to acquire outside of the regular line of such street, provided that, without the special sanction of the Local Government, not more than one hundred feet shall be acquired on either side of the regular line of the street;
- (c) lease or sell or otherwise dispose of any land or building purchased under clause (b).

Any re-conveyance of land or of a building under clause (c) may comprise such conditions as the Commissioners think fit as to the removal of the existing building, the description of new building to be erected, the period within which such new building shall be completed, and other such matters.

205. When any public street is permanently closed under section two hundred and three the Commissioners may dispose of the site of so much of the roadway and footpath as is no longer required, making due compensation to any person injured by the closing of the road and the sale of the site. And if any dispute shall arise respecting the amount or apportionment of such compensation, it shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, in determining such compensation, the Court shall make allowance for any benefit conferred on the same premises or any adjacent premises belonging to the same owner by the construction or improvement of any other public street, at or about the same time that the public street, on account of which the compensation is paid, is closed.

206. The Commissioners may prescribe a line on each side of any public street within which no portion of any building abutting on the said street shall, after such line has been prescribed, be constructed without the express sanction of the Commissioners.

A line so prescribed shall be called the regular line of a public street.

207. When any house, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house on either side thereof, has fallen down, or been burnt down, or been taken down in order to be rebuilt or altered, or such portion thereof as projects beyond the regular line of the street has fallen down, been burnt down, or been taken down, the Commissioners may require the same to be set back to or towards the regular line of the street, or the line of the adjoining houses:

Provided that the Commissioners shall make full compensation thereof to the owner of any such house for any direct damage he may thereby sustain, and if any dispute shall arise respecting the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

By 'direct' damage is meant the market-value of the land taken, and the depreciation, if any, in the ordinary market-value of the rest of the land owing to the area being reduced in size, but it shall not include damage due to any particular use to which the owner may allege that he intended to put the ground, but which the reduction of the site may injuriously affect.

208. The Commissioners may from time to time prepare plans of proposed public streets showing the alignment of such streets, the intended regular line on each side of them, and such other details as may appear desirable; and after such plans have been approved of by the Commissioners in meeting, such streets, shall be deemed to be projected public streets, and the provisions of section two hundred and seven shall apply to all houses which may fall down, be burnt down, or may be taken down in order to be rebuilt or altered, so far as they shall fall within the regular lines of the projected public street.

209. The Commissioners may, upon such terms as they shall think fit, allow any house to be set forward for improving the line of any public street in which such house is situated.

210. The Commissioners shall cause the public streets to be maintained and repaired, and for such purpose may do all things necessary for the public safety and convenience.

211. The Commissioners shall, so far as they may deem requisite for the public convenience, cause the chief public streets to be watered: and for that purpose may provide such works and engines as they may think necessary.

212. Whoever builds any wall, or without the consent of the Commissioners erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction, projection or encroachment in any public street, or in or over any drain, sewer, or squeduct shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and the Commissioners shall have power to remove any such obstruction, projection or encroachment whether they prosecute the offender or not, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners from allowing any temporary erections in any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or for building purposes.

213. Every person who wishes to make or lay out any new street shall give notice in writing thereof to the Commissioners, showing the intended level and width of such street, the arrangements made for draining it, and the level and width of every such street and the drainage arrangements shall be subject to approval by the Commissioners.

On receipt of such application the Commissioners shall, within thirty days, either sanction the making of such new street, or disallow it, or ask for further information with respect to it. If further information is asked for, no steps shall be taken to construct the street until orders have been passed upon receipt of such information.

214. Whoever lays out, makes, or builds upon any such street, otherwise than in accordance with the level, width and drainage arrangements fixed or approved by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

215. If any street or any part thereof be not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, by notice in writing to the respective owners or occupiers of the land fronting, adjoining, or abutting upon such parts thereof as may need to be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, require them to level, metal, pave, flag, channel, and sewer the same within a time to be specified in such notice; and upon non-compliance, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, execute the works mentioned or referred to therein;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners in default according to the frontage of their respective lands, and in such proportion as shall be settled by the Commissioners or, in case of dispute, as shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, after such street shall have been so levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered on the requisition of the Commissioners, or by the Commissioners as aforesaid, at the expense of the owners, such owners shall have a right to require that the street shall be declared a public street, to be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the General Fund.

216. If any street be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, if they think fit, and if three-fourths of the owners of houses in such street signify in writing their consent thereto, by notice in writing put up in any part of such street, declare the same to be a public street, and thereupon the same shall become a public street, and be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the General Fund.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the Commissioners in meeting from taking possession of any street with the consent of the owner or owners thereof, and thereafter such street shall become a public street.

217. The Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, wall, or place, at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every public street, such name as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, determine as the name by which such street is to be known; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name, or puts up any name different from that put up by order of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

218. The Commissioners may from time to time cause to be fixed a number in a conspicuous place on the out side of any house or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such number shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

When a number has been fixed on a house under this section the occupier, or if there is no occupier the owner, shall be liable to maintain such number or replace it if removed or defaced; and if a number is replaced by the Commissioners, they may recover the cost of replacing it from the person liable to replace it in the manner prescribed in Chapter VI for the recovery of rates.

219. All doors, gates, bars, and ground-floor windows which open upon any public street shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards in a manner likely, in the opinion of the Commissioners, to cause obstruction; and if any such door, gate, bar, or window be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any such public street, the owner of the house or land to which the same is attached shall, within fifteen days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards; and if he neglects so to do, the Commissioners may cause such alteration to be made, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by such owner:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be held to apply to house shutters so constructed as to fold flat to the wall, whether opening to the ground or not.

220. The owner of every house in any public street shall, within fifteen days after notice from the Commissioners, put up and keep in good condition proper gutters and pipe for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such house, and for discharging the same in such manner as the Commissioners shall direct; and in default of compliance with such notice within the period aforesaid, such owner shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every day that he shall so make default.

221. The Commissioners may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction which shall hereafter be erected or placed against such house or on, or over, any public street or which has been so erected or placed subsequent to the first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and such owner or occupier shall, within fifteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners, and in default thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200; and the Commissioners in such case may, whether they prosecute the offender or not, cause such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, to be removed and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided:

Provided that, when the expense shall have been paid by the occupier, except in the case in which such projections, encroachments, or obstructions were made or put up by him, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing or altering the same from the rent payable by him to the owner of the house.

222. The Commissioners may cause any projection, encroachment, or obstruction erected or placed against, on or over any house in any public street previous to the first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to be removed or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the house against, or in front of which, such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall be, thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun; and if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the right of any person to compensation when the right thereto is disputed and the amount thereof, or touching the amount of such compensation when the right thereto is admitted, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

223. The Commissioners may give permission in writing, on such conditions as they think fit, to the owners or occupiers of houses abutting on any public street to put up verandahs, balconies, sunshades, weather-frames, and the like, to project from any upper story thereof over any public street, and on breach of any such condition the Commissioners may give the owner or occupier notice to comply with such condition within fifteen days, and if he fails to comply, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to enter upon the premises and remove any projection put up in breach of any condition specified in the notice.

224. The external roofs and walls of huts or other buildings erected or renewed within Calcutta after the commencement of this Act, shall not be made of grass, leaves, mats, or other such inflammable materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any hut or other building in or near any street (public or otherwise) now having an external roof or wall made of any such material, and which is contiguous to, or adjoining, any other building, to suffer such roof or wall to remain after the commencement of this Act, unless with the consent in writing of the Commissioners, and whoever makes any external roof or wall of such materials, or suffers any roof or wall made of such materials to continue contrary to the provisions herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice in writing from the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every day that such roof or wall shall be maintained.

Nothing in this section shall ordinarily apply to garden huts, orchid houses, ferneries or similar erections within compounds:

Provided that if in any particular case the Commissioners consider any such erection dangerous they may require the same to be removed or altered and thereupon the provisions of this section shall apply:

Provided also that this section shall not apply to the area by this Act added to Calcutta, or to any area hereafter included in it under section four hundred and fifty-eight until it shall have been specially extended to the whole or any portion thereof by a resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting.

225. The Commissioners may give notice to the owner or occupier of any house or land to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering on any public street to a height not exceeding seven feet; or to cut and trim trees overhanging any public street, and obstructing the same or causing damage thereto;

and if such notice is not complied with within three days from the date thereof, the Commissioners may cause such hedges and trees to be cut in the manner required, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the house or land.

226. When the pavement or surface of any public street, or when any sewer or drain shall be opened or broken up by the Commissioners, they shall with all convenient speed, complete the work on account of which the same shall have been broken up, and fill in the ground, and make good the pavement and surface, and the sewer or drain so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall in the meantime cause the place where such pavement or surface shall be so opened or broken up to be fenced and guarded and sufficiently lighted during the night.

227. If the Commissioners deem it necessary for the purposes of this Act to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water-pipe or gas-pipe, or er water-works or gas-works laid in any street (public or otherwise), they may, from time to time by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, to cause forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the Commissioners direct.

Such alteration shall not be such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for the damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons.

And if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

228. If the person to whom any such pipes or works as are mentioned in the last preceding section belong, or under whose control they may be, do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered in such manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they may think fit, provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

229. No person shall deposit any building materials or make a hole in any public street without the permission of the Commissioners in writing; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed, until the materials are removed or the hole is filled up and otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted at night, and if he neglect to sufficiently fence or light the same, and any damage or injury arises, he shall be liable to the Commissioners for any expense which they may incur by reason of such neglect.

230. Whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or encloses more of the public street than the Commissioners have permitted him to enclose or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has lapsed or been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

The Commissioners may cause any such hole to be filled up, and may cause any such materials to be removed, and may detain them until the expenses connected with such removal shall have been paid.

231. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers or to persons living in the neighbourhood, the Commissioners may, by notice in writing, require the owner of the land to repair, protect, or enclose the same; and if he fails to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed.

232. Whoever, being an owner of land, fails to comply with the requisition mentioned in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART II.—Of Building Regulations regarding Houses.

233. If any building, or anything affixed thereon, be deemed by the Commissioners to be in a ruinous state, or likely to fall, or to be in any way dangerous, they shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident in Calcutta, and shall also cause such notice to be put on some conspicuous part of such building, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, repair, or secure, such building, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require.

If such owner or occupier does not commence to take down, repair, or secure the same within three days after such notice, or fails to complete such work with due diligence, the Commissioners shall cause all or so much of such building, or thing as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

The provisions of section two hundred and seven and two hundred and eight shall apply to houses taken down or repaired under the provisions of this section.

234. If any building, or any part of the same, be taken down under the provisions of the last preceding section, the Commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall, on demand, restore to the owner any surplus arising from such sale.

The Commissioners shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale as by this Act are given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

235. Before beginning to build any new house or to convert any hut or any temporary structure into a house, the person intending so to do shall obtain the sanction of the Commissioners to the site on which he proposes to build. With this object he shall submit a plan drawn to the scale of forty feet to the inch, showing the position of the house with reference to—

- (a) some existing public street; or
- (b) some projected public street approved of by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and eight; or
- (c) some existing private street; or
- (d) some proposed private street which it is intended to construct under section two hundred and thirteen.

Such plan shall also show the position and approximate height of all other masonry houses within forty feet of the proposed site:

Provided that, for special reasons, the Commissioners may sanction any site without reference to its position in relation to any public or private street.

On receipt of such plan, the Commissioners shall, within thirty days, signify in writing their approval of such site, or their disapproval thereof as not being a proper site with reference to—

- (a) the street shown in such plan; or
- (b) any other street or projected street on which it will abut; or
- (c) the position of the adjacent buildings.

If the street shown in the plan is a proposed private street, the Commissioners may at their discretion decline to approve of the site till such private street is commenced or completed.

Provided that where any site is disapproved by reason of its falling wholly or in part within the lines of any projected public street, the owner of such site shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, if the site or the portion thereof that falls within such lines be not acquired by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and four within one year after the date of such disapproval.

Until the approval of the site is signified in writing, the house shall not be constructed.

236. Before beginning to build any new house on a site approved of under the last preceding section, or to rebuild or materially alter the structure of any house, the person intending so to do shall make an application to the Commissioners in a printed form to be prepared by them for this purpose (for which no charge shall be made), setting forth the description of the building, the purposes for which it is intended, its dimensions, such plan of the building as the form may specify, and such other details as may be deemed requisite to enable the Commissioners to pass orders on such application.

237. On receipt of such application the Commissioners shall within thirty days, by a written order, either sanction the building of the new house, or for any one or more of the reasons set forth in the next succeeding section disallow it, or call for further information, on all or any of the following details:—

- (a) Plans and sections of every floor of the intended building which shall be drawn to a scale of not less than one inch to every eight feet, and shall show the position, form, and dimensions of the several parts of such building and of every water-closet, privy, urinal, cesspool, well, and other appurtenance, and in the case of a building intended as a dwelling-house for two or more families, or for carrying on any trade or business in which a number of people, exceeding twenty, may be employed, or as a public resort, the means of ingress and egress.
- (b) A description in writing of the materials of which it is intended that the building shall be constructed, of the thickness of the walls and roof, and of the intended mode of drainage, means of water-supply, and means of ventilation, and if the building is to adjoin or abut on a street, the intended means of access from such street.
- (c) The width and level of the street, if any, in front, and of the street, if any, at the rear of such building, the levels of the foundations and lowest floor of such building, and of any yard or ground belonging thereto.
- (d) A plan showing the intended line of drainage of such building, and of the intended size, depth and inclination of such drain, and of the details of the arrangements proposed for the ventilation of the drains.

If such requisition be not complied with, the application made under section two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

The Commissioners may decline to accept any plan, section, or description as sufficient for the purposes of this section, which does not bear the signature of a competent builder or surveyor in token of its having been prepared by such builder or surveyor.

238. Within thirty days after the receipt of the details required to be given under the last preceding section, the Commissioners shall pass orders in writing either approving of the proposed building or disapproving thereof for any of the following reasons—

- (a) that it will be unsafe; or
- (b) that it encroaches upon or over municipal land; or

(c) that its construction contravenes some specified provision of this Act; or some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the Commissioners disapprove of the building for any of the above reasons it shall not be proceeded with till such modifications have been made as to satisfy the requirements of the Commissioners.

239. Nothing in sections two hundred and thirty-five and two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to preclude any person intending to build a new house from sending in simultaneously the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five and the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six as also at his discretion all or any of the plans and details specified in section two hundred and thirty-seven.

Provided that the period of thirty days after the receipt of the application shall not commence to run till the site has been approved of. If the proposed work be not commenced within one year after the date of approval, it shall not be commenced without a fresh application being submitted under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-six.

240. If any building such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-five be commenced without sending in the ground plan required by that section, or after such ground plan has been sent in, before the site has been approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such house, or so much of it as has been constructed, to be demolished.

241. If any building or alteration such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-six be commenced without the application required by that section being sent to the Commissioners, or before the expiration of the thirty days or of any subsequent period of thirty days prescribed by section two hundred and thirty-seven, or otherwise than in accordance with the information furnished in the application or in the further details and plans subsequently called for, or in contravention of any lawful orders issued by the Commissioners under section two hundred and thirty-eight, the Commissioners may cause such work as has been done to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may think fit, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the requirements of the Act.

242. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by section two hundred and forty and the last preceding section, prosecute any person who shall build a new house without sending in the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five, or who shall build or re-build or materially alter the structure of any house without making the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six, and such person shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

243. The following provisions shall apply to buildings which it is proposed to construct under section two hundred and thirty-six:—

Provisions applicable to buildings constructed under section two hundred and thirty-six.

- (a). The levels and width of foundation shall be such as the Commissioners consider satisfactory.
- (b). No house shall be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of such house or building being led into some public sewer then existing or projected, or into some tidal river into which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers.
- (c). The plinth of such building shall be at least two feet above the centre of the nearest street.
- (d). The building shall not be erected over any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners without their written consent.
- (e). Every privy shall be so situated and so constructed as not to be a nuisance to the neighbours or dangerous to the health of the inmates.
- (f). Every building shall be provided with adequate ventilation.
- (g). No building shall cover a greater portion of the ground belonging to the owner of it and forming part of the same or adjacent premises, than is consistent with the free circulation of air, supposing the owners of contiguous lands to cover their land with buildings to the same extent.

244. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within thirty days, as required by sections two hundred and thirty-seven and two hundred and thirty-eight, the person making such application may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or rebuild the house.

245. Every person intending to build or take down any house, or to alter or repair the outward part of any house, where any public street will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work shall, before beginning the same, cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the house where such works are being carried on from the street, and shall keep such hoard or fence standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted:

Provided that no person shall put up a hoard or fence without the written permission of the Commissioners, and shall not keep up such hoard or fence for a time longer than that specified in such written permission.

246. Every person who begins to build, or to take down, or alter, or repair any house contrary to the provisions of the last preceding section, or who, without a license, erects or sets up any hoard, scaffolding, or fence whatsoever, or who, having obtained permission, fails to put up such fence or hoard, or to maintain the same standing and in good condition, or who does not, while such board or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted, or who does not remove the same when the time specified in the permission has elapsed, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART III.—Of Building Regulations regarding Huts and Bustees.

247. Before beginning to build, re-build or add to any hut, the person intending so to do shall make an application to that effect to the Commissioners in a form to be provided by them (for which no charge shall be made.) Such form shall require a ground plan of the hut drawn to the scale of eight feet to the inch and such other details as the Commissioners may prescribe. On receipt of such application, the Commissioners shall, within fourteen days, express their approval of the proposed work, or their disapproval on any one or more of the following grounds:—

- (a) That the site is ill-chosen with reference to adjacent huts or with reference to any present or proposed roads.
- (b) That the ventilation will be defective.
- (c) That the arrangements for scavenging or drainage are defective.
- (d) That the hut will be within thirty feet of a tank.
- (e) That the hut will be on the site of a tank which has been so recently filled up as to be prejudicial to the health of a person dwelling in it.
- (f) That the plinth is not two feet above the level of the centre of the nearest street.
- (g) That the erection of the proposed hut will infringe some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the proposal is approved the hut may be built, re-built, or added to at any time within six months after the date of sanction. If it is disapproved on any of the grounds above stated, the work shall not be commenced till such modifications have been made in the plan of the proposed hut as the Commissioners may deem necessary.

248. If any hut be built, re-built, or added to without making such application to the Commissioners as is required by the last preceding section, or before the approval of the Commissioners has been obtained under that section, the Commissioners may cause such hut or so much of it as has been constructed to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may prescribe; and the expenses of such demolition or alteration shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the provisions of this Act.

249. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by the last preceding section prosecute any person who builds, re-builds, or adds to any hut in contravention of the provisions of section two hundred and forty-seven, and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for any such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

250. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within fourteen days as required by section two hundred and forty-seven, the person making such application may notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained proceed to build or rebuild the house.

251. The Commissioners may define the external limits of any bustee, and may from time to time modify such limits; and for the purposes of this Act, land comprised within such limits shall be deemed to be a bustee:

Provided that every bustee shall consist of one or more complete plots of bustee land, separately numbered as such in the assessment book, and no plot bearing only one number shall be divided so as to fall within the limits of separate bustees. The existence of one or more houses with the land attached thereto, within the limits defined as above, shall be no bar to the bustee lands within such limits being deemed to be a bustee: Provided also that the Commissioners shall have no power under this Part of exercising any control over such houses and land attached, except by acquiring the whole or any portion of them by purchase or in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

252. The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners of a bustee, calling on them to prepare a joint plan thereof to the scale of forty feet to the inch showing the manner in which such bustee should be laid out with the huts standing in regular lines and with a free passage in front of and behind each line, of such width as may be necessary for ventilation and for scavenging. The plan shall also show the proposed drains of the bustee, the water-supply, bathing arrangements (if any) and the privy accommodation to be provided for the use of the tenants, the roads which are to be maintained for their benefit, the land, if any, which is to be kept as common land, the tanks which are to be filled up or conserved, and any other proposed improvements.

Such plan, when prepared as above, shall be considered by the Commissioners, and such modifications shall be made therein as the Commissioners shall require. After any plan has been finally approved of by the Commissioners, it shall be taken as the standard plan of the bustee. If any land within the limits of a bustee is not bustee land, the standard plan shall be so prepared as clearly to distinguish it from the bustee land.

When a call has been made on the owners of the bustee to prepare a joint plan under this section, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to within the bustee till a standard plan has been prepared.

253. If the owners of a bustee cannot agree among themselves in the preparation of a joint plan, or if they for any reason prefer to have a joint plan prepared for them by the Commissioners, or if they fail to comply with the notice to submit a joint plan within the space of sixty days, the Commissioners shall, within a further period of sixty days, themselves prepare a plan to the scale and in the manner prescribed in the last preceding section for which they may charge the owners at such rate not exceeding Rs. 3 per bigah as the Commissioners in meeting may fix. The cost of preparing such plan may be recovered as a rate under this Act.

254. When a plan has been prepared by the Commissioners under the last preceding section, they shall fix a day for the hearing of objections on the part of the owners; and may at their discretion modify the plan in accordance with any objections made. When the objections have been disallowed, or when the plan has been modified in conformity with any objections raised, it shall be approved of by the Commissioners, and shall thereafter be taken as the standard plan of the bustee.

255. When a standard plan has been prepared for any bustee under sections two hundred and fifty-two or two hundred and fifty-four, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to in such bustee, unless the hut or the portion to be added occupies a site, or portion of a site marked as the site for a hut in the standard plan. The Commissioners may, at any time by paying compensation to the owner of any hut not in conformity with the standard plan, require him to take down his hut and re-build it in conformity with such plan. Such compensation shall, in the event of dispute, be determined in the manner provided in this Act for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners of any bustee, calling upon them to construct the roads, privies, drains, and other details shown in the standard plan of any bustee, so far as may be practicable in the existing arrangement of the huts, and if any tank is shown as to be filled up or improved, may call upon the owner to fill up or improve such tank. Till such notice is complied with, the Commissioners may refuse to sanction the building or re-building of any hut in the bustee, or any addition to any existing hut.

256. When a bustee has been brought into conformity with a standard plan which has been prepared for it, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

257. When it appears to the Commissioners in meeting that any bustee is, by reason of the manner in which the huts are crowded together, or for any other reason, in such an unhealthy condition that the procedure provided by sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six will be too dilatory for improving such bustee, they may cause it to be inspected by two medical officers who shall make a report in writing on the sanitary condition of the said bustee.

Such report shall be accompanied by a plan which shall be approved of by the medical officers as a proper standard plan of the bustee, and they shall certify which of the changes necessary to bring the bustee into conformity with the proposed standard plan should be taken in hand forthwith, in consequence of the unhealthy condition of the bustee, and which can await the procedure prescribed in sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six. The former changes shall be shown in a Schedule attached to the report to be called Schedule A; and this Schedule shall clearly indicate the huts which should wholly or in part be removed, the roads and drains which should be constructed, the tanks or low lands which should be filled up, and any other works necessary to remove or abate the unhealthy condition of the bustee. If for the purpose of making such roads or effecting any other improvement, it is necessary to purchase or acquire any land within the bustee which is not bustee land, the schedule shall specify the land which should be purchased or acquired.

258. On receipt of the report of the medical officers, the Commissioners in meeting may cause a notice to be served upon the owners or occupiers of the huts, or at the option of the Commissioners, the owner of the land on which such huts are built, requiring them to carry out and execute within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Commissioners for such purpose, all or any of the works specified in the aforesaid Schedule A annexed to the report, or any portion thereof respectively.

259. If, after the service of the notice referred to in the last preceding section, such owners or occupiers, or the owners of the land, shall refuse or neglect to carry out and execute the said works within the time appointed, the Commissioners may cause all or any of the said works, or any portion thereof respectively, to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred, including such reasonable compensation as the Commissioners think fit to pay to the owners or occupiers of huts destroyed or removed, shall be paid by the owners of the land:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may order the expenses so incurred to be recovered by instalments from the said owners, of the land or, if it should appear to them that any such owner is unable by reason of poverty to pay the same, may order the same or any portion thereof to be paid out of the General Fund.

260. If any of the said huts be pulled down, the Commissioners shall cause the materials of each hut to be given to the owner of the hut; or if the owner be unknown, or the title disputed, the materials shall be sold and the proceeds shall be held in deposit by the Commissioners until the person interested therein shall obtain an order from a competent court for the payment of the same.

A Court of Small Causes shall be deemed a competent court for the purpose.

261. The Commissioners may, at any time, after the receipt of the report of the medical officers acquire by purchase, or in the manner provided by Objections to Commissioner's plan to be entertained.

Commissioners may require huts to be built in conformity with the standard plan.

On receipt of report Commissioners may cause notice to be served.

Commissioners may carry out works if owners or occupiers refuse.

Expenses may be recovered by instalments or remitted in case of poverty.

Salvage of huts.

Commissioners on the report of medical officers may acquire land.

Chapter XIII, Part II, any land other than bustee land shown in that report as land which should be acquired.

262. After the works specified in Schedule A attached to the report filed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, or so much of such works as are approved by the Commissioners in meeting, have been completed, the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-five shall apply to such bustee until it is brought into complete conformity with the standard plan approved in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-eight, after which the bustee shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

263. No standard plan, prepared under sections two hundred and fifty-two, two hundred and fifty-three, two hundred and fifty-seven, or two hundred and sixty-eight shall, without the consent of the owners, show more than one-fifth of the area of the bustee as roads or more than one-half as open lands not to be built upon, whether such open land be common ground, roads, or spaces behind a line of huts; but no tank that is not filled up shall be taken into account in calculating the above proportion. The proposed standard plan shall also, as far as possible, provide for one or more huts being completely contained in each separate plot of bustee land within the bustee and for a due proportion of roadway and open ground in each plot; and if a greater portion of any one plot is taken for roads or open ground than the proportion allowed by this section, the compensation which should be paid to the owner of this plot and the persons who should pay such compensation by reason of their benefiting thereby shall be specified; if no other owner can be equitably called upon to pay such compensation, it shall be paid by the Commissioners. The compensation thus fixed shall not be payable till the plot belonging to the owner entitled to it has been brought into complete conformity with the standard plan.

264. Any owner of bustee land included within the limits of a bustee may at any time give notice to the Commissioners that he intends to change the character of the whole or of any portion of the land belonging to him, so that it will cease to be bustee land. If his notice refers only to a part of his land, a separate number shall be forthwith assigned in the assessment book to the part to which the notice applies. From the date of such notice no application shall be received for building, re-building, or adding to any hut in the land to which the notice applies, and the owner shall be bound to remove all existing huts within six months after giving such notice. When all the huts have been removed, the land shall cease to be liable to the incidents of bustee land, and, according to its situation, shall either be altogether excluded from the limits of the bustee, or shall be shown in the standard plan of the bustee as land within the said limits which is not bustee land.

265. The roads shown in the standard plan of a bustee which are not already public streets shall, unless the Commissioners and the owners concerned otherwise agree, remain private streets; and the portion which falls on the land of each owner shall belong to such owner. Any portion which falls on land acquired or purchased by the Commissioners under section two hundred and sixty-one shall remain the property of the Commissioners.

Every such private street shall at all times be kept open to the conservancy carts of the Commissioners for the purpose of scavenging in the bustee, and shall also be kept open for the use of all the tenants of the bustee, but no such use, whether by the conservancy carts or by the tenants, shall be held by any lapse of time to confer a right of way on the public, so as to bring such street within the definition of a "public street."

266. If any portion of the land which it is sought to remove from the incidents of bustee land is shown in the standard plan of the bustee as a road or part of a road, the notice shall be held not to apply to such road without the express consent of the Commissioners, but such road shall continue part of a private street open to the use of conservancy carts and of the tenants of the bustee.

267. When a standard plan has been prepared for a bustee, the several owners of the bustee land shall be respectively deemed to be the occupiers of the roads, common ground, and of such drains of the bustee as serve more than one hut, so far as constructed in accordance with such standard plan, and the owner of each hut shall be deemed to be the occupier of the land occupied by his hut, of that portion of the open space behind his hut which appertains to it, and of any drain which is for the sole use of his hut.

268. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections two hundred and fifty-seven to two hundred and sixty-two, the Commissioners in meeting may, upon receipt of the report prescribed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, pass a resolution to the effect that any bustee is an unhealthy area, and that, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the acquisition of the bustee, or any part thereof, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, is necessary for the purpose of making the requisite improvements thereon, and shall proceed to make a standard plan for the improvement of such land, and shall forward such plan, accompanied by such estimates as shall be necessary for a due understanding of the same, together with a copy of such resolution, for the consideration and sanction of the Local Government.

On receipt of such sanction, the Commissioners in meeting may acquire such land or any part thereof in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

When the sanction of the Local Government has been accorded to any standard plan for the improvement of any land acquired by the Commissioners as above provided, the Commissioners in meeting may sell or let any part of the acquired land to any person for the purpose and under the condition that he will, as respects the land so purchased by, or leased to, him, carry out such standard plan.

The Commissioners may, instead of selling or letting the land acquired by them as aforesaid, themselves bring the bustee into conformity with such standard plan.

The Commissioners shall be bound to sell or lease such land in the manner aforesaid, or themselves to carry out the improvement sanctioned under this section within the term of four years from the date of their acquiring such land, unless the Local Government shall specially extend such term.

When a bustee has been improved under this section, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

269. The Commissioners in meeting may sanction the employment of Commissioners may levy a rate for cleansing a special establishment for bustees, the cleansing of bustees, and when such establishment has been sanctioned, they may impose a rate to defray the cost of such establishment, on the owners of such bustees:

Provided that, without the consent of the owners, no such rate shall be levied upon any remodelled bustee.

270. If any bustee for which no such establishment as is referred to in the last preceding section is maintained, appears to the Commissioners to be in a filthy condition, the Commissioners may serve notices upon the occupiers as defined in section two hundred and sixty-seven, requiring them within three days to cleanse the same, and if the occupiers do not comply with the terms of such notices to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cleanse the whole or any portion of the bustee which requires cleansing, and may recover the cost incurred by them from the occupiers of such portions of the bustee as they have cleansed in such manner as a rate may be recovered.

CHAPTER XI.

OF DRAINAGE WORKS, DRAINS AND PRIVIES.

271. The Commissioners may carry out such a complete system or systems of sewerage and drainage as they may think fit, subject to the approval of the Local Government, and such alterations as may from time to time be ordered by it.

272. All public sewers and drains, and all sewers, drains, tunnels, and culverts in, alongside, or under any public street, whether made at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all works, materials, and things appertaining thereto, shall vest in, and belong to, the Commissioners.

273. The Commissioners shall have power to construct within Calcutta, and when necessary for the purposes of outfall or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, such sewers as they may think necessary for keeping the town properly cleansed and drained, and may carry such sewers through, across or under any road, street or place, and after reasonable notice in writing into, through or under any premises or lands whatsoever, and may from time to time enlarge, lessen, alter, arch over or otherwise improve, modify or change, or close up or destroy all sewers, vested in them, provided no nuisance is created by such operations; and if any person is thereby deprived of the lawful use of any drain or sewer, the Commissioners shall provide another as effectual for his use within one hundred feet from some part of his premises. The Commissioners shall cause their sewers to be so constructed, kept and cleansed as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health, and for the purpose of cleansing, flushing and emptying them may construct and place either above or under ground, such reservoirs, sluices, engines or other works as may be necessary, and may cause such sewers to communicate with, and be emptied into, such places as may be fit and necessary within Calcutta, and if necessary for the purpose of outfall or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, and may cause the sewage and refuse therefrom and from the town to be collected for sale, or for the improvement of land, or for incineration, or for any purpose whatsoever, but not so as to create a nuisance.

If a sewer is carried into, through or under any lands not belonging to the Corporation, the Commissioners shall make compensation to the owner thereof for any damage sustained by him by reason of such sewer being so carried into, through or under his land. In case of dispute, the amount of compensation payable by the Commissioners shall be determined in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

274. When the contents of any sewer or drain, or any other flow of filth or refuse, are discharged into any river or stream in the bed or channel of which the quantity of water at any season of the year is so much diminished, by natural or artificial causes, as to be insufficient to keep such channel clean or clear, the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government, may make such alteration in the bed of such river or stream as may prevent such sewer and drain-water from spreading, over the surface of such bed, or from accumulating and stagnating in parts thereof to the injury of health or the annoyance of the surrounding population.

275. If any person, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, makes or alters any drain leading into any of the sewers or drains vested in the Commissioners, or makes such drain, or carries out such alterations, with materials not approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such branch drain to be demolished, altered, re-made, or otherwise dealt with as they shall think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person making or altering such branch drain.

276. Whoever, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, makes or alters any drain leading into any of the sewers or drains vested in the Commissioners by this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

277. If any house or land within one hundred feet of a public sewer or surface drain fit for use, or of some tidal river or other place at which the Commis-

Commissioners to drain Calcutta.

Public sewers, drains, tunnels and culverts vested in the Commissioners.

Powers of Commissioners in making public sewers.

Bed of stream receiving sewage to be cleared.

Unauthorized drains leading into public sewers may be demolished.

Fine for altering or making unauthorized drains leading into public sewers.

Commissioners empowered to make drains from houses which are not properly drained.

sioners are empowered to empty their sewers, be at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners by sufficient surface drains or pipes communicating with some sewer, surface drain, tidal river, or other place as aforesaid, the Commissioners may, if the owner neglects to do so within fifteen days after notice, construct or lay through or from such house or land, suitable drains of such materials, of such size and with such fall, as they shall think necessary for the complete draining of such house or land; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

For the purpose of efficiently draining any house or land under this section, the Commissioners may require any court-yard, alley, or passage between two or more houses, to be paved with such materials and in such manner as may be approved of by them, and may require such paving to be kept in proper repair. They may also require the level of any such court-yard, alley or passage to be raised if necessary, for the efficient drainage thereof.

278. The Commissioners themselves may construct and lay down such portions of the drains mentioned in the last preceding section and sections two hundred and eighty-two and two hundred and eighty-three, as may be carried through or under any public drain, aqueduct, or street, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

279. Whenever it is provided in this Chapter that steps shall or may be taken for the effectual drainage of any premises, it shall be competent to the Commissioners to require that there shall be one drain for sewage and polluted water, and another and an entirely distinct drain for rain-water or unpolluted subsoil water or for both, each emptying into separate municipal drains or other suitable places.

280. It shall not be lawful for any person to make any underground drains in connection with the public sewers unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may, from time to time, lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of the license.

Any person holding such license, who shall infringe or break any such rule or regulation, shall be liable to have his license cancelled, and he or any person making any underground drain in connection with the public sewers without a license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

281. The Commissioners may cause the work of laying underground drains to be supervised while in progress, and from time to time during their execution may order such reasonable alterations therein, additions thereto, and abandonment of part or parts thereof, as may to the Commissioners appear, on the fuller knowledge afforded by the opening of the ground, requisite to secure the complete and satisfactory execution of such works as aforesaid.

282. If it appear to the Commissioners that a group or block of houses may be drained more economically or advantageously in combination than separately, and a sewer of sufficient size already exists, or is about to be constructed, within one hundred feet of any part of such group or block of houses, the Commissioners may cause such group or block of houses to be drained by a combined operation; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners of such houses, or, in the case of bustee land, by the owners of the land in such proportions as shall to the Commissioners seem fit.

Not less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owners of all the land or houses to be drained of the nature of the proposed work and an estimate of the expenses about to be incurred in respect thereof and the proportion payable by each owner.

283. Whenever a drain belonging to one or more persons has been laid in any street or passage common to more than one house, and it is deemed desirable to drain any other premises into such drain, the Commissioners may require the owners of such drain to allow a connection therewith to be made on such terms as may seem to them equitable, and the owner or owners of the drain shall be entitled to refuse to allow the connection to be made until the terms prescribed have been accepted and any order for payment made by the Commissioners has been complied with.

284. All underground drains in streets (public or otherwise) shall be provided by the Commissioners or by the persons to whom they severally belong with proper traps or other coverings and means of ventilation, so as to prevent stench.

If the owner of any private sewer or underground drain shall, for ten days after notice given to him by the Commissioners, neglect or delay to provide proper traps or coverings and means of ventilation as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith provide and apply the same;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

285. The Commissioners may erect on, or fix to, any house or wall such properly jointed pipes as they may deem necessary for the proper ventilation of the sewers belonging to them, and such pipes shall be carried to a height of not less than six feet above the highest part of the highest adjacent house, and erected so as not to occasion any nuisance or inconvenience to any house in the neighbourhood.

286. All branch drains, as well within as without the house or land to which they belong, and all privies, cess-pools, stables and cow-houses in Calcutta, shall be under the survey and control of the Commissioners as regards their site, material, dimensions and construction, and shall be altered, supplied with water, connected with a sewer, paved, repaired, kept in proper order, stopped up, or demolished, at the costs and charges of the owner of the house or land to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued;

and if the owner of any house or land to which any such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house belongs, neglect, during eight days after notice in writing, to execute the work in the manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause the work to be executed in respect of such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

287. If any private drain is obstructed, the Obstructions in private drains to be removed occupier of the premises in which such drain is situated shall, within six hours after receiving notice to do so from the Commissioners, cause the obstruction to be removed, and if he make default, the Commissioners may cause the necessary work to be done and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recoverable from such occupier.

288. If any branch drain, privy, cess-pool,

Commissioners may alter any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house made contrary to their order.

stable or cow-house be constructed contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or if any person, without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any branch drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up, or not to be made, or constructs or rebuilds any stable or cow-house which has been ordered by them to be demolished or not to be built, the Commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house as they think fit;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person by whom such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or otherwise dealt with.

289. Whoever constructs any drain, privy,

Penalty for persons making or altering drain, contrary to the orders of the Commissioners.

cess-pool, stable or cow-house after the commencement of this Act contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or, whoever without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them not to be made or to be demolished or to be stopped up, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

290. The Commissioners may inspect any Inspection of branch drains, privies, cess-pools, stables or cow-houses.

branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house, and for that purpose, at any time between sunrise and sunset, after one hour's notice in writing to the occupier of the house or land to which such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house is attached, may enter upon such house or land with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where they may think fit, doing as little damage as may be;

and if, upon such inspection, it appears that such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house is not in good order and condition, or that it has been constructed contrary to the provisions of this Act, the expenses of such inspection shall be paid by the person to whom such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house may belong;

and if any branch drain is choked, or if any other defect connected with such branch drain which requires to be forthwith remedied is brought to light by such inspection, the Commissioners shall then and there clear out the branch drain, or remedy the defect;

but if the branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house be found to be in proper order and condition, and not to have been constructed in violation of the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be, and the expenses of opening and closing the ground shall be paid by the Commissioners.

291. Whoever throws or puts, or permits his Penalty for throwing rubbish or permitting any offensive matter or sewage to flow or be put into sewers.

servants to throw or put, any rubbish, or, until suitable sewers shall be provided, permits any offensive matter or sewage to flow, or be put into any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners, or into any drain communicating therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence.

292. No person shall, without the permission of the Commissioners in writing, construct or keep any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle for sewage or offensive matter within fifty feet of any public tank, or a tank used by the inhabitants of any locality. Any person upon whose land any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle so situated shall be now existing or hereafter constructed, shall remove the same within eight days of the receipt of a written notice from the Commissioners.

No latrine to be constructed within fifty feet of a tank.

293. Any person failing to comply with the notice mentioned in the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 3 for every day that the latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle remains within the limits aforesaid.

Penalty.

294. If the Commissioners think that any Commissioners may cause additional privies to be provided for any land.

privy or additional privy should be provided for any house or land, the owner of such house or land shall, within fourteen days after notice in that behalf by the Commissioners, cause such privy, together with the necessary pipes, drains, and water-supply, to be constructed in accordance with the requisition of such notice; and if such privy be not so constructed to the satisfaction of the Commissioners within such period, the Commissioners may cause such privy, together with the necessary pipes, drains, and water-supply, to be so constructed; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

295. The Commissioners, in executing any works under this Act, shall provide and make, at their own expense, a sufficient number of convenient ways, water-courses, drains, and channels in the place of such as may be interrupted, injured, or rendered useless by reason of the execution of such works;

Commissioners in executing works to provide proper drains.

and if any difference arises between the Commissioners and the persons affected thereby;

such difference shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

296. The Commissioners shall, during the construction or repair by them of any of the streets, sewers, or drains vested in or belonging to them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses; and shall cause such bars, chains, or posts to be fixed across or in any street (public or otherwise), to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, cattle, or animals, while such works are carried on as to them shall seem proper;

and shall cause any sewer, or drain, or other works in streets (public or otherwise), during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be sufficiently lighted and guarded during the night.

CHAPTER XII.

OF SANITARY MATTERS.

PART I.—Of scavenging and cleansing.

297. The Commissioners shall cause the public streets to be sufficiently lighted and regularly swept and cleansed; and the rubbish and offensive matter of every kind whatsoever found thereon to be collected and removed every day.

298. The Commissioners may cause any number of moveable or fixed dust-boxes or other convenient receptacles (wherein rubbish and offensive matter arising from the ordinary domestic use of houses, may be temporarily deposited until removed and carried away,) to be provided and placed in proper and convenient situations, and may require the occupiers of houses in public streets to cause all such matter as aforesaid to be deposited in such receptacles and between such hours as they may from time to time direct:

Provided that no occupier shall be required to deposit refuse in a dust-box at a greater distance than fifty yards from the entrance of his premises.

299. Subject to the proviso contained in the last preceding section, every person who, after such receptacles have been provided, and after such requisition as above-mentioned, shall deposit, or cause or permit to be deposited, any such matter in any public street, except in such receptacles, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

300. Whoever deposits, or suffers to be deposited, any rubbish, offensive matter or sewage in any public street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghât, or landing place, or on any part of the river bank, whether above or below high water mark, except in such places, and in such manner, and at such hours, as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every such offence.

301. If it shall in any case be shown that dust, rubbish, offensive matter or sewage has been thrown or placed on any street or place in contravention of section two hundred and ninety-nine or section three hundred from some building or land, it shall be presumed that the offence has been committed by, or with the sufferance of, the occupier of such building or land, unless the contrary be proved.

302. Whoever causes or allows the water of any sink or sewer, or any offensive matter belonging to him, or being in any house or land in his occupation, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street (public or otherwise), or causes or allows any sewage to run, drain, or be thrown into a surface drain not intended for the purpose, in any street (public or otherwise), shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every such offence.

303. The Commissioners from time to time shall appoint—

- (a) the hours within which sewage or any offensive matter may be removed;
- (b) the kind of cart or other receptacle in which it may be removed;
- (c) the route by which such cart or other receptacle shall proceed.

304. When the Commissioners have fixed such hours and given public notice thereof, whoever removes or causes to be removed along any street (public or otherwise) any such sewage or offensive matter at any time, except within the hours so fixed, and also, whoever at any time, whether such hours have been fixed by the Commissioners or not, uses for any such purpose any cart, carriage, or other receptacle or vessel other than that approved and sanctioned by the Commissioners, or spills any such sewage or offensive matter in the removal thereof, and does not carefully sweep and clean every place in which any such offensive matter has been so spilled, or places or sets down in any public place any vessel containing such sewage or offensive matter, or drives or takes, or causes to be driven or taken, any cart, carriage, receptacle, or vessel used for any such purpose as aforesaid, through any street (public or otherwise), or by any route other than that, from time to time, by public notice, appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every such offence.

305. The Commissioners shall from time to time appoint or provide places—

- (a) for the deposit of rubbish or offensive matter collected and removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) for the deposit of the carcasses of animals removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (c) for keeping all cattle, carts, implements, and other things required for the above or any of the purposes of this Act.

306. The occupier of any premises in or upon which any animal shall die, or upon which the carcass of any animal shall be found, and the person having the charge of any animal which dies in a street or in any open place shall, within three hours after the death of such animal, or if the death occurs at night, within three hours after sunrise, either—

(a) remove the carcass of such animal to some receptacle, depôt or place appointed by the Commissioners under section three hundred and five for the temporary deposit or final disposal of such carcasses; or

(b) report the death of the animal to the proper officer of the Commissioners, with a view to causing the carcass to be removed.

When any carcass is removed, in the manner provided in clause (b) a fee for the removal, of such amount as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be paid by the owner of the animal, or, if the owner is not known, by the occupier of the premises in or upon which, or by the person in whose charge the same died. The word "animal" in this section includes an elephant, camel, horse, mule, donkey, horned beast, sheep, pig, or other large animal.

307. Whoever, being the occupier of any house or land, keeps or suffers to be kept any offensive matter for more than twenty-four hours, otherwise than in a proper receptacle, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 30, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence; and the Commissioners may cleanse the premises, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the occupier.

308. All rubbish, offensive matter or sewage collected from the streets (public or otherwise), houses, privies, sewers, and cess-pools, and all carcasses removed under the provisions of section three hundred and six shall belong to the Commissioners, who may sell or dispose of the same as they may think proper, and the money arising from the sale thereof shall form part of the General Fund.

Rubbish, offensive matter or sewage to be the property of the Commissioners.

309. If any house or land, by reason of abandonment, or of disputed ownership, or other cause, remains untenanted, and thereby becomes a resort of idle and disorderly persons, or becomes in a filthy or unwholesome state, or is complained of by any two or more of the neighbours as a nuisance, the Commissioners, after due enquiry, may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, or to the person claiming or believed to be the owner, if he be known and resident in Calcutta, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door of the house or some conspicuous part of the land requiring the persons concerned therein, whoever they may be, to secure, enclose, clean, or clear the same;

and if such notice shall not be complied with within eight days, the Commissioners shall cause the necessary work to be executed, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recovered from the owner or by the sale of any materials found upon such house or land, and the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-four shall be applicable to such sale.

310. The Commissioners may provide and maintain in proper and convenient situations, common necessities and urinals, and shall cause the same, when provided, to be constructed, and kept so as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health.

311. The Commissioners may license, for any period not exceeding one year, such necessities for public accommodation as they may, from time to time, think proper; and may at any time, on giving one month's notice, if they think fit, cancel any license so granted.

All fees payable under any license granted under this section shall be recoverable from the persons liable to pay the same, as if the amounts payable in respect thereof were rates due to the Commissioners from such persons, under the provisions of Chapter VI.

312. Whoever keeps any public necessary without a license as mentioned in the last preceding section, or, having a license, suffers such public necessary to be in a filthy or noxious state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

313. The Commissioners shall maintain an establishment under their control for the removal of sewage from all houses, the privies of which are not connected with the sewers.

314. The Commissioners in meeting may, by a general order, or by an order to affect such portion of Calcutta as may be specified therein, prohibit the making of excavations for the purpose of taking earth therefrom, or for the purpose of storing rubbish or offensive matter therein, and the digging of cess-pools, tanks, wells or pits without the special permission of the Commissioners.

If any such excavation, cess-pool, tank, well or pit is made after the issue and publication of such order without such permission, the Commissioners may require the owner and occupier of the land on which such excavation, cess-pool, tank, well or pit is made, within two weeks to fill up such excavation with earth or other material approved of by them, and in default the Commissioners may enter upon the land and execute the work, and the expense thereby incurred shall be paid one-half by the owner and one-half by the occupier of such land.

315. When any well, tank, or marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water, whether within any private enclosure or not, appears to the Commissioners to be injurious to health or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, the Commissioners may require, by notice in writing, the owner of the same to cleanse or fill up such well, tank or marshy ground with suitable material, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during one month from the service thereof, the Commissioners may enter into the said premises, and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as they shall think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner, and until so paid the Commissioners may retain possession of the land or tank or the site of such tank and utilise the same for public purposes.

316. Whoever, being an owner of land, fails to comply with the requisition mentioned in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART II.—Inspection and sanitary regulation of premises.

317. The Commissioners may inspect any building or other premises for the purpose of ascertaining the sanitary condition thereof.

318. If it shall appear to the Commissioners necessary for sanitary reasons so to do, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any building so inspected, to cause the same or some portion thereof to be lime-washed or otherwise cleansed, either externally or internally, or both externally and internally, within a time to be specified in such notice.

319. If, for any reason, any building intended for or used as a dwelling shall appear to the Commissioners to be unfit for human habitation, they may apply to a Magistrate to prohibit the further use of such building for such purpose; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, make a prohibition as aforesaid or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

When any such prohibition has been made, no owner or occupier of such building shall use or suffer the same to be used for human habitation until the Commissioners certify in writing that the causes rendering it unfit for human habitation have been removed to their satisfaction, or the Magistrate, by a written order, withdraws the prohibition aforesaid.

320. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that any building used as a dwelling is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, they may apply to a Magistrate to prevent such overcrowding; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, require the owner of the building, within a reasonable time not exceeding six weeks, to be prescribed in the said order, to abate the overcrowding thereof, by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants, or other inmates of the said building, or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

If the owner of the said building shall have sublet the same, the landlord of the lodgers, tenants or other actual inmates of the same shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the owner of the building.

It shall be incumbent on every tenant, lodger or other inmate of the building to vacate on being required by the owner so to do in pursuance of any such requisition.

PART III.—Of the prevention of infectious or contagious diseases.

321. Every medical practitioner who treats or becomes cognizant of the existence of any case of cholera, small-pox, diphtheria or typhoid fever in any private or public dwelling, other than a public hospital, shall be bound to give information of the same with the least practicable delay to the Commissioners. The said information shall be communicated in such form and with such details as the Commissioners may from time to time require.

The Commissioners in meeting may, with the sanction of the Local Government, impose a similar obligation with regard to any other dangerous disease.

322. The Commissioners may, at any time, after giving such notice of their intention as shall, under the circumstances, appear to them to be reasonable, enter and inspect any place in which any dangerous disease is reputed or suspected to exist, and take such measures as they shall think fit to prevent the spread of the said disease beyond such place.

323. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that the water in any well, tank, or other place is likely, if used for drinking, to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by public notice, prohibit the removal or use of the said water for the purpose of drinking.

No person shall remove or use for the purpose of drinking, any water in respect of which any such public notice has been issued.

324. When any hospital or place for the reception of persons suffering from any dangerous, epidemic, endemic, or infectious disease has been provided, the Commissioners may, on a certificate countersigned by the Health Officer, and with the consent of the Superintendent of such hospital or place, direct the removal thereto of any male person suffering from any such dangerous disease, who is, in the opinion of such Health Officer, without proper lodging or accommodation.

325. If, upon the certificate of the Health Officer, the Commissioners are of opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of a building, or of a part of a building, or of any article therein likely to retain infection, would tend to prevent or check the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of such building, within a reasonable time to be prescribed in the said notice, to cleanse or disinfect the same.

If the owner or occupier fails to comply with the said notice, the Commissioners shall cause the building, or part of the building, or article, to be cleansed or disinfected, and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the owner or occupier :

Provided that if, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the owner or occupier is, from poverty or other cause, unable effectually to carry out the said requirements, the Commissioners may cleanse or disinfect the building, or part of the building, or article likely to retain infection at the charge of the General Fund.

326. If the Commissioners are of opinion that the destruction of any hut is necessary to prevent the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, after giving the owner or occupier thereof reasonable notice, take measures for the destruction of such hut or shed and the materials of which it is constructed.

The Commissioners may pay compensation to any person sustaining substantial loss by the destruction of any hut, but no person shall be entitled as of right to claim compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him by reason of the destruction of any hut by the Commissioners under the powers conferred upon them by this section.

327. The Commissioners in meeting may provide a proper place or places, with all necessary apparatus and attendance, for the disinfection of clothing, bedding, or other articles which have become infected, and may cause articles brought for disinfection to be disinfected free of charge.

The Commissioners may from time to time notify one or more places at which clothing or bedding, or other articles which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease, may be washed; and no person shall wash any such article at any public place not so notified, without having previously disinfected the same.

The Commissioners may direct the disinfection or destruction of bedding, clothing, or other articles likely to retain infection, and may, in their discretion, give compensation at the charge of the General Fund for any article destroyed.

328. The Commissioners in meeting may provide and maintain suitable conveyances for the free carriage of persons suffering from small-pox or cholera, or from any other dangerous disease, in regard to which the Commissioners in meeting may impose a similar obligation; and when such conveyances have been provided, it shall not be lawful to convey any such person by any other public conveyance.

The Commissioners in meeting may also provide suitable conveyances for the transport of clothing, bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection.

329. The owner, driver, or person in charge of a public conveyance in which any person suffering from small-pox has been carried shall immediately provide for the disinfection of the same to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

330. No person shall, without previous disinfection of the same, give, lend, sell, transmit or otherwise dispose of any article which he knows, or has reason to know, has been exposed to infection.

But nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to a person who transmits, with proper precautions, any article for the purpose of having the same disinfected.

331. No person who is suffering from small-pox shall enter a public conveyance without previously notifying to the owner, driver, or person in charge of such conveyance that he is so suffering.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to public conveyances for the time being in force, no owner or driver or person in charge of a public conveyance shall be bound to carry any person suffering as aforesaid in such conveyance, unless payment or tender of sufficient compensation for the loss and expenses he must incur in disinfecting such conveyance is first of all made to him.

332. No person shall let a building, or any part of a building, in which he knows, or has reason to know, that a person has been suffering from any of the diseases specified in section three hundred and twenty-one without first having such building or part thereof and every article therein likely to retain infection disinfected to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

For the purpose of this section, the keeper of an hotel or inn shall be deemed to let part of his building to any person accommodated in such hotel or inn.

333. Any person committing a breach of any of the provisions of this Part shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

334. In the event of Calcutta being at any time visited or threatened with an outbreak of any dangerous, epidemic or zootic disease, the Commissioners in meeting, if they think that the ordinary precautions are insufficient to check the spread of such disease, may, with the sanction of the Local Government, take such special measures as they shall think necessary to prevent, check, or mitigate any such outbreak, and the expenses of any such measures shall be paid out of the General Fund. Such measures and any regulations passed to give effect thereto shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and any person wilfully neglecting or refusing to carry out, or obstructing the execution of any regulation made under this section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

PART IV.—Of the control of public stables, cattle-houses, bathing places and wash-houses.

335. No person shall keep any animal for profit within Calcutta except in a place licensed by the Commissioners.

Such license shall be taken out yearly before the first day of June in every year.

The word 'animal' in this section shall include an elephant, camel, horse, mule, donkey, horned beast, sheep, goat and pig.

The Commissioners in meeting shall determine the places where such animals may be kept and the rules as to paving, drainage, water-supply, cubical space, light and other conditions subject to which the license may be granted, and may impose an annual fee not exceeding Rs. 10 for such license, and no place shall be licensed until the conditions imposed have been complied with.

336. Whoever, being the owner of any land, permits any animals to be kept thereon in contravention of the provisions of the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence, and the person keeping the animals shall also be liable to a similar fine.

When a conviction has been obtained under this section, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to turn out the animals and close the place wherein they were kept.

337. Whoever, being the holder of a license under section three hundred and thirty-five commits a breach of the conditions of such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

338. The Commissioners may, at their discretion, set apart any public ghât or place (not being private property, or part of the river or river bank of the Port of Calcutta) for the purpose of being used as a bathing place;

provide or set apart a sufficient number of convenient tanks or reservoirs, or runs of water, for the inhabitants to bathe in;

construct wash-houses for washing clothes, and set apart tanks or reservoirs, or runs of water, for washing animals or clothes, or for any other purpose connected with the health, cleanliness, and comfort of the inhabitants.

339. Whoever bathes or washes any animal or clothes in any public place, except the places provided or set apart under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

340. The Commissioners in meeting may, by public notice, prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen in the exercise of their calling, except at such places as the Commissioners shall appoint for the purpose; and when any such prohibition has been made, no person who is, by calling, a washerman shall wash clothes at any place not so appointed other than his own or those of the owner or occupier of such place.

The Commissioners shall provide suitable places for the exercise by washermen of their calling, and may require payment of such fees for the use of any such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Commissioners in meeting.

PART V.—Of Slaughter-houses and Dangerous and Offensive Trades.

341. No place shall be used as a slaughterhouse within Calcutta unless a license in writing for the use thereof as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Commissioners in meeting, who may, at their discretion, from time to time, grant, refuse, suspend or revoke such license.

Whoever uses any place as a slaughter-house without such license shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 20, and upon a conviction being obtained the Commissioners may, if they think fit, close such slaughter-house.

342. Whoever, during the period for which any license is suspended, or after the same is revoked as aforesaid, slaughters any animal, or allows any animal to be slaughtered in the slaughter-house to which such license relates, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

343. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, if they shall think fit, provide places within or without Calcutta for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses; and all places heretofore provided by the Commissioners for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses shall be deemed to have been provided under this section.

344. Every owner, occupier or farmer of any slaughter-house in Calcutta shall cause such drains to be made therein as shall be considered sufficient by the Commissioners, and (if required so to do by the Commissioners) shall cause all the floors and drains to be paved with stone or other material, and shall also cause a supply of water to be provided sufficient for keeping such slaughter-house in a clean and wholesome state. He shall also cause to be removed, at least once in every twenty-four hours, all blood, offal, or other offensive matter arising from the use of such slaughter-house in such manner, at such time, and with such precautions as the Commissioners may direct.

If such owner, occupier, or farmer, after notice in writing given to him by the Commissioners that such slaughter-house is defective in any of the said particulars, and requiring him to remedy the defect specified within not less than thirty days, makes default therein, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day during which such default is continued.

345. The Commissioners in meeting may set apart places for the sacrifice of goats, in accordance with Hindu rites, and the sale of the meat thereof, and the provisions of sections three hundred and forty-three and the last preceding section shall apply to such places.

346. No premises, not already registered under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876, shall be used:—

(a) for melting tallow;

- (b) for boiling offal, hoofs, bones or blood;
- (c) as a soap-house;
- (d) as an oil-boiling house;
- (e) as a dyeing-house;
- (f) as a tannery;
- (g) as a brick, pottery, or limekiln;
- (h) as a knacker's yard;
- (i) as a hide godown or hide screw-house;
- (j) as a mill for crushing bones or preparing artificial manure;
- (k) as a manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise; or
- (l) as a depôt for hay, straw, wood, coal, or rags;

except under a license from the Commissioners, who may, at their discretion, from time to time, grant such license on such conditions as they may think fit.

347. The Commissioners in meeting shall fix a scale of fees to be paid in respect of premises licensed under the last preceding section or registered under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876:

Provided that no fee shall exceed Rs. 500, nor be less than the amount otherwise payable as a trade or profession license under the Second Schedule.

348. Whoever, without a license, uses any place not registered under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876 for any purpose specified in section three hundred and forty-six shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the said offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

349. If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that any place referred to in section three hundred and forty-six is a nuisance or entails probable danger to the neighbourhood, they may give notice to the occupier to discontinue the use of such place within one month after the date of such notice.

Whoever, after the expiration of such time, uses such place, for any of the purposes mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six, or permits it to be so used, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART VI.—Of markets and the sale of food and drugs.

350. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time, if they shall think fit, with the sanction of the Local Government, provide places in Calcutta for the purpose of being used as municipal markets, and the Commissioners may charge such rents, tolls, and fees as to them may seem fit for the use of, or right to expose goods for sale in, such markets, and for the use of shops, stalls, and standings therein.

351. All such rents, tolls, and fees which shall be imposed shall be recoverable by the Commissioners from the persons liable to pay the same as if the amounts payable in respect thereof were rates due to the Commissioners from such persons under the provisions of Chapter VI.

352. The Commissioners may expel from any such municipal market any vendor who, or whose servants, may be convicted of disobeying any bye-law made under section four hundred and twelve, clause (i), and may prevent such person, by himself or his servants, from further carrying on any trade or business in such market, or occupying any stall or shop therein, and may determine any lease or tenure which such person may have in any such stall or shop.

353. The Commissioners may sell, or let to tenants on lease or otherwise, on such terms as they may think fit, any municipal market, or any part thereof, and may do all things necessary for carrying the provisions of this section into effect.

354. The Commissioners in meeting may close any municipal market, or any part thereof, or sell, or let out to tenants on lease or otherwise, any land heretofore used as a municipal market, or any part thereof, on such terms as they may think fit, and may do all things necessary for carrying the provisions of this section into effect.

355. It shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners in meeting to grant licenses for the use of any place which they are satisfied is suitable for the purpose, as a market for the sale of meat, fish, fruit, and vegetables, and every such license shall be in force until the first day of April next following the day therein named for the commencement thereof.

Nothing contained in this section shall be held to impose upon any person the obligation of taking out a license for a market which has been registered under section six of Bengal Act VIII of 1871.

356. No person shall, without a license from the Commissioners, use any place as a shop for the sale of fresh meat or fish except in a municipal, registered, or licensed market. And the Commissioners in meeting may fix a scale of fees for licenses to be taken out annually for such shops:

Provided that no fee for a license to use any place as a shop for the sale of meat shall be less than Rs. 12. This section shall not apply to any place licensed as an hotel or eating-house.

357. Whoever wilfully or negligently permits any place in Calcutta (not being a market which has been registered under section six of Bengal Act VIII of 1871) to be used as a market for the sale of meat, fish, fruit or vegetables, or as a shop for the sale of fresh meat or fish, without a license under this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the said offence shall be continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

358. Upon a conviction being obtained under the last preceding section, the Magistrate shall, on the application of the Commissioners, but not otherwise, order such place to be closed, and thereupon appoint persons, or take other steps, to prevent such place being so used; and every person who shall sell or expose for sale meat, fish, fruit, or vegetables in any place which shall have been so closed shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

359. The Commissioners, in meeting may define, fix, and determine the limits of any registered or licensed market or bazar and what portions of any market or bazar shall be thrown into, and made part of, the existing approaches, roads, paths, and ways in such market or bazar for the convenient use of persons resorting thereto; and shall signify the same by affixing, or causing to be affixed, in some conspicuous place or places in the market or bazar, a notice signifying the limits and description of the parts of the said market or bazar so to be kept and used as part of the approaches, roads, paths, and ways.

360. The Commissioners in meeting may, by notice in writing to the owner, proprietor, or lessee of any registered or licensed market or bazar, require him, within a time to be specified therein, to execute the necessary works and take all necessary measures for the setting out, clearing, widening, and maintaining of the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways; and may, in case of default by their servants and workmen, enter into and upon the said market or bazar, and clear, set out, and widen the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person on whom the notice has been served.

361. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time vary and alter the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways as occasion may require, signifying the same by a like notice.

362. Whoever shall cause any obstruction or encroachment in or on any approaches, roads, paths, or ways to, or in, any registered or licensed market or bazar shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 10, for every day such obstruction or encroachment is continued after notice from the Commissioners to remove or discontinue the same.

363. Any Magistrate, on the application of the Commissioners setting forth that there is just cause to believe that any article, which has been rendered or has become noxious or unfit for use as food or drink for man, is in the possession of any person for the purpose of being sold, offered, or exposed for sale, may grant a warrant to enter upon the premises of such person and to search for and seize such article;

and if it appear to the Magistrate that any such article, whether discovered with or without a warrant under this section, is noxious or unfit for such use, he shall order it to be forfeited and disposed of in such way as to him shall seem proper.

364. No person shall sell to the prejudice of the purchaser any article of food which is not of the nature, substance or quality of the article demanded by such purchaser under a penalty not exceeding Rs. 100 for the first offence, and not exceeding Rs. 500 for any offence after a conviction for a first offence: Provided that an offence shall not be deemed to be committed under this section in the following cases, that is to say—

- (1) Where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to the food, because the same is required for the production or preparation thereof as an article of commerce, in a state fit for carriage or consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the food or conceal the inferior quality thereof.
- (2) Where the food is unavoidably mixed with some extraneous matter in the process of collection or preparation.

The term "food" shall include every article used for food or drink by man other than drugs or water.

In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold by him, or that the purchaser, having bought only for analysis, was not prejudiced by the sale.

No proceedings shall be instituted under this section without the order or consent in writing of the Commissioners.

365. The Commissioners may, at all reasonable times, enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall, boat, vessel, wharf, godown, or other place used for the sale, preparation, or storage of articles intended for food, or as a slaughter-house, and may examine any such articles which may be therein, and if, upon examination, such articles, or any of them, appear to be unfit for food, may seize the same.

Meat subjected to the process of blowing shall be deemed unfit for food.

366. Upon the seizure of any article of food under the last preceding section, the same may, if the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found consents, be forthwith destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent it being used as food; but if the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found do not consent, then, if it appear to the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Health Officer, or any Commissioner to whom the same may be brought that the same is unfit for food, he shall order the same to be destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent it being used as food. And the Commissioners may, if they think fit, prosecute the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found, such person not being merely a carrier or bailee thereof, and he shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

367. If the Commissioners shall apply to purchase any article of food exposed to sale, and shall tender the price for a quantity not more than shall be reasonably requisite for the purpose of analysis, and the person exposing the same for sale shall refuse to sell the same, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 50.

Person refusing to sell any article to Commissioners liable to penalty.

368. No shop or place shall be kept for the retail sale of drugs not being also articles of ordinary domestic consumption, unless the same shall have been registered in the office of the Commissioners. Any keeper of such shop or place failing to register the same within two months of the passing of this Act, or within two months from the date of the establishment of such place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100. The Commissioners shall, upon registration, grant the keeper of such shop or place a license, which he shall be bound to display in some conspicuous part of his premises.

No person shall compound, mix, prepare, dispense, or sell any drug in any such registered shop or place unless he be duly certified as a fit person to be entrusted with such duties under rules made for that purpose by the Local Government.

Registry of shops for sale of drugs.

Any person not being a holder of such certificate, who shall compound, mix, prepare, or sell any drugs in any such registered shop or place, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each offence, and any owner, occupier or keeper of any such shop or place who shall employ any such uncertified person to perform any one or more of such duties shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and shall be further liable, at the discretion of such Magistrate, to forfeit his license.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to apply to the sale of drugs used by practitioners of indigenous medicines, when such drugs are not sold in a shop or place where medicines are dispensed upon prescription.

369. The Commissioners, may, at all reasonable times, enter into and inspect any place kept for the sale of drugs, or in which drugs are sold, and if they have reason to suspect that any drug in the said place is adulterated, or by reason of age, or the effect of climate, has become inert or unwholesome, or has otherwise become deteriorated in such a manner as to lessen its efficacy, to change its operation, or to render it noxious, may remove the same on giving a receipt specifying the nature and quantity of the drug removed and its approximate value; and if it appear to any Magistrate that the said drug removed as aforesaid is adulterated, or has become inert, unwholesome, or deteriorated as aforesaid, he may order the same to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to him may seem fit. If it shall appear to the Magistrate that the drug so removed is not adulterated or has not become inert, unwholesome, or deteriorated as aforesaid, the person from whose shop or place it has been taken shall be entitled to have it restored to him, and it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to award him such compensation, not exceeding the actual loss which has been sustained, as the Magistrate may think proper.

Compensation if drug be not adulterated.

If the drug removed as aforesaid is not brought before a Magistrate, it shall be restored to the person from whose shop or place it was taken, and such person shall be entitled to compensation for any actual loss which he may have sustained by the removal of the said drug, and any dispute which may arise touching the amount of compensation to be given shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

PART VII.—Of Weights and Measures.

370. The Commissioners shall from time to time provide such local standards of measure and weight as they deem requisite for the purpose of verification of weights and measures in use in Calcutta, and shall make such arrangements as they shall think fit for the safe keeping of the said standards.

The Commissioners shall also provide from time to time proper means for verifying weights and measures by comparison with the said standards and for stamping the weights and measures so verified.

371. The Commissioners shall from time to time fix the times and places at which some municipal officer appointed by them in this behalf shall attend for the purpose of the verification of weights and measures.

The municipal officer so appointed shall attend with the local standards in his custody at each time and place fixed, and shall examine every measure or weight which is of the same denomination as one of such standards and is brought to him for the purpose of verification and compare the same with that standard, and, if he find the same correct, shall stamp it with a stamp of verification in such manner as best to prevent fraud.

The said municipal officer shall enter in a book kept by him minutes of every such verification, and give, if required, a certificate under his hand of every such stamping.

372. There shall be payable to the Commissioners in respect of the verification and stamping of weights and measures by a municipal officer as aforesaid such fees as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time fix in this behalf.

Fees for comparison and stamping.

PART VIII.—Of Burial and Burning Grounds.

373. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause a survey and measurement to be made of every public burial and burning ground, and every place used as such; and every burial and burning ground and every place used as such shall be registered by the owner or the person having the control thereof, who, if it is not a public burial or burning ground, shall, if required by the Commissioners so to do, deposit a plan thereof in the Municipal office within three months. If there be no owner or person authorized to control the same, the registration may be made by order of the Commissioner, in a book to be kept by them for that purpose.

Burial and burning grounds to be registered.

374. Whoever uses any such place as is mentioned in the last preceding section without the same being registered or without a plan having been deposited, when required by the Commissioners, within the period prescribed in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

375. Every person having the control of a burial or burning ground shall keep a register of all burials or cremations therein, in which shall be entered the particulars required to be entered in the certificate referred to in section one hundred and ninety, and the Commissioners shall at all times have access to such register.

376. Whoever buries or burns, or causes, procures, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse in or on any ground not registered as a burial or burning ground, or without registering the burial or cremation under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

377. No burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be made or used, or, having fallen into disuse, shall be again used as such; otherwise than by, or under the authority of the Local Government without a license, describing the extent and boundaries thereof, previously obtained from the Commissioners in meeting, who may at their discretion, from time to time, grant such license.

378. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time, out of the General Fund, provide fitting places to be used as burial or burning grounds, and may fix a scale of fees in respect of burials and cremations within such burial or burning grounds.

379. No vault or grave shall be made within the walls of, or underneath, any church, chapel, or other place of public worship, without the permission of the Commissioners except by order of the Local Government.

380. Whoever buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse in any vault, grave, or burial or burning ground opened; made, or formed without such license, or contrary to the terms thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

381. If the Commissioners in meeting, with the sanction of the Local Government, shall certify, in manner hereinafter provided, that any burial ground or place of burial, or that any place used for the burning of corpses, is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof;

or that any church or other place of public worship is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the vaults or graves within the walls of, or underneath, the same, or in any churchyard or burial ground adjacent thereto;

and shall also certify that a fitting place for interment or burning (as the case may be) exists within a convenient distance and is available; no person shall, after a time (not less than two months) to be named in such certificate, bury or burn, or permit or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in, upon, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate.

Every such certificate shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and a translation thereof in Bengali shall, in the case of a burial or burning ground, be affixed conspicuously on some part of the said ground.

382. Whoever, after due publication of such certificate, buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse contrary to the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

383. Notwithstanding any certificate under section three hundred and eighty-one where, by usage or otherwise, there is any right of interment in or under any church or chapel, or in any vault of such church or chapel, or of any churchyard, burial ground, or place of burial affected by such certificate, or where any exclusive right of interment, or any exclusive right to ground for the purpose of interment, has been purchased or acquired, the Commissioners may, if, on application made to them, they are satisfied that the exercise of such right or the use of such ground will not be injurious to health, grant a license for such exercise or use during such time and subject to such conditions and restrictions as they may think fit.

384. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, grant licenses to persons applying for such, for the sale at burning grounds, of fuel and other articles used for the cremation of dead bodies, and shall in meeting prescribe a scale of rates for the sale of such articles; and any person not so licensed who shall, within three hundred yards of any such burning ground, sell or offer for sale any such fuel or other articles, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

The Commissioners may, on good and sufficient cause, revoke or withdraw any such license they may think fit, and any person to whom any such license is granted, who shall charge for the sale of any such article any higher rate than the rate fixed for such article in such scale, shall, at the discretion of the Commissioners, be liable to have his license cancelled, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

The Commissioners shall not be bound to grant a fresh license to any person whose license may have been revoked, withdrawn, or cancelled under the provisions of this section.

PART IX.—Of Nuisances.

385. The following nuisances shall be deemed to be nuisances liable to be dealt with summarily in manner provided by this Chapter:—

Nuisances which may be dealt with summarily.

- (a) Any premises in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (b) Any tank, well, ditch, gutter, water-course, privy, urinal, cesspool, or drain so foul or in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (c) Any animal so kept as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (d) Any accumulation or deposit which is a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (e) Any house or part of a house so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates:
- (f) Any factory, workshop or workplace not kept in a cleanly state, or not ventilated in such a manner as to render harmless, as far as practicable, any gases, vapours, dust or other impurities generated in the course of the work carried on therein that are a nuisance or injurious to health, or so overcrowded while work is carried on as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of those employed therein:
- (g) Any fireplace or furnace which does not, as far as practicable, consume the smoke arising from the combustible used therein, and which is used for working engines by steam, or in any mill, factory, dye-house, brewery, bake-house, or gas-work, or in any manufacturing or trade process whatsoever, and any chimney (not being the chimney of a private dwelling-house) sending forth black smoke in such quantity as to be a nuisance:

Provided—

1st.—That a penalty shall not be imposed on any person in respect of any accumulation or deposit necessary for the effectual carrying on of any business or manufacture, if it be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the accumulation or deposit has not been kept longer than is necessary for the purposes of the business or manufacture, and that the best available means have been taken for preventing injury thereby to the public health.

2nd.—That where a person is summoned before any Magistrate in respect of a nuisance arising from a fireplace or furnace which does not consume the smoke arising from the combustible used in such fireplace or furnace, the Magistrate shall hold that no nuisance is created within the meaning of this Act and dismiss the complaint, if he is satisfied that such fireplace or furnace was constructed before the passing of this Act, and in such manner as to consume as far as practicable, having regard to the nature of the manufacture or trade, all smoke arising therefrom, and that such fireplace or furnace has been carefully attended to by the person having the charge thereof.

386. Information of any nuisance, referred to in the last preceding section, existing in Calcutta, may be given to the Commissioners by any person aggrieved thereby or by any officer of the Commissioners.

387. On the receipt of any information respecting the existence of a nuisance, the Commissioners shall, if satisfied of the existence of a nuisance, serve a notice on the person by whose act, default, or sufferance the nuisance arises or continues, or if such person cannot be found, on the owner or occupier of the premises on which the nuisance arises, requiring him to abate the same within a time to be specified in the notice, and to execute such works and do such things as may be necessary for that purpose: Provided—

1st.—That where the nuisance arises from the want or defective construction of any structural convenience, or where there is no occupier of the premises, notice under this section shall be served on the owner:

2nd.—That where the person causing the nuisance, cannot be found, and it is clear that the nuisance does not arise or continue by the act, default or sufferance of the owner or occupier of the premises, the Commissioners may themselves abate the same without further order.

388. If the person on whom a notice to abate a nuisance has been served makes default in complying with any of the requisitions thereof within the time specified, or if the nuisance, although abated since the service of the notice, is, in the opinion of the Commissioners, likely to recur on the same premises, the Commissioners may cause a complaint relating to such nuisance to be made before a Magistrate, and such Magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons requiring the person on whom the notice was served to appear before him.

389. If the Magistrate is satisfied that the alleged nuisance exists, or that, although abated, it is likely to recur on the same premises, the Magistrate shall make an order on such person requiring him to comply with all or any of the requisitions of the notice or otherwise to abate the nuisance within a time specified in the order, and to do any works necessary for that purpose; or an order prohibiting the recurrence of the nuisance and directing the execution of any works necessary to prevent the recurrence; or an order both requiring abatement and prohibiting the recurrence of the nuisance.

The Magistrate may, by his order, impose a penalty not exceeding Rs. 50 on the person on whom the order is made.

390. Where the nuisance proved to exist is such as to render a house or building, in the judgment of the Magistrate, unfit for human habitation, the Magistrate may prohibit the using thereof for that purpose, until, in his judgment, the house or building is rendered fit for that purpose; and, on the Magistrate being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for that purpose, the Magistrate may determine his previous order by another declaring the house or building habitable, and from the date thereof such house or building may be let or inhabited.

391. Any person not obeying an order to comply with the requisition of the Commissioners or otherwise to abate the nuisance shall, if he fails to satisfy the Magistrate that he has used all due diligence to carry out such order, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 5 per diem during his default; and any person knowingly and wilfully acting contrary to an order of prohibition shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 10 per diem during such contrary action; moreover, the Commissioners may enter the premises to which any order relates, and abate the nuisance, and do whatever may be necessary in execution of such order, and recover the expenses incurred by them from the person on whom the order is made.

392. The provisions of this Part relating to nuisances shall be deemed to be in addition to, and not to abridge or affect any right, remedy or proceeding under any other law for the time being in force:

Provided that no person shall be punished for the same offence both under the provisions of this Part and under any other law.

CHAPTER XIII.

OF THE GENERAL POWERS OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

PART I.—Of the Rights of Entry.

393. The Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, have power, between sunrise and sunset, to enter upon any house or land for the purpose of making any inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or enquiry necessary for the discharge of any duty imposed upon them by this Act, or for the purpose of executing any work authorized by this Act, or by any bye-law as aforesaid, to be executed by them without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever on account of such entry, or of anything done on such house or land in pursuance of this Act:

Provided that, except as herein otherwise provided, the Commissioners shall not enter upon any house or land which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours' notice in writing of their intention so to do.

394. The Commissioners may enter upon the land of any person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of any works by this Act authorized to be executed for the purpose of depositing upon such land any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for obtaining access to any such works, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation of, or temporary damage to, the said land to the owner and occupier thereof from time to time, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken, or such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owner also for the permanent injury (if any) to such land;

Provided that, before the Commissioners make any such temporary use as aforesaid of any land adjoining or lying near to the said works, they shall give three days' notice in writing of their intention to the owner and occupier of such land, and shall, if required so to do by the owner or occupier, set apart, by sufficient fences, so much of the land as shall be required to be used as aforesaid.

395. For the purpose of laying pipes or constructing aqueducts for bringing water into Calcutta from any place beyond the limits thereof, or for the purpose of making sewers or drains to communicate with, or empty themselves into, any public sewer, lake, stream, canal, or water-course, without the said limits, the Commissioners may, whenever a plan for laying down any such pipes or constructing any such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, shall have been approved by the Local Government, exercise, in the laying of such pipes and construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain throughout the line of country through which the said pipes, aqueduct, sewer, or drain are to run, all the powers which by this Act they may exercise within the limits of Calcutta, and which may be necessary for the laying of such pipes, or the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, without being subject to any action or molestation whatever for so doing:

and the Magistrate of any district through which the said pipes, aqueduct, sewer, or drain are to run may exercise in respect thereof the like powers and jurisdiction, within the limits of his own district, as a Magistrate may under this Act exercise in respect of any work to be executed by the Commissioners in Calcutta.

396. Whoever at any time obstructs or molests any person employed by the Commissioners (not being a public servant within the meaning of section twenty-one of the Indian Penal Code), or any person with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, in the performance and execution of their or his duty, or of anything which they are respectively empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of this Act; or removes any mark set up for the purpose of indicating any level or direction necessary to the execution of works authorized by this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, or, in the discretion of the Magistrate by whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, either rigorous or simple, for any term not exceeding two months.

PART II.—Of the acquisition and disposal of land.

397. The Commissioners in meeting may acquire any land, whether within or without Calcutta, for any of the purposes of this Act, and may dispose of land vested in them, and the Commissioners may receive the rent of any land leased by them on such terms as they may think fit.

398. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, pay rent for, or take on lease, on such terms as they may think fit, any land required for the purposes of this Act.

399. Any land required for the purposes of this Act may be acquired under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, or any similar Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes; and on payment by the Commissioners, out of the General Fund, of the compensation payable under that Act and of the charges reasonably incurred by the Collector in respect of the proceedings thereunder, such land shall vest in them for the purposes of this Act.

PART III.—Of Railways.

400. The Commissioners in meeting may, upon any of the public streets within Calcutta, or upon any land within or without Calcutta, which is vested in the Commissioners, construct or maintain any railway or tramway which may appear to them to be useful or necessary for the purposes of this Act, and use and employ upon any such railway or tramway by them heretofore constructed or hereafter to be constructed, such locomotive engines or other moving power, and such carriages and wagons to be drawn or propelled thereby, carry and convey upon such railway all such passengers and goods as shall be offered to them for that purpose.

and make such reasonable charges in respect thereof as they may from time to time determine upon.

401. The Commissioners in meeting, from time to time, may enter into any contract with any person for the passage over any railway already constructed by the Commissioners, or hereafter to be constructed by them, of the engines, wagons, or other carriages of such person, upon the payment of such tolls or rent, and under such conditions and restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon.

402. The Commissioners in meeting may lease any railway constructed or to be constructed by them under the provisions hereinafore contained to any person upon such terms and under such conditions and restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon; and every person to whom any such railway shall be so leased by the Commissioners shall, subject to such conditions and restrictions as aforesaid, have all such and the same powers of maintaining the same, and for using and employing thereupon locomotive engines and other moving power, and carriages and wagons to be drawn or propelled thereby, and for carrying and conveying thereupon passengers and goods, and making charges in respect thereof, as the Commissioners would have had if such railway had not been leased.

The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, enter into any contract with any person for the purpose of the construction of any railway within or without Calcutta and for the purpose of maintaining and working of the same.

403. All the powers conferred under this Part shall be exercised with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

CHAPTER XIV.

OF THE MUNICIPAL DEBT.

404. For the construction of works of a permanent nature under this Act, the Commissioners in special meeting may, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time borrow by way of debenture, on the security of the rates, taxes, and dues imposed and levied on account of the Municipal Fund, or of a portion of them, and at such rate of interest and upon such terms as to the time of repayment and otherwise as the Governor-General in Council may approve, any sums of money the Commissioners may require for the objects aforesaid.

405. All the debentures aforesaid issued under the authority of this Act shall be in the form contained in the twelfth Schedule, or in such other form as the Commissioners in meeting, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may determine, and shall be transferable by endorsement, and the right to sue in respect of the moneys secured by any of such debentures shall be vested in the holders thereof for the time being without any preference by reason of some of such debentures being prior in date to others.

406. The Commissioners in meeting may at any time, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, raise, by the issue of new debentures, any money that may be required to pay any moneys for the time being due on any debentures issued under the authority of this Act, or of any enactment hereby expressly repealed.

407. The Commissioners shall set aside quarterly out of their income, before making any disbursements in respect thereof, such sum as may be required for the payment of the interest and instalments payable to the reserve funds which may fall due within the quarter on any debentures issued, under the authority of this Act, or of any enactment hereby expressly repealed.

The instalments payable to the reserve funds shall be at the rate of one per cent. per annum on the aggregate unpaid sum borrowed by the Commissioners after the first day of April 1881, and at the rate of two per cent. per annum on the unpaid balance of all debenture loans contracted before that date.

408. The Commissioners shall apply the reserve set aside under the last preceding section so far as it is required or so far as it extends to repay such debenture loans issued by them as shall fall due in the course of the year and shall invest the surplus (if any) of the said sum, after repayment as aforesaid, or in case there has not been any amount due or paid in respect of such loans or debentures during the year, then they shall invest the whole of the said sum in Government securities, or in any securities guaranteed by Government, or in Calcutta municipal debentures, in the names of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Financial Department and the Accountant-General of Bengal respectively for the time being, to be by them held as Trustees for the purpose of repaying at due date from time to time the several loans contracted or debentures issued by the Commissioners. And all moneys and securities now held by any Trustees for the Commissioners, for the purpose of paying off any sums borrowed by them, not being sums borrowed from the Secretary of State for India in Council, shall be held by them upon the trusts hereinbefore declared.

Provided always that the accounts of the fund formed by the payments made at the rate of two per cent. per annum and the fund formed by the payments made at the rate of one per cent. per annum shall be kept separate and distinct, and each reserve fund shall only be applied to paying off the debentures on account of which the instalments are payable.

409. The Trustees shall from time to time, whenever any loans or debentures shall fall due by the Commissioners, realize the whole or a sufficient portion of the securities held by them as aforesaid on account of the reserve fund applicable to liquidate such loans or debentures and apply the sale proceeds thereof, so far as the same will extend, to satisfy such loans or debentures. The Trustees shall, at the end of every year, submit a statement to the Commissioners showing the amount which has been invested during the year under section four hundred and eight, and setting forth the date of the last investment made previous thereto, and also the aggregate amount of the securities then in their hands, and the aggregate amount which has up to the date thereof been paid off in respect of the said debentures and loans.

Such statement shall be laid before the Commissioners in meeting and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

410. The total sum borrowed by the Commissioners by way of debenture loans under this or any preceding Act shall not exceed such an amount that the sum payable thereon annually by way of interest and as instalments due to the reserve funds shall be more than ten per cent. on the annual valuation of Calcutta.

411. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent the Commissioners in meeting from inviting tenders at any time for a new loan to be called the "Municipal Consolidated Loan" on such terms as may be approved by the Governor-General in Council, and also inviting holders of municipal debentures to exchange their debentures for such Municipal Consolidated Loan stock at such rates as the Commissioners may consider fair and the Governor-General in Council may approve. The scrip of such stock shall be in such form as the Commissioners in meeting, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may prescribe. The Commissioners shall repay such Consolidated Loan by annual payments at a rate of not less than one-sixtieth of the unpaid balance in each year in lieu of contributing to a reserve fund under section four hundred and seven, and the stock to be paid off shall be purchased in the open market; and the provisions of section four hundred and seven shall apply to the sums necessary to make such annual payment:

Provided that, if during any year no stock is obtainable in the open market at, or below, its par value, it shall not be obligatory on the Commissioners to make repayment until such stock is obtainable in the open market at, or below, its par value.

CHAPTER XV.

OF BYE-LAWS.

412. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time make bye-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, with regard to—

- (a) all matters and things connected with the supply and use of water;
- (b) the time and place of bathing for persons of each sex in places provided or set apart for bathing purposes;
- (c) the deposit, whether in the public streets or otherwise, of rubbish and offensive matter, the removing and carrying away of the same, and charging the person responsible for such deposit with the expenses of removing it;
- (d) the conditions under which persons shall be permitted to drive registered carts;
- (e) the height and mode of construction of buildings;
- (f) ventilation and the extent to which space must be left for the free circulation of air as required by the provisions of section two hundred and forty-three;
- (g) drainage, cess-pools, privies, cowhouses and stables;
- (h) the management, inspection and scale of fees to be charged for the use of places provided under the provisions of sections three hundred and forty-one and three hundred and forty-five;
- (i) the inspection and management, and conduct of, business in markets and the keeping the same in a proper, orderly, and cleanly state;
- (j) the inspection of places used for any of the purposes mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six and the management and conduct of business in the same;

(k) theatres and other places of public resort, recreation, and amusement;

(l) lodging-houses, public laundries, dairies and licensed cowhouses and stables;

(m) securing the cleanliness of milk-stores, milk-shops and milk-vessels used for keeping or conveying milk;

(n) the inspection and management of burial and burning grounds;

and generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

And to repeal or alter them.

413. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time repeal, alter, or add to any bye-laws made under the last preceding section.

414. No bye-law, and no repeal or alteration of, or addition to, any bye-law, shall have effect until the same has been confirmed by the Local Government.

Bye-laws and alterations of them to be confirmed by Local Government.

415. No bye-law, and no repeal, or alteration of, or addition to, any bye-law shall be confirmed until the same has been published in the English and Bengali Government Gazettes at least three times, nor till one month has elapsed from the date of the first publication, during which period a copy of such proposed bye-law, or the repeal or alteration of, or addition to, any bye-law shall be kept at the office of the Commissioners, and all persons may at any time between ten o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon inspect such copy without fee.

Bye-laws and alterations of them to be published before confirmation.

416. Every bye-law, and every repeal or alteration of, or addition to, any bye-law, when confirmed, shall be published in the English and Bengali Government Gazettes.

After confirmation bye-laws to be published in Gazette.

417. Whoever infringes any bye-law made and confirmed or any rule made and sanctioned under this Act shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

Penalty.

CHAPTER XVI.

OF PROSECUTIONS.

418. Every prosecution under this Act may be instituted by the Commissioners before any Magistrate having jurisdiction, who may summon the persons charged to appear at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons; and if such person do not appear, the Magistrate may upon proof of service of the summons if no sufficient cause shall be shown for the non-appearance of the person charged, proceed to hear and determine the case in his absence. If such person do appear, then the procedure laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1882 from section two hundred and forty-two to section two hundred and forty-eight shall be followed.

All fines imposed by a Magistrate under this Act shall be levied under the provisions of sections three hundred and eighty-six, three hundred and eighty-seven, three hundred and eighty-eight, and three hundred and eighty-nine of the said Code.

419. No person shall be liable to any fine under this Act for any offence cognizable by a Magistrate unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made within three months next after the commission of such offence:

Complaint to be made within three months of the offence.

Provided that the failure to take out any license under this Act shall be deemed to be a continuing offence until the expiration of the period for which such license is required to be taken out.

420. If, through any act, neglect, or default on account whereof any person shall have been fined under this Act, any damage to the property of the Commissioners shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such fine;

and the amount of such damage shall be determined by the Magistrate by whom such person has been fined;

and on default of payment of the amount of such damage on demand, the same may be levied in the same manner as a fine.

421. In any case in which a Magistrate is satisfied that the Commissioners had no reasonable ground for instituting a prosecution, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to direct the Commissioners to pay to the accused such compensation, not exceeding Rs. 50, as he thinks fit, and the sum so awarded shall be recoverable as if it were a fine.

422. The Local Government may, at the request of the Commissioners in meeting, appoint one or more Magistrates for the trial of offences against the provisions of this Act, and may by rule prescribe the times and places at which such Magistrate or Magistrates shall sit for the despatch of business. Such Magistrate or Magistrates shall be paid such salary out of the General Fund as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe.

Magistrates appointed to try municipal cases to be paid out of General Fund.

CHAPTER XVII.

OF THE RECOVERY OF DAMAGES AND EXPENSES.

423. Where any damages, costs, or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount, and, if necessary, the apportionment of the same in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined by a Court of Small Causes.

Damages and expenses how to be determined.

424. In any case which is to be determined by a Court of Small Causes under this Act, the said Court may, on the application of either party, summon the other party to appear at a time and place to be named in such summons.

Method of proceeding before a Judge of a Court of Small Causes.

Upon the appearance of the parties, or, in the absence of any of them, upon proof of due service of the summons, the said Court may hear and determine such question, and for that purpose may examine such parties, or any of them, and their witnesses on oath; and the costs of every such enquiry shall be in the discretion of the said Court, which shall determine the amount thereof.

425. If the amount of damages, costs, or expenses ascertained in the manner above described be not paid by the party liable to pay the same within seven days after demand, such amount may be recovered, under a warrant of the said Court, by distress and sale of the moveable property of such party; and the surplus arising from the sale thereof, after satisfying such amount and the costs of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose property shall have been distrained.

426. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, and in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any expenses, charges, or damages awarded under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Commissioners may sue in any competent Court instead of realizing by, or on failure of, distress.

CHAPTER XVIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

427. No suit shall be brought against the Commissioners, or any of their officers, or any person acting under their direction, for anything done, or purporting to be done, under this Act until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing has been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners, or at the place of abode of such person, stating the cause of suit and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff.

Unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant.

Every such suit shall be commenced within three months next after accrual of the right to sue, and not afterwards.

If any person to whom any such notice of suit is given shall, before the suit is brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

428. The Commissioners may make compensation to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the Commissioners, their officers or servants under this Act.

429. When any license is granted under section three hundred and eleven or three hundred and forty-one authorizing the use of any place for any of the purposes therein described, and when permission is given under section two hundred and Fees for licenses under sections three hundred and eleven and three hundred and forty-one, and for permission given under section two hundred and twenty-three.

twenty-three for putting up any projection, the Commissioners may charge a fee not exceeding Rs. 500 for such license or permission.

When permission is given under section two hundred and twelve to make any temporary erection, the Commissioners may charge a daily fee not exceeding Rs. 100 for such permission.

Daily fee for permission given under section two hundred and twelve.

430. When permission is given under section two hundred and twenty-nine or two hundred and forty-five, the Commissioners may charge rent for any land made use of in pursuance of such permission.

Rent may be charged for permission given under sections two hundred and twenty-nine and two hundred and forty-five.

431. Every person to whom a license has been granted under this Act shall, at all reasonable times while such license shall remain in force, if required to do so by the Commissioners, or by any person authorized by them in that behalf, produce such license.

432. Whoever fails to produce his license when required so to do as aforesaid shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 10, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

Penalty.

433. The Commissioners may from time to time prepare or sanction forms of the various notices required by this Act, and may, from time to time, make such alterations therein as they deem requisite, and they shall cause every such form to be sealed with the seal of the Corporation, and any notice made on a form sanctioned by the Commissioners shall in all proceedings be held sufficient in law.

Preparation of Forms.

434. Every notice, bill, form, summons, or notice of demand under this Act may be served personally on, or presented to, the person to whom the same is addressed or be left at his usual place of abode with some adult male member or servant of his family, or at his place of business with some clerk of the office, or if it cannot be so served or presented, may be put on some conspicuous part of his place of abode, or of his place of business, or of the house or land in respect of which the notice, bill, form, summons, or notice of demand is intended to be served.

How notice may be served.

435. Where any notice is required to be given to the owner or occupier of any house or land, such notice, addressed to the owner or occupier, as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such house or land, or otherwise in the manner in the last preceding section mentioned:

Provided that, when the owner and his place of abode are registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight, they shall, if such place of abode be in Calcutta, cause every notice required to be given to the owner of any house or land to be served on such owner or left with some adult male member or servant of his family, and if the place of abode of the owner be not in Calcutta, they shall send every such notice by post in a registered cover addressed to his place of abode, and the same shall be deemed to be good service of the notice.

Service of notice on owners and occupiers of house and land.

When the name of the owner or occupier is not registered, it shall be sufficient to designate him as "the owner" or "the occupier" of the house or land in respect of which the notice is served.

When there are several owners or occupiers of any premises, the Commissioners may, at any time, call upon such owners or occupiers to appoint, within thirty days, one of their number to receive notices on behalf of the rest; otherwise the Commissioners shall serve a separate notice on each owner or occupier who has registered, or who has applied to register, his name under section one hundred and twenty-eight.

436. Whenever it is provided by this Act that the Commissioners may require the owner or occupier of any house or land to execute any work or take order with any property under his control, such requisition shall, unless otherwise provided by this Act, be made by a notice to be served in the manner provided by the last preceding section. Such notice shall specify a period within which the requisition is to be complied with, and if no period is provided by this Act, the period specified shall be a reasonable period having regard to the circumstances under which it is issued.

Every such notice shall state that, if the person to whom it is addressed fails to comply therewith or to satisfy the Commissioners within the specified period that it should be withdrawn or modified, the Commissioners will enter upon the premises and execute the work or take the necessary order with the property, and that the expense thereby incurred will be recovered from the person to whom it is addressed.

437. Any person upon whom such notice as is referred to in the last preceding section is served may prefer an objection in writing addressed to the Commissioners stating the grounds upon which such notice should be withdrawn or modified, and if preferred in time to admit of orders being passed upon the objection before the period specified in the notice expires, the execution of the work may be postponed until the Commissioners have passed orders upon the objection. If the objection is disallowed, a second notice shall be served upon the person who preferred the objection specifying a reasonable period within which the requisition is to be complied with.

438. Instead of preferring an objection, or at the time of preferring an objection any person upon whom such notice as is referred to in section four hundred and thirty-six is served may apply to the Commissioners for an estimate of the cost of the work if executed by the Commissioners, and upon such application the Commissioners shall supply such estimate.

439. If the Commissioners fail to supply an estimate as required by the provisions of the last preceding section, not more than Rs. 5 shall be charged by the Commissioners for any work executed by them on default by the person served with a notice to execute such work.

If the estimate exceeds Rs. 300, the work shall not be undertaken by the Commissioners, on default until the expiry of ten days from the date on which the estimate was supplied, and within seven days from such date the person to whom such estimate was supplied may apply in writing to have his objections to execute the work, or to the estimated cost of such work, determined by a Committee of the Commissioners, or by the Commissioners in meeting. If such application is made within the time specified, the Commissioners shall not undertake the work until the decision of the Committee of the Commissioners or the Commissioners shall have been given.

440. Subject to the above provisions, whenever any work is required by this Act or by any orders of the Commissioners lawfully issued to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or land, and default is made in the execution of such work, the Commissioners, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred or incurred in any case in which the Commissioners are empowered to execute any work on behalf of an owner or occupier, shall be paid by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, or on whose behalf it is done, and in default of payment thereof the same may be recovered as a rate under Chapter VI.

441. If the defaulter, as mentioned in the last preceding section, be the owner of any house or land, the Commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any suit or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then, or at any time thereafter, occupies the house or land under such owner, and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand, the same may be recovered as a rate under Chapter VI;

and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to the owner so much as is so paid by, or recovered from him, in respect of any such expenses.

442. No occupier of any house or land shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof than the amount of rent due from him for the house or land in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which, at any time after such demand, has accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon a requisition made to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable;

but nothing in this section shall affect any special contract made between any such owner or occupier respecting the payment of the expenses of any such works as aforesaid.

443. Whenever any expenses incurred by the Commissioners are to be paid by the owners of any land as provided in section four hundred and forty, the Commissioners may, if there be more than one owner, apportion the said expenses among such of the owners as are registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight in such manner as to the Commissioners may seem fit. And whenever any such expenses are to be paid by the occupiers of any land as provided in section four hundred and forty, the Commissioners may, if there be more than one occupier, apportion the said expenses among such of the occupiers as are known in such manner as to the Commissioners may seem fit.

444. Whenever any works or any alterations or improvements, of which the Commissioners are authorized to require the execution, are executed by the occupier on the requisition of the Commissioners or are executed by the Commissioners and the cost thereof is recovered from the occupier, the cost thereof may, if the Commissioners certify that such cost ought to be borne by the owner, be deducted by such occupier from the rent payable to such owner or may be recovered by such occupier from the owner in any court of competent jurisdiction.

445. Any owner or occupier of land may contest his liability to pay any expenses with which he may be charged under section four hundred and forty, or may contest the correctness of the amount which he has been called upon to pay in any court of competent jurisdiction:

Provided that the institution of a suit shall in no way interfere with the right of the Commissioners to recover the amount demanded by them in the manner provided by section four hundred and forty.

446. Whenever default is made by the owner of any house or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such house or land may, with the approval of the Commissioners, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

447. If the occupier of any house or land prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of any house or land, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any Magistrate may, in writing, require such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such house or land as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect, and if, after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, every such owner, during the continuance of the refusal, shall be discharged from liability to any fines to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of default in executing such works.

448. Whoever, being the occupier of any house or land, fails to comply with any requisition made by a Magistrate under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 20, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

Penalty.

449. Whenever by this Act any right is conferred or duty imposed on the owner or occupier of any premises, and doubt arises owing to there being gradations of owners or occupiers as to who is the owner or occupier entitled to exercise such right or bound to perform such duty, the Commissioners may, after due enquiry, determine from time to time which of such persons is thus entitled or bound.

When there are gradation of owners or occupiers, Commissioners empowered to determine which of such owners is to enjoy the rights, and perform duties which appertain to owners or occupiers under the Act.

Provided that if one of the persons regarding whom doubt exists is registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight as owner or occupier, such person shall be entitled to exercise such rights or bound to perform such duty till his name has been duly removed from the register.

450. No tax or rate on property made under this Act shall be invalid for defect of form, and it shall be enough in any such tax or rate, or any assessment of value for the purpose of making such tax or rate, if the property rated or assessed is so described as to be generally known, and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof.

451. Whenever the Commissioners shall have incurred any expenses in the execution of any of the works which under sections two hundred and fifteen, two hundred and fifty-nine, two hundred and seventy-seven and two hundred and eighty-two, the owners of any houses or lands are required to execute, the Commissioners may either recover the amount of such expenses in the manner hereinbefore provided, or, if they think fit, may take engagements from the said owners for the quarterly payment of such sums as will be sufficient to defray the whole amount of the said expenses, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum, within a period not exceeding five years, and such sums, when due, may be recovered as rates under Chapter VI.

452. All police officers shall give immediate information to the Commissioners of any offence committed against this Act.

Police officers to report offences to Commissioners and to arrest unknown offenders.

Any police officer may arrest any person committing in his view any offence against this Act if the name and the address of such person be unknown to him, or if such person decline to give his name and address, or if the police officer shall have reason to doubt the accuracy of such name and address if given.

And such person may be detained at the station-house until his name and address shall be correctly ascertained, or may be brought up at once before a Magistrate.

453. Any mehter or other servant of the Commissioners employed to remove or otherwise deal with sewage, offensive matter or rubbish, who shall, without the permission of the Commissioners, withdraw from his duties unless he has given notice in writing, not less than one month previously, of his intention so to withdraw shall be punished with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months' and shall forfeit any salary which may be due to him.

454. If the Local Government shall have determined that any portion of the environs of Calcutta shall be included in the water-supply authorized by this Act, and if the Local Government shall have declared the boundaries thereof by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, then in respect of such extension of such water-supply, the provisions of Chapter VII of this Act shall take effect one month after the publication of such notification; and all such expenses and compensation as, under such chapter and by the provisions of this Act, may be determined by a Court of Small Causes, may be ascertained and determined by any Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction within such boundaries; and all fines payable in respect of such sections, and under this Act, shall be enforced in the manner prescribed by sections three hundred and eighty-six, three hundred and eighty-seven, and three hundred and eighty-nine of the Code of Criminal Procedure by the Magistrate having jurisdiction within such boundaries.

455. Houses used exclusively for purposes of public worship and public burial and burning grounds duly registered shall be exempt from all rates and taxes which under this Act may be imposed upon houses and land within Calcutta, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to exempt the owner of any hut from payment of all or any rate in respect of such hut.

Saving clause.

456. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to—

(a) render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person, which, but for this Act, would, by law, be deemed to be a nuisance:

(b) exempt any person guilty of nuisance from a suit in respect thereof:

(c) affect any enactment not hereby expressly repealed.

457. The Local Government may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, and in such other manner as the Local Government may determine, declare its intention—

(a) to exclude from Calcutta any local area not being within the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court at Fort William in Bengal;

(b) at the request of the Commissioners in meeting to include within Calcutta any local area in the vicinity of the same and defined in the notification.

Provided that, where the local area is a military cantonment or part of a military cantonment, a notification shall not be published under this section in respect of it without the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council.

458. Any inhabitant of Calcutta or of a local area in respect of which a notification has been published in the Calcutta Gazette under the last preceding section may, if he objects to the alteration proposed, submit his objection in writing to the Local Government within six weeks from the publication of the notification in the Calcutta Gazette, and the Local Government shall take his objection into consideration.

When six weeks from the publication of the notification in the Calcutta Gazette have expired, and the Local Government has considered the objections (if any) which have been submitted under this section, the Local Government may, by a notification in the Calcutta Gazette, exclude the local area from Calcutta or include it therein, as the case may be.

Effect of exclusion of local area from Calcutta.

459. When a local area is excluded from Calcutta under the last preceding section—

(a) this Act, and all rules, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred under this Act, shall cease to apply thereto; and

(b) the Local Government shall, after consulting the Commissioners, frame a scheme determining what portion of the balance of the General Fund and other property vested in the Commissioners shall vest in Her Majesty for the benefit of the local area, and in what manner the liability of the Commissioners shall be apportioned between the Commissioners and the Secretary of State for India in Council, and on the publication of the scheme in the Calcutta Gazette, the property and liabilities shall vest and be apportioned accordingly.

All property vested in Her Majesty under this section shall be applied, under the orders of the Local Government, to discharging the liabilities imposed on the Secretary of State for India in Council under this section, or for the promotion of the safety, health or convenience of the inhabitants of the local area.

460. When a local area is included in Calcutta under section four hundred and fifty-eight, this Act, and, except as the Local Government may otherwise, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, direct, all rules, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred under this Act, and in force throughout Calcutta at the time the local area is so included, shall apply to the local area.

Effect of including local area in Calcutta.

Notification of intention to alter limits of Calcutta.

461. The provisions of schedule XIII shall apply to the budget for the year 1889-90, and to the rates and taxes which shall be levied during that year; and the provisions of Bengal Act IV of 1876, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of the said schedule, shall be repealed so far as they relate to preparing and passing such budget, and to fixing the rates and taxes to be levied during the year 1889-90.

RULES FOR GRANTING LICENSES ON PROFESSIONS, TRADES, AND CALLINGS.

(1). Licenses shall be either personal or local, and shall be granted under seven classes.

A local license is a license the classification of which depends on the valuation of the place of business, and also a license granted under class IV, clauses (d) and (e), class V, clause (c), and class VI, clause (a).

The seven classes are as follows:—

Class I.—Rs. 200.

Every Joint-Stock Company the paid-up capital of which amounts to ten lakhs of rupees or upwards.

Class II.—Rs. 100.

- (a) Every other Joint-Stock Company.
- (b) Every merchant, banker, wholesale trader, commission agent, architect, civil engineer, builder, contractor, carrying company, owner or lessee of a cotton, jute, hide or other screw, market, bazar, theatre, place of public entertainment kept up for the purpose of profit, auctioneer, hotel-keeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house keeper, manufacturer, retail trader or shop-keeper whose place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 350 per mensem or upwards.

Class III.—Rs. 50.

- (a) Every practising surgeon, physician, dentist, barrister, attorney, vakeel of the High Court, proctor, notary public, shroff, banian.
- (b) Every merchant, banker, wholesale trader, commission agent, architect, civil engineer, builder, contractor, carrying company, owner or lessee of a cotton, jute, hide or other screw, or of a market, bazar, theatre, not liable under Class II.
- (c) Every auctioneer, hotel-keeper, boarding-house-keeper, lodging-house keeper, shop-keeper, plumber, gas-fitter, manufacturer, or retail trader not liable under class II, whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 100 a month or upwards.

Class IV.—Rs. 25.

- (a) Every broker or dalal employed in the wholesale transfer or purchase of imports or exports, country produce, silk, or other merchandise, every person not coming under class III who purchases goods in Calcutta for transport and sale beyond the limits of Calcutta.
- (b) Every broker or dealer in precious stones, houses, landed property, Government securities, shares, and bills-of-exchange, and every freight broker.
- (c) Every practising licentiate of medicine, apothecary, and veterinary surgeon.
- (d) Every owner of a spirit or liquor shop or shop for the sale of intoxicating drugs, and punch-house, music hall or billiard-room, wholesale tobacco, jute or other depôt.
- (e) Every owner of a steam ferry-boat or cargo-boat.
- (f) Every pawn-broker or money-lender.
- (g) Every pleader, mookhtear, or law agent not liable under class III.
- (h) Every hotel-keeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house keeper, plumber, gas-fitter, carriage and horse-dealer, shop-keeper, manufacturer or trader, whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 25 or upwards.

Class V.—Rs. 12.

- (a) Every broker or dallal not liable under class IV.
- (b) Every professional actor, singer or musician.
- (c) Every keeper of a permanent stall at a daily public market or bazar, or of a shop within fifty yards of a public market or bazar, selling goods of the same kind as any of the goods sold in such public market or bazar.
- (d) Every poddar or money-changer.
- (e) Every hakeem, koberaaj, practising native doctor or midwife.
- (f) Every order-supplier, cooly-supplier, shipping agent, or boat-supplier.

- (d) Every hotel-keeper, boarding and lodging-house keeper, owner of a carriage, passenger boat or palanquin let out for hire, plumber, gas-fitter, band-supplier, carrier, stamp vendor, carriage or horse-dealer, shop-keeper, manufacturer or trader whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 10 or upwards.

Class VI.—Rs. 4.

- (a) Every keeper of a shop or place of business not included in any other class.
 (b) Every petty dalall not included in class IV.
 (c) Every pedlar, vendor of goods in carts, hawkers, boxwallah, and every professional nurse not included in class V.

Class VII.—Re. 1.

All itinerant dealers hawking goods for sale in baskets or trays.

(2). No person shall be required to take out more than one personal license, provided that if he is liable under different classes he shall take out a license under the highest class under which he is liable.

(3). When two or more persons carry on business jointly, they may take out a single license as a firm; but if any of the partners exercises any separate profession, trade or calling on his own account, or with other partner he must take out a separate license.

(4). A separate local license shall be requisite for each separate place of business. Provided that no separate license shall be necessary for adjacent premises forming one place of business; or for yards, godowns or factories auxiliary to a place of business, but in such cases the valuation of all the premises, yards or godowns shall be computed in determining the class under which the license must be taken out.

(5). When any person practises a profession, trade or calling for which a personal license should be taken out, and is also the owner or lessee of a place of business for which a local license should be taken out, he shall take out separate licenses, but one license will suffice if the place of business is auxiliary to his profession, trade or calling.

(6). When the owner or lessee of any place is liable to take out a license, the license should be taken out by the lessee, if there is any lessee; if not, by the owner.

(7). The liability of any person to take out a license, and the class under which he is liable, shall be determined in the following manner:—

(a)—Any person who has taken out a license for the preceding year or been fined under section ninety for not taking out a license during such year, shall be presumed to be liable and entitled to take out a license under the class in which he was then placed in the year for which the tax is being levied.

(b)—Any person who, in consequence of any change in his profession, trade, or calling, or place of business, or for any other reason, considers himself entitled to take out a license in a lower class than before, or to be altogether exempted, may present an application to that effect to the Commissioners at any time before the first day of July. If no application is made by that date he will be liable to take out a license as prescribed in clause (a).

The Commissioners shall pass orders on such application, and the license shall be taken out in accordance with such orders, unless appealed against under clause (e).

(c)—If the Commissioners consider that any person who has not taken out a license in the preceding year ought to take out a license, or that any person who has taken out a license for the preceding year but has not taken out a license for the current year ought to take out a license in a higher class or more than one license, they may serve him with a notice directing him to take out a license for the current year in such class as may seem to them proper.

(d)—If the Commissioners consider that any person who has taken out a license for the current year ought to have taken out a license in a higher class, they may serve him with a notice directing him to take out a license in such higher class the following year, and such person shall thereupon, unless such order is modified, be bound to take out a license in such higher class, clause (a) notwithstanding.

If a person is summoned for not taking out a license, and service of notice under clauses (c) and (d) is not proved, it shall be incumbent on the Commissioners to prove that the person summoned is liable to take out a license as well as the class under which he is liable.

(e)—Any person dissatisfied with the orders of the Commissioners under clause (b) or on whom a notice is served under clause (c) or clause (d) may appeal against the orders contained in it—

(1)—To a Bench consisting of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and not less than three Commissioners, or

(2)—To a Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction in the place in which the profession, trade, or calling is said to be carried on.

(8). In case of an appeal to a Court of Small Causes under this Schedule, the said Court may follow the procedure laid down in sections four hundred and twenty-four and four hundred and twenty-five.

(f)—Such person shall, within fifteen days of the passing of the order, or of the receipt of the notice, deliver at the office of the Commissioners an application in writing, stating the grounds of appeal, and also informing the Commissioners whether he intends to appeal under clause (1) or clause (2).

No appeal shall lie unless the amount of the license as assessed has been deposited with the Commissioners.

The Commissioners may, if they think fit, extend the period of an appeal under clause (1).

(g)—The order of the Bench or Court, or, if no appeal is made, the order contained in the notice, shall be final.

(9). The Commissioners may at any time grant a license for any previous year for which no license has been taken out on payment of the amount of such license, but the production of such license shall not afford a valid defence if the licensee is prosecuted for failing to take out a license within the time required by this Act.

Leading Lights and Buoys—Madras Harbour.

THE Presidency Port Officer, Madras, has notified (Notice to Mariners dated 18th September 1888) that it is intended to exhibit, on and after the 15th of October 1888, from the Iron Pier, Madras Harbour, at a height of 30 feet above high-water level, a Red fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112° , viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 38° E., 7 cables.

Also from the roof of the Port Office at a height of 60 feet above high-water level, a Green fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112° , viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 21° E. 6.45 cables.

These lights are intended as a guide to ships leaving the Harbour, and to ships making the OUTER anchorage at night; when brought in line, they lead through the centre of the entrance of the Harbour, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 5 miles.

Buoys.

The two Buoys at the entrance of the Harbour have been removed from the outside of the entrance and replaced inside: the Northern one painted Black, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water, 100 feet East of the remains of the end of the North Pier; the Southern one painted Red, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water 100 feet East of the end of the remains of the South Pier.

The above-mentioned buoys are illuminated when vessels leave the Harbour at night.

Two buoys, painted Red, have been moored North of the Harbour for the use of vessels discharging cargo of a description which is not permitted to be discharged inside.

The positions of these buoys are as follows:—

SOUTHERN one in 5 fathoms, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cables North of the North Pier.

Madras Lighthouse bearing S. W. by S.

Sailors' Home Flagstaff W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N.

NORTHERN one in 5 fathoms, 6 cables North of the North Pier.

Accident to Reddie Head Tripod and Spit Buoy.

THE Port Officer, False Point, telegraphs that Reddie Head Tripod and all Port boundary marks have been blown down; and that Reddie Head Spit, outer buoy, has drifted out of position about 2,000 feet westward.

A subsequent telegram intimates that the outer buoy has been replaced in position, and that anchoring mark for steamers now is Reddie Head Spit, inner buoy, with cross beacon on Reddie Head. This alteration has become necessary, as the whole Island from Point Reddie to the ballast ground is at present under water at high tide.

NOTICE BY THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BENGAL.

SUPPLY BILLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that supply bills for sums of Rs. 500 and above in even rupees are usually obtainable on the treasuries named below at the rates of premium shewn.

Any person desiring to obtain a supply bill should send to the Bank of Bengal, Calcutta, a written application containing the following information—(1) his own name and address; (2) the name of the person to whom payment is to be made; (3) the treasury on which the bill is to be granted; and (4) the amount for which the bill is to be granted. With this application the cost of the bill (the amount plus the premium) should be paid into the Bank. If payment by telegram is desired (but this is admissible only in cases in which the name of the payee has been previously registered in the Accountant-General's office), the fact should be stated in the application, and an additional rupee paid with the cost.

The Bank of Bengal will, if the amount is available at the treasury named, receive the money tendered, and grant a receipt, returning the application therewith. The receipt and the application should then be sent to the Accountant-General's office, by which the bill will be granted.

The Bank of Bengal will be advised by the Accountant-General on the 1st and 16th of each month of the amounts available at the several treasuries, and will receive the amounts tendered by the first come till those amounts are exhausted.

If the Bank refuses to receive any sum tendered owing to the amount not being available at the treasury, the application will be retained by the Bank and forwarded by it to the Accountant-General, who will advise the Bank and the applicant if the amount can be made available.

A. H. WARDE-JONES, for Collector.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Eastern Bengal State Railway, in the district of 24-Pergunnahs, will be put up to sale at the villages in which the plots of land are situated, on the 6th, 7th and 8th of November 1888.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from the fencing.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid to the Deputy Collector for Railways at Sealdah.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue free to the highest bidder.

6th.—The purchasers will be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sales, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final confirmation of the Board of Revenue is accorded to the proceedings.

NOTICE.

It is hereby notified, for general information, that subscriptions to the complete series of the Indian Law Reports should be registered during the first three months of each calendar year. Subscribers are therefore requested to send in their subscriptions for the complete series before the 31st March in each year. Those who register their names after that date will understand that copies will be supplied only if available.

H. A. D. PHILLIPS,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th November 1886.

The following revised advertisement is published in substitution for that which appeared at page 1084, Part II of the Calcutta Gazette of the 9th July 1884:—

The Indian Law Reports,

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st April 1888, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

Terms of subscription payable annually in advance.

For the complete series, including postage, Rs. 22-8.

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Municipal Affairs of the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the municipal limits of Calcutta and to consolidate and amend the law relating to the municipal affairs of the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1888."

And it shall come into force on the first day of April 1889.

But any election may be held under the provisions of this Act at any time after it shall have received the assent of the Governor-General, and such election thus held shall take effect from the first day of April 1889.

And section four hundred and sixty-one, and schedule referred to therein shall come into force from the first day of January 1889.

2. The enactments specified in the First Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof.

This repeal shall not revive any office, authority, or thing abolished by any such enactment, or affect the validity of anything done or suffered, or any right, title, obligation, or liability which may have accrued before the commencement of this Act.

And all bye-laws or rules prescribed, budgets passed, assessments, valuations, measurements, divisions, and appointments made, powers conferred, salaries fixed, and notifications published under any such enactment, and all other rules (if any) now in force and relating to the matters hereinafter dealt with, shall (so far as they are consistent with this Act) be deemed to have been respectively prescribed, passed, made, conferred, fixed and published hereunder.

And all references made to any such enactment shall, as far as may be practicable, be deemed to be made to this Act.

And all proceedings now pending, which may have been commenced under any such enactment, shall be deemed to be commenced under this Act.

In respect to all the matters aforesaid, the "Commissioners of Calcutta" under this Act shall be substituted for the "Commissioners of the Town of Calcutta."

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

"Bazar" means any place of trade, where there is a collection of shops and warehouses, and any place where a market is held.

Whenever a separate procedure is prescribed for dealing with bustee land and the huts standing on it, by the term "Bustee land" is meant land which the owner lets out for the building of huts, in such manner that the tenant of the land is the owner of the hut: And "Hut" includes any structure erected on such land whether roofed with tiles or otherwise, and whether constructed with bricks, earth or other materials. "House" means any structure erected upon land the property of the owner of such structure, or for the use of which land the owner of the house holds a lease for not less than ten years. In the case of lands or buildings to which neither of these descriptions correctly applies, the Commissioners shall determine which of the two procedures can most equitably be applied, and shall classify the land and buildings accordingly.

When no separate procedure is prescribed, and when the contrary is not indicated by the context, "House" shall include a hut, shed or any other structure.

A "Bustee" means a plot of bustee land, not less than ten cottahs in area, bearing one number in the assessment book, or a collection of such plots adjacent to one another exceeding in the aggregate one bigah in area.

"Calcutta," subject to the inclusion or exclusion of any local area by the Local Government under section four hundred and fifty-eight, includes the area bounded as follows:—

By a line drawn along the southern and western bank of the Circular Canal from the river Hooghly to the south of Balliaghatta, till it meets the Pagladanga Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the Pagladanga Road to a point where it meets the Chingrahatta Road. Thence along the southern edge of the Chingrahatta Road to a point where it meets the South Tangor Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the South Tangor Road to a point where it meets the Topsea Road. Thence along the eastern edge of the Topsea Road to its junction with the Tiljulah Road. Thence westward to the South-Eastern Railway, then southward along the western edge of the line of the Railway, and westward along the south of the New Embankment to the Russapuglah Road, thence along the eastern edge of the Russapuglah Road to its junction with the Road leading to the Tollygunge Bridge, thence along the southern edge of this road and its continuations, the Sharpore Road, the Goragachee Road, and the Taratollah Road to Nimuck Mehal Ghât, where it joins the Hooghly. And thence along the left bank of the Hooghly to its junction with the Circular Canal.

But from this area there shall be excluded—

- (1) Fort William.
- (2) The Esplanade.
- (3) That part of Hastings north of the south edge of Clyde Row, which has hitherto been excluded from the Municipality of the Town of Calcutta.

"Carriage" means any wheeled vehicle with springs used for the conveyance of human beings and ordinarily drawn by an animal.

"Cart" means any cart, hackery, or wheeled vehicle with or without springs, not included in the definition of "carriage."

"Depôt" means a place where bulky articles are stored, whether for sale or otherwise, in quantities exceeding fifty maunds.

"Drug." "Drug" includes medicine for internal or external use.

"Market" includes any place where persons periodically assemble for the sale of meat, fish, vegetables or live-stock.

"Offensive matter" means dung, dirt, putrid or putrifying substances and filth of any kind not included in the term "sewage."

"Owner." "Owner" includes—

(a) the person for the time being entitled to receive, or in receipt of, any of the rent of the house or land in respect of which the word is used;

(b) an agent of such person;

(c) a trustee for such person.

But no such agent or trustee shall be liable to do anything required by this Act to be done by the owner, nor shall he be subject to any fine for omitting to do such thing, unless he have sufficient funds in his hands as such agent or trustee to do such thing.

"Public Street" means any road, street, square, court, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, over which the public have a right of way, and also the roadway over any public bridge or causeway, and also the footway and drains attached to any such street, public bridge (other than the Hooghly bridge), or causeway within the town.

"Rubbish" means broken bricks, mortar, broken glass, kitchen or stable refuse, and refuse of any kind not included in the term "offensive matter."

"Sewage" means night-soil and other contents of privies, drains and cess-pools.

"Street" means any road, street, square, court, alley, or passage, not included in the definition of

"public street."

"Railway." "Railway" includes a tramway.

"Schedule." "Schedule" means a schedule annexed to this Act.

"Section." "Section" means a section of this Act.

"Slaughter-house" means any place used for the slaughter of cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or kids, for the purpose of selling the same as meat.

"The Commissioners." "The Commissioners" means the Corporation of Calcutta.

"Year." "Year" means a year beginning on the first day of April.

CHAPTER II.

A person living in his own house is entitled to the votes assigned to him as owner as well as to those assigned to him as occupier.

12. A person qualified to vote under clause (d) of section eight may, if he holds a license under Class IV of the Second Schedule, give two votes for the ward in which he may be entitled to vote under this qualification; or one vote if only one Commissioner is to be elected; if he holds a license under Class III, one additional vote; if under Class II, two additional votes; if under Class I, three additional votes.

A person may give as many votes as he is entitled to under clauses (b), (c), and (d) of section eight combined, up to a maximum of ten additional votes in any one ward, but under no circumstances shall any person give more than twelve votes in any one ward, or eleven votes when there is only one Commissioner to be elected.

13. In sections nine, ten, eleven and twelve the word "person" includes a Hindu joint family, a company, firm, or other association of persons who may be registered as the owners of any house or land, or as the occupiers of any house under clauses (b) and (c) of section eight or may be stated in any license to be the holders thereof. Votes under clauses (a) and (e) of section eight can only be claimed by a single individual paying the rates or taxes in his own name.

14. Any person qualified to vote under any of the preceding sections shall, subject to the provisions of section thirty-two, be qualified to be elected a Commissioner for any ward in Calcutta:

Provided that his candidature is duly announced, and his name duly proposed, seconded and approved in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided also that no officer of the Corporation while in office shall be eligible for election.

15. For the purpose of the election of Commissioners, the town shall be divided into twenty-five wards, the boundaries of which are defined in the Third Schedule. The electors of each of the twenty-five wards may elect two Commissioners.

Every person qualified to vote may give all the votes to which he is entitled in any ward to any candidate in such ward or may distribute them amongst the candidates in such manner as he thinks fit.

The Local Government may, at any time, on the recommendation of the Commissioners in meeting, by a notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, alter the boundaries of any ward as defined in the said schedule.

16. If the electors of any ward shall elect but one Commissioner, or shall not elect any Commissioner, the Local Government shall appoint, in the former case, one Commissioner, and in the latter case, two Commissioners.

17. If any person is elected a Commissioner for more than one ward, he shall, within five days from the date of the election, declare for which ward he will serve; and if he fails to make such declaration, the Chairman shall forthwith declare the ward for which such person shall serve; and in either case such person shall be held to be elected in the ward in respect of which either of such declarations has been made; and thereupon the electors of the other ward or wards in which such person has been elected shall proceed to elect a Commissioner in the manner hereinafter provided.

18. Whenever an equal number of votes is given to two or more candidates at any election under this Act, the candidate for whom the greatest number of rate-payers have voted shall be held to be elected; and in case of an equality of votes in this respect, the Chairman shall give a casting vote, and the candidate to whom such vote is given shall be held to be elected.

19. The first election under this Act shall take place at the end of the year 1888-89, so that the result of the election may be declared on or before the 31st day of March, and the election shall take effect from the 1st day of April 1889.

All subsequent general elections shall be held at intervals of three years, and shall take effect from the 1st day of April in the calendar year in which they are so held.

The votes at all elections shall be given personally at the polling stations.

The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules not being inconsistent with this Act for the purpose of regulating all matters connected with elections, and may direct that voting at elections shall be by ballot, and may from time to time cancel or modify any rules so made.

The Local Government may declare the penalties which shall be incurred by the breach of any such rules:

Provided that no higher penalty than a fine of Rs. 200 shall be incurred by the breach of any such rules.

The expenses incurred in respect of all elections under this Act shall be paid out of the funds of the Corporation, and the result of all such elections shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

20. The Chairman shall cause to be prepared from the registers in his office a list of all the persons qualified to vote under classes (b), (c), and (d) of section eight, and of the number of votes to which they are respectively entitled, and shall publish such list at the Municipal office and at such other places as he may think fit, or as the Commissioners in meeting may direct, not less than sixty days before the date fixed for each general election, and such list shall be obtainable on payment of a fee not exceeding eight annas.

21. Any person qualified under clauses (a) or (e) of section eight may, within fifteen days after the publication of the list of voters, apply to the Chairman to have his name added thereto.

Any person whose name does not appear in the list, and who claims the right of voting under clauses (b), (c) or (d) of section eight may, within fifteen days of the publication thereof, apply to the Chairman to have his name added to the list or substituted for any name on the list.

Any person claiming more votes than are allotted to him in the list may, within fifteen days after the publication thereof, apply to have more votes allotted to him, or to have votes allotted to any other person transferred to him:

Provided that no claim to vote as an owner under clause (b) of section eight shall be entertained unless the name of the claimant is registered as such under section one hundred and twenty-eight, and no claim to vote as an occupier under clause (c) of section eight shall be entertained unless the name of the claimant is registered as such under section one hundred and twenty-eight or unless he can satisfy the Chairman that he has paid the rates as occupier for the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the claim is preferred.

No claim to vote under clause (d) of section eight shall be entertained unless the license is taken out in the name of the claimant.

Any person who considers that any name in the list of voters prepared under section twenty ought to be omitted, or that the votes allotted to any person ought to be reduced, may, within fifteen days after the publication of the list, apply to have such name omitted or the number of votes reduced as the case may be.

22. All applications for the revision of the list under the last preceding section shall be considered and decided by the Correction of list of voters by the Chairman.

Chairman with all reasonable despatch, and not less than fifteen days before the date of the election, the Chairman shall publish a revised list in the same manner as the original list containing all the alterations or amendments made by his order or by order of the Magistrate under the next succeeding section in such original list.

23. Any person whose application under section twenty-one has been refused may, within eight days after such refusal, apply to a Appeal from the decision of the Chairman.

Presidency Magistrate for an order to have his name inserted in, or a name omitted from, or the number of votes allotted to any person altered in, the list of voters, and such Magistrate shall, after enquiry, make such order as to the insertion or omission of the name or as to the alteration of the number of votes allotted to any person as appears to him to be just; and the Chairman shall, upon receipt of a copy of such order, give effect to the same, and such order shall be final and binding.

The list thus prepared and amended shall remain valid for all bye-elections under section thirty-three during the interval of three years, and such list shall be obtainable on payment of a fee not exceeding eight annas:

Provided that at any time any person whose name is not in the list may apply to the Chairman to enter his name therein, and sections twenty-two and twenty-three shall be held applicable to such claim.

And if such application is made not less than fifteen days before an election under section thirty-three, it shall be decided in time for such election, but not otherwise.

24. The Chairman shall, not less than thirty days before the date of election, send a letter to every Hindu joint-family, company, firm and other association of persons entitled to votes requesting them to fill in a form, which shall accompany such letter, with the name of the person authorized to vote on behalf of such Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons, and to return the same within seven days. Upon receipt of the form, the Chairman shall cause the name stated therein to be entered in the revised list published under section twenty-two, and the person whose name is thus entered in the revised list shall be deemed to be duly authorized to vote on behalf of the Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons which caused his name to be entered in the form until the contrary is proved.

Persons voting on behalf of Hindu joint-families, companies, firms, or other associations of persons to be entered on the list.

25. If the members of any Hindu joint-family,

In case of dispute Chairman to decide who is to vote for a Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons.

company, firm or other association of persons cannot agree amongst themselves as to who shall give the votes to which they are entitled, they may at any time, not less than five days before the date fixed for the publication of the revised list, apply to the Chairman to decide, and his decision shall be final and binding so far as regards the right of voting at the forthcoming election, but shall have no other effect as regards the respective rights of the members of such Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons.

26. No vote shall be given by the Secretary

Government not to vote. of State for India in Council, the Government of India or the Local Government as owner or occupier of any house or land.

27. The Chairman may, with the sanction of Chairman may delegate another to act under sections twenty-one and twenty-five.

the Commissioners in meeting, delegate to the Vice-Chairman or any officer of the Corporation appointed under section forty-one the duty of receiving and disposing of applications under section twenty-one or twenty-five, and the decisions of such officer in all cases made over to him by the Chairman shall have the same effect as if given by the Chairman.

28. The Commissioners in meeting may appoint a suitable person to perform all or any of the duties assigned to the Chairman under sections twenty-one and twenty-five, or may appoint such person to assist the Chairman in carrying out all or any of those duties, and the decision of such person shall have the same effect as if given by the Chairman. The Commissioners in meeting may assign to such person such remuneration as may seem to them reasonable.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners in meeting under this section shall be subject to the confirmation of the Local Government.

29. No election shall be deemed to be invalid or shall be in any way affected by reason of the name of any person qualified to vote being omitted from the list of voters, or by reason of the name of any person not qualified to vote being inserted therein, and no election shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of any failure to observe the dates hereinbefore prescribed or to comply with any rule made by the Local Government under section nineteen.

30. The Commissioners shall be appointed or elected, as the case may be, for a term of three years; at the expiration of that time they shall cease to be Commissioners, but may be re-appointed or re-elected.

31. The general elections shall be held on some convenient day to be fixed by the Local Government not earlier than the first nor later than the fifteenth day of March, unless the Local Government shall, for some especial reason, on the recommendation of the Commissioners in meeting, fix some other day.

Every person who is a candidate for election shall send in his name to the Chairman in writing not less than seven days before the day fixed for the election, together with the names of two electors in each ward in which he proposes to stand who propose and second his candidature, and eight electors in each such ward who approve his nomination, and shall state the ward or wards for which he proposes to stand. The Chairman shall publish a list of all candidates at the Municipal Office not less than three days before the day fixed for election. In the event of there being not more than two candidates for election in any ward, such candidate or candidates shall be deemed to be elected. In the event of there being more than two candidates, a poll shall take place in accordance with the rules made by the Local Government under section nineteen.

32. No person shall be qualified for election or shall continue to be a Commissioner who

- (a) is an uncertificated bankrupt or an undischarged insolvent: or
- (b) has been sentenced to rigorous imprisonment, or to simple imprisonment for six months or upwards, such sentence not having been set aside on appeal: or
- (c) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract made with the Commissioners in accordance with the second clause of section sixty-two:

Provided that no candidate or Commissioner shall be disqualified by reason only of his having a share or interest in—

- (a) a contract entered into between the Commissioners and any incorporated or registered company of which such candidate or Commissioner is a member or shareholder;

- (b) any lease, sale or purchase of land or any agreement for the same;
- (c) any agreement for the loan of money or any security for the payment of money; or
- (d) any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the Corporation is inserted.

But no Commissioner shall vote or take any part in any proceedings relating to any matter in which he is interested.

No Commissioner who shall be absent from Calcutta for six consecutive months shall continue in office as a Commissioner.

33. In case of the death, resignation or disqualification of any Commissioner, a person shall forthwith be appointed or elected in his stead in the manner hereinbefore provided, and such person shall remain a Commissioner for the residue only of the term for which the Commissioner in whose stead he was appointed or elected was originally appointed or elected:

Provided that no act of the Commissioners, their officers, or of the Commissioners in meeting, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that the number of the Commissioners at the time did not amount to seventy-five;

or that a disqualified person has continued to act as a Commissioner;

or that any Commissioner has taken part in any proceedings in contravention of the provisions of section thirty-two.

34. Whoever, being qualified to vote or claiming to be qualified to vote at any election under this Act, accepts or obtains, or agrees to accept, or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person, any gratification whatever as a motive or reward for giving or forbearing to give his vote in any such election, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence, and shall for seven years from the date of his conviction of such offence be disqualified from voting at any such election, and from being elected a Commissioner.

And whoever by any gift or reward, or by any promise or agreement, or security for any gift or reward corrupts or procures, or offers to corrupt or procure, any person to give or forbear to give his vote in any such election, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500 for every such offence, and shall for seven years be disqualified from voting at any such election and from being elected a Commissioner.

35. All property vested in the Commissioners and all funds received or raised by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the purposes expressly authorised by this Act.

36. The purposes expressly authorised by this Act shall be held to include the objects connected with the public safety, health, instruction and convenience hereinafter specified, that it is to say:—

- (1) Payment of the whole or any portion of the cost of the Fire-brigade for the extinction of fires in Calcutta.
- (2) Provision for lighting the public streets, places, and buildings, and for the securing or removal of dangerous places, buildings, and trades.
- (3) Defraying the cost of the construction and maintenance of hospitals and of charges of vaccination, registration of births, deaths, and marriages, and taking a census.
- (4) Construction and maintenance of public markets, slaughter-houses, and places specified in section three hundred and forty-five, latrines, privies, buildings for the deposit or discharge of night-soil, urinals, drains, sewers, drainage-works, water-works, wash-houses, public bathing places, drinking fountains, tanks, wells, squares and gardens, reclamation of unhealthy localities, and the like.
- (5) Watering the streets and cleansing the streets and sewers, scavenging, removal and disposal of offensive matter and noxious vegetation, and generally the abatement of all nuisances.
- (6) Regulation of offensive trades, of burial and burning grounds, and the removal of, and providing sites for, the same.
- (7) Construction, adornment, maintenance and alteration of streets, bridges, causeways, culverts and the like; regulation of buildings, naming streets and numbering houses, planting trees and removal of obstructions and projections.
- (8) Construction, adornment, and maintenance of public halls, offices and other buildings under the control of the Commissioners or required for municipal purposes.
- (9) Maintenance of establishments and cost of printing and stationery.
- (10) Survey of houses and land and preparation of plans.
- (11) Contribution to the cost incurred on the occasion of any public ceremony or entertainment in Calcutta.
- (12) Promotion of primary and technical education.
- (13) Contribution to any neighbouring municipality for sanitary purposes.
- (14) Provision of free libraries:

Provided that no expense shall be incurred under clause (11) without the previous sanction of the Local Government.

And generally all objects connected with the public safety, health, and convenience.

PART II.—Of the duties of the Corporation.

37. It shall be the duty of the Commissioners and they are hereby required to—

Duties of Commissioners.

- (1) provide for the payment of the interest on the municipal debt in the manner prescribed by sections four hundred and seven and four hundred and eight;

- (2) provide for the establishment of a reserve fund in the manner prescribed by the said sections, or for the annual repayment required by section four hundred and eleven;
- (3) complete and extend throughout Calcutta drainage works and open out and improve bustees, and for these purposes to expend annually a sum, being not less than two lakhs of rupees, or, with the sanction of the Local Government, any sum less than the above amount to be raised as provided by section four hundred and four;
- (4) maintain a water-supply in the manner and to the extent mentioned in Chapter VII;
- (5) make adequate and suitable provision for each of the following matters:—
 - (a) the cleaning and the conservancy of Calcutta;
 - (b) the maintenance and cleaning of drains and drainage works;
 - (c) the construction and maintenance of public latrines, urinals and similar conveniences;
 - (d) the regulation of slaughter-houses and of offensive and dangerous trades;
 - (e) the regulation of markets;
 - (f) the lighting, watering and maintenance of the public streets;
 - (g) the registration of births and deaths;
 - (h) the preventing or checking the spread of dangerous diseases;
 - (i) the naming of streets and the numbering of premises;
 - (j) the regulation of new streets and buildings;
 - (k) the abatement of nuisances in the manner provided by Chapter XII;
- (6) exercise the control over tramways with which they are vested by Bengal Act I of 1880.
- (7) devote to the improvement of the area newly added to Calcutta by this Act not less than three lakhs of rupees annually from the receipts of the revenue funds described in sections one hundred and two, one hundred and three, and one hundred and five: Provided that the instalments of interest and reserve fund payable on any capital sum expended under clauses (3), (4) and (5) of this section for the improvement of that area shall be taken as part of the three lakhs of rupees.

38. Upon complaint made to the Local Government that the Commissioners have made general default in the performance of any of the duties referred to in the last preceding section, the Local Government, if satisfied, after due enquiry, that general default has been made, and that it is of a serious character, may make an order intimating a time not less than thirty days from the date of the order for the performance of such duty by the Commissioners; and if such duty is not performed within the time limited in the order, the Local Government may, appoint some person to perform the same, and may direct that a reasonable remuneration to the person so appointed, the amount whereof is to be specified, and also the expenses of performing such duty, shall be paid by the Commissioners out of the moneys levied by them under this Act. Any person appointed under this section to perform any duty of the Commissioners shall, in the performance and for the purposes of such duty, be invested with all the powers of the Commissioners:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may, within thirty days from the receipt of any order made under this section by the Local Government, transmit through the Local Government a petition of appeal to the Governor-General in Council praying that such order may be set aside, and upon the receipt of such petition of appeal by the Local Government no further action shall be taken by the Local Government without the orders of the Governor-General in Council.

PART III.—Of the Officers of the Corporation.

39. The Local Government shall from time to time appoint a proper person to be Chairman of the Commissioners, who shall reside within the limits of Calcutta.

Such Chairman may be removed from office by the Local Government at its discretion, and shall be so removed if his removal be recommended by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at a special meeting shall have voted, but not otherwise.

40. The Commissioners, at a special meeting to be held for that purpose, may from time to time appoint, for such period as they may think fit, a proper person to be Vice-Chairman of the Commissioners.

Such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

41. The Commissioners may, at a special meeting from time to time, appoint proper persons for such period as they may think fit, to the several offices of Secretary, of Engineer, of Surveyor, of Health Officer, of Collector and of Assessor for the municipality, or may appoint a proper person to two or more of such appointments, or to one.

Every person so appointed, and also the Vice-Chairman, shall reside within the limits of Calcutta, and shall be under the orders of the Chairman, and shall perform such duties as shall be assigned by him, and may be removed by the Commissioners by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at a special meeting shall have voted, and another person may be appointed in his place.

This section shall, except as regards residence, apply to any other officer, the initial salary of whose appointment shall be fixed at five hundred rupees or upwards.

All appointments and resolutions under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

42. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall devote their whole time to the duties of their respective offices; and no Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall have, or engage in, any other profession, trade, or business whatsoever: Provided that—

- (a) Any Civil or Military Officer in the service of the Government may hold the office of Chairman or Vice-Chairman, so long as such officer shall fill no other appointment than one of those specified in this section.
- (b) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively may hold the office of Commissioner as interpreted in section one of Bengal Act No. V of 1870 (to appoint Commissioners for making Improvements in the Port of Calcutta).
- (c) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively may also be members of the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for making Laws and Regulations.
- (d) The Vice-Chairman may, with the sanction of the Local Government, be appointed to, and may hold, any other office in the employ of the Commissioners to which he may be appointed at a special meeting.

43. The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman respectively may receive such allowances as shall be; from time to time, fixed by the Commissioners at a special meeting.

Such allowance shall be—

- (a) for the Chairman not more than three thousand or less than two thousand five hundred rupees a month (exclusive of house-rent, which may or may not, in the discretion of the Commissioners, be allowed):
- (b) for the Vice-Chairman not more than fifteen hundred rupees a month.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

44. Every officer appointed under section forty-one may receive such allowance as shall be from time to time fixed by the Commissioners at a special meeting.

All resolutions passed by the Commissioners under this section shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government.

45. The Chairman may, from time to time, appoint all such Subordinate Officers and servants, other than those referred to in section forty-one, as he shall think necessary and proper to assist in carrying out this Act, and may from time to time remove any of such persons and appoint another in his place;

and may pay such allowances to such persons respectively, or in case of absence on leave, such portion thereof as he shall think reasonable:

Provided that the allowances in respect of the offices filled by such persons shall have been included in the budget as passed by the Commissioners in meeting, under section seventy-one, or shall have been subsequently sanctioned by them, and that the total amount paid to an absentee and the person appointed to act for him shall not exceed the allowance sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting except upon a resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting.

But no person shall be appointed to, or removed from, any office, the monthly salary of which exceeds Rs. 200, without the sanction of the Commissioners in meeting. And the Commissioners in meeting may authorize the Chairman to nominate not more than three of the candidates for any such appointment as is referred to in this clause, and the Commissioners in meeting shall, upon such nomination being made, appoint one of the persons so nominated and no other.

46. Any person appointed to any office under section forty-one or the last preceding section may be suspended or fined by the authority by which he may be removed subject to approval or sanction of the authority (if any) empowered by this Act to approve or sanction such removal.

47. The Commissioners in meeting may, with the sanction of the Local Government, grant such leave of absence to the Chairman or any officer appointed under sections forty and forty-one, and may, if such officer be other than the Chairman, make such arrangements for carrying on the duties of his office during his absence on leave as shall to them seem proper.

In any case in which leave of absence shall be granted to the Chairman, the Local Government shall appoint one of the Commissioners to act as Chairman in his place, or shall make such other arrangements for carrying on the duties of the office as to it shall seem proper.

Any person appointed under this section to act for the Chairman or any other officer shall, while so acting, have all the powers and be liable to all the restrictions, limitations, and provisions, which the Chairman or other officer for whom he may be appointed to act would, under this Act, have or be liable to.

48. In any case in which leave of absence shall be granted under the last preceding section, such allowance shall be paid to the absentee, and such deputation allowance to the officer appointed to act for him as may be prescribed by rules passed by the Commissioners in meeting under the next succeeding section. In special cases in which a departure from the rules seems requisite, the allowances must be sanctioned by a resolution of the Commissioners in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at the meeting shall have voted.

49. The Commissioners in meeting may, by a resolution in favour of which not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners voting at such meeting shall have voted from time to time, make rules for absentee and deputation allowances, for granting pensions and gratuities to their officers and Provident or Annuity Fund, and for compelling all or any of the servants of the Corporation to contribute thereto, and may repeal, alter or add to such rules. No rule, and no repeal, or alteration of, or addition to, any rule, shall have effect until the same has been confirmed by the Local Government and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, in accordance with such rules for the time being in force, grant such pensions or gratuities to any of their officers or servants as to the Commissioners may seem fit.

50. No Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or other officer or servant of the Commissioners, shall be interested directly, or indirectly, in any contract made with the Commissioners, and if any such person be so interested, he shall become incapable of continuing in office or in employment as such Chairman, Vice-Chairman, or other officer or servant, and shall forfeit and pay the sum of Rs. 500, which may be recovered by suit brought by or on behalf of the Commissioners:

Provided that no such officer or servant shall, by reason of being a shareholder in, or a member of, any incorporated or registered company, be deemed interested in any contract entered into between such company and the Commissioners, or shall be precluded from tendering for any municipal loan or from holding municipal debentures.

51. Every Commissioner and every municipal officer and servant appointed under this Act, and every contractor or agent for the collection of any municipal tax, and every servant or other person employed by any such contractor or agent shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section twenty-one of the Indian Penal Code.

PART IV.—Of the mode of transacting business and entering into Contracts.

52. The Commissioners shall meet ordinarily not less than once a month for the transaction of business, and the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon a requisition made in writing by any ten Commissioners, call a special meeting of the Commissioners.

53. Four days' notice shall be given by advertisement in at least two of the daily newspapers published in Calcutta of the date fixed for every ordinary or special meeting and of the business to be transacted at such meeting, and a list of the business to be transacted at any meeting shall be sent to the address of every Commissioner resident in Calcutta, so that it may be in his hands forty-eight hours before the time fixed for such meeting; and no business shall be brought before, or transacted at, any meeting other than the business of which notice has been given:

Provided that any Commissioner may submit to a meeting any resolution beyond the matters mentioned in the notice given of such meeting, if he shall have given not less than forty-eight hours previous notice of it.

tention so to do, by leaving a copy of the resolution at the office of the Commissioners.

54. All acts authorized or required to be done by the Commissioners, and all questions which may come before them for decision, shall, save as is herein otherwise provided, be done, and decided by, a majority of the Commissioners voting at the meeting before which the matter may be brought.

55. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall attend all meetings of the Commissioners held under this Act, unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause; and the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at every such meeting, and shall have a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.

Who to preside at meetings.

In the absence of both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, the Commissioners present at any meeting shall choose some one of their number to preside, who shall, in case of equality of votes, have a second or casting vote.

The President of any meeting at which a quorum of the Commissioners shall be present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place.

56. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of eighteen Commissioners be present at such meeting:

What shall constitute a quorum.

Provided that, if at any meeting there shall not be a sufficient number of Commissioners present to form a quorum as above mentioned, the President (whether he be the Chairman or not) shall adjourn the meeting to such convenient time and place as he shall think fit; and the business which should have been brought before the original meeting, had there been a quorum present, shall be brought before and disposed of by the adjourned meeting in the usual manner, at which a quorum of ten Commissioners shall suffice.

57. Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings shall be drawn up and fairly entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be signed by the President after each meeting; and the said minutes shall, at all reasonable times, be open at the office of the Commissioners to the inspection of any Commissioner without charge, and of any other person on payment of a fee of eight annas.

All meetings, the minutes of the proceedings of which have been duly signed by the President, shall be taken to have been duly convened and to be free from all defect and irregularity.

58. At any meeting, unless a poll be demanded by at least five Commissioners, a declaration by the President that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

59. If a poll be demanded as in the last preceding section mentioned, the

sioners present who desire to vote shall be taken under the direction of the President, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Commissioners at such meeting:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may, subject to such rules as may be framed by them under section sixty-eight, resolve that any question or class of questions shall be decided by ballot.

60. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall, except upon such holidays as shall be allowed by the Government, and unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, attend daily at the office of the Commissioners for the transaction of business connected with or arising under this Act.

61. The Chairman may exercise all the powers vested by this Act in the Commissioners:

Provided that he shall not exercise any power which by this Act is directed to be exercised only by the Commissioners in meeting. Nor shall he act in opposition to, or in contravention of, any orders passed by the Commissioners at a meeting; and if any order passed by him under the authority vested in the Commissioners is brought before a meeting of the Commissioners and modified or disapproved of by them, the Chairman shall, as far as possible, modify or cancel such order so as to bring it into conformity with the order of the Commissioners in meeting.

The Vice-Chairman may exercise the same authority as the Chairman on behalf of the Commissioners subject to his general direction and control.

All powers which may lawfully be exercised by the Chairman shall be deemed to have been exercised by him if exercised by any subordinate officer acting in the execution of the duties assigned to him by the Chairman.

62. The Commissioners may enter into and perform all such contracts as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

Every contract made by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman on behalf of the Commissioners the subject-matter of which exceeds Rs. 1,000 in value, shall be in writing, and signed by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and two other Commissioners, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Commissioners, and no such contract, unless made in accordance with a vote of the Commissioners in meeting, shall be concluded without inviting tenders thereon and without the approval of a Committee of the Commissioners.

Unless so executed, it shall not be binding on the Commissioners.

The Commissioners in meeting, or any Committee of the Commissioners, may compound with any contractor or other person in respect of any penalty or damages incurred by reason of the non-performance of any contract entered into as aforesaid, whether such penalty be mentioned in any such contract or otherwise, for such sums of money or other recompense as to the Commissioners may seem proper.

Every contract involving an expenditure exceeding Rs. 1,00,000 shall require the sanction of the Local Government.

63. As soon as may be, and not later than the first day of June, in each year, the Commissioners in meeting shall proceed to appoint a General Committee for the year, the members of which shall, provided that they are Commissioners, hold office till the election and appointment of their successors.

The General Committee shall consist of eighteen Commissioners, of whom twelve shall be elected, in such manner as the Commissioners in meeting may direct, by the Commissioners elected under the first clause of section eight.

And six shall be elected in accordance with such rules as the Local Government may prescribe, by the Commissioners nominated under section seven, and elected under the last clause of section eight.

64. The General Committee shall ordinarily meet once a week for the transaction of business. It shall be the Budget and Finance Committee of the Corporation, and shall also transact such other business as may be expressly referred to it by the Corporation, or as may not be referred to any other standing or special Committee.

The proceedings of the General Committee shall be submitted to the Commissioners in meeting, and the General Committee shall be bound by any resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting:

Provided that when the Chairman and the majority of the General Committee are in accord, and inconvenience is likely to result from delay, it shall not be necessary before action is taken to wait for the confirmation of the Commissioners in meeting, but if the Commissioners in meeting do not confirm the action of the General Committee, such steps shall be taken to carry out the orders of the Commissioners as may still be practicable.

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be ex-officio members of the General Committee, and the Chairman, or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside at its meetings.

In the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, the members present shall choose one of their number to preside.

65. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, appoint from among the Commissioners such other Committees, either standing or special, and consisting of so many members as they may think fit, for the purpose of enquiring into and reporting upon any matter connected with the conservancy or improvement of Calcutta not assigned by this Act, or by the vote of the Commissioners in meeting to the General Committee, or for the purpose of advising or aiding the Chairman or Vice-Chairman in the discharge of any portion of the duties exercisable by them under section sixty-one which, in the discretion of the Commissioners, would be better regulated or managed with the aid of such Committee:

Provided that the Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be a member of every standing Committee.

66. The proceedings of every Committee, other than the General Committee, and the Committee shall be bound by any resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting:

Provided that when the Chairman and the majority of the Committee are in accord, and inconvenience is likely to result from delay, it shall not be necessary before action is taken to wait for the confirmation of the Commissioners in meeting; but if the Commissioners in meeting do not confirm the action of the Committee, such steps shall be taken to carry out the orders of the Commissioners as may still be practicable:

Provided that if the Commissioners in meeting when appointing a Committee expressly prohibit any action being taken until the decision of the Committee has been confirmed in general meeting, no action shall under any circumstances be taken prior to such confirmation.

67. The General Committee or any other Committee may, subject to the control of the Commissioners in meeting, appoint such Sub-Committees as they may think fit, and make over to them such of their duties and functions as they may deem proper.

No defect in the constitution of, or the proceedings at any Committee meeting or Sub-Committee meeting, shall be held to invalidate such proceedings after they have been confirmed by the Commissioners in meeting.

68. The Commissioners in meeting may frame rules not inconsistent with this Act for the conduct of business at their meetings, and also for the conduct of business at meetings of the General Committee and other Committees.

PART V.—Of the Estimates of Income, Expenditure, and Audit.

69. At a general meeting to be held in the month of February in each year, the Chairman shall lay before the Commissioners a budget or estimate, prepared by him, of the income and expenditure of the Commissioners for the year commencing on the first day of April then next succeeding, in such detail and form as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time direct.

Such budget shall be completed and printed, and a copy thereof, as far as may be practicable, sent by post or otherwise to each of the Commissioners resident within twenty miles of Government House, at least three days prior to the meeting before which the budget is to be laid.

70. The budget shall show what expenditure it is proposed to incur during the period to which it relates, and the manner in which it is proposed to meet such expenditure:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall preclude the Commissioners in meeting from sanctioning expenditure not provided for in the budget.

Such budget shall be referred to the General Committee for consideration with such instructions as the Commissioners in meeting may think fit to pass when making such reference. The General Committee shall consider such budget, modify it at its discretion, and report upon it in time for consideration at the meeting to be held for fixing the rates under the prov

71. The Commissioners in a meeting to be held during the month of March shall consider the budget as modified by the General Committee, and shall pass it subject to such further modifications or additions as may be thought fit. The Commissioners shall thereupon at the same meeting, or, if such meeting be adjourned, at such adjourned meeting, fix, with reference to the budget as passed, the rates at which the rates and taxes hereinafter mentioned shall be imposed for the year commencing on the first day of April next ensuing, and the rates so fixed shall not be altered before the special meeting held in the next succeeding month of March, except by a resolution of the Commissioners passed at a special meeting.

No new work or series of works, the entire estimated cost of which amounts to Rs. 1,00,000, shall be commenced (though included and passed in the budget) without the sanction of the Local Government.

72. The accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Commissioners shall be audited and examined at least once in every year at such time and by such auditors as shall, from time to time, be appointed by the Local Government.

73. For the purposes of any audit and examination of accounts under this Act, the auditors may by summons in writing, require the production before them of all books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, and all other documents and papers which they may deem necessary, and may require any person holding or accountable for any such books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers, to appear before them at any such audit and examination, or adjournment thereof, and to make and sign a declaration with respect to the same.

74. Any person who, when duly required so to do by any auditor of accounts under the last preceding section, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such auditor, or to produce any books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers, or to make or sign a declaration with respect to the same, or to answer any question or prepare and submit any statement, shall be liable for every neglect or refusal, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 70 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

75. All auditors acting under this Act shall, in respect of each audit, be paid such reasonable remuneration as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time determine.

76. Before each audit and examination of accounts, the Commissioners shall give ten days' notice of the time and place at which the same will be made by advertisement in at least two of the daily newspapers published in Calcutta; and a copy of the accounts to be audited and examined shall be deposited in the office of the Commissioners and be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of all persons interested for seven days before the audit and examination, and all such persons shall be at liberty to take copies of or extracts from, the same, without the payment of any fee, and within fourteen days after the audit and examination shall have been completed, the auditors shall report upon the accounts audited and examined, and shall deliver such report to the Commissioners at a meeting, who shall cause the same to be deposited in the office of the Commissioners, and to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

CHAPTER III.

OF TAXES.

PART I.—Of the Tax on Carriages and Animals.

77. A tax at a rate not exceeding the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule shall be imposed upon all carriages and draught animals or animals used for riding kept in Calcutta, and shall be payable in advance. But it shall not be imposed on—

- (a) any animal which any person exempted from the operation of any municipal tax by an order issued under section three of Act XI of 1881, is bound, by the regulation of the service to which he belongs, to keep;
- (b) animals exempt from any municipal tax under section twenty-five of Act XX of 1869;
- (c) carriages or animals belonging to the Government or to the Corporation;
- (d) carriages none of the wheels of which exceed twenty-four inches in diameter;
- (e) carriages kept for sale by bond fide dealers in such carriages and not used for any other purpose;
- (f) carriages or animals certified by the Chairman of the Corporation or by the Commissioner of Police respectively to be used by the owner thereof for municipal or police purposes;
- (g) tramcars and animals employed in working street tramways.

78. The owner or the person in charge of a carriage or animal liable to a tax under the last preceding section, shall, before the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, forward to the office of the Commissioners a statement in writing signed by him, containing a description of the carriages and animals owned by him or in his charge liable to the tax.

Such person shall at the same time pay to the Commissioners such sum as shall be payable by him for the half-year commencing on the first day of April or October (as the case may be) for the carriages and animals specified in such statement, according to the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

Any person who becomes the owner or takes charge between the first day of April and the first day of October, or between the first day of October and the first day of April, of any carriage or animal shall, within a week of his becoming owner or taking charge, send to the office of the Commissioners a similar statement together with the amount payable for the whole of the then current half-year, according to the rates prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

The Commissioners may, if they are satisfied that any such carriage has not been used within the half-year, or that any such carriage or animal has been kept for only a portion of the then current half-year, refund, or remit, the whole, or such portion thereof as they may think fit, of the amount so payable.

For the purposes of this section, a livery stable-keeper shall be deemed to be the owner or to be in charge of every animal in his stables.

79. Whenever any person shall pay to the Commissioners the amount of the tax which shall be payable by him in respect of all carriages and animals kept in Calcutta, the Commissioners shall grant to such person a license to keep such carriages and animals during the current half-year ending upon the thirtieth day of September or the thirty-first day of March next after the grant of such license, and no longer.

A license may at any time be granted for any previous half-year for which no license has been taken out on payment of the amount due for that half-year.

80. Whoever owns, or is in charge of, any carriage or animal without the required license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, and not being less than one and a half times such amount. And such fine shall, when levied, be taken in full satisfaction of the demand on account of such license.

81. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with livery stable-keepers and other persons keeping carriages for hire, or animals for sale or hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages or animals so kept by such persons in lieu of the taxes prescribed in the Fourth Schedule.

82. The provisions of section eighty shall apply to any person who, having compounded for the payment of a certain sum under the last preceding section, refuses or neglects to pay such sum; the amount due for a license being taken as the amount thus compounded for.

83. The Commissioners may, by a notice in writing, require any person who shall carry on the trade or business of a livery stable-keeper to produce, for the inspection of the Commissioners, or of any officer authorized by them in that behalf, all books and accounts relating to such trade or business.

84. The Commissioners may, at any time between sunrise and sunset, enter and inspect any stable or coach-house or any place wherein they may have reason to believe that there is any carriage or animal liable to taxation;

and if the Commissioners at any time find any carriage or animal in respect of which no license has been obtained, the Commissioners may, if the owner or person in charge of such carriage or animal is unknown, by a written order authorise any of their subordinate officers to take possession of such carriage or animal, and the Commissioners shall make such order as they think fit respecting the custody thereof.

85. If any person within one month establishes his claim to the possession of such carriage or animal, the Commissioners shall order it to be delivered to him on payment of the tax due, together with such costs as the Commissioners may have reasonably incurred in taking possession of, and keeping, the same. If no person within such period satisfies the Commissioners that he is entitled to such carriage or animal, it may be sold for the recovery of the tax and costs aforesaid; and if any person whose carriage or animal has been sold establishes his claim to the net proceeds of such sale, the Commissioners shall order the proceeds of such sale, less the tax due and all costs incurred in consequence of the seizure and sale, to be delivered to such person.

86. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, cause to be prepared and entered in distinct columns in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners and to be open to the inspection of any person who shall apply for leave to inspect the same, a list of the persons to whom during the then current period of six months a license has been granted under section seventy-nine and of the carriages and animals in respect of which the same has been granted.

PART II.—Of the tax on Professions, Trades, and Callings.

87. Every person who shall exercise in Calcutta any of the professions, trades or callings prescribed in the Second Schedule, shall annually take out a license, and shall pay for the same such sum as is in the Second Schedule mentioned.

The Commissioners may in their discretion remit, or refund, any portion of the sum so payable if they are satisfied that any such person has exercised any such profession, trade, or calling for a portion of the year only.

They may also reduce any person from a higher to a lower class, or exempt any person altogether on the ground of his inability to take out such license.

88. The license mentioned in the last preceding section shall be granted by the Commissioners, and shall specify—

(a) the date of the grant thereof,
(b) the name of the person to whom the license is granted,

(c) the profession, trade or calling, and if the license is a local license the place of business in respect of which it is granted, and the sum paid for such license.

Such license shall have effect and continue in force from the commencement of the year on account of which it is granted until the thirty-first day of March of that year.

89. The liability of any person to take out a license, and the class under which he shall be deemed bound to take out such license, shall be determined in accordance with

On payment of tax,

Commissioners may compound for carriages with livery stable-keepers and other persons.

Power to compel production of the books of livery stable-keepers.

Power to inspect stables

the procedure laid down in rule (7) of the Second Schedule.

90. Whoever exercises any trade, profession, or calling without the license required by section eighty-seven on or after the first day of July in any year, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, and not being less than one and a half times such amount. And such fine shall, when levied, be taken in full satisfaction of the demand on account of such license.

91. The Commissioners may, by a notice in writing, require the occupier of any house to forward to them within seven days a list, signed by him, of the names of all male persons residing or carrying on any trade, profession, on calling, in such house, and of their respective professions, trades, and occupations.

92. Whoever, being the occupier of any house, fails to forward such list when required to do so under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

93. As soon as may be after the first day of April in every year, the Commissioners shall prepare a list of the persons licensed for the preceding year under section eighty-eight, which shall state the particulars specified in that section, and such list shall be kept in the office of the Commissioners, and be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

PART III.—Of the Registration of Carts.

94. Every cart kept or used within the limits of Calcutta or Howrah shall be registered in the office of the Commissioners with the name and residence of the owner, and shall have affixed thereto the number of such registration in such manner as the Commissioners shall direct.

95. Whoever keeps or is in possession of a cart not duly registered as required by the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such registration, exclusive of the amount so payable; and whoever, being the owner or driver of any cart, shall fail to affix the registration number required by the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.

96. The registration of carts under section ninety-four shall be made, and the numbers assigned half-yearly on or after the first day of April and the first day of October in each year, upon such days as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of Rs. 4 shall be paid for each registration.

The Commissioners may in their discretion remit any portion of the fee so payable if they are satisfied that the cart hereinbefore required to be registered, as mentioned in section ninety-four, has been kept or used for a portion of the half-year only.

When any registered cart is transferred within any half-year, it shall be registered anew in the name of the person to whom it has been transferred; and a fee of four annas shall be paid for every such last-mentioned registration.

The total net proceeds of the fees half-yearly received by the Commissioners for the registration of carts, after deduction of the charges incurred on account of such registration, shall be divided between the Municipalities of Calcutta and Howrah, and such other Municipalities adjacent to Calcutta or Howrah as the Local Government shall declare to be entitled to a share in such receipts, in such proportion as the Local Government may, from time to time, determine.

97. The three last preceding sections shall not apply to carts—

- (a) which are the property of the Government;
- (b) which are the property of the Commissioners of Calcutta or Howrah, or of any adjacent Municipalities; or
- (c) which are kept at any place more than eight miles distant from Government House and are only temporarily and casually used within the Municipality of Calcutta or Howrah.

98. If any person owns or keeps any cart hereinbefore required to be registered, without having caused the same to be registered, the Commissioners may seize such cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of the seizure in the conveyance of passengers or goods), together with the animals or cattle drawing the same, and may detain them.

And all Police Officers shall, on the application of the Commissioners, seize and detain any such cart, animals or cattle.

If the cart, animals, or cattle so seized be not claimed within ten days, they may be sold by auction by order of a Magistrate, and the proceeds of such sale may be applied to the expenses incurred on account of the seizure, detention, and sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the credit of the Corporation.

PART IV.—Of the Tax on Petroleum.

99. The Commissioners in meeting may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prohibit the introduction into Calcutta for the purpose of storage therein of petroleum intended for consumption elsewhere, and may thereafter, with the like sanction, levy a tax not exceeding four annas per case of ten gallons on all petroleum introduced into Calcutta for consumption therein.

100. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, make rules as to all or any of the following matters:—

- (a) the detention and examination of petroleum introduced into Calcutta for consumption therein;
- (b) the collection of the tax levied on petroleum;
- (c) Such other matters connected with the introduction of petroleum into Calcutta for consumption therein as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, think fit to regulate:

Provided that no rule shall render petroleum passing through Calcutta in transit for any place beyond it liable to taxation or to any detention or examination whatsoever under this Act.

And all petroleum introduced into Calcutta, contrary to any rules made under the provisions of this section, may be seized and confiscated.

* All petroleum confiscated under this section shall become the property of the Commissioners.

CHAPTER IV.

OF RATES.

PART I.—Of imposing the Rates.

101. The Commissioners may, as provided in section seventy-one, impose Rates. the following rates upon all houses and lands within the town :—

(a).—The general rate not exceeding 18 per cent. on the annual valuation.

(b).—A water-rate not exceeding 6 per cent. on the annual valuation :

Provided that houses and lands, no part of which is within 150 yards of the nearest stand-pipe or other supply of filtered water available to the public, shall pay 3 per cent. less than houses otherwise situated.

(c).—A lighting-rate not exceeding 2 per cent. on the annual valuation.

(d).—A sewage rate not exceeding 2 per cent. on the annual valuation.

102. The water-rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the Water-supply Fund.

The Water-supply Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the water-rate, with all receipts arising out of the sale of water, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the water-supply.

It shall be debited with—

(a).—The annual interest on all sums borrowed from time to time, whether from Government, or by way of debenture loan for the construction or extension of water-works for the supply of filtered or unfiltered water.

(b).—The annual expenditure requisite for the repayment of these loans, or for the creation of a Reserve Fund for their future repayment.

(c).—The cost of maintaining in an efficient condition the supply of filtered water to Calcutta.

(d).—The cost of maintaining in an efficient condition the supply of unfiltered water to Calcutta.

(e).—The establishments and miscellaneous expenditure necessary for the purposes specified in clauses (c) and (d).

(f).—Such a proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision and of the Head Office, as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time direct.

103. The lighting-rate shall be annually Appropriation of the fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the Lighting Fund.

The Lighting Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the lighting-rate, with the receipts, if any, arising out of the sale of gas or electricity, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the lighting of the town.

It shall be debited with—

(a).—The annual interest on all sums which may hereafter be borrowed for the construction of gas-works or for supplying electricity for the lighting of Calcutta.

(b).—The annual contributions to the Reserve Fund for the future repayment of such sums.

(c).—All expenditure necessary for the efficient lighting of the town by gas, oil, electricity, or any other means.

(d).—The establishments and miscellaneous expenditure necessary for the purposes specified in clause (c).

(e).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, direct.

104. The sewage rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the Sewage Fund.

The Sewage Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the sewage rate, with the proceeds, if any, arising from the sale of night-soil, the receipts from licenses under section three hundred and eleven, and with all miscellaneous receipts connected with the working of the Night-soil Removal Department.

It shall be debited with—

(a).—The cost of the establishments maintained under section three hundred and thirteen.

(b).—The cost of maintenance of all public latrines and urinals and of the establishments for their cleansing.

(c).—Such proportionate share of the cost of inspecting, maintaining, and cleansing the public sewers as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.

(d).—Such proportionate share of the cost of collection, of general supervision, and of the Head Office as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time determine.

105. The general rate shall be annually fixed by the Commissioners in meeting with reference to the requirements of the General Fund.

The General Fund shall be credited with the receipts of the general rate, with all moneys paid to the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than those assigned to the Water-supply Fund, Lighting Fund or Sewage Fund, and with such other moneys received by the Commissioners as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time direct to be credited to the General Fund.

It shall be debited with all expenditure incurred in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than that debitable to the Water-supply Fund, Lighting Fund or Sewage Fund, and with all other expenditure that may be lawfully incurred by the Commissioners which the Commissioners in meeting shall direct to be debited to the General Fund:

Provided that, when any of the other rates are levied at a maximum, but not otherwise, grants may be made by the Commissioners in meeting in aid of any fund dependent on such rate if the receipts of the Fund fall short of the requisite disbursements.

106. These four rates, after having been fixed under section seventy-one of this Act, shall be levied as one consolidated rate, and the collections made on account of this rate shall be divided between the General Fund, the Water-supply Fund, the Lighting Fund and the Sewage Fund in the proportions at which the rates are being levied for the time being without reference to the year on account of which each payment is made.

Such deduction shall, however, be made from the proportion to be credited to the Water-supply Fund as may seem to the Commissioners in meeting to be approximately equivalent to the diminished productiveness of that rate, owing to the partial exemption of certain premises under clause (4) of section one hundred and one.

107. The consolidated rate shall be payable half by the owners of the houses and lands, and half by the occupiers thereof. It shall be payable on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of October and first day of January for the quarters, respectively, commencing on those dates.

PART II.—Of the Owner's share of the Consolidated Rate.

108. If the annual value of any house or land as determined under Chapter V shall in any case exceed the amount of rent payable to the owner, the owner may in such case recover from the person who pays him rent the difference between the sum assessed upon him as the owner's share of the consolidated rate and the sum at which he would have been assessed had the house been valued only at the amount of rent actually payable to him, and such difference shall be added to the rent and shall be recovered by the owner from the person liable for the payment thereof.

109. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V has been vacant for sixty consecutive days during any year, the person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate shall, if notice in writing be given to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant, be liable to pay only one-fourth of the consolidated rate due on account of the period of vacancy—the period of vacancy being calculated from the date on which the notice is delivered; if more than one-fourth of the consolidated rate has been paid in advance, the surplus shall, on demand, be refunded.

110. No refund shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same shall be applied for within six months from the date of vacancy of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

PART III.—Of the Occupier's share of the Consolidated Rate.

111. When any house or land whereon the consolidated rate is assessed under Chapter V is vacant, the person liable to pay the occupier's share of the rate up to the period of such vacancy shall, if he has paid for the whole quarter, be entitled to a refund of all the rate paid by him for the period during which the house is vacant, or for the period during which it may have been occupied by a new occupier, if notice shall have been given in writing to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant; and the date of vacancy shall be calculated from the date of delivery of such notice at the office of the Commissioners.

112. No refund of rates shall be made under the last preceding section unless the same is applied for within six months from the date of cessation of occupation of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

113. Whenever any house or land which shall have been unoccupied shall be occupied during any quarter, there shall be forthwith payable in respect of such house or land the full occupier's share of the consolidated rate for the period between the date of occupation and the last day of the quarter.

114. Whenever any person holding any house or land at a rent from the person liable to pay the owner's share of the consolidated rate in respect of such house or land has or may sub-let the same to different persons holding in severalty, the person so holding shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the occupier of such house or land.

115. If any house is occupied by more than one person holding in severalty, or is valued at less than Rs. 200, the Commissioners may impose the entire consolidated rate upon the owner of such house.

116. If the entire rate is paid by the owner of any house under the last preceding section, such owner may, if there be but one occupier of the house, recover from such occupier half of the rate so paid by such owner; and if there be more than one occupier, he may recover from each occupier half of such sum as shall bear to the entire amount of rate so paid by him the same proportion as the value of the portion of the house in the occupation of such person bears to the entire value of such house.

117. The entire consolidated rate imposed upon bustee land and the huts built thereon shall, after deducting therefrom a sum equal to one-eighth of such rates, be paid by the owner of such land. The sum deducted shall be retained by the owner of the land as a set off against the expenses which may be incurred in collecting the portion of the rate recoverable from the occupiers of the land or the owner or occupiers of huts built thereon, under the provisions of the next succeeding section, and as a commutation of all refunds in respect of huts which are vacant or which may be removed or destroyed during the continuance of the period for which the rate is imposed :

Provided that no additional rates shall be imposed on account of any new huts built or of any huts enlarged during the year for which the valuation remains in force, under the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-four.

118. Whenever a rate is imposed on bustee lands, the Commissioners shall cause the land and the huts standing on it to be separately valued, and the owner of the land may recover from the owner of each hut half the consolidated rate paid by him for the land on which the hut stands, and the entire consolidated rate payable on account of the hut.

119. Every owner who, under the provisions of sections one hundred and sixteen and the last preceding section may be entitled to recover any sum from the occupier of any house or of any portion thereof, or from the owner of any hut, shall have for the recovery of such sum all such and the same remedies, powers, rights, and authorities as if such sum were rent payable to him.

120. The Commissioners may by a notice in writing require the occupier of any house or land to furnish them, within fifteen days, with the name and address of the owner of such house or land, and such name and address, when so received, shall be registered provisionally in the assessment book kept under section one hundred and twenty-eight.

121. If the occupier of any house or land shall refuse or neglect to furnish the information so required of him under the last preceding section, he shall be liable to pay the rates payable by the owner on account of such house or land, and on non-payment thereof the Commissioners may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found in the house or on the land :

Provided that no arrear of rate which has remained due from the owner of any house or land, for more than one year, shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE ASSESSMENT OF HOUSES AND LAND.

122. For the purpose of assessment under this Act, the annual value of land and the annual value of any house built for letting purposes or ordinarily let shall be the gross annual rent at which such land or house might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, less, in the case of a house, an allowance of 10 per cent. for the cost of repairs, and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the house in a state to command such gross rent. The annual value of any house not built for letting purposes and not ordinarily let shall be 5 per cent. on the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of building the house, less a reasonable amount to be deducted on account of depreciation, if any, to the estimated value of the land valued with the house as part of the same premises.

When a house is occupied by the owner under such exceptional circumstances as renders a valuation of 5 per cent. of the cost of building, less depreciation, excessive, a lower percentage may be taken.

The value of land so estimated shall not include the value of any machinery thereon.

123. All valuations of houses made by the Commissioners prior to the commencement of this Act shall remain in force during the period for which they were so made, and on the expiration of such period, the annual value at which any house is to be assessed shall be fixed by the Commissioners for a period of six years, and thereafter for successive periods of six years :

Provided that for the purpose of dividing the town into districts under section one hundred and twenty-nine, the Commissioners may retain the valuation of the houses in any part of Calcutta for a further period not exceeding six years, or may, with the same object, make a re-valuation for a less period than six years.

124. Bustee lands with the huts upon them, or lands that are waste or used for agricultural purposes, may be valued annually at the discretion of the Commissioners, and shall be so valued on the application of the owner. When not re-valued, the former valuation shall remain in force from year to year until a re-valuation is made.

125. Any house, the valuation of which may have been cancelled on the ground of irregularity, or which for any other reason may have no annual value legally assigned to it, may be valued at any time under section one hundred and twenty-two for such period as remains unexpired in the district in which it is included under section one hundred and twenty-nine.

126. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-three any substantial alteration and improvement is made to any such house, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued, even though such period has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation.

127. If during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-three the value of such house shall suffer depreciation from any cause proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been beyond the control of the owner or occupier thereof, the Commissioners shall as soon as practicable, on application being made to them in writing by the owner or occupier of such house, cause it to be again valued, even though the current period of valuation has not expired, and such last-mentioned valuation shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of valuation :

Provided that if any substantial alteration and improvement shall be made, prior to the expiration of the said period of valuation, to the house which shall have been again valued as aforesaid, the Commissioners may cause such house to be again valued as under the last preceding section.

128. The annual value fixed by the Commissioners as hereinbefore provided shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners, wherein shall also be written—

- (a) number of premises;
- (b) description of premises;
- (c) name of person primarily liable to pay the rate;
- (d) amount of valuation;
- (e) amount of rate payable quarterly;
- (f) if exempted, the ground of exemption.

This information may be contained in as many books as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine which shall together constitute a book to be called the "assessment book."

When the name of the owner or occupier is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the assessment book as the "owner" or "occupier."

Any owner or occupier may at any time apply to the Commissioners to have his name entered as owner or occupier in the assessment book, and the Commissioners shall, unless there is sufficient reason to refuse such application, (which refusal shall be in writing) cause such name to be entered in the assessment book.

Where there are gradations of owners or occupiers, and doubt exists as to who is entitled to be registered as owner or occupier of any premises, the Commissioners shall determine which of the several owners or occupiers is entitled to be registered as such, and their decision shall remain in force for the purposes of this Act till set aside by the order of a competent court.

No owner or occupier whose name is not entered in the assessment book shall be entitled to object that any bill, notice of demand, warrant or other notice of any kind required by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any house or land, has not been made out in his own name:

Provided that any person who has paid the owner's share of the consolidated rate for the last preceding quarter may, if there is no opposition to his application to be registered as owner, but such application is rejected or postponed for want of evidence, claim to have his name provisionally registered as owner, and when his name is so provisionally registered he shall enjoy all the privileges and incur all the liabilities attaching to the owner of any house or land under this Act so long as no other person claims to be registered as owner.

A list shall be published annually, in such manner as the Commissioners may determine, stating the names of all persons who are provisionally registered and the premises in respect of which they are so registered.

Any name provisionally registered as that of an owner of any premises shall after three years, if no objection be taken, be transferred to the assessment book as that of the owner of such premises.

129. For the purpose of valuing houses for a period of six years, the Commissioners shall divide Calcutta into such and so many districts as they may think fit, and proceed to make separate valuations district by district, and shall enter the same in the assessment book.

130. The Commissioners, by a notice in writing, may require the owner or occupier of any house or land to furnish them with returns of the measurements and of the rent or annual value thereof; and the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between the hour of seven in the forenoon and sunset enter on, and inspect, survey, and measure such house or land after giving a notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours.

131. Whoever refuses or fails to furnish any such return for the space of one week from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or knowingly makes a false or incorrect return, and whoever hinders, obstructs, or prevents any Commissioner, or any person appointed by the Commissioners as aforesaid, from entering or inspecting or measuring any such house or land shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 for every such offence.

132. When the valuation of any of the districts into which Calcutta may have been divided by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-nine shall have been completed, the Commissioners shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the statement of valuations of all the houses included in such district may be inspected. Such notice shall be by advertisement in at least two English newspapers, and in two Vernacular newspapers, published in Calcutta, and also by placards posted up in conspicuous places throughout such district.

And the person in whose custody the statement of valuations may be, shall permit any person, being the owner or occupier of any house or land included in the district or the agent of such owner or occupier, to inspect the records and to make extracts therefrom without payment of any fee, and any person, not being such owner or occupier to inspect and make extracts, in like manner, on payment of a fee of one rupee in respect of each entry extracted.

133. The Commissioners shall, in all cases in which any house is for the first time valued, or in which the valuation of any house previously valued is increased, give special Annual value fixed to be entered in a book.

New valuations or measurement to be made.

Returns may be required for purpose of valuation.

Owner or occupier may apply to have his name entered as such in assessment book.

Public notice of valuation to be given.

Person paying owner's share of consolidated rate may be registered provisionally as owner.

Notice when valuation made for first time or increased.

notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the same, and when the valuation is increased as aforesaid, the said notice shall state the grounds of such increase.

134. Before re-valuing any bustee, or other land under section one hundred and twenty-four, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owner of the land that on or after a date, not less than fifteen days from the receipt of such notice by the owner of the land, such re-valuation will take place, and if the valuation so made exceeds the previous valuation, the Commissioners shall give to the owner a special notice of the amount of the valuation with full details thereof.

135. Any person who is dissatisfied with a valuation made under this Chapter shall in the case of houses, within fifteen days after the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-two, or after receipt of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-three, when such notice is received after the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-two, and in the case of bustee or other land within fifteen days after the receipt of the special notice referred to in section one hundred and thirty-four, deliver at the office of the Commissioners a notice in writing stating the grounds of his objection.

136. All such objections shall be entered in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and on receipt of any objection, notice shall be given to the objector of a day and place when his objection will be investigated.

On the day and place notified, the Chairman or Vice-Chairman (if the case is referred to him by the Chairman) shall hear the objection in the presence of the objector if he shall appear, or the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may, for reasonable cause, adjourn the investigation. When the objection has been determined, the order passed shall be recorded in the register of objections, together with the date of such order.

137. Any person dissatisfied with the orders passed on his objection may appeal to the Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction in the place where the house, land or bustee land is situated. Such appeal shall be presented to the Court of Small Causes within thirty days of the decision of the objection under section one hundred and thirty-six, and shall be accompanied with an extract from the register of objections containing the orders objected to. No appeal shall be admitted unless an objection has first been taken under section one hundred and thirty-five.

138. The valuation by the Commissioners when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under the last preceding section when an appeal is made, shall be final and binding.

139. The valuation made by the Commissioners subject to such alterations as may from time to time thereafter be duly made, shall be entered in the assessment book, and the assessment calculated on the said valuation shall, subject to such alterations as aforesaid, be deemed to be the amount payable during the whole period for which the valuation is in force, and this period shall be calculated from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which any such amendment shall be so authenticated; and until such date the old valuation shall continue in force, notwithstanding that the period for which it was made may have expired.

140. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may at any time amend the assessment book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or by inserting any house or land liable to the rate, or by inserting a valuation when the house or land liable to be valued has not been valued, after giving notice to any person interested in the making of the amendment of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, when such amendment is to be made; the Chairman or Vice-Chairman may also strike out the name of any person, or any house or land not liable to the rate or reduce the amount of the valuation without notice: Provided that no reduction shall be made inconsistent with the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-eight.

If any amendment shall be made in cases where notice is required, the same shall be deemed to have been made on the expiration of fifteen days after service of the said notice; and any person interested in such amendment may object by application in writing to the Commissioners, to be left at their office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of sections one hundred and thirty-five, one hundred and thirty-six, one hundred and thirty-seven, and one hundred and thirty-eight shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to such objection.

CHAPTER VI.

OF LEVYING THE RATES.

141. When any rate is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be presented to the person liable to the payment thereof a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period and a description of the property for which the rate is charged.

142. If the bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within seven days from the presentation thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand in the form contained in the fifth Schedule, or to the like effect; and, if he shall not, within seven days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for non-payment of the same, such sum, with all costs, may be levied by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter, or if the defaulter be the occupier of any house or land in respect of which a rate is due, by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, whether actually belonging to the defaulter or not, under a warrant in the form contained in the Sixth Schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners :

Provided that when the premises in respect of which the default is committed are a place of business, and the moveable property distrained is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been left there for repairs or safe custody in the ordinary course of business, it shall be released.

For every notice of demand under this section which the Commissioners shall cause to be served upon any person, a fee, not exceeding one rupee, shall be payable.

Such fee shall be added to the amount of the rate in respect of which the notice is given, and, if not duly paid, may be levied in the same manner as such rate may be levied.

143. The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress under the last preceding section shall forthwith make an inventory of the moveable property seized under such warrant, and shall at the time give a notice in writing in the form contained in the Seventh Schedule, or to the like effect, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said moveable property will be sold as therein mentioned.

144. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold and the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure.

All distresses under this Chapter shall be reasonable and the amount of property seized shall be proportionate to the arrears due, and all sales of property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure now in force, or hereafter to be in force in the Court of Small Causes with respect to sale after distress.

Fees shall be payable upon warrants issued under this Act according to the rates set forth in the table of fees contained in the Eighth Schedule.

All officers and servants of the Corporation are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

145. The moveable property of any person from whom any rate is due may be distrained, wherever the same may be found, for default in payment of the money due from him.

146. If the sum due on account of any rate from the owner of any house or land remains unpaid after notice of demand has been duly served, the Rate due from owner may be recovered from occupier and deducted by him from his rent.

Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier or any of his sub-tenants for the time being of the house or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, as provided in section one hundred and forty-two, and, in such case, the occupier or his sub-tenant may deduct, from the next and following payments of his rent, the amount which may be so paid by, or recovered from, him :

Provided that no arrear of rate so due shall be recovered from the occupier if it has been due for more than one year, or for a period during which the occupier was not in occupation.

147. The purchaser of any house or land for which any sum is due on account of the rate payable by the owner at the time of such purchase shall be liable for the amount due on account of such rates for any period not exceeding one year prior to the purchase.

148. No distress levied under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser on account of any irregularity committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover, in any court of competent jurisdiction, full satisfaction for any special damage sustained by them.

149. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress and sale the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate, the Commissioners may sue, in any court of competent jurisdiction, the person liable to pay the same.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE WATER-SUPPLY.

150. The Commissioners shall provide a supply of water within all parts of Calcutta, and shall for that purpose cause such mains and pipes to be laid and such tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be made and constructed as shall be necessary for the supply of filtered water in the principal public streets, and shall also erect sufficient and convenient stand-pipes or pumps for the gratuitous use of the inhabitants for domestic purposes.

Ships lying at the jetties or in the docks of the Port Commissioners shall be entitled to the gratuitous use of filtered water for domestic purposes while so lying.

151. The Commissioners shall, on demand, be bound to supply every ship leaving the port with a reasonable quantity of filtered water for use on the voyage at such price, not exceeding five rupees for every thousand gallons, as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, determine.

152. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for animals, or for washing carriages, where such animals or carriages are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains, or for watering gardens or roads, or for any ornamental or mechanical purposes.

153. The Commissioners shall, so far as may be reasonably practicable, between the hours of six in the forenoon and eight in the afternoon, keep and maintain throughout their pipes and mains a sufficient supply of filtered water under a pressure of not less than ten feet for the domestic use of the rate-payers, and shall every day, for not less than two hours in the forenoon and one hour in the afternoon, maintain a pressure of water in the service pipes and mains sufficient to raise the water in all houses and places in which the same may be introduced within the area at present supplied to a height of not less than thirty feet, and shall test the purity of the water supplied once every week or at such intervals of time as the Commissioners in meeting may direct.

154. The Commissioners may supply water through a meter, for other than domestic purposes, if the person requiring such supply make application to the Commissioners in writing, specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

The Commissioners may thereupon, subject to such charges or rates as may have been fixed by the Commissioners in meeting, lay down, or allow to be laid down, the necessary communication-pipes and works of such dimensions and character as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

No meter shall be necessary in any case in which the applicant agrees to pay such sum per measure for the use of the water as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

When water is supplied by the Commissioners through a meter, it shall be presumed that the quantity indicated by the meter has been consumed until the contrary is proved.

Any person using water supplied by the Commissioners for other than domestic purposes without the leave of the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

155. The occupier of every house connected with the water-supply shall be entitled to have, free of further charge, three thousand gallons of filtered water for every rupee paid to the Commissioners as water-rate on account of such house, to be supplied from the service pipes of the Commissioners for domestic use, through a ferrule of the size prescribed under the ninth schedule. If the Commissioners have reason to believe that the occupier of any house consumes more filtered water than he is entitled to as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide a water-meter at their own expense, and attach the same to the water-pipes of the said house; and any water which may be used over and above the quantity to which the occupier is entitled as aforesaid shall be paid for by him at the rate of one rupee for every three thousand gallons:

Provided that no charge shall be made by the Commissioners for unfiltered water supplied under the next succeeding section.

156. It shall be at the option of the Commissioners to provide filtered or unfiltered water for all latrines and water-closets; and wherever filtered water has been already supplied to such latrines or water-closets, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, at their own expense, and not otherwise, to stop the supply of filtered water, and in lieu thereof to provide unfiltered water for such latrines and water-closets.

157. All latrines and water-closets now supplied, or hereafter to be supplied, with water filtered or unfiltered, shall be provided with a cistern of such size and description and in such position as the Commissioners shall direct, and all such cisterns shall be put up at the expense of the owner of the house or land so supplied with water.

158. Whenever the Commissioners shall deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they shall allow any person living in a masonry house and paying the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned to lay down communication-pipes from the service pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of bringing into his house or land a supply of water for domestic use in accordance with the scale of ferrules prescribed under the ninth schedule;

Provided that if the house is so situated that the size of the ferrule prescribed for the use of such house under such scale is insufficient to pass the daily supply of water which the occupier of such house is entitled to receive under section one hundred and fifty-five, the Commissioners shall permit the use of a ferrule of such size as shall be sufficient to pass such supply:

Provided also that the Commissioners may at their own expense replace any ferrule, used for the supply of water to any house at the time when this Act comes into force which is of larger size than the occupier of such house under such scale is entitled to use, by a ferrule of the size prescribed under such scale for the use of such house:

Provided also that the Commissioners shall be at liberty to turn off or to cut off the supply of water to any house or land during the time the said house or land is unoccupied.

The communication-pipes leading the water from the service-pipes of the Commissioners into the house of any rate-payer, and the pipes and works within the house connected therewith, shall be of such character, dimensions, and material as the Commissioners shall fix and approve; and shall be made and constructed at the expense of the person requiring the same.

159. The ferrules, communication-pipes and all fittings thereon leading water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into any house or land, and the pipes, works, and fittings inside the house or land, must in all cases be executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Such communication-pipes, works, and fittings may be made by the servants and workmen of the Commissioners upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and the person requiring the supply, or subject to such charges as may be fixed by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may require the amount necessary for the execution of such work:

to be paid or deposited before such works are executed ;

and such charges and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as the water-rate.

160. The Commissioners may, between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, enter into or on any house or land supplied with water as aforesaid in order to examine all pipes, works, and fittings connected with the supply of water, and to ascertain if there be any waste or misuse of such water ;

and if the Commissioners at any such time be refused admittance into such house or land for the purposes aforesaid, or be prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, they may forthwith turn off or cut off the water from such house or land :

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall authorize an entry into any room appropriated for the zenana or residence of women, which by the custom of the country is considered private, unless a notice in writing of not less than four hours be given.

161. In the event of any pipes, works, or fittings connected with the supply of water to any house or land being at any time found on examination by the Commissioners to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off or cut off from the house or land, after giving notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours to the person in occupation thereof, and may recover the expense incurred for cutting off the water from the occupier of such house or land.

When pipes are out of repair, Commissioners may cut off, or turn off water.

162. If any person supplied with water shall neglect to pay the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned at any of the times of payment thereof, or the charge made for the said water when supplied for other than domestic purposes, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off or cut off from the house or land in respect of which such rate or charge is payable, and may recover the expense from such person :

Provided that the turning off or cutting off the supply of water shall not relieve any person from any penalties or liabilities which he may otherwise have incurred.

163. The occupier of any house or land in which water supplied by the Commissioners under this Act is from negligence or other circumstances under the control of the said occupier wasted, or in whose house or land the pipes, works, and fittings for the supply of water shall be found to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

164. Any person causing waste of water supplied by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5.

165. It shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners to allow any person not residing within the limits of Calcutta to take or be supplied with water for his domestic use on such terms as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time prescribe. And any person taking or causing to be taken for use outside the limits of Calcutta water supplied by the Commissioners without the permission of the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

166. It shall not be lawful for any person to execute any work in connection with the laying on of water from any service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land or in connection with the extension of such pipes or the supply of additional fittings after such water has been laid on, unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners authorizing him to act as a plumber under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may from time to time lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of his license. * Any person licensed by the Commissioners as a plumber, who shall intrude or break any rules or regulations under which he holds his license, shall be liable to have his license at once cancelled by the Commissioners, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 ; and any unlicensed person executing any such work shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

Person executing any work for laying on water must hold a license from the Commissioners.

Penalty.

167. Any owner or occupier of any house or land who shall cause or allow works, pipes, or fittings for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to be executed by any person other than a plumber licensed by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 50, and the Commissioners may cut off the connection until such pipes have been removed or replaced to their satisfaction.

168. Before a connection for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land is sanctioned by the Commissioners, the Engineer of the Commissioners shall cause all the works, pipes, and fittings within the said house or land to be inspected by a duly qualified officer ; and the cost of such inspection shall be payable in advance at such rates as the Commissioners in meeting shall from time to time direct, by the person applying for the said connection ; and until the Engineer of the Commissioners shall have certified that the said works, pipes, and fittings have been executed and put up in a satisfactory manner, a connection with the Commissioners' service pipes shall not be permitted.

169. The connection with the service pipes of the Commissioners, as also the laying of supply pipes under any public road or thoroughfare, shall be executed in the presence of an officer of the Commissioners authorized in that behalf and in no other way.

170. If any licensed plumber shall execute any works or put up any fittings within any house or land for the supply of water from the pipes of the Commissioners in a careless and negligent manner, or make use of bad materials or fittings, the said licensed plumber shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and upon a third conviction shall be Penalty on licensed plumber who executes works badly.

Connection with service pipes to be executed only by an officer of the Commissioners.

Before connection, Engineer of the Commissioners to cause all works and pipes to be inspected.

Occupier in whose house water is wasted liable to penalty.

Person causing waste of water liable to penalty.

Commissioners at their discretion may allow person outside the town to take water.

liable to have his license cancelled at the discretion of the Commissioners.

171. Any person who shall unlawfully flush, draw off, divert, or take water from any water-work belonging to, or under the management or control of, the said Commissioners, or shall by any wrongful act damage such water-work or any pipe connected with it, or shall use such water-work for any purpose other than the purpose for which it has been set apart shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

172. The occupier of any masonry house holding direct from the owner thereof may, by notice in writing, signed by him, require the owner of such house to perform all such necessary works as may be required for bringing into such house a supply of water for domestic use.

Every such notice shall contain an agreement on the part of such occupier to pay interest at the rate of one per cent. per mensem, calculated from the date of the completion of the works on the cost of such works during the residue of his term of occupation:

Provided that, if the house and the premises belonging thereto shall not abut upon some street in which there is a supply-main, such occupier shall, in the agreement, undertake to pay the cost of connecting the house with the nearest supply-main.

173. If any owner shall not, within the space of one month from the service of such notice as is mentioned in the last preceding section, cause such necessary works as aforesaid to be completed, the occupier, who shall have given such notice, may cause the same to be completed, and may deduct from the rent payable by him the cost of such works save so much of such cost as may be incurred in connecting with a supply-main any house and premises belonging thereto which may not abut upon a street in which there may be a supply-main; and such deduction shall be made by six equal monthly instalments.

Interest on each such instalment shall be payable to the owner by the occupier at the rate of one per cent. per mensem, from the time when it shall have been so deducted.

174. In case there shall be any difference between the owner of any premises and the occupier respecting the cost or the sufficiency of the water-supply of such house either the owner or the occupier may refer such difference to the Commissioners, and the written award of the Engineer of the Commissioners, or of any officer authorized by them in that behalf, shall be binding on the owner and the occupier.

175. There shall be payable to the Commissioners in respect of every such reference a fee at the rate of Rs. 2 for every Rs. 100 of the monthly rent of the house or land in respect of the water-supply to which the difference may have arisen:

Provided that such fee shall in no case exceed Rs. 10, and shall be paid by the person making the reference.

176. Except in the case of a special agreement to the contrary, the owner of any house or land shall bear the expense of keeping all works connected with the supply of water to such house or land in substantial repair, and if he fails to do so the occupier may himself have the repairs executed and deduct the amount expended thereon from any rent which is due from him to the owner in respect of the premises where such repairs have been executed:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liabilities of parties under leases executed or made previous to the commencement of this Act.

177. Any owner to whom any sum is payable under sections one hundred and seventy-two and one hundred and seventy-three may recover such sum from the person liable to pay the same as if the same were rent payable by such person for the house, in respect of which the expenses have been incurred.

178. All public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works, whether made, laid, or erected at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all bridges, buildings, engines, works, materials, and things connected therewith or appertaining thereto, and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining to any public tank, shall become vested in the Commissioners.

179. If any person being the proprietor of any gas-works, or being engaged or employed in the manufacture or supply of gas, or being the occupier or owner of any place where an offensive trade or manufacture is carried on,

does any act connected with the said business whereby the water in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, aqueduct, or other water-works belonging to the Commissioners is fouled or corrupted, the Commissioners may, at any time between sunrise and sunset, lay open and examine any pipes, conduits, and works belonging to such person:

and if, upon such examination, it appears that the water has been fouled or corrupted by anything proceeding from, or contained in, the pipes, conduits, or works examined, the Commissioners shall forthwith take all necessary measures to purify the water and put the works in efficient order, and the expenses of such examination, purification or repairs shall be paid by the person to whom such pipes, conduits, or works belong, or under whose management or control they may be;

but if it appear that the water has not been so fouled or corrupted, then such expenses, and all damages occasioned by the examination, shall be paid by the Commissioners.

180. Any sum due for water supplied by the Commissioners under a meter, or by agreement when a meter is dispensed with, may be recovered as if the same were a water-rate due under this Act.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

181. The Commissioners shall keep in their office a register of all births and deaths in Calcutta, and for this purpose shall divide it into such and so many districts as they shall think fit, and for every such district shall appoint a person to be a registrar of births and deaths within such district; and the Commissioners shall at each registered or licensed burial and burning ground appoint a sub-registrar for the registration of all corpses brought to such burial or burning ground for interment or cremation.

182. Every registrar shall dwell within the district of which he is registrar, and every sub-registrar shall dwell in the vicinity of the burial or burning ground for which he is appointed; and they shall cause their names, with the addition of registrar for the district, or sub-registrar for the burial or burning ground for which they shall be so appointed, to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of their own dwelling-houses; and the Commissioners shall cause to be printed and published a list containing the name and place of abode of every registrar and sub-registrar in the town.

183. The Commissioners shall cause to be prepared and printed a sufficient number of register books for making entries of all births and deaths which may take place in Calcutta, according to the forms prescribed in the Tenth and Eleventh Schedules, and the pages of such books shall be numbered progressively from the beginning to the end.

184. Every registrar shall inform himself of every birth and of every death which shall happen in his district, and shall ascertain and register, as soon as conveniently may be after the event, without fee or reward, the particulars required to be registered according to the forms in the Tenth and Eleventh Schedules respectively touching every such birth and every such death, as the case may be, which shall not have been already registered; every such entry being made in order from the beginning to the end of the book.

185. The father or mother of every child born in Calcutta, or in the case of the death, illness or absence, or inability of the father and mother, the occupier of the house in which such child is born, shall, within eight days after the day of the birth, give information to the registrar of the district, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars by this Act required to be known and registered touching the birth of such child.

186. The nearest relative present at the death, or in attendance during the last illness, of any person dying in Calcutta, or, in case of the death, illness, inability, absence, or default of such relative every person present at the death, or in case of their default the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the person who shall have died, some person living in the house in which such death shall have happened, shall forthwith give information to the registrar of the district, or sub-registrar at the burial or burning ground where the corpse of such person so dying is buried or burnt, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, of the several particulars by this Act required to be known and registered touching the death of such person:

Provided that if any one person gives the required information all other persons are thereby released from the obligation imposed upon them by this section:

Provided also that, in lieu of the information hereinbefore stated, in the case of persons dying in any hospital in Calcutta, it shall be the duty of the medical officer in charge forthwith to send a notice in writing to the Commissioners in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule of the occurrence of any death in the hospital under his charge.

187. Any medical man in attendance during the last illness of any person dying in Calcutta shall, within seven days of his becoming cognizant of the death of such person, send a notice in writing to the Commissioners as near as may be in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule, stating, to the best of his judgment, the cause of death.

188. Any person whose duty it shall be to give information under the three last preceding sections, who shall refuse or neglect to give such information, or who shall give false information, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

189. Every person by whom the information contained in any register of births or deaths under this Act shall have been given shall sign in the register his name, description, and place of abode; and no such registration shall be deemed to be complete or of any effect until such person shall have so signed it:

Provided that the registrar may fill up and sign the register for any person who is unable to write:

Provided also that the registration of death shall be deemed to be complete on receipt by the Commissioners of the written notice from the medical officer in charge of a hospital prescribed in section one hundred and eighty-six.

190. It shall not be lawful for any sexton or keeper of a burial or burning ground, whether situated within Calcutta or not, to bury, burn, or allow to be buried or burned, any corpse of a person who has died in Calcutta, unless such corpse is accompanied by a certificate in the form prescribed in the Eleventh Schedule, and signed by a registrar or sub-registrar appointed under section one hundred and eighty-one, or by a medical officer:

Provided that at every burial or burning ground where there is a sub-registrar who keeps a register in the prescribed form an entry in such register shall be deemed sufficient.

Every sub-registrar shall, within twenty-four hours of registering any death under this section, forward to the registrar of the district in which the death occurred a copy of the entry made by him, and the registrar on receipt thereof shall forthwith enter the death in the district register.

191. Whoever buries, burns, or allows to be buried or burnt, a corpse without the certificate or entry in a register mentioned in the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

CHAPTER IX.

OF TAKING A CENSUS.

192. At such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may from time to time appoint, an account shall be taken of the number of persons who at the time of taking such account shall be within Calcutta; and the persons employed in taking such account shall set down the several particulars respecting the same which are herein-after prescribed.

193. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or any person specially appointed by the Commissioners in meeting for that purpose, shall superintend the taking of such account, and shall cause to be prepared and issued, for the use of the persons to be employed, such forms and instructions as he shall, with the sanction of the Local Government, deem necessary; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the Commissioners.

194. Each police division of Calcutta shall be formed into one or more enumeration districts.

195. At such times as shall be appointed under section one hundred and ninety-two, and as shall be notified in the Calcutta Gazette by the Local Government, every occupier of a dwelling-house, or of any part of a dwelling-house distinctly occupied, and every person to whom a form as mentioned in section one hundred and ninety-seven may have been delivered, shall afford such information in regard to all persons who were abiding in his house, or in the place under his charge, on the night immediately preceding the day appointed for the return of the form, and in such manner as may under this Act be required of them.

196. The Chairman, or the person appointed under section one hundred and ninety-three, shall select a sufficient number of competent persons to act as enumerators; and every such enumerator, under the direction of the Chairman, shall visit every house within his district, and, except as hereinafter provided, shall take an account in writing of the name, sex, age, caste, nationality, and occupation of every living person who shall abide therein on the night immediately preceding the day appointed as aforesaid, and shall also take an account of the occupied houses, and the houses then being built and therefore uninhabited, and also of all other uninhabited houses within his district, and in all respects conform to, and obey, the instructions which may be issued to him by the Chairman in that behalf:

Provided that no female shall be required to disclose her name or age.

197. The Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid, when he deems such a course to be advisable, may cause such a form as shall be sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting, subject to the approval of the Local Government, to be delivered to any occupier of any dwelling-house who may be able to write; and such occupier shall fill in all the particulars required in the form on the day to be appointed, and shall deliver the same to the person authorized to demand the same.

198. Any military or naval officers in command of bodies of military or naval men, or of vessels of war, or any master of a merchant vessel, or nacadah, or tindal of a vessel or boat, or any person in charge of a lunatic asylum, hospital or prison, or of any public or private charitable or scholastic institution, or any keepers of hotels or lodging-houses, shall, if required, act as enumerators for the purpose of taking account of persons under their command or charge, or abiding in their houses, on the night immediately preceding the day to be appointed.

199. Whoever, being required under section one hundred and ninety-seven to fill in any form, or under section one hundred and ninety-eight to act as an enumerator, fails to do so, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence.

Every person so required to act as an enumerator shall receive and conform to all instructions in writing which may be issued to him by the Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid in that behalf.

200. The Chairman, or the person appointed as aforesaid, shall obtain, by such ways and means as shall appear to him best adapted for the purpose, and as shall be sanctioned by the Commissioners in meeting, returns of the particulars required by this Act with respect to all houseless persons and all persons who, during the said night immediately preceding the day to be appointed, were on out-door night duty, or for any other reason were not abiding in any house of which account is to be taken by the enumerators.

201. The enumerators shall fill in all forms for those persons who are unable to write.

CHAPTER X.

OF STREETS AND BUILDING REGULATIONS.

PART I.—Of the Streets.

202. All public streets in Calcutta (not being the property and kept under the control of the Government or the Commissioners for making improvements in the Port of Calcutta) and the pavements, stones, and other materials thereof, and also all erections, materials, implements, and other things provided for such streets, shall vest in and belong to the Commissioners.

203. The Commissioners, making due compensation to the owners and occupiers of any houses or land which may be required for, or in connection with, any such purposes, may—

- (a) lay out and make new streets;
- (b) build and construct new bridges and sub-ways;
- (c) turn, divert, discontinue, or permanently or temporarily close any public street or part of a public street; and
- (d) widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any such street.

Power to acquire premises for improvement of public streets.

204. The Commissioners in meeting may—

- (a) acquire any land required for the purpose of opening, widening, extending, or otherwise improving any public street, or of making any new public street, and the buildings, if any, standing upon such land;
- (b) acquire, in addition to the said land and the buildings, if any, standing thereupon, all such land with the buildings, if any, standing thereupon, as it shall seem expedient for the Commissioners to acquire outside of the regular line of such street, provided that, without the special sanction of the Local Government, not more than one hundred feet shall be acquired on either side of the regular line of the street;
- (c) lease or sell or otherwise dispose of any land or building purchased under clause (b).

Any re-conveyance of land or of a building under clause (c) may comprise such conditions as the Commissioners think fit as to the removal of the existing building, the description of new building to be erected, the period within which such new building shall be completed, and other such matters.

205. When any public street is permanently closed under section two hundred and three the Commissioners may dispose of the site of so much of the roadway and footpath as is no longer required, making due compensation to any person injured by the closing of the road and the sale of the site. And if any dispute shall arise respecting the amount or apportionment of such compensation, it shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, in determining such compensation, the Court shall make allowance for any benefit conferred on the same premises or any adjacent premises belonging to the same owner by the construction or improvement of any other public street, at or about the same time that the public street, on account of which the compensation is paid, is closed.

206. The Commissioners may prescribe a line on each side of any public street within which no portion of any building abutting on the said street shall, after such line has been prescribed, be constructed without the express sanction of the Commissioners.

A line so prescribed shall be called the regular line of a public street.

207. When any house, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house on either side thereof, has fallen down, or been burnt down, or been taken down in order to be rebuilt or altered, or such portion thereof as projects beyond the regular line of the street has fallen down, been burnt down, or been taken down, the Commissioners may require the same to be set back to or towards the regular line of the street, or the line of the adjoining houses:

Provided that the Commissioners shall make full compensation thereof to the owner of any such house for any direct damage he may thereby sustain, and if any dispute shall arise respecting the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

By 'direct' damage is meant the market-value of the land taken, and the depreciation, if any, in the ordinary market-value of the rest of the land owing to the area being reduced in size, but it shall not include damage due to any particular use to which the owner may allege that he intended to put the ground, but which the reduction of the site may injuriously affect.

208. The Commissioners may from time to time prepare plans of proposed public streets showing the alignment of such streets, the intended regular line on each side of them, and such other details as may appear desirable; and after such plans have been approved of by the Commissioners in meeting, such streets, shall be deemed to be projected public streets, and the provisions of section two hundred and seven shall apply to all houses which may fall down, be burnt down, or may be taken down in order to be rebuilt or altered, so far as they shall fall within the regular lines of the projected public street.

209. The Commissioners may, upon such terms as they shall think fit, allow any house to be set forward for improving the line of any public street in which such house is situated.

210. The Commissioners shall cause the public streets to be maintained and repaired, and for such purpose may do all things necessary for the public safety and convenience.

211. The Commissioners shall, so far as they may deem requisite for the public convenience, cause the chief public streets to be watered; and for that purpose may provide such works and engines as they may think necessary.

212. Whoever builds any wall, or without the consent of the Commissioners erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction, projection or encroachment in any public street, or in or over any drain, sewer, or

Power to set back buildings to the regular line of the street.

Compensation to owner for direct damage sustained.

Meaning of "direct damage."

Houses may be set forward for improving lines of public street.

Maintenance and repair of streets.

Watering streets.

Penalty for making obstruction in public streets.

aqueduct shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and the Commissioners shall have power to remove any such obstruction, projection or encroachment whether they prosecute the offender or not, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners from allowing any temporary erections in any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or for building purposes.

213. Every person who wishes to make or lay out any new street shall give notice in writing thereof to the Commissioners, showing the intended level and width of such street, the arrangements made for draining it, and the level and width of every such street and the drainage arrangements shall be subject to approval by the Commissioners.

On receipt of such application the Commissioners shall, within thirty days, either sanction the making of such new street, or disallow it, or ask for further information with respect to it. If further information is asked for, no steps shall be taken to construct the street until orders have been passed upon receipt of such information.

214. Whoever lays out, makes, or builds upon any such street, otherwise than in accordance with the level, width and drainage arrangements fixed or approved by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

215. If any street or any part thereof be not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, by notice in writing to the respective owners or occupiers of the land fronting, adjoining, or abutting upon such parts thereof as may need to be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, require them to level, metalled, pave, flag, channel, and sewer the same within a time to be specified in such notice; and upon non-compliance, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, execute the works mentioned or referred to therein;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners in default according to the frontage of their respective lands, and in such proportion as shall be settled by the Commissioners or, in case of dispute, as shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, after such street shall have been so levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered or the requisition of the Commissioners, or by the Commissioners as aforesaid, at the expense of the owners, such owners shall have a right to require that the street shall be declared a public street, to be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the General Fund.

216. If any street be levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, and sewered, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, they may, if they think fit, and if three-fourths of the owners of houses in such street signify in writing their consent thereto, by notice in writing put up in any part of such street, declare the same to be a public street, and thereupon the same shall become a public street, and be from time to time repaired by the Commissioners out of the General Fund.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the Commissioners in meeting from taking possession of any street with the consent of the owner or owners thereof, and thereafter such street shall become a public street.

217. The Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, wall, or place, at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every public street, such name as the Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, determine as the name by which such street is to be known; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name, or puts up any name different from that put up by order of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

218. The Commissioners may from time to time cause to be fixed a number in a conspicuous place on the outside of any house or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such number shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

When a number has been fixed on a house under this section the occupier, or if there is no occupier the owner, shall be liable to maintain such number or replace it if removed or defaced; and if a number is replaced by the Commissioners, they may recover the cost of replacing it from the person liable to replace it in the manner prescribed in Chapter VI for the recovery of rates.

219. All doors, gates, bars, and ground-floor windows which open upon any public street shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards in a manner likely, in the opinion of the Commissioners, to cause obstruction; and if any such door, gate, bar, or window be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any such public street, the owner of the house or land to which the same is attached shall, within fifteen days after notice from the Commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards; and if he neglects so to do, the Commissioners may cause such alteration to be made, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by such owner:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be held to apply to house shutters so constructed as to fold flat to the wall, whether opening to the ground or not.

220. The owner of every house in any public street shall, within fifteen days after notice from the Commissioners, put up and keep in good condition proper gutters and pipe for catching and carrying the water from the roof and other parts of such house, and for discharging the same in such manner as the Commissioners shall direct; and in default of compliance with such notice within the period aforesaid, such owner shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every day that he shall so make default.

221. The Commissioners may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction which shall hereafter be erected or placed against such house or on, or over, any public street or which has been so erected or placed subsequent to the first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and such owner or occupier shall, within fifteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Commissioners, and in default thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200; and the Commissioners in such case may, whether they prosecute the offender or not, cause such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, to be removed and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided:

Provided that, when the expense shall have been paid by the occupier, except in the case in which such projections, encroachments, or obstructions were made or put up by him, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing or altering the same from the rent payable by him to the owner of the house.

222. The Commissioners may cause any projection, encroachment, or obstruction erected or placed against, on or over any house in any public street previous to the first day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to be removed or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration; and if any dispute shall arise touching the right of any person to compensation when the right thereto is disputed and the amount thereof, or touching the amount of such compensation when the right thereto, is admitted, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

house against, or in front of which, such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall be, thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun; and if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every

223. The Commissioners may give permission in writing, on such conditions as they think fit, to the owners or occupiers of houses abutting on any public street to put up verandahs, balconies, sunshades, weather-frames, and the like, to project from any upper story thereof over any public street, and on breach of any such condition the Commissioners may give the owner or occupier notice to comply with such condition within fifteen days, and if he fails to comply, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to enter upon the premises and remove any projection put up in breach of any condition specified in the notice.

224. The external roofs and walls of huts or other buildings erected or renewed within Calcutta after the commencement of this Act, shall not be made of grass, leaves, mats, or other such inflammable materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any hut or other building in or near any street (public or otherwise) now having an external roof or wall made of any such material, and which is contiguous to, or adjoining, any other building, to suffer such roof or wall to remain after the commencement of this Act, unless with the consent in writing of the Commissioners, and whoever makes any external roof or wall of such materials, or suffers any roof or wall made of such materials to continue contrary to the provisions herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice in writing from the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every day that such roof or wall shall be maintained.

Nothing in this section shall ordinarily apply to garden huts, orchid houses, ferneries or similar erections within compounds:

Provided that if in any particular case the Commissioners consider any such erection dangerous they may require the same to be removed or altered and thereupon the provisions of this section shall apply:

Provided also that this section shall not apply to the area by this Act added to Calcutta, or to any area hereafter included in it under section four hundred and fifty-eight until it shall have been specially extended to the whole or any portion thereof by a resolution passed by the Commissioners in meeting.

225. The Commissioners may give notice to the owner or occupier of any house or land to trim or prune the hedges thereof bordering on any public street to a height not exceeding seven feet;

or to cut and trim trees overhanging any public street, and obstructing the same or causing damage thereto;

and if such notice is not complied with within three days from the date thereof, the Commissioners may cause such hedges and trees to be cut in the manner required, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the house or land.

226. When the pavement or surface of any public street, or when any sewer or drain shall be opened or broken up by the Commissioners, they shall with all convenient speed, complete the work on account of which the same shall have been broken up, and fill in the ground, and make good the pavement and surface, and the sewer or drain so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall in the meantime cause the place where such pavement or surface shall be so opened or broken up to be fenced and guarded and sufficiently lighted during the night.

227. If the Commissioners deem it necessary for the purposes of this Act to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water-pipe or gas-pipe, or Roofs and external walls of huts not to be made of inflammable materials.

Penalty.

Removal of existing projections from houses.

Notice of removal.

Compensation when to be made

Commissioners breaking up street to restore the same with all convenient speed.

Situation of gas and water-pipes may be altered by the Commissioners.

other water-works or gas-works laid in any street (public or otherwise), they may, from time to time by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, or under whose control they may be, to cause forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the Commissioners direct.

- Such alteration shall not be such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for the damage done thereby, shall be paid by the Commissioners as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons.

And if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

228. If the person to whom any such pipes or works as are mentioned in the last preceding section belong, or under whose control they may be, do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered in such manner as the Commissioners require, the Commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they may think fit, provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

229. No person shall deposit any building materials or make a hole in any public street without the permission of the Commissioners in writing; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed, until the materials are removed or the hole is filled up and otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted at night, and if he neglect to sufficiently fence or light the same, and any damage or injury arises, he shall be liable to the Commissioners for any expense which they may incur by reason of such neglect.

230. Whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or encloses more of the public street than the Commissioners have permitted him to enclose or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has lapsed or been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

The Commissioners may cause any such hole to be filled up, and may cause any such materials to be removed, and may detain them until the expenses connected with such removal shall have been paid.

231. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers or to persons living in the neighbourhood, the Commissioners may, by notice in writing, require the owner of the land to repair, protect, or enclose the same; and if he fails to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed.

232. Whoever, being an owner of land, fails to comply with the requisition mentioned in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART II.—Of Building Regulations regarding Houses.

233. If any building, or anything affixed thereon, be deemed by the Commissioners to be in a ruinous state, or likely to fall, or to be in any way dangerous, they shall immediately, if it appears to them to be necessary, cause a proper board or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident in Calcutta, and shall also cause such notice to be put on some conspicuous part of such building, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, repair, or secure, such building, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require.

If such owner or occupier does not commence to take down, repair, or secure the same within three days after such notice, or fails to complete such work with due diligence, the Commissioners shall cause all or so much of such building, or thing as they shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

The provisions of section two hundred and seven and two hundred and eight shall apply to houses taken down or repaired under the provisions of this section.

234. If any building, or any part of the same, be taken down under the provisions of the last preceding section, the Commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall, on demand, restore to the owner any surplus arising from such sale.

The Commissioners shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale as by this Act are given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

235. Before beginning to build any new house or to convert any hut or any temporary structure into a house, the person intending so to do shall obtain the sanction of the Commissioners to the site on which he proposes to build. With this object he shall submit a plan drawn to the scale of forty feet to the inch, showing the position of the house with reference to—

- (a) some existing public street ; or
- (b) some projected public street approved of by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and eight ; or
- (c) some existing private street ; or
- (d) some proposed private street which it is intended to construct under section two hundred and thirteen.

Such plan shall also show the position and approximate height of all other masonry houses within forty feet of the proposed site :

Provided that, for special reasons, the Commissioners may sanction any site without reference to its position in relation to any public or private street.

On receipt of such plan, the Commissioners shall, within thirty days, signify in writing their approval or disapproval of such site, or their disapproval thereof as not being a proper site with reference to—

- (a) the street shown in such plan ; or
- (b) any other street or projected street on which it will abut ; or
- (c) the position of the adjacent buildings.

If the street shown in the plan is a proposed private street, the Commissioners may at their discretion decline to approve of the site till such private street is commenced or completed.

Provided that where any site is disapproved by reason of its falling wholly or in part within the lines of any projected public street, the owner of such site shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, if the site or the portion thereof that falls within such lines be not acquired by the Commissioners in meeting under section two hundred and four within one year after the date of such disapproval.

Until the approval of the site is signified in writing, the house shall not be constructed.

236. Before beginning to build any new house on a site approved of under the last preceding section, or to rebuild or materially alter the structure of any house, the person intending so to do shall make an application to the Commissioners in a printed form to be prepared by them for this purpose (for which no charge shall be made), setting forth the description of the building, the purposes for which it is intended, its dimensions, such plan of the building as the form may specify, and such other details as may be deemed requisite to enable the Commissioners to pass orders on such application.

237. On receipt of such application the Commissioners shall within thirty days, by a written order, either sanction the building of the new house, or for any one or more of the reasons set forth in the next succeeding section disallow it, or call for further information, on all or any of the following details :—

- (a) Plans and sections of every floor of the intended building which shall be drawn to a scale of not less than one inch to every eight feet, and shall show the position, form, and dimensions of the several parts of such building and of every water-closet, privy, urinal, cesspool, well, and other appurtenance, and in the case of a building intended as a dwelling-house for two or more families, or for carrying on any trade or business in which a number of people, exceeding twenty, may be employed, or as a public resort, the means of ingress and egress.
- (b) A description in writing of the materials of which it is intended that the building shall be constructed, of the thickness of the walls and roof, and of the intended mode of drainage, means of water-supply, and means of ventilation, and if the building is to adjoin or abut on a street, the intended means of access from such street.
- (c) The width and level of the street, if any, in front, and of the street, if any, at the rear of such building, the levels of the foundations and lowest floor of such building, and of any yard or ground belonging thereto.
- (d) A plan showing the intended line of drainage of such building, and of the intended size, depth and inclination of such drain, and of the details of the arrangements proposed for the ventilation of the drains.

If such requisition be not complied with, the application made under section two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

The Commissioners may decline to accept any plan, section, or description as sufficient for the purposes of this section, which does not bear the signature of a competent builder or surveyor in token of its having been prepared by such builder or surveyor.

238. Within thirty days after the receipt of the details, required to be given under the last preceding section, the Commissioners shall pass orders in writing either approving of the proposed building or disapproving thereof for any of the following reasons—

- (a) that it will be unsafe ; or
- (b) that it encroaches upon or over municipal land ; or

(c) that its construction contravenes some specified provision of this Act; or some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the Commissioners disapprove of the building for any of the above reasons it shall not be proceeded with till such modifications have been made as to satisfy the requirements of the Commissioners.

239. Nothing in sections two hundred and thirty-five and two hundred and thirty-six shall be deemed to preclude any person intending to build a new house from sending in simultaneously the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five and the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six as also at his discretion all or any of the plans, and details specified in section two hundred and thirty-seven.

Provided that the period of thirty days after the receipt of the application shall not commence to run till the site has been approved of. If the proposed work be not commenced within one year after the date of approval, it shall not be commenced without a fresh application being submitted under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-six.

240. If any building such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-five be commenced without sending in the ground plan required by that section, or after such ground plan has been sent in, before the site has been approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such house, or so much of it as has been constructed, to be demolished.

241. If any building or alteration such as is referred to in section two hundred and thirty-six be commenced without the application required by that section being sent to the Commissioners, or before the expiration of the thirty days or of any subsequent period of thirty days prescribed by section two hundred and thirty-seven, or otherwise than in accordance with the information furnished in the application or in the further details and plans subsequently called for, or in contravention of any lawful orders issued by the Commissioners under section two hundred and thirty-eight, the Commissioners may cause such work as has been done to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may think fit, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the requirements of the Act.

242. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by section two hundred and forty and the last preceding section, prosecute any person who shall build a new house without sending in the ground plan required by section two hundred and thirty-five, or who shall build or re-build or materially alter the structure of any house without making the application required by section two hundred and thirty-six, and such person shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

Penalty.

243. The following provisions shall apply to buildings which it is proposed to construct under section two hundred and thirty-six :—

Provisions applicable to buildings constructed under section two hundred and thirty-six.

- (a). The levels and width of foundation shall be such as the Commissioners consider satisfactory.
- (b). No house shall be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of such house or building being led into some public sewer then existing or projected, or into some tidal river into which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers.
- (c). The plinth of such building shall be at least two feet above the centre of the nearest street.
- (d). The building shall not be erected over any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners without their written consent.
- (e). Every privy shall be so situated and so constructed as not to be a nuisance to the neighbours or dangerous to the health of the inmates.
- (f). Every building shall be provided with adequate ventilation.
- (g). No building shall cover a greater portion of the ground belonging to the owner of it and forming part of the same or adjacent premises, than is consistent with the free circulation of air, supposing the owners of contiguous lands to cover their land with buildings to the same extent.

244. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within thirty days, as required by sections two hundred and thirty-seven and two hundred and thirty-eight, the person making such application may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or rebuild the house.

245. Every person intending to build or take down any house, or to alter or repair the outward part of any house, where any public street will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work shall, before beginning the same, cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the house where such works are being carried on from the street, and shall keep such hoard or fence standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted :

Provided that no person shall put up a hoard or fence without the written permission of the Commissioners, and shall not keep up such hoard or fence for a time longer than that specified in such written permission.

246. Every person who begins to build, or to take down, or alter, or repair any house contrary to the provisions of the last preceding section, or who, without a license, erects or sets up any hoard, scaffolding, or fence whatsoever, or who, having obtained permission, fails to put up such fence or hoard, or to maintain the same standing and in good condition, or who does not, while such board or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted, or who does not remove the same when the time specified in the permission has elapsed, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART III.—Of Building Regulations regarding Huts and Bustees.

247. Before beginning to build, re-build or add to any hut, the person intending so to do shall make an application to that effect to the Commissioners in a form to be provided by them (for which no charge shall be made.) Such form shall require a ground plan of the hut drawn to the scale of eight feet to the inch and such other details as the Commissioners may prescribe. On receipt of such application, the Commissioners shall, within fourteen days, express their approval of the proposed work, or their disapproval on any one or more of the following grounds:—

- (a) That the site is ill-chosen with reference to adjacent huts or with reference to any present or proposed roads.
- (b) That the ventilation will be defective.
- (c) That the arrangements for scavenging or drainage are defective.
- (d) That the hut will be within thirty feet of a tank.
- (e) That the hut will be on the site of a tank which has been so recently filled up as to be prejudicial to the health of a person dwelling in it.
- (f) That the plinth is not two feet above the level of the centre of the nearest street.
- (g) That the erection of the proposed hut will infringe some specified bye-law made under this Act.

If the proposal is approved the hut may be built, re-built, or added to at any time within six months after the date of sanction. If it is disapproved on any of the grounds above stated, the work shall not be commenced till such modifications have been made in the plan of the proposed hut as the Commissioners may deem necessary.

248. If any hut be built, re-built, or added to without making such application to the Commissioners as is required by the last preceding section, or before the approval of the Commissioners has been obtained under that section, the Commissioners may cause such hut or so much of it as has been constructed to be demolished or altered in such manner as they may prescribe; and the expenses of such demolition or alteration shall be paid by the person failing to comply with the provisions of this Act.

249. The Commissioners may, in addition to, or in lieu of, exercising the powers conferred on them by the last preceding section prosecute any person who builds, re-builds, or adds to any hut in contravention of the provisions of section two hundred and forty-seven, and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for any such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

250. If the Commissioners fail to pass orders within fourteen days as required by section two hundred and forty-seven, the person making such application may notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained proceed to build or rebuild the house.

251. The Commissioners may define the external limits of any bustee, and may from time to time modify such limits; and for the purposes of this Act, land comprised within such limits shall be deemed to be a bustee:

Provided that every bustee shall consist of one or more complete plots of bustee land, separately numbered as such in the assessment book, and no plot bearing only one number shall be divided so as to fall within the limits of separate bustees. The existence of one or more houses with the land attached thereto, within the limits defined as above, shall be no bar to the bustee lands within such limits being deemed to be a bustee: Provided also that the Commissioners shall have no power under this Part of exercising any control over such houses and land attached, except by acquiring the whole or any portion of them by purchase or in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

252. The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners of a bustee, calling on them to prepare a joint plan thereof to the scale of forty feet to the inch showing the manner in which such bustee should be laid out with the huts standing in regular lines and with a free passage in front of and behind each line, of such width as may be necessary for ventilation and for scavenging. The plan shall also show the proposed drains of the bustee, the water-supply, bathing arrangements (if any) and the privy accommodation to be provided for the use of the tenants, the roads which are to be maintained for their benefit, the land, if any, which is to be kept as common land, the tanks which are to be filled up or conserved, and any other proposed improvements.

Such plan, when prepared as above, shall be considered by the Commissioners, and such modifications shall be made therein as the Commissioners shall require. After any plan has been finally approved of by the Commissioners, it shall be taken as the standard plan of the bustee. If any land within the limits of a bustee is not bustee land, the standard plan shall be so prepared as clearly to distinguish it from the bustee land.

When a call has been made on the owners of the bustee to prepare a joint plan under this section, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to within the bustee till a standard plan has been prepared.

253. If the owners of a bustee cannot agree among themselves in the preparation of a joint plan, or if they for any reason prefer to have a joint plan prepared for them by the Commissioners, or if they fail to comply with the notice to submit a joint plan within the space of sixty days, the Commissioners shall, within a further period of sixty days, themselves prepare a plan to the scale and in the manner prescribed in the last preceding section for which they may charge the owners at such rate not exceeding Rs. 3 per bigah as the Commissioners in meeting may fix. The cost of preparing such plan may be recovered as a rate under this Act.

254. When a plan has been prepared by the Commissioners under the last preceding section, they shall fix a day for the hearing of objections on the part of the owners; and may at their discretion modify the plan in accordance with any objections made. When the objections have been disallowed, or when the plan has been modified in conformity with any objections raised, it shall be approved of by the Commissioners, and shall thereafter be taken as the standard plan of the bustee.

255. When a standard plan has been prepared for any bustee under sections two hundred and fifty-two or two hundred and fifty-four, no hut shall be built, re-built, or added to in such bustee, unless the hut or the portion to be added occupies a site, or portion of a site marked as the site for a hut in the standard plan. The Commissioners may, at any time by paying compensation to the owner of any hut not in conformity with the standard plan, require him to take down his hut and re-build it in conformity with such plan. Such compensation shall, in the event of dispute, be determined in the manner provided in this Act for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

The Commissioners may at any time serve a notice upon the owners, of any bustee, calling upon them to construct the roads, privies, drains, and other details shown in the standard plan of any bustee, so far as may be practicable in the existing arrangement of the huts, and if any tank is shown as to be filled up or improved, may call upon the owner to fill up or improve such tank. Till such notice is complied with, the Commissioners may refuse to sanction the building or re-building of any hut in the bustee, or any addition to any existing hut.

256. When a bustee has been brought into conformity with a standard plan which has been prepared for it, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

257. When it appears to the Commissioners in meeting that any bustee is, by reason of the manner in which the huts are crowded together, or for any other reason, in such an unhealthy condition that the procedure provided by sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six will be too dilatory for improving such bustee, they may cause it to be inspected by two medical officers who shall make a report in writing on the sanitary condition of the said bustee.

Such report shall be accompanied by a plan which shall be approved of by the medical officers as a proper standard plan of the bustee, and they shall certify which of the changes necessary to bring the bustee into conformity with the proposed standard plan should be taken in hand forthwith, in consequence of the unhealthy condition of the bustee, and which can await the procedure prescribed in sections two hundred and fifty-two to two hundred and fifty-six. The former changes shall be shown in a Schedule attached to the report to be called Schedule A; and this Schedule shall clearly indicate the huts which should wholly or in part be removed, the roads and drains which should be constructed, the tanks or low lands which should be filled up, and any other works necessary to remove or abate the unhealthy condition of the bustee. If for the purpose of making such roads or effecting any other improvement, it is necessary to purchase or acquire any land within the bustee which is not bustee land, the schedule shall specify the land which should be purchased or acquired.

258. On receipt of the report of the medical officers, the Commissioners in meeting may cause notice to be served upon the owners or occupiers of the huts, or at the option of the Commissioners, the owner of the land on which such huts are built, requiring them to carry out and execute within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Commissioners for such purpose, all or any of the works specified in the aforesaid Schedule A annexed to the report, or any portion thereof respectively.

The Commissioners in meeting shall also approve of the standard plan prepared by the medical officers with such modifications as they may deem proper.

259. If, after the service of the notice referred to in the last preceding section, such owners or occupiers, or the owners of the land, shall refuse or neglect to carry out and execute the said works within the time appointed, the Commissioners may cause all or any of the said works, or any portion thereof respectively, to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred, including such reasonable compensation as the Commissioners think fit to pay to the owners or occupiers of huts destroyed or removed, shall be paid by the owners of the land:

Provided that the Commissioners in meeting may order the expenses so incurred to be recovered by instalments from the said owners, of the land or, if it should appear to them that any such owner is unable by reason of poverty to pay the same, may order the same or any portion thereof to be paid out of the General Fund.

260. If any of the said huts be pulled down, the Commissioners shall cause the materials of each hut to be given to the owner of the hut; or if the owner be unknown, or the title disputed, the materials shall be sold and the proceeds shall be held in deposit by the Commissioners until the person interested therein shall obtain an order from a competent court for the payment of the same.

A Court of Small Causes shall be deemed a competent court for the purpose.

261. The Commissioners may, at any time, after the receipt of the report of the medical officers acquire by purchase, or in the manner provided by Remodelled bustees.

Report by medical officers on unhealthy bustees.

Commissioners on the report of medical officers may acquire land.

Chapter XIII, Part II, any land other than bustee land shown in that report as land which should be acquired.

262. After the works specified in Schedule A attached to the report filed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, or so much of such works as are approved by the Commissioners in meeting, have been completed, the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-five shall apply to such bustee until it is brought into complete conformity with the standard plan approved in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-eight, after which the bustee shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

263. No standard plan, prepared under sections two hundred and fifty-two, two hundred and fifty-three, two hundred and fifty-seven, or two hundred and sixty-eight shall, without the consent of the owners, show more than one-fifth of the area of the bustee as roads or more than one-half as open lands not to be built upon, whether such open land be common ground, roads, or spaces behind a line of huts; but no tank that is not filled up shall be taken into account in calculating the above proportion. The proposed standard plan shall also, as far as possible, provide for one or more huts being completely contained in each separate plot of bustee land within the bustee and for a due proportion of roadway and open ground in each plot; and if a greater portion of any one plot is taken for roads or open ground than the proportion allowed by this section, the compensation which should be paid to the owner of this plot and the persons who should pay such compensation by reason of their benefiting thereby shall be specified; if no other owner can be equitably called upon to pay such compensation, it shall be paid by the Commissioners. The compensation thus fixed shall not be payable till the plot belonging to the owner entitled to it has been brought into complete conformity with the standard plan.

264. Any owner of bustee land included within the limits of a bustee may at any time give notice to the Commissioners that he intends to change the character of the whole or of any portion of the land belonging to him, so that it will cease to be bustee land. If his notice refers only to a part of his land, a separate number shall be forthwith assigned in the assessment book to the part to which the notice applies. From the date of such notice no application shall be received for building, re-building, or adding to any hut in the land to which the notice applies, and the owner shall be bound to remove all existing huts within six months after giving such notice. When all the huts have been removed, the land shall cease to be liable to the incidents of bustee land, and, according to its situation, shall either be altogether excluded from the limits of the bustee, or shall be shown in the standard plan of the bustee as land within the said limits which is not bustee land.

265. The roads shown in the standard plan of a bustee which are not already public streets shall, unless the Commissioners and the owners concerned otherwise agree, remain private streets; and the portion which falls on the land of each owner shall belong to such owner. Any portion which falls on land acquired or purchased by the Commissioners under section two hundred and sixty-one shall remain the property of the Commissioners.

Every such private street shall at all times be kept open to the conservancy carts of the Commissioners for the purpose of scavenging in the bustee, and shall also be kept open for the use of all the tenants of the bustee, but no such use, whether by the conservancy carts or by the tenants, shall be held by any lapse of time to confer a right of way on the public, so as to bring such street within the definition of a "public street."

266. If any portion of the land which it is sought to remove from the incidents of bustee land is shown in the standard plan of the bustee as a road or part of a road, the notice shall be held not to apply to such road without the express consent of the Commissioners, but such road shall continue part of a private street open to the use of conservancy carts and of the tenants of the bustee.

267. When a standard plan has been prepared for a bustee, the several owners of the bustee land shall be respectively deemed to be the occupiers of the roads, common ground, and of such drains of the bustee as serve more than one hut, so far as constructed in accordance with such standard plan, and the owner of each hut shall be deemed to be the occupier of the land occupied by his hut, of that portion of the open space behind his hut which appertains to it, and of any drain which is for the sole use of his hut.

268. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections two hundred and fifty-seven to two hundred and sixty-two, the Commissioners in meeting may, upon receipt of the report prescribed under section two hundred and fifty-seven, pass a resolution to the effect that any bustee is an unhealthy area, and that, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the acquisition of the bustee, or any part thereof, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, is necessary for the purpose of making the requisite improvements thereon, and shall proceed to make a standard plan for the improvement of such land, and shall forward such plan, accompanied by such estimates as shall be necessary for a due understanding of the same, together with a copy of such resolution, for the consideration and sanction of the Local Government.

On receipt of such sanction, the Commissioners in meeting may acquire such land or any part thereof in the manner provided by Chapter XIII, Part II.

When the sanction of the Local Government has been accorded to any standard plan for the improvement of any land acquired by the Commissioners as above provided, the Commissioners in meeting may sell or let any part of the acquired land to any person for the purpose and under the condition that he will, as respects the land so purchased by, or leased to, him, carry out such standard plan.

The Commissioners may, instead of selling or letting the land acquired by them as aforesaid, themselves bring the bustee into conformity with such standard plan.

The Commissioners shall be bound to sell or lease such land in the manner aforesaid, or themselves to carry out the improvement sanctioned under this section within the term of four years from the date of their acquiring such land, unless the Local Government shall specially extend such term.

When a bustee has been improved under this section, it shall be deemed to be a remodelled bustee.

269. The Commissioners in meeting may sanction the employment of Commissioners may levy a rate for cleansing bustees. a special establishment for the cleansing of bustees, and when such establishment has been sanctioned, they may impose a rate to defray the cost of such establishment, on the owners of such bustees:

Provided that, without the consent of the owners, no such rate shall be levied upon any remodelled bustee.

270. If any bustee for which no such establishment as is referred to in the last preceding section is maintained, appears to the Commissioners to be in a filthy condition, the Commissioners may serve notices upon the occupiers as defined in section two hundred and sixty-seven, requiring them within three days to cleanse the same, and if the occupiers do not comply with the terms of such notices to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cleanse the whole or any portion of the bustee which requires cleansing, and may recover the cost incurred by them from the occupiers of such portions of the bustee as they have cleansed in such manner as a rate may be recovered.

CHAPTER XI.

OF DRAINAGE WORKS, DRAINS AND PRIVIES.

271. The Commissioners may carry out such Commissioners to drain Calcutta. a complete system or systems of sewerage and drainage as they may think fit, subject to the approval of the Local Government, and such alterations as may from time to time be ordered by it.

272. All public sewers and drains, and all Public sewers, drains, tunnels and culverts vested in the Commissioners. sewers, drains, tunnels, and culverts in, alongside, or under any public street, whether made at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all works, materials, and things appertaining thereto, shall vest in, and belong to, the Commissioners.

273. The Commissioners shall have power to Powers of Commissioners in making public sewers. construct within Calcutta, and when necessary for the purposes of outfall or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, such sewers as they may think necessary for keeping the town properly cleansed and drained, and may carry such sewers through, across or under any road, street or place, and after reasonable notice in writing into, through or under any premises or lands whatsoever, and may from time to time enlarge, lessen, alter, arch over or otherwise improve, modify or change, or close up, or destroy all sewers vested in them, provided no nuisance is created by such operations; and if any person is thereby deprived of the lawful use of any drain or sewer, the Commissioners shall provide another as effectual for his use within one hundred feet from some part of his premises. The Commissioners shall cause their sewers to be so constructed, kept and cleansed as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health, and for the purpose of cleansing, flushing and emptying them may construct and place either above or under ground, such reservoirs, sluices, engines or other works as may be necessary, and may cause such sewers to communicate with, and be emptied into, such places as may be fit and necessary within Calcutta, and if necessary for the purpose of outfall or distribution of sewage without Calcutta, and may cause the sewage and refuse therefrom and from the town to be collected for sale, or for the improvement of land, or for incineration, or for any purpose whatsoever, but not so as to create a nuisance.

If a sewer is carried into, through or under any lands not belonging to the Corporation, the Commissioners shall make compensation to the owner thereof for any damage sustained by him by reason of such sewer being so carried into, through or under his land. In case of dispute, the amount of compensation payable by the Commissioners shall be determined in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

274. When the contents of any sewer or drain, or any other flow of filth or refuse, are discharged into any river or stream in the bed or channel of which the quantity of water at any season of the year is so much diminished, by natural or artificial causes, as to be insufficient to keep such channel clean or clear, the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government, may make such alteration in the bed of such river or stream as may prevent such sewer and drain-water from spreading over the surface of such bed, or from accumulating and stagnating in parts thereof to the injury of health or the annoyance of the surrounding population.

275. If any person, without the written Unauthorized drains leading into public sewers may be demolished. consent of the Commissioners first obtained, makes or alters any drain leading into any of the sewers or drains vested in the Commissioners, or makes such drain, or carries out such alterations, with materials not approved of by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such branch drain to be demolished, altered, re-made, or otherwise dealt with as they shall think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person making or altering such branch drain.

276. Whoever, without the written consent of the Commissioners first obtained, makes or alters any drain leading into any of the sewers or drains vested in the Commissioners by this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

277. If any house or land within one hundred feet of a public sewer or surface drain fit for use, or of some tidal river or other place at which the Commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers, be at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners by sufficient surface drains or pipes communicating with some sewer, surface drain, tidal river, or other place as aforesaid, the Commissioners may, if the owner neglects to do so within fifteen days after notice, construct or lay through or from such house or land, suitable drains of such materials, of such size and with such fall, as they shall think necessary for the complete draining of such house or land;

Commissioners empowered to make drains from houses which are not properly drained.

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

For the purpose of efficiently draining any house or land under this section, the Commissioners may require any court-yard, alley, or passage between two or more houses, to be paved with such materials and in such manner as may be approved of by them, and may require such paving to be kept in proper repair. They may also require the level of any such court-yard, alley or passage to be raised if necessary, for the efficient drainage thereof.

278. The Commissioners themselves may construct certain portions of drains under public drains and streets. such portions of the drains mentioned in the last preceding section and sections two hundred and eighty-two and two hundred and eighty-three, as may be carried through or under any public drain, aqueduct, or street, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

279. Whenever it is provided in this Chapter that steps shall or may be taken for the effectual drainage of any premises, it shall be competent to the Commissioners to require that there shall be one drain for sewage and polluted water, and another and an entirely distinct drain for rain-water or unpolluted subsoil water or for both, each emptying into separate municipal drains or other suitable places.

280. It shall not be lawful for any person to make any underground drains in connection with the public sewers unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may, from time to time, lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of the license.

Any person holding such license, who shall infringe or break any such rule or regulation, shall be liable to have his license cancelled, and he or any person making any underground drain in connection with the public sewers without a license shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

281. The Commissioners may cause the work of laying underground drains to be supervised while in progress, and from time to time during their execution may order such reasonable alterations therein, additions thereto, and abandonment of part or parts thereof, as may to the Commissioners appear, on the fuller knowledge afforded by the opening of the ground, requisite to secure the complete and satisfactory execution of such works as aforesaid.

282. If it appear to the Commissioners that a group or block of houses may be drained more economically or advantageously in combination than separately, and a sewer of sufficient size already exists, or is about to be constructed, within one hundred feet of any part of such group or block of houses, the Commissioners may cause such group or block of houses to be drained by a combined operation; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owners of such houses, or, in the case of bustee land, by the owners of the land in such proportions as shall to the Commissioners seem fit.

Not less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the Commissioners shall give notice to the owners of all the land or houses to be drained of the nature of the proposed work and an estimate of the expenses about to be incurred in respect thereof and the proportion payable by each owner.

283. Whenever a drain belonging to one or more persons has been laid in any street or passage common to more than one house, and it is deemed desirable to drain any other premises into such drain, the Commissioners may require the owners of such drain to allow a connection therewith to be made on such terms as may seem to them equitable, and the owner or owners of the drain shall be entitled to refuse to allow the connection to be made until the terms prescribed have been accepted and any order for payment made by the Commissioners has been complied with.

284. All underground drains in streets (public or otherwise) shall be provided by the Commissioners or by the persons to whom they severally belong with proper traps or other coverings and means of ventilation, so as to prevent stench.

If the owner of any private sewer or underground drain shall, for ten days after notice given to him by the Commissioners, neglect or delay to provide proper traps or coverings and means of ventilation as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith provide and apply the same; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

285. The Commissioners may erect on, or fix to, any house or wall such properly jointed pipes as they may deem necessary for the proper ventilation of the sewers belonging to them, and such pipes shall be carried to a height of not less than six feet above the highest part of the highest adjacent house, and erected so as not to occasion any nuisance or inconvenience to any house in the neighbourhood.

286. All branch drains, as well within as without the house or land to which they belong, and all privies, cess-pools, stables and cow-houses in Calcutta, shall be under the survey and control of the Commissioners as regards their site, material, dimensions and construction, and shall be altered, supplied with water, connected with a sewer, paved, repaired, kept in proper order, stopped up, or demolished, at the costs and charges of the owner of the house or land to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued;

and if the owner of any house or land to which any such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house belongs, neglect, during eight days after notice in writing, to execute the work in the manner required by the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause the work to be executed in respect of such drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house;

and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

287. If any private drain is obstructed, the occupier of the premises in which such drain is situate shall, within six hours after receiving notice to do so from the Commissioners, cause the obstruction to be removed, and if he make default, the Commissioners may cause the necessary work to be done and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recoverable from such occupier.

288. If any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house be constructed contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or if any person, without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any branch drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up, or not to be made, or constructs or rebuilds any stable or cow-house which has been ordered by them to be demolished or not to be built, the Commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house as they think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person by whom such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or otherwise dealt with.

289. Whoever constructs any drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house after the commencement of this Act contrary to the directions, bye-laws or regulations of the Commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this Act, or, whoever without the consent of the Commissioners, constructs, rebuilds or unstops any drain, privy, or cess-pool which has been ordered by them not to be made or to be demolished or to be stopped up, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

290. The Commissioners may inspect any branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house, and for that purpose, at any time between sunrise and sunset, after one hour's notice in writing to the occupier of the house or land to which such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house is attached, may enter upon such house or land with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where they may think fit, doing as little damage as may be;

and if, upon such inspection, it appears that such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house is not in good order and condition, or that it has been constructed contrary to the provisions of this Act, the expenses of such inspection shall be paid by the person to whom such branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house may belong;

and if any branch drain is choked, or if any other defect connected with such branch drain which requires to be forthwith remedied is brought to light by such inspection, the Commissioners shall then and there clear out the branch drain, or remedy the defect;

but if the branch drain, privy, cess-pool, stable or cow-house be found to be in proper order and condition, and not to have been constructed in violation of the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be, and the expenses of opening and closing the ground shall be paid by the Commissioners.

291. Whoever throws or puts, or permits his servants to throw or put, any rubbish, or, until suitable sewers shall be provided, permits any offensive matter or sewage to flow, or be put into any sewer or drain belonging to the Commissioners, or into any drain communicating therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every such offence.

292. No person shall, without the permission of the Commissioners in writing, construct or keep any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle for sewage or offensive matter within fifty feet of any public tank, or a tank used by the inhabitants of any locality. Any person upon whose land any latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle so situated shall be now existing or hereafter constructed, shall remove the same within eight days of the receipt of a written notice from the Commissioners.

293. Any person failing to comply with the notice mentioned in the last preceding section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 3 for every day that the latrine, privy, urinal, cess-pool, house-drain, or other receptacle remains within the limits aforesaid.

294. If the Commissioners think that any privy or additional privy should be provided for any house or land, the owner of such house or land shall, within fourteen days after notice in that behalf by the Commissioners, cause such privy, together with the necessary pipes, drains, and water-supply, to be constructed in accordance with the requisition of such notice; and if such privy be not so constructed to the satisfaction of the Commissioners within such period, the Commissioners may cause such privy, together with the necessary pipes, drains, and water-supply, to be so constructed; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner.

295. The Commissioners, in executing any works under this Act, shall provide and make, at their own expense, a sufficient number of convenient ways, water-courses, drains, and channels in the place of such as may be interrupted, injured, or rendered useless by reason of the execution of such works;

and if any difference arises between the Commissioners and the persons affected thereby,

such difference shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

296. The Commissioners shall, during the construction or repair by them of any of the streets, sewers, or drains vested in or belonging to them, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses;

and shall cause such bars, chains, or posts to be fixed across or in any street (public or otherwise), to prevent the passage of carriages, carts, cattle, or animals, while such works are carried on as to them shall seem proper;

and shall cause any sewer, or drain, or other works in streets (public or otherwise), during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be sufficiently lighted and guarded during the night.

CHAPTER XII.

OF SANITARY MATTERS.

PART I.—Of scavenging and cleansing.

297. The Commissioners shall cause the public streets to be sufficiently lighted and regularly swept and cleansed; and the rubbish and offensive matter of every kind whatsoever found thereon to be collected and removed every day.

298. The Commissioners may cause any number of moveable or fixed dust-boxes or other convenient receptacles (wherein rubbish and offensive matter arising from the ordinary domestic use of houses, may be temporarily deposited until removed and carried away,) to be provided and placed in proper and convenient situations, and may require the occupiers of houses in public streets to cause all such matter as aforesaid to be deposited in such receptacles and between such hours as they may from time to time direct:

Provided that no occupier shall be required to deposit refuse in a dust-box at a greater distance than fifty yards from the entrance of his premises.

299. Subject to the proviso contained in the last preceding section, every person who, after such receptacles have been provided, and after such requisition as above-mentioned, shall deposit, or cause or permit to be deposited, any such matter in any public street, except in such receptacles, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

300. Whoever deposits, or suffers to be deposited, any rubbish, offensive matter or sewage in any public street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghât, or landing place, or on any part of the river bank, whether above or below high-water mark, except in such places, and in such manner, and at such hours, as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every such offence.

301. If it shall in any case be shown that dust, rubbish, offensive matter or sewage has been thrown or placed on any street or place in contravention of section two hundred and ninety-nine or section three hundred from some building or land, it shall be presumed that the offence has been committed by, or with the sufferance of, the occupier of such building or land, unless the contrary be proved.

302. Whoever causes or allows the water of any sink or sewer, or any offensive matter belonging to him, or being in any house or land in his occupation, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street (public or otherwise), or causes or allows any sewage to run, drain, or be thrown into a surface drain not intended for the purpose, in any street (public or otherwise), shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for every such offence.

303. The Commissioners from time to time shall appoint—

- (a) the hours within which sewage or any offensive matter may be removed;
- (b) the kind of cart or other receptacle in which it may be removed;
- (c) the route by which such cart or other receptacle shall proceed.

304. When the Commissioners have fixed such hours and given public notice thereof, whoever removes or causes to be removed along any street (public or otherwise) any such sewage or offensive matter at any time, except within the hours so fixed, and also, whoever at any time, whether such hours have been fixed by the Commissioners or not, uses for any such purpose any cart, carriage, or other receptacle or vessel other than that approved and sanctioned by the Commissioners, or spills any such sewage or offensive matter in the removal thereof, and does not carefully sweep and clean every place in which any such offensive matter has been so spilled, or places or sets down in any public place any vessel containing such sewage or offensive matter, or drives or takes, or causes to be driven or taken, any cart, carriage, receptacle, or vessel used for any such purpose as aforesaid, through any street (public or otherwise), or by any route other than that, from time to time, by public notice, appointed for that purpose by the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every such offence.

305. The Commissioners shall from time to time appoint or provide places—

- (a) for the deposit of rubbish or offensive matter collected and removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) for the deposit of the carcases of animals removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (c) for keeping all cattle, carts, implements, and other things required for the above or any of the purposes of this Act.

306. The occupier of any premises in or upon which any animal shall die, or upon which the carcass of any animal shall be found, and the person having the charge of any animal which dies in a street or in any open place shall, within three hours after the death of such animal, or if the death occurs at night, within three hours after sunrise, either—

(a) remove the carcass of such animal to some receptacle, depot or place appointed by the Commissioners under section three hundred and five for the temporary deposit or final disposal of such carcasses; or

(b) report the death of the animal to the proper officer of the Commissioners, with a view to causing the carcass to be removed.

When any carcass is removed, in the manner provided in clause (b), a fee for the removal, of such amount as shall be fixed by the Commissioners, shall be paid by the owner of the animal, or, if the owner is not known, by the occupier of the premises in or upon which, or by the person in whose charge the same died. The word "animal" in this section includes an elephant, camel, horse, mule, donkey, horned beast, sheep, pig, or other large animal.

307. Whoever, being the occupier of any house or land, keeps or suffers to be kept any offensive matter for more than twenty-four hours, otherwise than in a proper receptacle, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 30, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence; and the Commissioners may cleanse the premises, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the occupier.

308. All rubbish, offensive matter or sewage collected from the streets (public or otherwise), houses, privies, sewers, and cess-pools, and all carcasses removed under the provisions of section three hundred and six shall belong to the Commissioners, who may sell or dispose of the same as they may think proper, and the money arising from the sale thereof shall form part of the General Fund.

309. If any house or land, by reason of abandonment, or of disputed ownership, or other cause, remains untenanted, and thereby becomes a resort of idle and disorderly persons, or becomes in a filthy or unwholesome state, or is complained of by any two or more of the neighbours as a nuisance, the Commissioners, after due enquiry, may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, or to the person claiming or believed to be the owner, if he be known and resident in Calcutta, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door of the house or some conspicuous part of the land requiring the persons concerned therein, whoever they may be, to secure, enclose, clean, or clear the same;

and if such notice shall not be complied with within eight days, the Commissioners shall cause the necessary work to be executed, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recovered from the owner or by the sale of any materials found upon such house or land, and the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-four shall be applicable to such sale.

310. The Commissioners may provide and maintain in proper and convenient situations, common necessities and urinals, and shall cause the same, when provided, to be constructed, and kept so as not to be a nuisance or injurious to health.

311. The Commissioners may license, for any period not exceeding one year, such necessities for public accommodation as they may, from time to time, think proper; and may at any time, on giving one month's notice, if they think fit, cancel any license so granted.

All fees payable under any license granted under this section shall be recoverable from the persons liable to pay the same, as if the amounts payable in respect thereof were rates due to the Commissioners from such persons, under the provisions of Chapter VI.

312. Whoever keeps any public necessary without a license as mentioned in the last preceding section, or, having a license, suffers such public necessary to be in a filthy or noxious state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for every such offence, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

313. The Commissioners shall maintain an establishment under their control for the removal of sewage from all houses, the privies of which are not connected with the sewers.

314. The Commissioners in meeting may, by a general order, or by an order to affect such portion of Calcutta as may be specified therein, prohibit the making of excavations for the purpose of taking earth therefrom, or for the purpose of storing rubbish or offensive matter therein, and the digging of cess-pools, tanks, wells or pits without the special permission of the Commissioners.

If any such excavation, cess-pool, tank, well or pit is made after the issue and publication of such order without such permission, the Commissioners may require the owner and occupier of the land on which such excavation, cess-pool, tank, well or pit is made, within two weeks to fill up such excavation with earth or other material approved of by them, and in default the Commissioners may enter upon the land and execute the work, and the expense thereby incurred shall be paid one-half by the owner and one-half by the occupier of such land.

315. When any well, tank, or marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water, whether within any private enclosure or not, appears to the Commissioners to be injurious to health or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, the Commissioners may require, by notice in writing, the owner of the same to cleanse or fill up such well, tank or marshy ground with suitable material, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during one month from the service thereof, the Commissioners may enter into the said premises, and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as they shall think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner, and until so paid the Commissioners may retain possession of the land or tank or the site of such tank and utilise the same for public purposes.

316. Whoever, being an owner of land, fails to comply with the requisition mentioned in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART II.—Inspection and sanitary regulation of premises.

317. The Commissioners may inspect any building or other premises for the purpose of ascertaining the sanitary condition thereof.

318. If it shall appear to the Commissioners necessary for sanitary reasons so to do, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any building so inspected, to cause the same or some portion thereof to be lime-washed or otherwise cleansed, either externally or internally, or both externally and internally, within a time to be specified in such notice.

319. If, for any reason, any building intended for or used as a dwelling shall appear to the Commissioners to be unfit for human habitation, they may apply to a Magistrate to prohibit the further use of such building for such purpose; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, make a prohibition as aforesaid or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

When any such prohibition has been made, no owner or occupier of such building shall use or suffer the same to be used for human habitation until the Commissioners certify in writing that the causes rendering it unfit for human habitation have been removed to their satisfaction, or the Magistrate, by a written order, withdraws the prohibition aforesaid.

320. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that any building used as a dwelling is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, they may apply to a Magistrate to prevent such overcrowding; and the Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, require the owner of the building, within a reasonable time not exceeding six weeks, to be prescribed in the said order, to abate the overcrowding thereof, by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants, or other inmates of the said building, or may pass such other order as he shall deem just and proper.

If the owner of the said building shall have sublet the same, the landlord of the lodgers, tenants or other actual inmates of the same shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the owner of the building.

It shall be incumbent on every tenant, lodger or other inmate of the building to vacate on being required by the owner so to do in pursuance of any such requisition.

PART III.—Of the prevention of infectious or contagious diseases.

321. Every medical practitioner who treats or becomes cognizant of the existence of any case of cholera, small-pox, diphtheria or typhoid fever in any private or public dwelling, other than a public hospital, shall be bound to give information of the same with the least practicable delay to the Commissioners. The said information shall be communicated in such form and with such details as the Commissioners may from time to time require.

The Commissioners in meeting may, with the sanction of the Local Government, impose a similar obligation with regard to any other dangerous disease.

322. The Commissioners may, at any time, after giving such notice of their intention as shall, under the circumstances, appear to them to be reasonable, enter and inspect any place in which any dangerous disease is reputed or suspected to exist, and take such measures as they shall think fit to prevent the spread of the said disease beyond such place.

323. If it shall appear to the Commissioners that the water in any well, tank, or other place is likely, if used for drinking, to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by public notice, prohibit the removal or use of the said water for the purpose of drinking.

No person shall remove or use for the purpose of drinking, any water in respect of which any such public notice has been issued.

324. When any hospital or place for the reception of persons suffering from any dangerous, epidemic, endemic, or infectious disease has been provided, the Commissioners may, on a certificate countersigned by the Health Officer, and with the consent of the Superintendent of such hospital or place, direct the removal thereto of any male person suffering from any such dangerous disease, who is, in the opinion of such Health Officer, without proper lodging or accommodation.

325. If, upon the certificate of the Health Officer, the Commissioners are of opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of a building, or of a part of a building, or of any article therein likely to retain infection, would tend to prevent or check the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of such building, within a reasonable time to be prescribed in the said notice, to cleanse or disinfect the same.

If the owner or occupier fails to comply with the said notice, the Commissioners shall cause the building, or part of the building, or article, to be cleansed or disinfected, and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the owner or occupier :

Provided that if, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the owner or occupier is, from poverty or other cause, unable effectually to carry out the said requirements, the Commissioners may cleanse or disinfect the building, or part of the building, or article likely to retain infection at the charge of the General Fund.

326. If the Commissioners are of opinion that the destruction of any hut is necessary to prevent the spread of any dangerous disease, they may, after giving the owner or occupier thereof reasonable notice, take measures for the destruction of such hut or shed and the materials of which it is constructed.

The Commissioners may pay compensation to any person sustaining substantial loss by the destruction of any hut, but no person shall be entitled as of right to claim compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him by reason of the destruction of any hut by the Commissioners under the powers conferred upon them by this section.

327. The Commissioners in meeting may provide a proper place or places, with all necessary apparatus and attendance, for the disinfection of clothing, bedding, or other articles which have become infected, and may cause articles brought for disinfection to be disinfected free of charge.

The Commissioners may from time to time notify one or more places at which clothing or bedding, or other articles which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease, may be washed; and no person shall wash any such article at any public place not so notified, without having previously disinfected the same.

The Commissioners may direct the disinfection or destruction of bedding, clothing, or other articles likely to retain infection, and may, in their discretion, give compensation at the charge of the General Fund for any article destroyed.

328. The Commissioners in meeting may provide and maintain suitable conveyances for the free carriage of persons suffering from small-pox or cholera, or from any other dangerous disease, in regard to which the Commissioners in meeting may impose a similar obligation; and when such conveyances have been provided, it shall not be lawful to convey any such person by any other public conveyance.

The Commissioners in meeting may also provide suitable conveyances for the transport of clothing, bedding or other articles which have been exposed to infection.

329. The owner, driver, or person in charge of a public conveyance in which any person suffering from small-pox has been carried shall immediately provide for the disinfection of the same to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

330. No person shall, without previous disinfection of the same, give, lend, sell, transmit or otherwise dispose of any article which he knows, or has reason to know, has been exposed to infection.

But nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to a person who transmits, with proper precautions, any article for the purpose of having the same disinfected.

331. No person who is suffering from small-pox shall enter a public conveyance without previously notifying to the owner, driver, or person in charge of such conveyance that he is so suffering.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to public conveyances for the time being in force, no owner or driver or person in charge of a public conveyance shall be bound to carry any person suffering as aforesaid in such conveyance, unless payment or tender of sufficient compensation for the loss and expenses he must incur in disinfecting such conveyance is first of all made to him.

332. No person shall let a building, or any part of a building, in which he knows, or has reason to know, that a person has been suffering from any of the diseases specified in section three hundred and twenty-one without first having such building or part thereof and every article therein likely to retain infection disinfected to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

For the purpose of this section, the keeper of an hotel or inn shall be deemed to let part of his building to any person accommodated in such hotel or inn.

333. Any person committing a breach of any of the provisions of this Part shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

334. In the event of Calcutta being at any time visited or threatened with an outbreak of any dangerous, epidemic or zootic disease, the Commissioners may take special measures in outbreak of any epidemic disease.

Commissioners in meeting, if they think that the ordinary precautions are insufficient to check the spread of such disease, may, with the sanction of the Local Government, take such special measures as they shall think necessary to prevent, check, or mitigate any such outbreak, and the expenses of any such measures shall be paid out of the General Fund. Such measures and any regulations passed to give effect thereto shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and any person wilfully neglecting or refusing to carry out, or obstructing the execution of any regulation made under this section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

PART IV.—Of the control of public stables, cattle-houses, bathing places and wash-houses.

335. No person shall keep any animal for profit within Calcutta except in a place licensed by the Commissioners.

Such license shall be taken out yearly before the first day of June in every year.

The word 'animal' in this section shall include an elephant, camel, horse, mule, donkey, horned beast, sheep, goat and pig.

The Commissioners in meeting shall determine the places where such animals may be kept and the rules as to paving, drainage, water-supply, cubical space, light and other conditions subject to which the license may be granted, and may impose an annual fee not exceeding Rs. 10 for such license, and no place shall be licensed until the conditions imposed have been complied with.

336. Whoever, being the owner of any land, permits any animals to be kept thereon in contravention of the provisions of the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence, and the person keeping the animals shall also be liable to a similar fine.

When a conviction has been obtained under this section, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to turn out the animals and close the place wherein they were kept.

337. Whoever, being the holder of a license under section three hundred and thirty-five commits a breach of the conditions of such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

Penalty.

338. The Commissioners may, at their discretion, set apart any public ghât or place (not being private property, or part of the river or river bank of the Port of Calcutta) for the purpose of being used as a bathing place;

Commissioners may set apart bathing places.

provide or set apart a sufficient number of convenient tanks or reservoirs, or runs of water, for the inhabitants to bathe in;

construct wash-houses for washing clothes, and set apart tanks or reservoirs, or runs of water, for washing animals or clothes, or for any other purpose connected with the health, cleanliness, and comfort of the inhabitants.

339. Whoever bathes or washes any animal or clothes in any public place, except the places provided or set apart under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

Penalty.

340. The Commissioners in meeting may, by public notice, prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen in the exercise of their calling, except at such places as the Commissioners shall appoint for the purpose;

Regulation as to washing by washermen.

and when any such prohibition has been made, no person who is, by calling, a washerman shall wash clothes at any place not so appointed other than his own or those of the owner or occupier of such place.

The Commissioners shall provide suitable places for the exercise by washermen of their calling, and may require payment of such fees for the use of any such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Commissioners in meeting.

PART V.—Of Slaughter-houses and Dangerous and Offensive Trades.

341. No place shall be used as a slaughter-house within Calcutta unless

No place shall be used as a slaughter-house without a license from the Commissioners.

a license in writing for the use thereof as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Commissioners in meeting, who may, at their discretion, from time to time, grant, refuse, suspend or revoke such license.

Whoever uses any place as a slaughter-house without such license shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 20, and upon a conviction being obtained the Commissioners may, if they think fit, close such slaughter-house.

342. Whoever, during the period for which Penalty for using slaughter-houses during suspension or revocation of license.

any license is suspended or after the same is revoked as aforesaid, slaughters any animal, or allows any animal to be slaughtered in the slaughter-house to which such license relates, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

343. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, if they Commissioners in meeting may provide places for slaughter-houses.

shall think fit, provide places within or without

Calcutta for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses; and all places heretofore provided by the Commissioners for the purpose of being used as slaughter-houses shall be deemed to have been provided under this section.

344. Every owner, occupier or farmer of Slaughter-houses to be properly drained.

any slaughter-house in Calcutta shall cause such drains to be made therein as shall be considered sufficient by the Commissioners, and (if required so to do by the Commissioners) shall cause all the floors and drains to be paved with stone or other material, and shall also cause a supply of water to be provided sufficient for keeping such slaughter-house in a clean and wholesome state. He shall also cause to be removed, at least once in every twenty-four hours, all blood, offal, or other offensive matter arising from the use of such slaughter-house in such manner, at such time, and with such precautions as the Commissioners may direct.

If such owner, occupier, or farmer, after notice

Penalty.

in writing given to him by the Commissioners that such slaughter-house is defective in any of the said particulars, and requiring him to remedy the defect specified within not less than thirty days, makes default therein, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day during which such default is continued.

345. The Commissioners in meeting may set

Commissioners may set apart places for sacrifice of goats, in accordance with Hindu rites, and the sale of the meat thereof, and the provisions of sections three hundred and forty-three and the last preceding section shall apply to such places.

apart places for the sacrifice of goats, in accordance with Hindu rites, and the sale of the meat thereof, and the provisions of sections three hundred and forty-three and the last preceding section shall apply to such places.

346. No premises, not already registered

Certain offensive and dangerous trades carried on in Calcutta to be registered.

under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876, shall be used :—

(a) for melting tallow;

- (b) for boiling offal, hoofs, bones or blood;
- (c) as a soap-house;
- (d) as an oil-boiling house;
- (e) as a dyeing-house;
- (f) as a tannery;
- (g) as a brick, pottery, or limekiln;
- (h) as a knacker's yard;
- (i) as a hide godown or hide screw-house;
- (j) as a mill for crushing bones or preparing artificial manure;
- (k) as a manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise; or
- (l) as a dépôt for hay, straw, wood, coal, or rags;

except under a license from the Commissioners, who may, at their discretion, from time to time, grant such license on such conditions as they may think fit.

347. The Commissioners in meeting shall fix a scale of fees to be paid for in respect of premises licensed under the last preceding section or registered under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876:

Provided that no fee shall exceed Rs. 500, nor be less than the amount otherwise payable as a trade or profession license under the Second Schedule.

348. Whoever, without a license, uses any place not registered under section two hundred and ninety-seven of Bengal Act IV of 1876 for any purpose specified in section three hundred and forty-six shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the said offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

349. If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that any place referred to in section three hundred and forty-six is a nuisance or entails probable danger to the neighbourhood, they may give notice to the occupier to discontinue the use of such place within one month after the date of such notice.

Whoever, after the expiration of such time, uses such place, for any of the purposes mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six, or permits it to be so used, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

PART VI.—Of markets and the sale of food and drugs.

350. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time, if they shall think fit, with the sanction of the Local Government, provide places in Calcutta for the purpose of being used as municipal markets, and the Commissioners may charge such rents, tolls, and fees as to them may seem fit for the use of, or right to expose goods for sale in, such markets, and for the use of shops, stalls, and standings therein.

351. All such rents, tolls, and fees which shall be imposed shall be recoverable by the Commissioners from the persons liable to pay the same as if the amounts payable in respect thereof were rates due to the Commissioners from such persons under the provisions of Chapter VI.

352. The Commissioners may expel from any such municipal market any vendor who, or whose servants, may be convicted of disobeying any bye-law made under section four hundred and twelve, clause (i), and may prevent such person, by himself or his servants, from further carrying on any trade or business in such market, or occupying any stall or shop therein, and may determine any lease or tenure which such person may have in any such stall or shop.

353. The Commissioners may sell, or let to tenants on lease or otherwise, on such terms as they may think fit, any municipal market, or any part thereof, and may do all things necessary for carrying the provisions of this section into effect.

354. The Commissioners in meeting may close any municipal market, or any part thereof, or sell, or let out to tenants on lease or otherwise, any land heretofore used as a municipal market, or any part thereof, on such terms as they may think fit, and may do all things necessary for carrying the provisions of this section into effect.

355. It shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners in meeting to grant licenses for the use of any place which they are satisfied is suitable for the purpose, as a market for the sale of meat, fish, fruit, and vegetables, and every such license shall be in force until the first day of April next following the day therein named for the commencement thereof.

Nothing contained in this section shall be held to impose upon any person the obligation of taking out a license for a market which has been registered under section six of Bengal Act VIII of 1871.

356. No person shall, without a license from the Commissioners, use any place as a shop for the sale of fresh meat or fish except in a municipal, registered, or licensed market. And the Commissioners in meeting may fix a scale of fees for licenses to be taken out annually for such shops:

Provided that no fee for a license to use any place as a shop for the sale of meat shall be less than Rs. 12. This section shall not apply to any place licensed as an hotel or eating-house.

357. Whoever wilfully or negligently permits any place in Calcutta (not being a market which has been registered under section six of Bengal Act VIII of 1871) to be used as a market for the sale of meat, fish, fruit or vegetables, or as a shop for the sale of fresh meat or fish, without a license under this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each day during which the said offence shall be continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

358. Upon a conviction being obtained under the last preceding section, the Magistrate shall, on the application of the Commissioners, but not otherwise, order such place to be closed, and thereupon appoint persons, or take other steps, to prevent such place being so used; and every person who shall sell or expose for sale meat, fish, fruit, or vegetables in any place which shall have been so closed shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

359. The Commissioners in meeting may define, fix, and determine the limits of any registered or licensed market or bazar and what portions of any market or bazar shall be thrown into, and made part of, the existing approaches, roads, paths, and ways in such market or bazar for the convenient use of persons resorting thereto; and shall signify the same by affixing, or causing to be affixed, in some conspicuous place or places in the market or bazar, a notice signifying the limits and description of the parts of the said market or bazar so to be kept and used as part of the approaches, roads, paths, and ways.

360. The Commissioners in meeting may, by notice in writing to the owner, proprietor, or lessee of any registered or licensed market or bazar, require him, within a time to be specified therein, to execute the necessary works and take all necessary measures for the setting out, clearing, widening, and maintaining of the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways; and may, in case of default by their servants and workmen, enter into and upon the said market or bazar, and clear, set out, and widen the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person on whom the notice has been served.

361. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time vary and alter the said approaches, roads, paths, and ways as occasion may require, signifying the same by a like notice.

362. Whoever shall cause any obstruction or encroachment in or on any approaches, roads, paths, or ways to, or in, any registered or licensed market or bazar shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 10, for every day such obstruction or encroachment is continued after notice from the Commissioners to remove or discountinue the same.

363. Any Magistrate, on the application of the Commissioners setting forth that there is just cause to believe that any article, which has been rendered or has become noxious or unfit for use as food or drink for man, is in the possession of any person for the purpose of being sold, offered, or exposed for sale, may grant a warrant to enter upon the premises of such person and to search for and seize such article;

and if it appear to the Magistrate that any such article, whether discovered with or without a warrant under this section, is noxious or unfit for such use, he shall order it to be forfeited and disposed of in such way as to him shall seem proper.

364. No person shall sell to the prejudice of the purchaser any article of food which is not of the nature, substance or quality of the article demanded by such purchaser under a penalty not exceeding Rs. 100 for the first offence, and not exceeding Rs. 500 for any offence after a conviction for a first offence: Provided that an offence shall not be deemed to be committed under this section in the following cases, that is to say—

- (1) Where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to the food, because the same is required for the production or preparation thereof as an article of commerce, in a state fit for carriage or consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the food or conceal the inferior quality thereof.
- (2) Where the food is unavoidably mixed with some extraneous matter in the process of collection or preparation.

The term "food" shall include every article used for food or drink by man other than drugs or water.

In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold by him, or that the purchaser, having bought only for analysis, was not prejudiced by the sale.

No proceedings shall be instituted under this section without the order or consent in writing of the Commissioners.

365. The Commissioners may, at all reasonable times, enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall, boat, vessel, wharf godown, or other place used for the sale, preparation, or storage of articles intended for food, or as a slaughter-house, and may examine any such articles which may be therein, and if upon examination, such articles, or any of them appear to be unfit for food, may seize the same.

Meat subjected to the process of blowing shall be deemed unfit for food.

366. Upon the seizure of any article of food under the last preceding section, the same may, if the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found consents, be forthwith destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent it being used as food; but if the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found do not consent, then, if it appear to the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Health Officer, or any Commissioner to whom the same may be brought that the same is unfit for food, he shall order the same to be destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent it being used as food. And the Commissioners may, if they think fit, prosecute the owner or the person in whose possession the same is found, such person not being merely a car or bailee thereof, and he shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

367. If the Commissioners shall apply to purchase any article of food exposed to sale, and shall tender the price for a quantity not more than shall be reasonably requisite for the purpose of analysis, and the person exposing the same for sale shall refuse to sell the same, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 50.

368. No shop or place shall be kept for the retail sale of drugs not being also articles of ordinary domestic consumption, unless the same shall have been registered in the office of the Commissioners. Any keeper of such shop or place failing to register the same within two months of the passing of this Act, or within two months from the date of the establishment of such place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100. The Commissioners shall, upon registration, grant the keeper of such shop or place a license, which he shall be bound to display in some conspicuous part of his premises.

No person shall compound, mix, prepare, dispense, or sell any drug in any such registered shop or place unless he be duly certified as a fit person to be entrusted with such duties under rules made for that purpose by the Local Government.

Any person not being a holder of such certificate, who shall compound, mix, prepare, or sell any drugs in any such registered shop or place, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each offence, and any owner, occupier or keeper of any such shop or place who shall employ any such uncertified person to perform any one or more of such duties shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and shall be further liable, at the discretion of such Magistrate, to forfeit his license.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to apply to the sale of drugs used by practitioners of indigenous medicines, when such drugs are not sold in a shop or place where medicines are dispensed upon prescription.

369. The Commissioners, may, at all reasonable times, enter into and inspect any place kept for the sale of drugs, or in which drugs are sold, and if they have reason to suspect that any drug in the said place is adulterated, or by reason of age, or the effect of climate, has become inert or unwholesome, or has otherwise become deteriorated in such a manner as to lessen its efficacy, to change its operation, or to render it noxious, may remove the same on giving a receipt specifying the nature and quantity of the drug removed and its approximate value; and if it appear to any Magistrate that the said drug removed as aforesaid is adulterated, or has become inert, unwholesome, or deteriorated as aforesaid, he may order the same to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to him may seem fit. If it shall appear to the Magistrate that the drug so removed is not adulterated or has not become inert, unwholesome, or deteriorated as aforesaid, the person from whose shop or place it has been taken shall be entitled to have it restored to him, and it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to award him such compensation, not exceeding the actual loss which has been sustained, as the Magistrate may think proper.

If the drug removed as aforesaid is not brought before a Magistrate, it shall be restored to the person from whose shop or place it was taken, and such person shall be entitled to compensation for any actual loss which he may have sustained by the removal of the said drug, and any dispute which may arise touching the amount of compensation to be given shall be settled in the manner hereinafter provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses.

PART VII.—Of Weights and Measures.

370. The Commissioners shall from time to time provide such local standards of measure and weight as they deem requisite for the purpose of verification of weights and measures in use in Calcutta, and shall make such arrangements as they shall think fit for the safe keeping of the said standards.

The Commissioners shall also provide from time to time proper means for verifying weights and measures by comparison with the said standards and for stamping the weights and measures so verified.

371. The Commissioners shall from time to time fix the times and places at which some municipal officer appointed by them in this behalf shall attend for the purpose of the verification of weights and measures.

The municipal officer so appointed shall attend with the local standards in his custody at each time and place fixed, and shall examine every measure or weight which is of the same denomination as one of such standards and is brought to him for the purpose of verification and compare the same with that standard, and if he find the same correct, shall stamp it with a stamp of verification in such manner as best to prevent fraud.

The said municipal officer shall enter in a book kept by him minutes of every such verification, and give, if required, a certificate under his hand of every such stamping.

372. There shall be payable to the Commissioners in respect of the verification and stamping of weights and measures by a municipal officer as aforesaid such fees as the Commissioners in meeting may from time to time fix in this behalf.

PART VIII.—Of Burial and Burning Grounds.

373. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, cause a survey and measurement to be made of every public burial and burning ground, and every place used as such; and every burial and burning ground and every place used as such shall be registered by the owner or the person having the control thereof, who, if it is not a public burial or burning ground, shall, if required by the Commissioners so to do, deposit

a plan thereof in the Municipal office within three months. If there be no owner or person authorised to control the same, the registration may be made by order of the Commissioners, in a book to be kept by them for that purpose.

374. Whoever uses any such place as is mentioned in the last preceding section without the same being registered or without a plan having been deposited, when required by the Commissioners, within the period prescribed in the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 50, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

375. Every person having the control of a burial or burning ground shall keep a register of all burials or cremations therein, in which shall be entered the particulars required to be entered in the certificate referred to in section one hundred and ninety, and the Commissioners shall at all times have access to such register.

376. Whoever buries or burns, or causes, procures, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse or on any ground not registered as a burial or burning ground, or without registering the burial or cremation under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

Penalty.

377. No burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be made or used, or, having fallen into disuse, shall be again used as such, otherwise than by, or under the authority of the Local Government without a license, describing the extent and boundaries thereof, previously obtained from the Commissioners in meeting, who may at their discretion, from time to time, grant such license.

378. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time, out of the General Fund, provide fitting places to be used as burial or burning grounds, and may fix a scale of fees in respect of burials and cremations within such burial or burning grounds.

379. No vault or grave shall be made within the walls of, or underneath, any church, chapel, or other place of public worship, without the permission of the Commissioners except by order of the Local Government.

380. Whoever buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse in any vault, grave, or burial or burning ground opened, made, or formed without such license, or contrary to the terms thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

381. If the Commissioners in meeting, with the sanction of the Local Government, shall certify, in manner hereinafter provided, that any burial ground or place of burial, or that any place used for the burning of corpses, is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof;

or that any church or other place of public worship is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the vaults or graves within the walls of, or underneath, the same, or in any churchyard or burial ground adjacent thereto;

and shall also certify that a fitting place for interment or burning (as the case may be) exists within a convenient distance and is available, no person shall, after a time (not less than two months) to be named in such certificate, bury or burn, or permit or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in, upon, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate.

Every such certificate shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and a translation thereof in Bengali shall, in the case of a burial or burning ground, be affixed conspicuously on some part of the said ground.

382. Whoever, after due publication of such certificate, buries or burns, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried or burned, any corpse contrary to the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

383. Notwithstanding any certificate under section three hundred and eighty-one where, by usage or otherwise, there is any right of interment in or under any church or chapel, or in any vault of such church or chapel, or of any churchyard, burial ground, or place of burial affected by such certificate, or where any exclusive right of interment, or any exclusive right to ground for the purpose of interment, has been purchased or acquired, the Commissioners may, if, on application made to them, they are satisfied that the exercise of such right or the use of such ground will not be injurious to health, grant a license for such exercise or use during such time and subject to such conditions and restrictions as they may think fit.

384. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, grant licenses to persons applying for such, for the sale at burning grounds, of fuel and other articles used for the cremation of dead bodies, and shall in meeting prescribe a scale of rates for the sale of such articles; and any person not so licensed who shall, within three hundred yards of any such burning ground, sell or offer for sale any such fuel or other articles, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

The Commissioners may, on good and sufficient cause, revoke or withdraw any such license they may think fit, and any person to whom any such license is granted, who shall charge for the sale of any such article any higher rate than the rate fixed for such article in such scale, shall, at the discretion of the Commissioners, be liable to have his license cancelled, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

The Commissioners shall not be bound to grant a fresh license to any person whose license may have been revoked, withdrawn, or cancelled under the provisions of this section.

PART IX.—Of Nuisances.

385. The following nuisances shall be deemed to be nuisances liable to be dealt with summarily in manner provided by this Chapter:—

Nuisances which may be dealt with summarily.

- (a) Any premises in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (b) Any tank, well, ditch, gutter, water-course, privy, urinal, cesspool, or drain so foul or in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (c) Any animal so kept as to be a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (d) Any accumulation or deposit which is a nuisance or injurious to health:
- (e) Any house or part of a house so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates:
- (f) Any factory, workshop or workplace not kept in a cleanly state, or not ventilated in such a manner as to render harmless, as far as practicable, any gases, vapours, dust or other impurities generated in the course of the work carried on therein that are a nuisance or injurious to health, or so overcrowded while work is carried on as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of those employed therein:
- (g) Any fireplace or furnace which does not, as far as practicable, consume the smoke arising from the combustible used therein, and which is used for working engines by steam, or in any mill, factory, dye-house, brewery, bake-house, or gas-work, or in any manufacturing or trade process whatsoever, and any chimney (not being the chimney of a private dwelling-house) sending forth black smoke in such quantity as to be a nuisance:

Provided—

1st.—That a penalty shall not be imposed on any person in respect of any accumulation or deposit necessary for the effectual carrying on of any business or manufacture, if it be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the accumulation or deposit has not been kept longer than is necessary for the purposes of the business or manufacture, and that the best available means have been taken for preventing injury thereby to the public health.

2nd.—That where a person is summoned before any Magistrate in respect of a nuisance arising from a fireplace or furnace which does not consume the smoke arising from the combustible used in such fireplace or furnace, the Magistrate shall hold that no nuisance is created within the meaning of this Act and dismiss the complaint, if he is satisfied that such fire-place or furnace was constructed before the passing of this Act, and in such manner as to consume as far as practicable, having regard to the nature of the manufacture or trade, all smoke arising therefrom, and that such fireplace or furnace has been carefully attended to by the person having the charge thereof.

386. Information of any nuisance, referred to in the last preceding section, existing in Calcutta, may be given to the Commissioners by any person aggrieved thereby or by any officer of the Commissioners.

387. On the receipt of any information respecting the existence of a nuisance, the Commissioners shall, if satisfied of the existence of a nuisance, serve a notice on the person by whose act, default, or sufferance the nuisance arises or continues, or if such person cannot be found, on the owner or occupier of the premises on which the nuisance arises, requiring him to abate the same within a time to be specified in the notice, and to execute such works and do such things as may be necessary for that purpose: Provided—

Commissioners to serve a notice in case of nuisance.

1st.—That where the nuisance arises from the want or defective construction of any structural convenience, or where there is no occupier of the premises, notice under this section shall be served on the owner:

2nd.—That where the person causing the nuisance cannot be found, and it is clear that the nuisance does not arise or continue by the act, default or sufferance of the owner or occupier of the premises, the Commissioners may themselves abate the same without further order.

388. If the person on whom a notice to abate a nuisance has been served makes default in complying with any of the requisitions thereof within the time specified, or if the nuisance, although abated since the service of the notice, is, in the opinion of the Commissioners, likely to recur on the same premises, the Commissioners may cause a complaint relating to such nuisance to be made before a Magistrate, and such Magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons requiring the person on whom the notice was served to appear before him.

389. If the Magistrate is satisfied that the alleged nuisance exists, or that, although abated, it is likely to recur on the same premises, the Magistrate shall make an order on such person requiring him to comply with all or any of the requisitions of the notice or otherwise to abate the nuisance within a time specified in the order, and to do any works necessary for that purpose; or an order prohibiting the recurrence of the nuisance and directing the execution of any works necessary to prevent the recurrence; or an order both requiring abatement and prohibiting the recurrence of the nuisance.

The Magistrate may, by his order, impose a penalty not exceeding Rs. 50 on the person on whom the order is made.

390. Where the nuisance proved to exist is such as to render a house or building, in the judgment of the Magistrate, unfit for human habitation, the Magistrate may prohibit the using thereof for that purpose, until, in his judgment, the house or building is rendered fit for that purpose; and, on the Magistrate being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for that purpose, the Magistrate may determine his previous order by another declaring the house or building habitable, and from the date thereof such house or building may be let or inhabited.

391. Any person not obeying an order to comply with the requisition of the Commissioners or otherwise to abate the nuisance shall, if he fails to satisfy the Magistrate that he has used all due diligence to carry out such order, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 5 per diem during his default; and any person knowingly and wilfully acting contrary to an order of prohibition shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 10 per diem during such contrary action; moreover, the Commissioners may enter the premises to which any order relates, and abate the nuisance, and do whatever may be necessary in execution of such order, and recover the expenses incurred by them from the person on whom the order is made.

392. The provisions of this Part relating to nuisances shall be deemed to be in addition to, and not to abridge or affect any right, remedy or proceeding under any other law for the time being in force:

Provided that no person shall be punished for the same offence both under the provisions of this Part and under any other law.

CHAPTER XIII.

OF THE GENERAL POWERS OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

PART I.—Of the Rights of Entry.

393. The Commissioners shall, for the purposes of this Act, have power, between sunrise and sunset, to enter upon any house or land for the purpose of making any inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or enquiry necessary for the discharge of any duty imposed upon them by this Act, or for the purpose of executing any work authorized by this Act, or by any bye-law as aforesaid, to be executed by them without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever on account of such entry, or of anything done on such house or land in pursuance of this Act:

Provided that, except as herein otherwise provided, the Commissioners shall not enter upon any house or land which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours' notice in writing of their intention so to do.

394. The Commissioners may enter upon the land of any person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of any works by this Act authorized to be executed for the purpose of depositing upon such land any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for obtaining access to any such works, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation of, or temporary damage to, the said land to the owner and occupier thereof from time to time, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken, or such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owner also for the permanent injury (if any) to such land;

and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount or apportionment of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner herein-after provided for the settlement of disputes respecting damages and expenses:

Provided that, before the Commissioners make any such temporary use as aforesaid of any land adjoining or lying near to the said works, they shall give three days' notice in writing of their intention to the owner and occupier of such land, and shall, if required so to do by the owner or occupier, set apart, by sufficient fences, so much of the land as shall be required to be used as aforesaid.

395. For the purpose of laying pipes or constructing aqueducts for bringing water into Calcutta from any place beyond the limits thereof, or for the purpose of making sewers or drains to communicate with, or empty themselves into, any public sewer, lake, stream, canal, or water-course, without the said limits, the Commissioners may, whenever a plan for laying down any such pipes or constructing any such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, shall have been approved by the Local Government, exercise, in the laying of such pipes and construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain throughout the line of country through which the said pipes, aqueduct, sewer, or drain are to run, all the powers which by this Act they may exercise within the limits of Calcutta, and which may be necessary for the laying of such pipes, or the construction of such aqueduct, sewer, or drain, without being subject to any action or molestation whatever for so doing:

and the Magistrate of any district through which the said pipes, aqueduct, sewer, or drain are to run may exercise in respect thereof the like powers and jurisdiction, within the limits of his own district, as a Magistrate may under this Act exercise in respect of any work to be executed by the Commissioners in Calcutta.

396. Whoever at any time obstructs or molests any person employed by the Commissioners (not being a public servant within the meaning of section twenty-one of the Indian Penal Code), or any person with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, in the performance and execution of their or his duty, or of anything which they are respectively empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of this Act; or removes any mark set up for the purpose of indicating any level or direction necessary to the execution of works authorized by this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, or, in the discretion of the Magistrate by whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, either rigorous or simple, for any term not exceeding two months.

PART II.—Of the acquisition and disposal of land.

397. The Commissioners in meeting may acquire any land, whether within or without Calcutta, for any of the purposes of this Act, and may dispose of land vested in them, and the Commissioners may receive the rent of any land leased by them on such terms as they may think fit.

398. The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, pay rent and take on lease for, or take on lease, on such terms as they may think fit, any land required for the purposes of this Act.

399. Any land required for the purposes of this Act may be acquired under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, or any similar Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes; and on payment by the Commissioners, out of the General Fund, of the compensation payable under that Act and of the charges reasonably incurred by the Collector in respect of the proceedings thereunder, such land shall vest in them for the purposes of this Act.

PART III.—Of Railways.

400. The Commissioners in meeting may, upon any of the public streets within Calcutta, or upon any land within or without Calcutta, which is vested in the Commissioners, construct or maintain any railway or tramway which may appear to them to be useful or necessary for the purposes of this Act, and use and employ upon any such railway or tramway by them heretofore constructed or hereafter to be constructed, such locomotive engines or other moving power, and such carriages and wagons to be drawn or propelled thereby, carry and convey upon such railway all such passengers and goods as shall be offered to them for that purpose, and make such reasonable charges in respect thereof as they may from time to time determine upon.

401. The Commissioners in meeting, from time to time, may enter into any contract with any person for the passage over any railway already constructed by the Commissioners, or hereafter to be constructed by them, of the engines, wagons, or other carriages of such person, upon the payment of such tolls or rent, and under such conditions and restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon.

402. The Commissioners in meeting may lease any railway constructed or to be constructed by them under the provisions hereinbefore contained to any person upon such terms and under such conditions and restrictions as may be mutually agreed upon; and every person to whom any such railway shall be so leased by the Commissioners shall, subject to such conditions and restrictions as aforesaid, have all such and the same powers of maintaining the same, and for using and employing thereupon locomotive engines and other moving power, and carriages and wagons to be drawn or propelled thereby, and for carrying and conveying thereupon passengers and goods, and making charges in respect thereof, as the Commissioners would have had if such railway had not been leased.

The Commissioners in meeting may, from time to time, enter into any contract with any person for the purpose of the construction of any railway within or without Calcutta and for the purpose of maintaining and working of the same.

403. All the powers conferred under this Part shall be exercised with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

CHAPTER XIV.

OF THE MUNICIPAL DEBT.

404. For the construction of works of a permanent nature under this Act, the Commissioners in special meeting may, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time borrow by way of debenture, on the security of the rates, taxes, and dues imposed and levied on account of the Municipal Fund, or of a portion of them, and at such rate of interest and upon such terms as to the time of repayment and otherwise as the Governor-General in Council may approve, any sums of money the Commissioners may require for the objects aforesaid.

405. All the debentures aforesaid issued under the authority of this Act shall be in the form contained in the twelfth Schedule, or in such other form as the Commissioners in meeting, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may determine, and shall be transferable by endorsement, and the right to sue in respect of the moneys secured by any of such debentures shall be vested in the holders thereof for the time being without any preference by reason of some of such debentures being prior in date to others.

406. The Commissioners in meeting may at any time, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, raise, by the issue of new debentures, any money that may be required to pay any moneys for the time being due on any debentures issued under the authority of this Act, or of any enactment hereby expressly repealed.

407. The Commissioners shall set aside quarterly out of their income, before making any disbursements in respect thereof, such sum as may be required for the payment of the interest and instalments payable to the reserve funds which may fall due within the quarter on any debentures issued under the authority of this Act, or of any enactment hereby expressly repealed.

The instalments payable to the reserve funds shall be at the rate of one per cent. per annum on the aggregate unpaid sum borrowed by the Commissioners after the first day of April 1881, and at the rate of two per cent. per annum on the unpaid balance of all debenture loans contracted before that date.

408. The Commissioners shall apply the reserve set aside under the last preceding section so far as it is required or so far as it extends to repay such debenture loans issued by them as shall fall due in the course of the year and shall invest the surplus (if any) of the said sum, after repayment as aforesaid, or in case there has not been any amount due or paid in respect of such loans or debentures during the year, then they shall invest the whole of the said sum in Government securities, or in any securities guaranteed by Government, or in Calcutta municipal debentures, in the names of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Financial Department and the Accountant-General of Bengal respectively for the time being, to be by them held as Trustees for the purpose of repaying at due date from time to time the several loans contracted or debentures issued by the Commissioners. And all moneys and securities now held by any Trustees for the Commissioners, for the purpose of paying off any sums borrowed by them, not being sums borrowed from the Secretary of State for India in Council, shall be held by them upon the trusts hereinbefore declared.

Provided always that the accounts of the fund formed by the payments made at the rate of two per cent. per annum and the fund formed by the payments made at the rate of one per cent. per annum shall be kept separate and distinct, and each reserve fund shall only be applied to paying off the debentures on account of which the instalments are payable.

409. The Trustees shall from time to time, whenever any loans or debentures shall fall due by the Commissioners, realize the whole or a sufficient portion of the securities held by them as aforesaid on account of the reserve fund applicable to liquidate such loans or debentures and apply the sale proceeds thereof, so far as the same will extend, to satisfy such loans or debentures. The Trustees shall, at the end of every year, submit a statement to the Commissioners showing the amount which has been invested during the year under section four hundred and eight, and setting forth the date of the last investment made previous thereto, and also the aggregate amount of the securities then in their hands, and the aggregate amount which has up to the date thereof been paid off in respect of the said debentures and loans.

Such statement shall be laid before the Commissioners in meeting and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

410. The total sum borrowed by the Commissioners by way of debenture loans under this or any preceding Act shall not exceed such an amount that the sum payable thereon annually by way of interest and as instalments due to the reserve funds shall be more than ten per cent. on the annual valuation of Calcutta.

411. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent the Commissioners in meeting from inviting tenders at any time for a new loan to be called the "Municipal Consolidated Loan" on such terms as may be approved by the Governor-General in Council, and also inviting holders of municipal debentures to exchange their debentures for such Municipal Consolidated Loan stock at such rates as the Commissioners may consider fair and the Governor-General in Council may approve. The scrip of such stock shall be in such form as the Commissioners in meeting, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may prescribe. The Commissioners shall repay such Consolidated Loan by annual payments at a rate of not less than one-sixtieth of the unpaid balance in each year in lieu of contributing to a reserve fund under section four hundred and seven, and the stock to be paid off shall be purchased in the open market; and the provisions of section four hundred and seven shall apply to the sums necessary to make such annual payment:

Provided that, if during any year no stock is obtainable in the open market at, or below, its par value, it shall not be obligatory on the Commissioners to make repayment until such stock is obtainable in the open market at, or below, its par value.

CHAPTER XV.

OF BYE-LAWS.

12. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time make bye-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, with regard to—

- (a) all matters and things connected with the supply and use of water;
- (b) the time and place of bathing for persons of each sex in places provided or set apart for bathing purposes;
- (c) the deposit, whether in the public streets or otherwise, of rubbish and offensive matter, the removing and carrying away of the same, and charging the person responsible for such deposit with the expenses of removing it;
- (d) the conditions under which persons shall be permitted to drive registered carts;
- (e) the height and mode of construction of buildings;
- (f) ventilation and the extent to which space must be left for the free circulation of air as required by the provisions of section two hundred and forty-three;
- (g) drainage, cess-pools, privies, cowhouses and stables;
- (h) the management, inspection and scale of fees to be charged for the use of places provided under the provisions of sections three hundred and forty-one and three hundred and forty-five;
- (i) the inspection and management, and conduct of, business in markets and the keeping the same in a proper, orderly, and cleanly state;
- (j) the inspection of places used for any of the purposes mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six and the management and conduct of business in the same;

(k) theatres and other places of public resort, recreation, and amusement;

(l) lodging-houses, public laundries, dairies and licensed cowhouses and stables;

(m) securing the cleanliness of milk-stores, milk-shops and milk-vessels used for keeping or conveying milk;

(n) the inspection and management of burial and burning grounds;

and generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

And to repeal or alter them.

413. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time repeal, alter, or add to any bye-laws made under the last preceding section.

414. No bye-law, and no repeal or alteration

Bye-laws and alterations of them to be confirmed by Local Government.

of, or addition to, any bye-law, shall have effect until the same has been confirmed by the Local Government.

415. No bye-law, and no repeal, or alteration

Bye-laws and alterations of them to be published, before confirmation.

of, or addition to, any bye-law shall be confirmed until the same has been published in the English and Bengali Government Gazettes at least three times, nor till one month has elapsed from the date of the first publication, during which period a copy of such proposed bye-law, or the repeal or alteration of, or addition to, any bye-law shall be kept at the office of the Commissioners, and all persons may at any time between ten o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon inspect such copy without fee.

416. Every bye-law, and every repeal or and confirmed or any rule made and sanctioned under this Act shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

CHAPTER XVI.

OF PROSECUTIONS.

418. Every prosecution under this Act may be instituted by the Commissioners before any Magistrate having jurisdiction, who may summon the persons charged to appear at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons; and if such person do not appear, the Magistrate may upon proof of service of the summons if no sufficient cause shall be shown for the non-appearance of the person charged, proceed to hear and determine the case in his absence. If such person do appear, then the procedure laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1882 from section two hundred and forty-two to section two hundred and forty-eight shall be followed.

All fines imposed by a Magistrate under this Act shall be levied under the provisions of sections three hundred and eighty-six, three hundred and eighty-seven, three hundred and eighty-eight, and three hundred and eighty-nine of the said Code.

419. No person shall be liable to any fine

Complaint to be made within three months of the offence.

under this Act for any offence cognizable by a

Magistrate unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made within three months next after the commission of such offence:

Provided that the failure to take out any license under this Act shall be deemed to be a continuing offence until the expiration of the period for which such license is required to be taken out.

420. If, through any act, neglect, or default on account whereof any person shall have been fined under this Act, any damage to the property of the Commissioners shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such fine;

and the amount of such damage shall be determined by the Magistrate by whom such person has been fined;

and on default of payment of the amount of such damage on demand, the same may be levied in the same manner as a fine.

421. In any case in which a Magistrate is satisfied that the Commissioners had no reasonable ground for instituting a prosecution, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to direct the Commissioners to pay to the accused such compensation, not exceeding Rs. 50, as he thinks fit, and the sum so awarded shall be recoverable as if it were a fine.

422. The Local Government may, at the request of the Commissioners in meeting, appoint one or more Magistrates for the trial of offences against the provisions of this Act, and may by rule prescribe the times and places at which such Magistrate or Magistrates shall sit for the despatch of business. Such Magistrates shall be paid such salary out of the General Fund as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe.

CHAPTER XVII.

OF THE RECOVERY OF DAMAGES AND EXPENSES.

423. Where any damages, costs, or expenses

Damages and expenses how to be determined.

are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount, and, if necessary, the apportionment of the same in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined by a Court of Small Causes.

424. In any case which is to be determined

Method of proceeding before a Judge of a Court of Small Causes.

by a Court of Small Causes under this Act, the said Court may, on the application of either party, summon the other party to appear at a time and place to be named in such summons.

Upon the appearance of the parties, or, in the absence of any of them, upon proof of due service of the summons, the said Court may hear and determine such question, and for that purpose may examine such parties, or any of them, and their witnesses on oath; and the costs of every such enquiry shall be in the discretion of the said Court, which shall determine the amount thereof.

425. If the amount of damages, costs, or expenses ascertained in the manner above described be not paid by the party liable to pay the same within seven days after demand, such amount may be recovered, under a warrant of the said Court, by distress and sale of the moveable property of such party; and the surplus arising from the sale thereof, after satisfying such amount and the costs of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose property shall have been distrained.

426. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, and in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any expenses, charges, or damages awarded under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER XVIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

427. No suit shall be brought against the Commissioners, or any of their officers, or any person acting under their direction, for anything done, or purporting to be done, under this Act until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing has been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners, or at the place of abode of such person, stating the cause of suit and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff.

Unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant.

Every such suit shall be commenced within three months next after accrual of the right to sue, and not afterwards.

If any person to whom any such notice of suit is given shall, before the suit is brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

428. The Commissioners may make compensation to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the Commissioners, their officers or servants under this Act.

429. When any license is granted under section three hundred and eleven or three hundred and forty-one authorizing the use of any place for any of the purposes therein described, and when permission is given under section two hundred and twenty-three for putting up any projection, the Commissioners may charge a fee not exceeding Rs. 500 for such license or permission.

When permission is given under section two hundred and twelve to make any temporary erection, the Commissioners may charge a daily fee not exceeding Rs. 100 for such permission.

430. When permission is given under section two hundred and twenty-nine or two hundred and forty-five, the Commissioners may charge rent for any land made use of in pursuance of such permission.

431. Every person to whom a license has been granted under this Act shall, at all reasonable times while such license shall remain in force, if required to do so by the Commissioners, or by any person authorized by them in that behalf, produce such license.

432. Whoever fails to produce his license when required so to do as aforesaid shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 10, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

433. The Commissioners may from time to time prepare or sanction forms of the various notices required by this Act, and may, from time to time, make such alterations therein as they deem requisite, and they shall cause every such form to be sealed with the seal of the Corporation, and any notice made on a form sanctioned by the Commissioners shall in all proceedings be held sufficient in law.

434. Every notice, bill, form, summons, or notice of demand under this Act may be served personally on, or presented to, the person to whom the same is addressed or be left at his usual place of abode with some adult male member or servant of his family, or at his place of business with some clerk of the office, or if it cannot be so served or presented, may be put on some conspicuous part of his place of abode, or of his place of business, or of the house or land in respect of which the notice, bill, form, summons, or notice of demand is intended to be served.

435. Where any notice is required to be given to the owner or occupier of any house or land, such notice, addressed to the owner or occupier, as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such house or land, or otherwise in the manner in the last preceding section mentioned:

Provided that, when the owner and his place of abode are registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight, they shall, if such place of abode be in Calcutta, cause every notice required to be given to the owner of any house or land to be served on such owner or left with some adult male member or servant of his family, and if the place of abode of the owner be not in Calcutta, they shall send every such notice by post in a registered cover addressed to his place of abode, and the same shall be deemed to be good service of the notice.

When the name of the owner or occupier is not registered, it shall be sufficient to designate him as "the owner" or "the occupier" of the house or land in respect of which the notice is served.

When there are several owners or occupiers of any premises, the Commissioners may, at any time, call upon such owners or occupiers to appoint, within thirty days, one of their number to receive notices on behalf of the rest; otherwise the Commissioners shall serve a separate notice on each owner or occupier who has registered, or who has applied to register, his name under section one hundred and twenty-eight.

436. Whenever it is provided by this Act

Notice to state a time within which it is to be complied with.

that the Commissioners may require the owner or occupier of any house or land to execute any work or take order with any property under his control, such requisition shall, unless otherwise provided by this Act, be made by a notice to be served in the manner provided by the last preceding section. Such notice shall specify a period within which the requisition is to be complied with, and if no period is provided by this Act, the period specified shall be a reasonable period having regard to the circumstances under which it is issued.

Every such notice shall state that, if the person to whom it is addressed fails to comply therewith or to satisfy the Commissioners within the specified period that it should be withdrawn or modified, the Commissioners will enter upon the premises and execute the work or take the necessary order with the property, and that the expense thereby incurred will be recovered from the person to whom it is addressed.

437. Any person upon whom such notice

If any objection is preferred further time to be granted.

as is referred to in the last preceding section is served may prefer an objection in writing addressed to the Commissioners stating the grounds upon which such notice should be withdrawn or modified, and if preferred in time to admit of orders being passed upon the objection before the period specified in the notice expires, the execution of the work may be postponed until the Commissioners have passed orders upon the objection. If the objection is disallowed, a second notice shall be served upon the person who preferred the objection specifying a reasonable period within which the requisition is to be complied with.

438. Instead of preferring an objection, or

Estimate of cost of work to be given on application.

at the time of preferring an objection any person upon whom such notice as is referred to in section four hundred and thirty-six is served may apply to the Commissioners for an estimate of the cost of the work if executed by the Commissioners, and upon such application the Commissioners shall supply such estimate.

439. If the Commissioners fail to supply

Failure to supply an estimate—limits cost of work to Rs. 5.

an estimate as required by the provisions of the last preceding section, not more than Rs. 5 shall be charged by the Commissioners for any work executed by them on default by the person served with a notice to execute such work.

If the estimate exceeds Rs. 800, the work shall not be undertaken by the Commissioners on default until the expiry of ten days from the date on which the estimate was supplied, and within seven days from such date the person to whom such estimate was supplied may apply in writing to have his objections to execute the work, or to the estimated cost of such work, determined by a Committee of the Commissioners, or by the Commissioners in meeting. If such application is made within the time specified, the Commissioners shall not undertake the work until the decision of the Committee of the Commissioners or the Commissioners shall have been given.

440. Subject to the above provisions, when-

Commissioners, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.

ever any work is required by this Act or by any orders of the Commissioners lawfully issued to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or land, and default is made in the execution of such work, the Commissioners, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed;

and the expenses thereby incurred or incurred in any case in which the Commissioners are empowered to execute any work on behalf of an owner or occupier, shall be paid by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, or on whose behalf it is done, and in default of payment thereof the same may be recovered as a rate under Chapter VI.

441. If the defaulter, as mentioned in the Power to levy charges on occupier, who may deduct the same from his rent.

last preceding section, be the owner of any house or land, the Commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any suit or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then, or at any time thereafter, occupies the house or land under such owner, and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand, the same may be recovered as a rate under Chapter VI;

and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to the owner so much as is so paid by, or recovered from him, in respect of any such expenses.

442. No occupier of any house or land shall Occupier not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof than the amount of rent due from him for the house or land in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which, at any time after such demand, has accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon a requisition made to him for that purpose by the Commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable;

but nothing in this section shall affect any special contract made between any such owner or occupier respecting the payment of the expenses of any such works as aforesaid.

443. Whenever any expenses incurred by the Commissioners are to be paid by the owners of any land as provided in section four hundred and forty, the Commissioners may, if there be more than one owner, apportion the said expenses among such of the owners as are registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight in such manner as to the Commissioners may seem fit. And whenever any such expenses are to be paid by the occupiers of any land as provided in section four hundred and forty, the Commissioners may, if there be more than one occupier, apportion the said expenses among such of the occupiers as are known in such manner as to the Commissioners may seem fit.

444. Whenever any works or any alterations or improvements, of which the Commissioners are authorized to require the execution, are executed by the occupier on the requisition of the Commissioners or are executed by the Commissioners and the cost thereof is recovered from the occupier, the cost thereof may, if the Commissioners certify that such cost ought to be borne by the owner, be deducted by such occupier from the rent payable to such owner or may be recovered by such occupier from the owner in any court of competent jurisdiction.

445. Any owner or occupier of land may contest his liability to pay any expenses with which he may be charged under section four hundred and forty, or may contest the correctness of the amount which he has been called upon to pay in any court of competent jurisdiction:

Provided that the institution of a suit shall in no way interfere with the right of the Commissioners to recover the amount demanded by them in the manner provided by section four hundred and forty.

446. Whenever default is made by the owner of any house or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such house or land may, with the approval of the Commissioners, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

447. If the occupier of any house or land prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of any house or land, any of the provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any Magistrate may, in writing, require such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such house or land as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect, and if, after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, every such owner, during the continuance of the refusal, shall be discharged from liability to any fines to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of default in executing such works.

448. Whoever, being the occupier of any house or land, fails to comply with any requisition made by a Magistrate under the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50, and to a further fine, not exceeding Rs. 20, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been convicted of such offence.

449. Whenever by this Act any right is conferred or duty imposed on the owner or occupier of any premises, and doubt arises owing to there being gradations of owners or occupiers as to who is the owner or occupier entitled to exercise such right or bound to perform such duty, the Commissioners may, after due enquiry, determine from time to time which of such persons is thus entitled or bound.

Provided that if one of the persons regarding whom doubt exists is registered under section one hundred and twenty-eight as owner or occupier, such person shall be entitled to exercise such rights or bound to perform such duty till his name has been duly removed from the register.

450. No tax or rate on property made under this Act shall be invalid for defect of form, and it shall be enough in any such tax or rate, or any assessment of value for the purpose of making such tax or rate, if the property rated or assessed is so described as to be generally known, and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof.

451. Whenever the Commissioners shall have incurred any expenses in the execution of any of the works which under sections two hundred and fifteen, two hundred and fifty-nine, two hundred and seventy-seven and two hundred and eighty-two, the owners of any houses or lands are required to execute, the Commissioners may either recover the amount of such expenses in the manner hereinbefore provided, or, if they think fit, may take engagements from the said owners for the quarterly payment of such sums as will be sufficient to defray the whole amount of the said expenses, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum, within a period not exceeding five years, and such sums, when due, may be recovered as rates under Chapter VI.

452. All police officers shall give immediate information to the Commissioners of any offence committed against this Act.

Any police officer may arrest any person committing in his view any offence against this Act if the name and the address of such person be unknown to him, or if such person decline to give his name and address, or if the police officer shall have reason to doubt the accuracy of such name and address if given.

And such person may be detained at the station-house until his name and address shall be correctly ascertained, or may be brought up at once before a Magistrate.

453. Any mehter or other servant of the Commissioners employed to remove or otherwise deal with sewage, offensive matter or rubbish, who shall, without the permission of the Commissioners, withdraw from his duties unless he has given notice in writing, not less than one month previously, of his intention so to withdraw shall be punished with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, and shall forfeit any salary which may be due to him.

454. If the Local Government shall have determined that any portion of the environs of Calcutta shall be included in the water-supply authorized by this Act, and if the Local Government shall have declared the boundaries thereof by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, then in respect of such extension of such water-supply, the provisions of Chapter VII of this Act shall take effect one month after the publication of such notification; and all such expenses and compensation as, under such chapter and by the provisions of this Act, may be determined by a Court of Small Causes, may be ascertained and determined by any Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction within such boundaries; and all fines payable in respect of such sections, and under this Act, shall be enforced in the manner prescribed by sections three hundred and eighty-six, three hundred and eighty-seven, and three hundred and eighty-nine of the Code of Criminal Procedure by the Magistrate having jurisdiction within such boundaries.

455. Houses used exclusively for purposes of public worship and public burial and burning grounds duly registered shall be exempt from all rates and taxes which under this Act may be imposed upon houses and land within Calcutta, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to exempt the owner of any hut from payment of all or any rate in respect of such hut.

Saving clause.

456. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to—

(a) render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person, which, but for this Act, would, by law, be deemed to be a nuisance:

(b) exempt any person guilty of nuisance from a suit in respect thereof:

(c) affect any enactment not hereby expressly repealed.

457. The Local Government may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, and in such other manner as the Local Government may determine, declare its intention—

(a) to exclude from Calcutta any local area not being within the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court at Fort William in Bengal;

(b) at the request of the Commissioners in meeting to include within Calcutta any local area in the vicinity of the same and defined in the notification.

Provided that, where the local area is a military cantonment or part of a military cantonment, a notification shall not be published under this section in respect of it without the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council.

458. Any inhabitant of Calcutta or of a local area in respect of which a notification has been published in the Calcutta Gazette under the last preceding section may, if he objects to the alteration proposed, submit his objection in writing to the Local Government within six weeks from the publication of the notification in the Calcutta Gazette, and the Local Government shall take his objection into consideration.

When six weeks from the publication of the notification in the Calcutta Gazette have expired, and the Local Government has considered the objections (if any) which have been submitted under this section, the Local Government may, by a notification in the Calcutta Gazette, exclude the local area from Calcutta or include it therein, as the case may be.

459. When a local area is excluded from Calcutta under the last preceding section—

(a) this Act, and all rules, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred under this Act, shall cease to apply thereto; and

(b) the Local Government shall, after consulting the Commissioners, frame a scheme determining what portion of the balance of the General Fund and other property vested in the Commissioners shall vest in Her Majesty for the benefit of the local area, and in what manner the liability of the Commissioners shall be apportioned between the Commissioners and the Secretary of State for India in Council, and on the publication of the scheme in the Calcutta Gazette, the property and liabilities shall vest and be apportioned accordingly.

All property vested in Her Majesty under this section shall be applied, under the orders of the Local Government, to discharging the liabilities imposed on the Secretary of State for India in Council under this section, or for the promotion of the safety, health or convenience of the inhabitants of the local area.

460. When a local area is included in Calcutta under section four hundred and fifty-eight, this Act, and, except as the Local Government may otherwise, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, direct, all rules, orders, directions and powers made, issued or conferred under this Act, and in force throughout Calcutta at the time the local area is so included, shall apply to the local area.

461. The provisions of schedule XIII shall apply to the budget for the year 1889-90, and to the rates and taxes which shall be levied during that year; and the provisions of Bengal Act IV of 1876, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of the said schedule, shall be repealed so far as they relate to preparing and passing such budget, and to fixing the rates and taxes to be levied during the year 1889-90.

(1). Licenses shall be either personal or local, and shall be granted under seven classes.

A local license is a license the classification of which depends on the valuation of the place of business, and also a license granted under class IV, clauses (d) and (e), class V, clause (c), and class VI, clause (a).

The seven classes are as follows:—

Class I.—Rs. 200.

Every Joint-Stock Company the paid-up capital of which amounts to ten lakhs of rupees or upwards.

Class II.—Rs. 100.

- (a) Every other Joint-Stock Company.
- (b) Every merchant, banker, wholesale trader, commission agent, architect, civil engineer, builder, contractor, carrying company, owner or lessee of a cotton, jute, hide or other screw, market, bazar, theatre, place of public entertainment kept up for the purpose of profit, auctioneer, hotel-keeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house keeper, manufacturer, retail trader or shop-keeper whose place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 350 per mensem or upwards.

Class III.—Rs. 50.

- (a) Every practising surgeon, physician, dentist, barrister, attorney, vakeel of the High Court, proctor, notary public, shroff, banian.
- (b) Every merchant, banker, wholesale trader, commission agent, architect, civil engineer, builder, contractor, carrying company, owner or lessee of a cotton, jute, hide or other screw, or of a market, bazar, theatre, not liable under Class II.
- (c) Every auctioneer, hotel-keeper, boarding-house-keeper, lodging-house keeper, shop-keeper, plumber, gas-fitter, manufacturer, or retail trader not liable under class II, whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 100 a month or upwards.

Class IV.—Rs. 25.

- (a) Every broker or dalal employed in the wholesale transfer or purchase of imports or exports, country produce, silk, or other merchandise, every person not coming under class III who purchases goods in Calcutta for transport and sale beyond the limits of Calcutta.
- (b) Every broker or dealer in precious stones, houses, landed property, Government securities, shares, and bills-of-exchange, and every freight broker.
- (c) Every practising licentiate of medicine, apothecary, and veterinary surgeon.
- (d) Every owner of a spirit or liquor shop or shop for the sale of intoxicating drugs, and punch-house, music hall or billiard-room, wholesale tobacco, jute or other depôt.
- (e) Every owner of a steam ferry-boat or cargo-boat.
- (f) Every pawn-broker or money-lender.
- (g) Every pleader, mookhtear, or law agent not liable under class III.
- (h) Every hotel-keeper, boarding-house keeper, lodging-house keeper, plumber, gas-fitter, carriage and horse-dealer, shop-keeper, manufacturer or trader, whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 25 or upwards.

Class V.—Rs. 12.

- (a) Every broker or dallal not liable under class IV.
- (b) Every professional actor, singer or musician.
- (c) Every keeper of a permanent stall at a daily public market or bazar, or of a shop within fifty yards of a public market or bazar, selling goods of the same kind as any of the goods sold in such public market or bazar.
- (d) Every poddar or money-changer.
- (e) Every hakeem, koberaj, practising native doctor or midwife.
- (f) Every order-supplier, cooly-supplier, shipping agent, or boat-supplier.

- (g) Every hotel-keeper, boarding and lodging-house keeper, owner of a carriage, passenger boat or palanquin let out for hire, plumber, gas-fitter, band-supplier, carrier, stamp vendor, carriage or horse-dealer, shop-keeper, manufacturer or trader whose shop or place of business is valued under Chapter V at Rs. 10 or upwards.

Class VI.—Rs. 4.

- (a) Every keeper of a shop or place of business not included in any other class.
 (b) Every petty dalall not included in class IV.
 (c) Every pedlar, vendor of goods in carts, hawker, boxwallah, and every professional nurse not included in class V.

Class VII.—Re. 1.

All itinerant dealers hawking goods for sale in baskets or trays.

(2). No person shall be required to take out more than one personal license, provided that if he is liable under different classes he shall take out a license under the highest class under which he is liable.

(3). When two or more persons carry on business jointly, they may take out a single license as a firm; but if any of the partners exercises any separate profession, trade or calling on his own account, or with other partner he must take out a separate license.

(4). A separate local license shall be requisite for each separate place of business. Provided that no separate license shall be necessary for adjacent premises forming one place of business, or for yards, godowns or factories auxiliary to a place of business, but in such cases the valuation of all the premises, yards or godowns shall be computed in determining the class under which the license must be taken out.

(5). When any person practises a profession, trade or calling for which a personal license should be taken out, and is also the owner or lessee of a place of business for which a local license should be taken out, he shall take out separate licenses, but one license will suffice if the place of business is auxiliary to his profession, trade or calling.

(6). When the owner or lessee of any place is liable to take out a license, the license should be taken out by the lessee, if there is any lessee; if not, by the owner.

(7). The liability of any person to take out a license, and the class under which he is liable, shall be determined in the following manner:—

(a)—Any person who has taken out a license for the preceding year or been fined under section ninety for not taking out a license during such year, shall be presumed to be liable and entitled to take out a license under the class in which he was then placed in the year for which the tax is being levied.

(b)—Any person who, in consequence of any change in his profession, trade, or calling, or place of business, or for any other reason, considers himself entitled to take out a license in a lower class than before, or to be altogether exempted, may present an application to that effect to the Commissioners at any time before the first day of July. If no application is made by that date he will be liable to take out a license as prescribed in clause (a).

The Commissioners shall pass orders on such application, and the license shall be taken out in accordance with such orders, unless appealed against under clause (e).

(c)—If the Commissioners consider that any person who has not taken out a license in the preceding year ought to take out a license, or that any person who has taken out a license for the preceding year but has not taken out a license for the current year ought to take out a license in a higher class or more than one license, they may serve him with a notice directing him to take out a license for the current year in such class as may seem to them proper.

(d)—If the Commissioners consider that any person who has taken out a license for the current year ought to have taken out a license in a higher class, they may serve him with a notice directing him to take out a license in such higher class the following year, and such person shall thereupon, unless such order is modified, be bound to take out a license in such higher class, clause (a) notwithstanding.

If a person is summoned for not taking out a license, and service of notice under clauses (c) and (d) is not proved, it shall be incumbent on the Commissioners to prove that the person summoned is liable to take out a license as well as the class under which he is liable.

(e)—Any person dissatisfied with the orders of the Commissioners under clause (b) or on whom a notice is served under clause (c) or clause (d) may appeal against the orders contained in it—

- (1)—To a Bench consisting of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and not less than three Commissioners, or
 (2)—To a Court of Small Causes having jurisdiction in the place in which the profession, trade, or calling is said to be carried on.

(8). In case of an appeal to a Court of Small Causes under this Schedule, the said Court may follow the procedure laid down in sections four hundred and twenty-four and four hundred and twenty-five.

(f)—Such person shall, within fifteen days of the passing of the order, or of the receipt of the notice, deliver at the office of the Commissioners an application in writing, stating the grounds of appeal, and also informing the Commissioners whether he intends to appeal under clause (1) or clause (2).

No appeal shall lie unless the amount of the license as assessed has been deposited with the Commissioners.

The Commissioners may, if they think fit, extend the period of an appeal under clause (1).

(g)—The order of the Bench or Court, or, if no appeal is made, the order contained in the notice, shall be final.

(9). The Commissioners may at any time grant a license for any previous year for which no license has been taken out on payment of the amount of such license, but the production of such license shall not afford a valid defence if the licensee is prosecuted for failing to take out a license within the time required by this Act.

Leading Lights and Buoys—Madras Harbour.

THE Presidency Port Officer, Madras, has notified (Notice to Mariners dated 18th September 1888) that it is intended to exhibit, on and after the 15th of October 1888, from the Iron Pier, Madras Harbour, at a height of 30 feet above high-water level, a Red fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112°, viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 38° E., 7 cables.

Also from the roof of the Port Office at a height of 60 feet above high-water level, a Green fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112°, viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 21° E. 6.45 cables.

These lights are intended as a guide to ships leaving the Harbour, and to ships making the OUTER anchorage at night; when brought in line, they lead through the centre of the entrance of the Harbour, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 5 miles.

Buoys.

The two Buoys at the entrance of the Harbour have been removed from the outside of the entrance and replaced inside: the Northern one painted Black, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms water, 100 feet East of the remains of the end of the North Pier; the Southern one painted Red, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms water 100 feet East of the end of the remains of the South Pier.

The above-mentioned buoys are illuminated when vessels leave the Harbour at night.

Two buoys, painted Red, have been moored North of the Harbour for the use of vessels discharging cargo of a description which is not permitted to be discharged inside.

The positions of these buoys are as follows:—

SOUTHERN one in 5 fathoms, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cables North of the North Pier.

Madras Lighthouse bearing S. W. by S.

Sailors' Home Flagstaff W. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.

NORTHERN one in 5 fathoms, 6 cables North of the North Pier.

Madras Lighthouse bearing S. W. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.

Sailors' Home Flagstaff S. W. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W.

BOARD OF REVENUE (SEPARATE REVENUE), MADRAS, the 24th September 1888.

NOTICE BY THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BENGAL.

SUPPLY BILLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that supply bills for sums of Rs. 500 and above in even rupees are usually obtainable on the treasuries named below at the rates of premium shewn.

Any person desiring to obtain a supply bill should send to the Bank of Bengal, Calcutta, a written application containing the following information—(1) his own name and address; (2) the name of the person to whom payment is to be made; (3) the treasury on which the bill is to be granted; and (4) the amount for which the bill is to be granted. With this application the cost of the bill (the amount plus the premium) should be paid into the Bank. If payment by telegram is desired (but this is admissible only in cases in which the name of the payee has been previously registered in the Accountant-General's office), the fact should be stated in the application, and an additional rupee paid with the cost.

The Bank of Bengal will, if the amount is available at the treasury named, receive the money tendered, and grant a receipt, returning the application therewith. The receipt and the application should then be sent to the Accountant-General's office, by which the bill will be granted.

The Bank of Bengal will be advised by the Accountant-General on the 1st and 16th of each month of the amounts available at the several treasuries, and will receive the amounts tendered by the first comers till those amounts are exhausted.

If the Bank refuses to receive any sum tendered owing to the amount not being available at the treasury, the application will be retained by the Bank and forwarded by it to the Accountant-General, who will advise the Bank and the applicant if the amount can be made available.

Orders and Notifications by the Government of India, &c.

[Reprinted from the "Gazette of India."]

The following orders, issued by the Government of India, in the Home Department are republished for general information.

J. WARR EDGAR,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION—EXAMINATIONS.

The 10th October 1888.

No. 69.—The following regulations respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Civil Service of India to be held in June 1889 are published for general information:—

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

REGULATIONS FOR THE OPEN COMPETITION OF JUNE 1889.

N.B.—The Regulations are liable to be altered in future years.

1. On the 1st June 1889, and following days, an Examination, open to all qualified persons, will be held in London (a). Not fewer than persons will be selected, if as many shall be found duly qualified; viz., for the Lower Provinces of Bengal (including Assam); for the Upper Provinces of Bengal (including the Punjab and Oudh); for Burmah; for Madras; and for Bombay (b).

2. No person will be deemed qualified who shall not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

- (i) That he is a natural born subject of Her Majesty.
- (ii) That his age will be above seventeen years and under nineteen years on the 1st January 1889. [N.B.—In the case of Natives of India this must be certified by the Government of India or of the Presidency or Province in which the Candidate may have resided.]
- (iii) That he has no disease, constitutional affection,* or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Civil Service of India.
- (iv) That he is of good moral character.

3. Should the evidence upon the above points be prima facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, the Candidate, on payment of the prescribed fee (c), will be admitted to the Examination. The Commissioners may however in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the Certificate of Qualification hereinafter referred to, institute such further inquiries as they may deem necessary; and if the result of such inquiries in the case of any Candidate should be unsatisfactory to them in any of the above respects, he will be ineligible for admission to the Civil Service of India, and if already selected will be removed from the position of a Probationer.

(a) An order for admission to the Examination will be sent to each Candidate on the 18th of May.

(b) The numbers will be announced hereafter.

(c) The fee (£5) will be payable by means of a special stamp according to instructions which will be communicated to Candidates.

4. The examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge :—

	Marks.
English composition	300
(d) History of England—including a period selected by the Candidate...	300
(d) English Literature—including books selected by the Candidate ...	300
Greek	600
Latin	800
French	500
German	500
Italian	400
(e) Mathematics (pure and mixed)	1,000
Natural Science; that is, the Elements of any two of the following Sciences, viz.—
Chemistry, 500; Electricity and Magnetism, 300; Experimental Laws of Heat and Light, 300; Mechanical Philosophy, with outlines of Astronomy, 300.
Logic	800
Elements of Political Economy	300
(f) Sanskrit	500
(f) Arabic	500

Candidates are at liberty to name any or all of these branches of knowledge. No subjects are obligatory.

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks; and the number set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulation denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. The marks assigned to Candidates in each branch will be subject to such deduction as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary (g), in order to secure that "a Candidate be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer."

7. The Examination will be conducted on paper and viva voce, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each Candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the several Candidates who shall have obtained, after the deduction above-mentioned, a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining Candidates will be set forth in order of merit, and such Candidates shall be deemed to be Selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided they appear to be in other respects duly qualified. Should any of the Selected Candidates become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled up or not. In the former case, the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a selected Candidate. A selected Candidate declining to accept the appointment which may be offered to him will be disqualified for any subsequent competition.

9. Selected Candidates before proceeding to India will be on probation for two years, during which time they will be examined periodically with a view of testing their progress in the following subjects (h):—

	Marks.
1. Law	1,250
2. Classical Languages of India—
Sanskrit	500
Arabic	400
Persian	400
3. Vernacular Languages of India (excepting Hindustani when taken up by Madras Candidates, and Gujarati), each	400
4. The History and Geography of India	350
5. Political Economy	350

In these Examinations, as in the Open Competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it at any one Examination. The Examination will be conducted on paper and viva voce, as may be deemed necessary. The last of these Examinations will be held at the close of the second year of probation, and will be called the "Final Examination," at which it will be decided whether a Selected Candidate is qualified for the Civil Service of India. At this Examination Candidates will be permitted to take up any one of the following branches of Natural Science, viz.,—Agricultural Chemistry, Botany, Geology, or Zoology, for which 350 marks will be allowed. Candidates for

(d) A considerable portion of the marks for English History and Literature will be allotted to the work selected by the Candidate. (See notice on p. 4.) In awarding marks for this, regard will be had partly to the extent and importance of the period or books selected, but chiefly to the thoroughness with which they have been studied.

(e) The examination will range from Arithmetic, Algebra, and Elementary Geometry, up to the elements of the differential and integral calculus, including the lower portions of applied Mathematics.

(f) The standard of marking in Sanskrit and Arabic will be determined with reference to a high degree of proficiency, such as may be expected to be reached by a Native of good education.

(g) Marks assigned in English Composition and Mathematics will be subject to no deduction. Each science will, for the purpose of deduction, be treated as a separate subject.

(h) Full instructions as to the course of study to be pursued will be issued to the successful Candidates as soon as possible after the result of the Open Competition is declared.

Madras and Bombay will also be permitted to compete for Prizes in Hindustani and Gujarati respectively.

10. Candidates will be tested during their probation as to their ability to perform journeys on horseback; and no Candidate will be deemed qualified for the Civil Service of India who fails to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his competence in this respect.

11. Any Candidate who, at any of the periodical Examinations, shall appear to have wilfully neglected his studies, or to be physically incapacitated for pursuing the prescribed course of training, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected Candidates.

12. The selected Candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force at the time for that Service.

13. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates must apply on Forms, which may be obtained from "The Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S.W.," at any time after the 1st December 1888. The Forms must be returned so as to be received at the office of the Civil Service Commissioners on or before 30th March 1889 (i).

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements:—

- (1) Selected candidates will be permitted to choose, according to the order in which they stand in the list resulting from the Open Competition, so long as a choice remains, the Presidency (and in Bengal the Division of the Presidency) to which they shall be appointed; but this choice will be subject to a different arrangement, should the Secretary of State or the Government of India deem it necessary (k).
- (2) The Probationers, having passed the necessary Examinations, will be required to report their arrival in India within such period after the grant of their Certificate of Qualification as the Secretary of State may in each case direct.
- (3) The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the Selected Candidates shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the Final Examination.

- (4) An allowance amounting to £300 will be given to all Candidates who pass their probation at one of the Universities or Colleges which have been approved by the Secretary of State, viz, the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Glasgow, Edinburgh, St. Andrew's, and Aberdeen; University College, London; and King's College, London; provided such Candidates shall have passed the required Examinations to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of Selected Candidates.

Candidates are not permitted to migrate from the University originally chosen by them to another University without first applying to the India Office for the permission, and receiving the sanction, of the Secretary of State, who will not entertain such applications unless good and sufficient reasons are assigned.

- (5) Selected Candidates desiring to remain in this country an additional year after the completion of their two years' probation for the purpose of taking a degree at one of the Universities above-mentioned, should apply to the Secretary of State for India for permission to do so. Besides the allowances above-mentioned, a bonus of £150 will, as a temporary and experimental measure, be paid to any Candidate who, having obtained permission to remain an additional year, passes an examination qualifying for a degree in Honours at Oxford or Cambridge, or, being a student of University College, London, passes with credit an Honour Examination of the University of London. This privilege will be hereafter extended to any other of the Universities above referred to, at which an academical distinction is obtainable which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, corresponds to a degree in Honours at Oxford or Cambridge, and to obtain which the additional year's residence in this country is necessary.
- (6) All Selected Candidates will be required, after having passed the first periodical Examination and before receiving the first instalment of their allowance, to attend at the India Office for the purpose of entering into an agreement binding themselves, amongst other things, to refund in certain cases the amount of their allowance in the event of their failing to proceed to India. A surety will be required.
- (7) After passing the Final Examination, each Candidate will be required to attend again at the India Office, with the view of entering into covenants, by which, amongst other things, they will bind themselves to agree to such Regulations for the provision of pensions for their families as may be approved by the Secretary of State for India in Council. The stumps payable on these covenants amount to £1.
- (8) Candidates rejected at the Final Examination of 1891 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination.

[Copies of these Regulations and of the Form of Application may be obtained on application to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.]

(i) These forms should be accompanied by evidence on the points mentioned in Regulation 2, and by a list of the subjects in which the candidate desires to be examined. Evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than 1st March 1889. Applications for leave to alter or add to the list of subjects named will not be entertained unless received on or before the 4th of May.

(k) This choice must be exercised immediately after the result of the Open Competition is announced 1889.

NOTICE RESPECTING THE EXAMINATION IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND AND ENGLISH LITERATURE.

HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

For the guidance of Candidates who may have a difficulty in making their selections for special study under this head, the following list is given as indicating the character and amount of reading that would be regarded as satisfactory.

Any one of the following periods, to be studied generally in "Bright's History," or (for the two first periods) Green's "History of the English People"; and more particularly in portions, selected by the Candidate, of the Text-books named:

1. A. D. 1066-1307.—Stubbs' Select Charters; Stubbs' Constitutional History of England; Freeman's Norman Conquest, Vol. V.
2. A. D. 1461-1588.—Hallam's Constitutional History of England; Froude's History of England; Brewer's Henry VIII.
3. A. D. 1603-1715.—Hallam's Constitutional History of England; Macaulay's History of England; Gardiner's History of England; Wyon's Reign of Queen Anne.
4. A. D. 1715-1805.—Lord Stanhope's History; Sir T. E. May's Constitutional History; Seeley's Expansion of England; Massey's Reign of George III.

English Literature.

Under this head there will be (besides the general paper) a special paper on the following books:

1. Chaucer.—Prologue and Knight's Tale.
2. Shakspeare.—Henry IV (I and II).
3. More.—Utopia (Pitt Press Series).
4. Milton.—Samson Agonistes, Comus, and Lycidas.
5. Macaulay.—Essays on Milton and Warren Hastings.

The oral examination in English Literature will have reference chiefly to such works, not included in the foregoing list, as the Candidate may offer for the purpose.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

23rd August 1888.

EVIDENCE OF AGE TO BE REQUIRED FROM CANDIDATES FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

I. Every Candidate born in the United Kingdom should produce a Certificate from the Registrar-General of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, or from one of his Provincial Officers. This Certificate may be obtained from the Registrar-General in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or from the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which the birth took place.

II. A Candidate born of European parents in India may produce a Certificate of Baptism from the district in which he was baptised. When such Certificates are not in the possession of the Candidates, an extract from the Registers kept at the India Office will probably be obtainable.

III. A Candidate who is a Native of India must have his age certified by the Government of India or of the Presidency or Province in which he may have resided.

Except as noted in paragraphs II and III, every Candidate is expected to produce a Certificate of Birth. The Civil Service Commissioners will not in ordinary cases accept a Certificate of Baptism, or other testimony, unless they are first satisfied that a Certificate of Birth cannot be procured.

Official Certificates of Birth may generally be obtained as follows:—

- (a) For persons born in England or Wales since 30th June 1837.—From the Registrar-General, Somerset House, London, or from the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which the birth took place.
- (b) For persons born in Scotland since 31st December 1854.—From the General Register Office, Edinburgh; or from the Registrar of the parish or district in which the birth took place.
- (c) For persons born in Ireland since 31st December 1863.—From the General Register Office, Dublin; or from the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which the birth took place.
- (d) For persons of English, Scottish, or Irish parentage born on board British ships since the dates mentioned in (a), (b) and (c) respectively.—From the General Register Office, London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, according to parentage.
- (e) For persons born in India of European parents.—From the India Office, London.

Any Candidate who cannot produce a Certificate of Birth from one of the authorities named should, if possible, procure a Certificate of Baptism, and should then apply to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, for further instructions.

CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

FORM OF APPLICATION; TO BE FILLED UP BY THE CANDIDATE HIMSELF.

* The order for admission to the Examination will not be issued unless this form, filled up by the Candidate himself, is received at the Office of the Civil Service Commission on or before the 30th March 1889.

SIR,

BEING desirous to offer myself as a Candidate at the Examination for the Civil Service of India, which is appointed to commence on the 1st of June 1889, I transmit herewith, as required by the Regulations—

(1) If a General Register Office Certificate cannot be obtained, the instructions printed on the other side will show what evidence should be supplied. If evidence is already in the hands of the Commissioners, strike out "A certificate of my birth," and insert "Evidence is already in the possession of the Commissioners."

(1) A certificate of my birth, showing that I was born on the _____ day of _____ 18____, and that therefore my age was above 17 years and under 19 years on the 1st of January 1889.

(2) The terms indicated must appear in the Certificate, which must be given after personal examination, and bear date not earlier than 1st March 1889.

(2) A certificate signed by _____ of my having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting me, or likely to unfit me, for the Civil Service of India.

(3) Two testimonials must be sent bearing date not earlier than 1st March 1889. One of them should be given by an intimate acquaintance (not a relative) of not less than three or four years' standing: the other, if the Candidate has recently left school, should be given by his late schoolmaster, or if he has had employment of any kind, by his late employer. If the Candidate has been at any University, he should send a certificate of good conduct from his College tutor.

(3) Proof of my moral character, viz.

(1) A testimonial from _____

(2) A testimonial from _____

(4) This should be given on the form herewith.

(4) A statement of the branches of knowledge in which I desire to be examined.

I have also to state, with reference to section 2, clause (i) of the Regulations, that I am a natural-born subject of Her Majesty.

I am, SIR,

Your obedient servant,

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions :—

- 1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavation on the land nearer than 15 feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the land closer than 3 feet from its foundation.
- 2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.
- 3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceeds Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the 16th day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.
- 4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the 3rd condition may be paid, either to the Collector or into the Government Treasury, Durbhunga.
- 5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.
- 6th.—The purchaser shall be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the district Collector approving of the sale. But such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final confirmation of the Board of Revenue should not be accorded to the proceedings.

[illegible]

A. H. WARDE-JONES, for Collector.

Dated Durbhunga Collectorate, the 10th August 1888.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Eastern Bengal State Railway, in the district of 24-Pergunnahs, will be put up to sale at the villages in which the plots of land are situated, on the 6th, 7th and 8th of November 1888.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from the fencing.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid to the Deputy Collector for Railways at Sealdah.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue free to the highest bidders.

6th.—The purchasers will be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sales, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final confirmation of the Board of Revenue is accorded to the proceedings.

NOTICE.

It is hereby notified, for general information, that subscriptions to the complete series of the Indian Law Reports should be registered during the first three months of each calendar year. Subscribers are therefore requested to send in their subscriptions for the complete series before the 31st March in each year. Those who register their names after that date will understand that copies will be supplied only if available.

H. A. D. PHILLIPS,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th November 1886.

The following revised advertisement is published in substitution for that which appeared at page 1084, Part II of the Calcutta Gazette of the 9th July 1884:—

The Indian Law Reports,

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st April 1888, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

Terms of subscription payable annually in advance.

For the complete series, including postage, Rs. 22-8.

THE following Act passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, received the assent of His Honour on the 16th May, 1888, and having been assented to by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General, on the 20th September, 1888, is hereby published for information:—

ACT No. III of 1888.

An Act to amend the Howrah Bridge Act, IX of 1871.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to remit the payment of the tolls, fees and charges levied under the provisions of the Howrah Bridge Act of 1871 upon all passengers, animals, vehicles and goods using or conveyed upon the said Bridge, and to reimpose the payment of the fees on any goods or any passengers which may have been exempted from such payment under section four of the said Act: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the "Howrah Bridge Act Amendment Act, 1888."

Construction and commencement of Act. 2. It shall be read with, and taken as part of, Bengal Act IX of 1871; and it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

3. For the proviso to section 3, the following proviso shall be substituted:—

"Provided always that such tolls, fees and charges shall not exceed the respective rates mentioned in the said schedule, and that it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor from time to time to exempt all or any passengers, animals, vehicles and goods using or conveyed on the said Bridge from payment of the tolls, fees and charges prescribed in the said schedule."

4. After the proviso to section 4, the following proviso shall be added:—

"Provided also that the said Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, re-impose the payment of the fees on any goods or any passengers which may have been exempted from such payment under this section."

Power to re-impose payment of the fees exempted under this section.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 5th October, 1888, and is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT NO. XI OF 1888.

An Act to make an addition to the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make an addition to the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Addition of section to Act XIII of 1885. I. The following section shall be added to that Act, namely:—

“34. (1) This Act, in its application to the presidency-towns, shall be read as if for the words ‘District Magistrate’ in section 16, sub-section (1), and section 17, sub-sections (2) and (3), for the words ‘Magistrate of the first or second class’ in section 18, sub-section (1), and for the word ‘Magistrate’ in section 18, sub-section (2), there had been enacted the words ‘Commissioner of Police’, and for the words ‘District Judge’ in section 16, sub-sections (3), (4) and (5), the words ‘Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes’.

Application of Act to presidency-towns and Rangoon.

(2) Section 16, in its application to the town of Rangoon, shall be read as if for the words ‘District Judge’, wherever they occur in that section, there had been enacted the words ‘Judge of the Court of Small Causes’.

(3) The fee in respect of an application to the Chief Judge of a Presidency Court of Small Causes under sub-section (3) of section 16 shall be the same as would be payable under the Court-fees Act, 1870, in respect of such an application to a District Judge beyond the limits of a presidency-town, and fees for summonses and other processes in proceedings before the Chief Judge under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of that section shall be payable according to the scale set forth in the fourth schedule to the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882.”

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 2nd October, 1888:

NO. 14 OF 1888.

A Bill to repeal certain enactments relating to the purchase of regimental necessities from soldiers.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the enactments specified in the schedule to this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Repeal. I. The enactments specified in the schedule are hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE.

Number and year.	Subject or title.	Extent of repeal.
Act of the Governor General in Council.
VII of 1867	Purchase of regimental necessities from soldiers.	So much as has not been repealed.
Regulation of the Madras Code.
XIV of 1832	Purchase of regimental necessities from soldiers.	So much as has not been repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE primary object of this Bill is to repeal Act VII of 1867 (an Act to reduce the pecuniary penalty for purchasing from soldiers arms, ammunition, clothes and other articles), and so to enable the Governor-General in Council, under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, to authorise the imposition of substantial fines on persons purchasing regimental necessities from soldiers. The experience of the past twenty-one years has proved the fines which may be imposed under Act VII of 1867 not to be deterrent. Unlawful traffic in soldiers' kits has been steadily increasing.

The secondary object of the Bill is to repeal an obsolete Regulation of the Madras Code (I. L. R. 10 Mad. 108).

Leading Lights and Buoys—Madras Harbour.

THE Presidency Port Officer, Madras, has notified (Notice to Mariners dated 18th September 1888) that it is intended to exhibit, on and after the 15th of October 1888, from the Iron Pier, Madras Harbour, at a height of 30 feet above high-water level, a Red fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112° , viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 38° E, 7 cables.

Also from the roof of the Port Office at a height of 60 feet above high-water level, a Green fixed light visible from seaward through an arc of 112° , viz., from N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to S W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. Mag. through West. Bearing and distance from Madras Lighthouse N. 21° E. 6.45 cables.

These lights are intended as a guide to ships leaving the Harbour, and to ships making the OUTER anchorage at night; when brought in line, they lead through the centre of the entrance of the Harbour, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 5 miles.

Buoys.

The two Buoys at the entrance of the Harbour have been removed from the outside of the entrance and replaced inside: the Northern one painted Black, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms water, 100 feet East of the remains of the end of the North Pier; the Southern one painted Red, with a tripod, now lies in $7\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms water 100 feet East of the end of the remains of the South Pier.

The above-mentioned buoys are illuminated when vessels leave the Harbour at night.

Two buoys, painted Red, have been moored North of the Harbour for the use of vessels discharging cargo of a description which is not permitted to be discharged inside.

The positions of these buoys are as follows :—

SOUTHERN one in 5 fathoms, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cables North of the North Pier.

Madras Lighthouse bearing S. W. by S.

Sailors' Home Flagstaff W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.

NORTHERN one in 5 fathoms, 6 cables North of the North Pier.

Madras Lighthouse bearing S. W. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.

Sailors' Home Flagstaff S. W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

NOTICE BY THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BENGAL.

SUPPLY BILLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that supply bills for sums of Rs. 500 and above in even rupees are usually obtainable on the treasuries named below at the rates of premium shewn.

Any person desiring to obtain a supply bill should send to the Bank of Bengal, Calcutta, a written application containing the following information—(1) his own name and address; (2) the name of the person to whom payment is to be made; (3) the treasury on which the bill is to be granted; and (4) the amount for which the bill is to be granted. With this application the cost of the bill (the amount plus the premium) should be paid into the Bank. If payment by telegram is desired (but this is admissible only in cases in which the name of the payee has been previously registered in the Accountant-General's office), the fact should be stated in the application, and an additional rupee paid with the cost.

The Bank of Bengal will, if the amount is available at the treasury named, receive the money tendered, and grant a receipt, returning the application therewith. The receipt and the application should then be sent to the Accountant-General's office, by which the bill will be granted.

The Bank of Bengal will be advised by the Accountant-General on the 1st and 16th of each month of the amounts available at the several treasuries, and will receive the amounts tendered by the first comers till those amounts are exhausted.

If the Bank refuses to receive any sum tendered owing to the amount not being available at the treasury, the application will be retained by the Bank and forwarded by it to the Accountant-General, who will advise the Bank and the applicant if the amount can be made available.

A. H. WARDE-JONES, for Collector.

Dated Durbhanga, the 10th August 1888.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Branch line of the Tirhoot State Railway, i.e., from Samastipur to Durbhanga, in the district of Durbhanga, will be put up to sale at places and on dates specified below :—

Number of lots.	Place of sale.	Date of sale.
19, 14, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 30, 31, 32, and 33	Samastipur Junction Station, Tirhoot State Railway	The 17th December 1888.
34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 52, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 73, 74, 75, and 76	Kishenpur Station, ditto	The 7th January 1889.
77, 78, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 112, 119, and 120	Blashpur ditto.	The 10th ditto.
129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 136, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 152, 153, 154, and 155.	Durbhanga Court Station, ditto	The 13th ditto.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions :—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the lands closer than three feet from its foundation.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceeds Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the 15th day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid either to the Collector or into the Government Treasury, Durbhanga.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.

6th.—The purchaser shall be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sale, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final consideration of the Board of Revenue should not be accorded to the proceedings.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Eastern Bengal State Railway, in the district of 24-Pergunnahs, will be put up to sale at the villages in which the plots of land are situated, on the 6th, 7th and 8th of November 1888.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from the fencing.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid to the Deputy Collector for Railways at Sealdah.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue free to the highest bidders.

6th.—The purchasers will be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sales, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final confirmation of the Board of Revenue is accorded to the proceedings.

H. A. D. PHILLIPS,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th November 1886.

The following revised advertisement is published in substitution for that which appeared at page 1084, Part II of the Calcutta Gazette of the 9th July 1884:—

The Indian Law Reports.

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st April 1888, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

Terms of subscription payable annually in advance.

PART V.

Acts of the Governor General's Council assented to by the Governor General

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 12th October, 1888, and is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT NO. XII OF 1888.

An Act to supplement certain provisions of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement by legislation in the Council of the Governor-General for making Laws and Regulations certain provisions of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. The City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, Confirmation of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889, shall, so far as regards—

(a) the jurisdiction thereby conferred upon Appellate Benches of Municipal Authorities and upon Presidency and other Magistrates and Courts of Small Causes or any Judge of such a Court, and

(b) the decisions, orders and other proceedings of those Benches, Magistrates and Courts or of any such Judge, be as valid as if they had been passed by the Governor-General of India in Council at a meeting for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

2. (1) If before or on the hearing of an appeal under section 217 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, any question of law or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document, which construction may affect the merits, arises, on which the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay entertains reasonable doubt, the Chief Judge may, either of his own motion or on the application of either or any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement, with his own opinion on the point, for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

(2) When a reference is made to the High Court under sub-section (1), the provisions of sections 618 to 621, both inclusive, of the Code XIV of 18 of Civil Procedure shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes and to the High Court, respectively.

3. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from a decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, when the amount of the claim in respect of which the decision is passed exceeds two thousand rupees.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure with respect to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to appeals under sub-section (1), and orders passed therein by the High Court may, on application to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes, be executed by him as if they were decrees made by himself.

(3) A decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, shall, if an appeal does not lie therefrom under sub-section (1), be final.

4. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from an order passed by a Presidency Magistrate under section 515 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888.

(2) The High Court may from time to time make rules for regulating the admission of appeals under sub-section (1) and the procedure to be followed in the adjudication thereof.

(3) When an appeal has been preferred to the High Court under this section, the Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay shall defer action upon the order of the Presidency Magistrate until the appeal has been disposed of :

(4) But, when the appeal has been disposed of, he shall forthwith give effect to the order passed therein by the High Court, or, if the order of the Presidency Magistrate has not been disturbed by the High Court, then to his order.

(5) When disposing of an appeal under this section the High Court may direct by whom the costs of the appeal are to be paid, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion.

(6) Costs so directed to be paid may, on application to a Presidency Magistrate, be recovered by him, in accordance with the direction of the High Court, as if they were a fine imposed by himself.

5. An appeal to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay under either of the two last foregoing sections shall, for the purposes of No. 156 of the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, be deemed to be an appeal under the Code of Civil Procedure in a case not provided for by No. 151 and No. 153 of that schedule.

PART VI.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 12th October, 1888:

No. 16 OF 1888.

A Bill to make further provision for the Administration of the Estate of His late Majesty the King of Oudh.

WHEREAS Act XIX of 1887 (an Act to provide for the Administration of the Estate of His late Majesty the King of Oudh) enacts that the Governor General in Council shall have exclusive authority to act in the administration of the property of whatever nature left by His late Majesty the King of Oudh in regard to the settlement and satisfaction of claims against the estate of His late Majesty, and may make distribution of the remaining property or the proceeds thereof in such manner as he deems fit among the family and dependents of His late Majesty; and whereas it is expedient to provide for the mode in which property may be transferred, and suits and other proceedings may be instituted, in the course of the administration of the estate of His late Majesty;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, the person for the time being holding the office of Agent to the Governor General in Council for the Affairs of the late King of Oudh Transfers of property by and to the Agent to the Governor General in Council, and institution of legal proceedings by him.

and for the Purposes of Act XIX of 1887 may—

(a) in his own name and by his name of office dispose of any moveable or immoveable property of His late Majesty the King of Oudh in as full and effectual a manner as His Majesty could have disposed of it in his lifetime;

(b) by his name of office take a conveyance of any moveable or immoveable property in which His late Majesty had a beneficial interest; and

(c) by his name of office institute any suit or other proceeding in any Civil, Criminal or Revenue Court in connection with the possession of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the estate of His late Majesty or the dispossession of any person of any such property, or the recovery of rents, debts or other moneys due to the estate, or otherwise in connection with the administration of the estate.

2. On the departure from British India, or the death, resignation or removal, of an Agent to the Governor General for the Affairs and Purposes aforesaid, the following consequences shall ensue, namely:

(a) any moveable or immoveable property vested in him as such Agent shall become vested in his successor in office, and

(b) a suit or other proceeding instituted by his name of office may be continued by his successor in office in the same manner as if the departure or the death, resignation or removal had not occurred.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to remove any doubts which may exist as to the extent of the powers which have been conferred on the Governor General in Council by Act XIX of 1887.

As much immoveable property belonging to the estate of the late King of Oudh has to be disposed of, it is desirable that there should be no room for question as to the nature of the title which the Governor General in Council, as administrator of the estate of His late Majesty, may, by his Agent, transfer.

TIONS, INDIA.A Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Cantonments.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to cantonments; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement. I. (1) This Act may be called the Cantonments Act, 1889.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force on such day as the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoints in this behalf.

2. (1) On and from that day the enactments specified in the first schedule are repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof.

(2) Any enactment or document referring to any enactment repealed by this Act, or to any enactment repealed by any enactment repealed by this Act, shall, so far as may be, be construed to refer to this Act or to the corresponding portion thereof.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "officer" means—

(a) a person who, being an officer within the meaning of the Army Act, 1881, is commissioned and in pay as an officer doing military duty with Her Majesty's regular forces as defined in that Act or as an officer doing such duty in any arm, branch or part of those forces, and

(b) a person doing military duty as a warrant-officer with those forces or with any arm, branch or part thereof, whether he is or is not an officer within the meaning of the Army Act, 1881:

(2) "soldier" means a person who is a soldier of Her Majesty's regular forces within the meaning of the Army Act, 1881, and is not an officer within the meaning of this Act:

(3) "spirituous liquor" means any fermented liquor, any alcoholic liquid obtained by distillation, and the sap of any kind of palm-tree, and includes any other liquid consisting of or containing alcohol which the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare to be a spirituous liquor for the purposes of this Act:

"officer" means any person who is an officer within the meaning of the Army Act, 1881, and is not an officer within the meaning of this Act:

(5) "owner" includes the person who is receiving the rent of any building, whether on his own account or as an agent or trustee, or who would so receive the rent if the building were let to a tenant.

CHAPTER II.

CANTONMENT MAGISTRATE, COURT OF SMALL CAUSES AND POLICE.Cantonment Magistrate.

4. (1) Every cantonment beyond the limits of a presidency-town, shall, for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, and 4: Bom. Act 1867, ss and 5.] N of 1882 be deemed to be a subdivision of the district in which it is situated, and there shall be placed in charge thereof, as Subdivisional Magistrate, a Magistrate of the first or second class who shall be called the Cantonment Magistrate.

(2) Every Cantonment Magistrate holding office in a cantonment at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under section 12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, and to have been placed in charge of the cantonment under section 13 of that Code.

Cantonment Court of Small Causes.

5. (1) The Local Government shall appoint the Cantonment Magistrate to be the Judge of a Court of Small Causes which may be established within a cantonment under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(2) The Local Government shall, in its order appointing the Cantonment Magistrate to be the Judge of such a Court, declare, and may by notification in the official Gazette vary, within a limit of five hundred rupees, the value of the suits which are to be cognizable by him under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(3) The provisions of section 15, sub-section (3), of that Act shall not apply to a Court of Small Causes of which a Cantonment Magistrate is the Judge.

6. Every Cantonment Magistrate presiding over a Court of Small Causes in a cantonment at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under section 6 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, and, in the absence of any order of the Local Government to the contrary, to have jurisdiction with respect to all suits which are cognizable by a Court of Small Causes under that Act and of which the value does not exceed five hundred rupees.

7. Notwithstanding any reduction of the value of the suits which are to be cognizable by a Cantonment Magistrate as Judge of a Court of Small Causes, the Cantonment Magistrate may, as such Judge, dis-

(2) Where a person accused of an offence against section 9 has been previously convicted of an offence against that section, an officer in charge of a police-station may, with the written permission of a Magistrate, seize and detain any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug within the cantonment or within the limits prescribed under section 9, which at the time of the alleged commission of the subsequent offence belonged to or was in the possession of the person.

(3) The Court convicting a person of an offence against section 9 or section 10 may order the confiscation of the whole or any part of anything seized under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(4) Subject to the provisions of Chapter XLIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, anything seized under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) and not confiscated under sub-section (3) shall be restored to the person from whom it was taken.

12. The foregoing provisions of this Chapter saving of articles sold or supplied for medicinal purposes shall not apply to the sale or supply of any article for medicinal purposes by medical practitioners, chemists or druggists.

CHAPTER IV.

TAXATION, CANTONMENT FUND AND CANTONMENT AUTHORITY.

Taxation.

13. (1) With the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the Local Government, by notification in the official Gazette, may impose in a cantonment any tax which is specified in any enactment in force at the date of the notification as a tax imposable in any municipality within the territories administered by such Government, and may abolish any tax so imposed.

(2) When any tax is leviable in a cantonment in pursuance of a notification under sub-section (1), the Local Government may, with the like sanction and by a like notification, apply or adapt to the cantonment the provisions of any enactment or rules in force at the date of the notification for the assessment and recovery of any tax in any municipality within the territories administered by such Government.

14. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, extend the provisions of Act XX of 1856 (to make better provision for the appointment and maintenance of Police Chaukidars in Cities, Towns, Stations, Suburbs and Bazaris)

No. 25 of 1884.] (2) Where the area subject to the authority of a municipal committee as defined in section 2 of the Municipal Taxation Act, 1881, includes the whole or part of a cantonment, nothing in section 4 or section 5 of that Act or in any other like enactment for the time being in force shall apply to so much of that area as is comprised in the cantonment.

Cantonment Fund and Cantonment Authority.

New : U. O. Reg. No. 3492 of 1882.] 17. (1) There shall be formed for each cantonment a cantonment fund, and there shall be placed to the credit thereof, among other sums, the following, namely:—

X of 1882. (a) subject to deductions under section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, or under any other enactment for the time being in force or any order of the Local Government, all fines recovered in cases in which prosecutions in respect of offences committed within the cantonment are instituted under this Act or any rule thereunder or any enactment applied by any such rule or under section 48 of Act XXIV of 1859, section 34 of Act V of 1861, or section 31 of the Bombay District Police Act, 1867, or under Chapter XIII or Chapter XIV of the Indian Penal Code or section 156 of the Army Act, 1881, or under the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871; and

(b) the proceeds of taxes levied in the cantonment under section 13 or section 14.

[Act III, 1880, s. 23; U. O. No. 1 of 1871.] (2) Notwithstanding anything in any enactment as to the purposes to which the proceeds of without British India, beyond the limits of the cantonment in cases in which, in the opinion of the Local Government, the application of the fund beyond those limits is for the benefit of the inhabitants of the cantonment or of any military force ordinarily cantoned therein or of any detachment of any such force.

18. (1) Where, in or near a cantonment, there is a Government treasury or sub-treasury or a bank to which the Government treasury business has been made over, the cantonment fund shall be kept in the treasury, sub-treasury or bank. [Act XV, 1883, s. 48.]

(2) Where there is no such treasury, sub-treasury or bank, the cantonment fund may be deposited with any banker or person acting as a banker who has given such security for the safe custody and repayment on demand of the fund so deposited as the District Magistrate may in each case think sufficient.

19. The cantonment fund shall be vested in Her Majesty, and, subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules thereunder and to the control of the Local Government, the management of the fund shall be entrusted to the cantonment authority. [New.]

20. (1) The expression "cantonment authority" as used in this Act or in any enactment in force at the commencement of this Act means a cantonment committee or, in the case of a cantonment for which such a committee has not been constituted, the commanding officer of the cantonment. [New: cf. Act XX, 1887, s. 2.]

(2) The Local Government shall determine, with respect to every cantonment in which troops are for the time being cantoned, whether or not a cantonment committee is to be constituted as the cantonment authority.

21. The cantonment authority shall be deemed to be a local authority as defined in the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879, the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, and the General Clauses Act, 1887, and the cantonment fund to be "public revenues" within the meaning of the proviso to section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, and any property acquired at the cost of the cantonment fund shall vest in Her Majesty. India, which were published by the Government of India in the Military Department in the year 1887, and of which extracts are reprinted in the second schedule to this Act, shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be the conditions, rules, regulations and orders which were applicable to the cantonment at the time when the land was granted and subject to which the land has been and is held.

23. (1) If the commanding officer of a cantonment certifies in writing, with the previous sanction of the general officer commanding the district where he is not himself such general officer, that an officer doing military duty within the cantonment ought to reside within the limits thereof, and either that a house suitable, in the opinion of the commanding officer, for the residence of the officer is vacant within those limits or that, such a house not being vacant within those limits, there is within those limits a house occupied by a person not subject to military law which, in the opinion of the commanding officer, is suitable for the residence of the officer and, with reference to the place where the duty of the officer lies, is more conveniently situated than any other house suitable for his residence and so occupied, the Cantonment Magistrate shall, on the presentation of the certificate of the commanding officer and on the written application of the officer, serve—

- (a) where the house specified in the certificate is vacant, on the owner of the house, or
- (b) where the house specified in the certificate is occupied by a person not subject to military law, on that person and on the owner of the house, a notice requiring the house to be placed at the disposal of the officer within seven days from the date of the service of the notice where the house is vacant, or within thirty days from that date where the house is occupied.

(2) The officer shall, in his application to the Cantonment Magistrate under the last foregoing sub-section, state the amount of the monthly rent which, with the approval of the cantonment authority, he offers to pay for the house, and the Cantonment Magistrate shall cause that amount to be stated in the notice served on the owner of the house under that sub-section.

(3) At any time within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice under sub-section (1), the owner of the house may apply to the commanding officer of the cantonment to convene a committee of arbitration to determine the amount of the monthly rent to be paid, and the commanding officer shall thereupon convene such a committee, consisting of—

- (a) the District Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class appointed by him in this behalf,
- (b) a person to be nominated by the officer for whose occupation the house is renominated by the commanding officer of the cantonment.

(4) The District Magistrate or the Magistrate appointed by him to act in his stead shall be president of the committee.

(5) The decision of the committee shall be determined by the majority of the votes of the members present at a meeting of which notice of the time and place therefor has been served on each of the members of the committee, and the president shall have a second or casting vote in the event of there being an equality of votes with respect to the monthly rent to be paid.

(6) If the owner is aggrieved by the decision of the committee, he may appeal from it, within one month from the date thereof, to the Local Government, and the decision of the Local Government on the appeal shall be conclusive.

(7) If within the time limited by sub-section (3) the owner does not apply to the commanding officer of the cantonment to convene a committee of arbitration under that sub-section, he shall be deemed to have accepted the monthly rent referred to in sub-section (2).

(8) Where the house was vacant, the officer for whose occupation it is required shall be entitled to obtain possession thereof, to the exclusion of any other person, on the expiration of seven days from the date of the service of the notice on the owner under sub-section (1), but, if he so obtains possession of the house and a committee of arbitration is convened under sub-section (3), he shall, for the term for which he may occupy the house, be bound by the decision of the committee or, if that decision is appealed from, by the decision of the Local Government on the appeal.

(9) Where the house was occupied, the officer for whose occupation it is required shall be entitled to obtain possession thereof, to the exclusion of any other person,—

- (a) on the expiration of thirty days from the date of the service of the notice on the owner under sub-section (1) if a committee of arbitration has not been applied for under sub-section (3) or, having been so applied for, has announced its decision on or before the expiration of that period, or
- (b) on the announcement of the decision of the committee if a committee of arbitration has been applied for under sub-section (3) and has not announced its decision on or before the expiration of thirty days from the date of the service of the notice on the owner under sub-section (1).

(10) Where the officer obtains possession on the announcement of the decision of the committee and an appeal is preferred to the Local Government, he shall, for the term for which he may occupy the house, be bound by the decision of the Local Government on the appeal.

(11) When the officer is entitled to obtain possession of the house, the Cantonment Magistrate shall, on the written application of the done in compliance with a notice served on him under sub-section (1).

(13) A house shall not be specified in a certificate under sub-section (1) if it is occupied as a bank, or is appropriated by the Government to the use of a public officer, or is owned by or is under the control of a railway administration, or is occupied as a hotel or shop and has been so occupied continuously during the three years immediately preceding the time when the occasion for making the certificate arises.

(14) For the purposes of this section the word "house" includes the land and buildings appurtenant to the house, and, if a question arises whether any land or building is appurtenant to the house, it shall be decided by the Cantonment Magistrate, and, subject to revision by the Local Government, his decision shall be conclusive.

[New: cf. Army Regulations.] 24. (1) Subject to the terms of any agreement between the owner of a house and an officer occupying it, and to the provisions of this section, a lease of a house in a cantonment to an officer shall be deemed to be a lease from month to month terminable without notice in the case of the transfer of the officer from the cantonment in the course of his service, or by fifteen days' notice to the owner in any other case.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) must be in writing signed by or on behalf of the officer, and the Cantonment Magistrate shall, if the officer so desires, cause it to be served on the owner free of charge.

(3) An officer shall be liable for the whole of the monthly rent of a house in a cantonment for any month, beginning with the first day of the month and ending with the last day thereof, during which he occupies the house for fifteen days or any longer period, and for half the monthly rent for any such month during which he occupies the house for a shorter period than fifteen days.

(4) Sub-sections (8) and (10) of the last foregoing section, with respect to the liability of officers for rent, shall be read subject to the foregoing provisions of this section.

[New: cf. Army Regulations.] 25. (1) If an officer, being a tenant of a house in a cantonment, is unable to induce the owner of the house to execute any repairs which such officer considers necessary, he may apply to the commanding officer of the cantonment to convene a committee of arbitration to decide whether any and, if so, what repairs are necessary, and the commanding officer may, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, convene such a committee, consisting of—

- (a) a person to be nominated by the officer occupying the house;
- (b) a person to be nominated by the owner of the house or, in default of his nominating a person within one week from the date of his being called upon to make a nomination, a person to be son within one week from the date of their being called upon to make the appointment, a third person appointed by the commanding officer of the cantonment.

(2) The person appointed under clause (c) of the last foregoing sub-section shall be president of the committee.

(3) The decision of the committee shall be determined by the majority of the votes of the members present at a meeting of which notice of the time and place therefor has been served on each of the members of the committee, and the president shall have a second or casting vote in the event of there being an equality of votes with respect to the repairs, if any, which may be necessary.

(4) The decision of the committee shall be conclusive, and within twelve months from the date thereof the commanding officer of the cantonment shall not, without the sanction of the officer immediately superior to him, convene another committee of arbitration for the purpose of considering whether the house requires repairs.

(5) If the committee decides that repairs are necessary, it shall define their extent, and, if the owner of the house fails to commence them immediately and carry them out in such manner and with such expedition as, in the opinion of the Cantonment Magistrate, is reasonable, the tenant may cause them to be executed at rates not exceeding those paid in the cantonment by the Government, and may deduct the cost thereof from any rent due from him, then or afterwards, in respect of the house.

(6) If from any cause the tenant cannot recover, in manner mentioned in the last foregoing sub-section, the cost incurred by him in the execution of any repairs under that sub-section, he may institute a suit against the owner of the house for the cost or any balance thereof remaining unrecovered.

26. (1) Where a building is so dilapidated as, in the opinion of the commanding officer of the cantonment, to be unfit for the purpose for which it was constructed or has been used, that authority may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, cause a notice to be served on the owner of the building, calling upon him either to make it fit for one or other of those purposes within a time to be specified in the notice, or to comply with whichever of the following requisitions the cantonment authority, with such sanction as aforesaid, may see fit to make, namely:—

- (a) where the land on which the building is situated was granted by the Government, to remove the materials of the building and of any building appurtenant thereto and surrender such land granted by the Government as is occupied by or appurtenant to any such building;
- (b) whether the land was or was not granted by the Government, to remove the mate-been used, and the commanding officer shall thereupon convene such a committee, consisting of—

- (a) a person to be nominated by the cantonment authority;
- (b) a person to be nominated by the owner or, in default of his nominating a person within one week from the date of his being called upon to make a nomination, a person to be nominated by the commanding officer of the cantonment; and
- (c) a third person to be appointed by the persons nominated under clauses (a) and (b) of this sub-section or, in default of those persons appointing a person within one week from the date of their being called upon to make the appointment, a third person appointed by the commanding officer of the cantonment.

(3) The person appointed under clause (c) of the last foregoing sub-section shall be president of the committee.

(4) The decision of the committee shall be determined by the majority of the votes of the members present at a meeting of which notice of the time and place therefor has been served on each of the members of the committee, and the president shall have a second or casting vote in the event of there being an equality of votes with respect to the condition of the building.

(5) If the committee decides that the building is unfit for the purpose for which it was constructed or has been used, the cantonment authority shall cause to be served on the owner a further notice appointing a time, not earlier than that fixed in the notice served under sub-section (1), by which, in default of the building being made fit for one or other of those purposes to the satisfaction of the cantonment authority, the materials and the land, if any, mentioned in the notice served under that sub-section are to be respectively removed and surrendered.

(6) In either of the following cases, namely:—

- (a) if the owner does not apply to the commanding officer of the cantonment to convene a committee of arbitration under sub-section (2) and does not comply, to the satisfaction of the cantonment authority, with the notice served under sub-section (1),
- (b) if the owner applies for such a committee and the committee decides that the building is unfit for the purpose for which it was constructed or has been used, and the owner does not comply, to the satisfaction of the cantonment authority, with the further notice served under sub-section (5), the Cantonment Magistrate shall, on the application of the commanding officer of the cantonment, cause the materials to be sold by public auction and, where the owner was required to surrender any land, enforce the surrender thereof to the Government.

(8) If a question arises whether any building or land is appurtenant to a building within the meaning of this section, it shall be decided by the Cantonment Magistrate, and, subject to revision by the Local Government, his decision shall be conclusive.

27. A person to be nominated or appointed a member of a committee of arbitration under the foregoing sections of this Chapter must be a person whose services are immediately available for the purposes of the committee, and the nomination or appointment of a person whose services are not so available shall be deemed within the intendment of those sections to constitute a failure to make a nomination or appointment, as the case may be.

23. (1) For section 9 of the Indian Registration Act, 1877, the following shall be substituted, namely:—
 "Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections, every cantonment shall be a sub-district, and the Cantonment Magistrate the Sub-Registrar thereof."

(2) Section 54, paragraphs two and three, and sections 59, 107 and 123 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, shall, on and from the commencement of this Act, extend to every cantonment in British India.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES AND SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

29. The Governor General in Council may make rules consistent with this Act to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (1) the manner in which, and the authority to which, application for permission to occupy land in a cantonment is to be made;
- (2) the conditions which, whether expressed or not, are to be held to be annexed to every such permission given in pursuance of such an application;
- (3) the manner in which any such condition, or any condition annexed to a grant made of land in a cantonment before the commencement of this Act, is to be enforced, and the powers which the Cantonment Magistrate may, on the application of the cantonment authority, exercise for the purpose of enforcing the condition;
- (4) the settlement of disputes with respect to the boundaries of land in a cantonment and the exclusion of the jurisdiction of Civil Courts with respect to such disputes;
- (5) the constitution and procedure of committees of arbitration, their authority to

DISCIPLINE.

SECTION XVII.—CANTONMENTS.

I.—General Rules. | II.—Grant of Land.

* * * * *

I.—General Rules.

(BENGAL AND BOMBAY.)

1919. The rules and regulations laid down by Government for the administration of military cantonments are to be strictly enforced. carried out in the cantonment to which they are applicable. A copy of all such rules and regulations in English and in the vernacular language chiefly in use is to be hung up in some conspicuous part of the office of the Cantonment Magistrate, or in such place as the Local Government or the Commanding Officer may direct.

* * * * *

1921. The limits of all military cantonments are to be defined by pillars of masonry, erected at each angle of the boundary line, and which are to be replaced whenever they have been destroyed or are not forthcoming.

1922. The boundaries of sadr, station and thrown down and the ruins and fences removed at the expense of the proprietor or persons by whom they were erected.

1923. No deviation from the fixed limits of a cantonment is permitted without the sanction of Government, to be applied for through the Quartermaster General's department; no alteration of the limits of lines, bázárs or compounds can be made without the authority of the Commander-in-chief.

1924. In Bengal, when from any cause any portion of land which has been taken up for military purposes is found to be no longer required for such, a report to that effect is to be made by the Commanding Officer to the Quartermaster General in order that it may be made over to the civil authorities.

* * * * *

1927. Officers commanding stations have authority to direct that numbers be affixed to houses or compounds in cantonments, the expense being borne by the owner or by the cantonment fund, and not by Government, save for buildings actually used for public purposes or the property of Government. Residents may also be directed to affix their names and designations on their houses, compound walls or gateways.

1928. Residents in military cantonments are prohibited from making excavations on any ground within the boundaries, except those made by permission to furnish materials for building, which are to be filled up again, when no longer required, at the expense of the individual concerned.

* * * * *

1935. All matters connected with cantonment lands and boundaries will be conducted, under the orders of the Commanding Officer, by the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, by the Cantonment Magistrate or the Staff Officer of the station, assisted, if necessary, by the Executive Engineer. Questions requiring the decision of higher authority are to be referred to head-quarters through the Quartermaster General (paragraph 2505, section XXII).

Rent or Sale of Private Buildings.

1936. A military cantonment is, as its designation implies, a locality set apart primarily for military and medical officers, chaplains, soldiers, subordinates attached to the troops, and the officers and subordinates of all departments connected with the housing and supplies of the troops, for whom houses situated within such limits are by priority of right available. Regimental officers are required ordinarily to live near the barracks or lines of their respective corps.

1937. Civil and political officers of Governtary cantonments whenever the public interest may require that they should so reside, or whenever special grounds may exist for granting the indulgence, such as the want of other available shelter, or the necessity of ensuring their personal safety; but these exceptions are not ordinarily to interfere with the priority of right possessed by military officers or others on duty at the station to the houses within its boundaries.

1938. In the event of a house in cantonment occupied by a non-military resident being required for an officer, a formal notice should be served on the occupant requiring him to vacate by a certain date, and warning him that, in the event of his declining or failing to comply, legal proceedings will be taken to enforce compliance. Should the notice (which should be personally served if possible) fail of effect, intimation of the same should be forwarded to the Local Government in order that the necessary steps may be taken in the matter. Commanding Officers should not, however, have recourse to this measure except under the most unavoidable circumstances, when houses are legally claimable and absolutely necessary for the accommodation of officers whose services are actually required in the station, and for whom shelter is not available within a fairly reasonable distance of their duty. In the case of officials mentioned in paragraph 1937, applications for their removal are to be made to the Commander-in-chief through the Quartermaster General for submission to Government.

1939. The owner of any house in a military cantonment not occupied by a person belonging to the army on duty at the station, or by a person directed or authorised by Government to reside therein (paragraph 1937), may be required to rent the same to any military officer belonging to the station who may require it to reside in if the officer commanding the station is satisfied that there is no other suitable house available with due regard to the rank of the claimant and to the duties he may have to perform. In every such case, however, if the owner may have formerly intimated to the officer who has so obtained the house his desire to sell rather than to let it and the offer has not been accepted, the officer may at any time be required to vacate it within a week of his receiving notice through the Staff Officer of the station that the house has, with the consent of the Commanding Officer of the station, been sold to another military officer on duty at the station who requires it for his own residence. The rent to be paid in such cases, or the price to be paid for the house when the claimant accedes to the owner's desire that he shall purchase it, is to be fixed, in the event of the parties disagreeing as to the amount, by a committee of arbitration to be assembled by order of the Officer Commanding the division or district, after he has fully satisfied himself as to

The Cantonments Bill.(The Second Schedule.—Extracts from Section XVII (Cantonments), Volume II (Discipline), Army Regulations, India.)

1940. In all cases of dispute the owner should be called upon, previous ther he will rent or sell. to the assembly of the committee of arbitration, to elect whether he will rent or sell his house: should he elect to rent the house, the committee cannot compel him to sell it.

1941. Houses situated within the limits of military cantonments that may be declared to be for hire can only, according to these Regulations and customs, be let by the month.

1942. A tenant who has once taken possession of a house, or who is occupying it, cannot appeal for any reduction of rent which he may have agreed to pay, nor can a committee be assembled to arbitrate on this point.

1943. Committees of arbitration are to be composed of a civil officer (the principal one, if practicable, at or in the vicinity of the station), the Commanding Officer of the cantonment, and any other individual (who need not belong to either the civil or military services) whom the proprietor of the house may please to nominate. When the Commanding Officer of the station is an interested party, the next senior officer is to be nominated one of the committee in his stead.

1944. When a house is transferred from one officer to another on the occasion of a relief, and a difference arises as to terms, the price or rent is to be fixed by a committee constituted as above, with an additional member to be nominated by the intending occupant or purchaser.

1945. In the case referred to in paragraph 1939 the decision of the committee of arbitration is to be conclusive, unless it be reversed by Government, for whose orders the proceedings are to be submitted through the regular channel whenever the proprietor of the premises is dissatisfied with the award; but in the case referred to in paragraph 1944 there is no appeal from the decision of the committee, which is to be final.

1946. Due notice must in every instance be given to proprietors of premises, or to their agents, by the Commanding Officer of the cantonment, of the intention to hold a committee thereon; and, in the event of the owner or agent neglecting to nominate a member of such committee after having received the notice,—which, if the owner or agent be a non-resident in the cantonment or its vicinity, is to be taken to mean an official notification dated one month prior to the day on which the committee is to assemble,—the Commanding Officer will, under the orders of the 1947. When an officer to whom a house in cantonments has been specially allotted under these Regulations may choose, on going away on leave or on temporary duty, to give it up, he has no right to claim the special allotment of a house on his return, under the provisions of paragraph 1939, should a suitable one not be at the time available for rent. In the event of any special circumstances rendering a departure from this rule necessary, the case should be referred to the Quartermaster General for the decision of the Commander-in-chief.

1948. In the event of the tenant of a house considering that the house requires repairs, and of his being unable to induce the owner to execute them, he should call on his landlord to join with him in appointing a committee of arbitration to decide the question. If the cantonment rules are in force, the committee will be composed of one civilian, the Officer Commanding the station and two officers or European residents, to be appointed, one by the landlord and the other by the occupant; otherwise the landlord should be called on to name an arbitrator to act with one to be named by the occupant, who are together to appoint a third in case of difference. In either case the landlord should be informed that, unless within a named time he either executes the necessary repairs or joins in the reference, the occupant will have the repairs done on the landlord's account and risk at the Public Works Departmental rates, and that the costs will be set off against the rent.

1949. In stations where there are no cantonment committees, Commanding Officers are to obtain the sanction of Government through the Commander-in-chief previous to convening committees of arbitration for the valuation of ruined buildings which, for sanitary or other purposes, it may be considered advisable to demolish and remove.

1950. In cases where buildings in cantonments are required for public purposes, the officer of the Public Works Department in executive charge will, under the authority of the Officer Commanding the division or district, settle for the valuation and purchase of the same according to the rules of the Public Works Department, and recourse is only to be had to committees of arbitration in the event of any disagreement, and on the application of the Executive Engineer or of the proprietor of the premises.

1951. Whenever it may be necessary to rent buildings for the use of the troops, the officer of the Public Works Department on the spot is in all cases to arrange for the hiring of such buildings and to obtain sanction for the arrangements in communication with and assisted by the local accommodating the troops in any emergency, whenever this is possible, rather than to act themselves, and thus accept a grave pecuniary responsibility in the event of their action being disapproved of. When, however, the local military authorities have been obliged to act themselves, owing to the absence of the Executive Engineer from the station, it is the duty of such officer on his return to suggest to them any modification of the arrangements which his knowledge and experience might suggest as better for the soldier or more for the interest of Government, and also to submit the arrangements for sanction as if originally made by himself.

1952. Officers Commanding stations are required, in cases of disputes relative to houses or lands in cantonments, before taking action thereon, to submit the same with their opinion for the consideration and approval of the General Officer in local command, who will transmit them to the Quartermaster General if he is unable to decide them himself.

1953. On no account is any church, chapel, Mosques, &c., not to mosque, temple, tomb or be occupied. other building devoted to religious use to be occupied as a dwelling-house or for any other purpose without the full and free consent of the persons interested in it and the sanction of the principal civil or political authority in the spot.

When approved in General Orders, the limits are then to be marked by pillars or in some other equally permanent manner.

1956. A plan of every cantonment so marked and signed will be kept in Changes to be registered. the Quartermaster General's office, where it will be duly registered, and a copy thereof, with a register of enclosures, will be furnished by the Divisional or District Assistant Quartermaster General to each Brigadier or Station Commanding Officer, who is to report to divisional headquarters all changes in boundaries or occupations as they occur. All such changes are to be reported by the Divisional Assistant to the Quartermaster General, to enable him to correct the registers and standard plans in his office.

This plan and description, accompanied by a detail of the reasons for which the acquisition of the land is urged, and a statement of the probable cost of obtaining possession, will be submitted for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-chief, who, should the object to be attained by the proposed acquisition warrant the proceeding, will forward the same for the sanction of Government.

intrusion of persons unconnected with the corps or departments for whom the lines are intended.

1965. A registry is to be made and kept of the inhabitants of every sadr and regimental bázár above referred to, as a means of preventing unauthorised intrusion, and also with a view to facilitate statistical inquiries (vide Division VI).

1966. Trees standing in the compounds of houses within cantonment limits are not private property. When for sanitary or other reasons it is desirable to lop or cut down any such trees, the timber is to be considered the property of the house-owner. Owners or occupants are prohibited from cutting down or lopping any trees within the compounds without the consent of the cantonment committee.

1967. The use of private lands for military purposes should be obtained through the Quarter-master General.

1968. On the 1st of January of each year, periodical reports, in duplicate, on Bombay Form No. 211, are to be submitted, showing for each cantonment whether any buildings, houses, &c., have been newly erected during the period, whether any have been pulled down, and what property has changed hands. These documents should be signed by the Officer Commanding the cantonment and the Cantonment Magistrate or Staff Officer in charge of the register, who will be held responsible that the details are full and complete in every particular.

(MADRAS.)

1969. Cantonments occupied by troops of the Madras presidency are under rules as follows:—

Secunderabad	.	} Under rules laid down in Bengal Act III of 1880, formerly Bengal Act XXII of 1864.
Kamptee	.
Raipur	.
Cuttack	.
Rangoon	.
Tonghoo	.
Thyetmyo	.
Moulmein	.

Belgaum—Under rules laid down in Bombay Act III of 1867, held to be rules under Bengal Act III of 1880.

St. Thos.' Mount	.	} Under rules laid down in Madras Act I of 1866.
Poonamallee	.
Wellington	.
Palaveram	.
Cannanore	.	} Chapters V and VI only of the above applicable.
Bellary	.

Trichinopoly—Chapter VI only of the above applicable.

The above Acts have not been made applicable to the cantonments not entered.

1970. The rules contained in these Acts have 1971. A military cantonment is, as its designation implies, a locality the military limits of which have been defined under the authority of Government, and which is set apart primarily for military and medical officers, chaplains, soldiers, European and East Indian subordinates and their families; for whom houses situated within such limits are by priority of right available. This rule, however, is not to interfere with gentlemen of the covenanted civil service, as regards the houses usually occupied by them in military cantonments.

1972. Regimental officers are required to live as near their lines or barracks as is practicable. A certain number of houses for each regiment will, therefore, be set apart in each cantonment by local Commanding Officers, and every opportunity should be taken advantage of to adjust the present inconvenient distribution of officers in cantonments so as to bring all stations under the above arrangement in course of time. Staff officers may be allowed to live in any part of a cantonment.

1973. Other claims for house accommodation noted in the margin* for gentlemen and others will be considered and adjusted by the Officer Commanding the station, with due respect to their rank and position, and with regard to the availableness of houses in the cantonment for their use. But these gentlemen cannot retain any house that may be absolutely required for an officer of the military force at the station.

1974. Houses within the limits of a cantonment, built on ground the property of Government, whether held on lease or not, are liable to be occupied as above, under the control of the Officer Commanding the station. Houses built on land not the property of Government, or held on freehold tenure or occupied as shops, are exempt from this liability.

1975. In the case of necessity arising, requiring the removal of a non-military tenant to make way for an officer, not less than one month's notice in writing must be given to the owner as well as the tenant of the house that the house in question is required. No summary ejectment is ever to be permitted, and the greatest consideration should be shown to the occupant whose removal on public grounds is rendered necessary. The Officer Commanding the cantonment may, however, extend the period of such notice when circumstances will admit of it, and other quarters should be provided for the person if removed as above, whenever practicable.

1976. The limits of every military cantonment are to be clearly defined termaster General and that of the Divisional Quartermaster General or Station Staff Officer.

1977. The boundaries of sadr, station and regimental bázars, and of any villages within the limits of cantonments, are also to be defined by pillars of masonry; and all buildings erected beyond the proper boundaries or assigned limits are to be thrown down, and the ruins removed at the expense of the proprietor.

1978. No deviation from the fixed limits of a cantonment, or from those of the lines, bázars or enclosures surrounding Government buildings, is permitted without the sanction of Government, to be applied for through the Quartermaster General's department.

1979. When from any cause any portion of the area of an existing cantonment is found to be no longer required for military purposes, a report to that effect is to be made by the Commanding Officer to the Quartermaster General, in order that it may be made over to the civil authorities.

1980. A register of houses occupied and vacant, showing the rent of each, is to be kept in the station staff office, alterations being made in it from time to time, and no house is to be taken by any non-military officer unless with the concurrence of the Officer Commanding the station, whose duty it will be to see that such occupancy of the house will not interfere with public convenience.

1981. In order that the number of dwelling-houses in a cantonment available for civil and military officers, and officers of public departments, missionaries and others, may not be unduly diminished, no house, built on Government land or land leased from Government, or assigned to Government, for its own use, hitherto occupied as above, shall be converted into a shop, or otherwise rendered unsuitable as a residence, except under the sanction of the Officer Commanding the station; but any houses occupied as shops will not be liable to be registered as dwelling-houses, unless the owners wish it, or His Excellency the Commander-in-chief may consider it absolutely necessary.

1982. At stations such as Secunderabad, where the ground is foreign territory but assigned by the Nizam's Government to Her Majesty's Government for military purposes, the above rules, as regards the rental of houses and allotment of officers in the cantonment, are to have equal effect. Bangalore is specially exempted from the operation of these rules. Kamptee and Cuttack are under the Bengal Cantonment Rules.

orders of the Commander-in-chief, those submitted by gentlemen of the civil service being forwarded with the observations of His Excellency for final disposal by Government.

* * * * *

1986. Officers Commanding stations have authority to direct that Houses to be numbered. numbers shall be affixed to houses or compounds in cantonments; the expense being borne by the owner or by the cantonment fund, and not by Government, save for buildings actually used for public purposes or the property of Government. Residents may also be directed to affix their names and designations on their houses, compound walls or gateways.

1987. Residents in military cantonments are prohibited from making Excavations in cantonments. excavations on any ground within the boundaries except those made by permission to furnish materials for building, which are to be filled up again when no longer required at the expense of the individuals concerned.

* * * * *

1993. All matters connected with cantonment Officers to perform lands and boundaries will be duties connected with conducted, under the orders of the Commanding Officer, by the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, by the Cantonment Magistrate or the Staff Officer of the station, assisted, if necessary, by the Executive Engineer. Questions requiring the decision of higher authority are to be referred to headquarters through the Quartermaster General.

II.—Grants of Land.

(BENGAL AND BOMBAY.)

1994. In no case is any cantonment land to be enclosed or occupied without the sanction of the Commander-in-chief. Sanction of Commander-in-chief required to occupation of land. Commanding Officers are strictly prohibited from allowing any one to occupy a site, under any circumstances whatever, until such sanction has been officially received; nor are the boundaries of compounds to be changed, old roads closed or new ones opened, without similar authority. Building-sites granted to officers in military cantonments should be no larger than is absolutely necessary conforming as far as possible to the dimensions laid down in the Public Works Code.

1995. All applications for unoccupied ground for the purpose of being enclosed, built upon or to any way appropriated to private purposes, are to be forwarded, for transmission to the Officer Commanding the station, through the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, through the Cantonment Magistrate or Staff Officer of the station, as the case may be.

1996. The health and comfort of the troops occupied in any way calculated to be injurious to either or to the appearance of the cantonment. In forwarding to the Quartermaster General any application for a grant, he must certify that it is not objectionable in these or any other respects.

1997. All such applications are to be made on Bengal Form No. 85 and must be accompanied by a sketch or rough plan of the site applied for, embracing the portion of the cantonment adjacent to it, and exhibiting the roads, public buildings or private estates by which it is bounded; also any line of railway proposed or actually passing through the cantonment; and, where the line of railway does not immediately abut on the ground applied for, the direction and distance are to be shown. This plan is to be authenticated by an officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, when no such officer is present, by the Executive Engineer of the division, to the effect that no departmental objection is known to the application, and that the grant, if made, does not seem likely to interfere with any building existing or likely to be required.

1998. All grants are to be registered (Public Works Code,* paragraph 162, page 201) by the Cantonment Magistrate where one is allowed, or otherwise by the Staff Officer of the station; and all grants are to be immediately noted on the plan of the cantonment in the Quartermaster General's office.

1999. No ground will be granted except on the following conditions, which are to be subscribed to by every grantee as well as by those to whom his grant may subsequently be transferred:—

(a) Government to retain the power of resumption at any time, on giving one month's notice and paying the value of such buildings as may have been authorised to be erected.

(b) The ground, being in every case the property of Government, cannot be sold by the grantee; but houses or other property thereon situated may be transferred by one military or medical officer or chaplain to another on a joint report being made to the Staff Officer, who will make the requisite entry in the register, except in the case of relief, when, if required, the terms of the sale or transfer are to be adjusted by a committee of arbitration.

(c) If the ground has been built upon, the buildings are not to be disposed of to any person who does not belong to the army, until the consent of the Officer Commanding the station has been previously obtained under his hand.

(d) When it is proposed with the consent of applies to officers and others in the service of Government only, but the sale or transfer of any house in cantonments must first receive the sanction of the local military authorities.

(e) The Commanding Officer has power to cancel the grant if the ground be not brought into use for the purpose specified within twelve months.

(MADRAS.)

2000. Applications for grants of land within the limits of cantonments or fortresses will be made in the first instance to the Officer Commanding the station in the following form. No grants of land will be made except for the purpose of erecting thereon officers' quarters or shops for the convenience of residents. It will be the duty of the Officer Commanding the station to see that this purpose is fulfilled.

I am,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

2001. The Officer Commanding the station having satisfied himself that there is no objection in a military point of view to the occupation of the ground by the applicant, as also that it does not encroach on or interfere with any public road, parade or military work, will as-vicinity, accompanied by the application previously made to him, through the Officer Commanding the division, district or force, to the Quartermaster General, by whom it will be submitted for the consideration of the Commander-in-chief. In the event of its being sanctioned, a lease will be prepared by the Quartermaster General containing the following conditions:—

- i.—To hold the lease for fifty years, renewable at the end of every ten years, at the option of Government.
- ii.—To pay a yearly ground-rent as per Collector's valuation. To well and sufficiently repair, maintain, amend and keep the premises and appurtenances in such good and substantial repair as is necessary for the occupation of a tenant at rack-rent. To scour and cleanse all drains and water-courses belonging to the premises and keep the same free from obstruction. To remove from the premises and keep the same free from prickly-pear and aloe, and all causes of malaria. Hedges to be of a height not exceeding four feet from the level of the public road in front of, or leading to, the premises. To lop, and keep lopped, the branches of all trees, present and future, which shall grow lower than six feet from the ground.*
- iii.—The premises, although maintained in the above order, to be given to Government at any time if required.
- iv.—The premises to be open to the Government authorities, to take plans and examine the condition thereof.
- v.—All or parts of requirements, if found necessary to be supplied, notice of which in writing to be left at the premises, to be attended to by the lessee within three calendar months.
- vi.—Not to do, or willingly cause or suffer any act or thing to be done, in or upon the premises to the annoyance, grievance, damage or disturbance of Government or their tenants.
- vii.—On assigning the premises to another, a notice in writing of the assignment to be given to the Officer Commanding the cantonment, with full particulars, within three calendar months.
- viii.—The monthly rent should be limited to a sum equal to one-twelfth part of a sum equivalent to rupees fifteen per cent. per annum on the bonâ fide value of the building, to be certified by the local Engineer officer.
- ix.—To officers the monthly rent to be limited to, and in no case to exceed, either the said sum or the sum of one hundred rupees, whichever of the said sums shall be least in amount; the meaning being that no more than one hundred rupees a month as rent can be demanded, although the bonâ fide value of the building may be more.

x.—If at any time the tenant, being a military officer, shall consider the rent to exceed the amount mentioned in the foregoing clause, and if the Engineer certify to that effect, the lessee should reduce the rent to what the Engineer shall fix.

xi.—If at any time it is desired to let or sell, the preference should be given to military officers of the cantonment over anybody else.

xii.—If the house is required for the residence of any of the officers of the cantonment, notice in writing to be given to the owner, and after thirty days the house should be vacated for occupation by such officer.

xiii.—If the Government require the land at any time, it should be restored on payment of the fair value of the buildings, to be fixed by the Engineer. If dissatisfied with this value, the amount to be fixed by Government, which decision will be final.

xiv.—The lessee to conform to and obey all present and prospective orders and regulations of Government.

xv.—If the annual rent to Government is not paid within thirty days after the due date, or if the lessee become bankrupt or insolvent, and if there is any execution out against the lessee where the lease shall be seized or in case of the breach or non-performance of any of the conditions contained in the lease, it shall be lawful for the Government to obtain re-possession of the premises on payment of their value.

xvi.—If the ground is not built upon or brought into use for the purpose specified within twelve months, the lease may be cancelled under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-chief.

2002. The grant in perpetuity of any piece of ground within the precincts of any fort or cantonment shall not hereafter be accorded to any individual. It is of course sufficient to reject any application for ground if it be ascertained that to grant it would interfere with the public convenience in any manner whatever. With respect to land not the property of Government within fortresses or cantonments, application shall be made through the Collector and Board of Revenue to Government, a certificate from the Commanding Officer being at the same time produced to the effect that the occupation of the land in the manner proposed is free from objection in a military point of view.

2003. All grants of land made by Government under the above provisions in his office. No charge is to be made for this duty. The proportion of land allowed to officers of the army requiring it is as follows:—

Field Officers	...	22,500 square yards.
Captains	...	12,000 do.
Subalterns	...	7,000 do.

Although the above is to be considered the usual scale, yet it may occasionally happen that, from the inequality of ground or other local causes, there may be no objection to an extension of the scale.

2004. Officers occupying houses built upon ground for which a grant has been made, considering that they are overcharged for rent, are at liberty to apply to the Officer Commanding the division for a house board; should the house board be of the same opinion, the Engineer of the division will be called on to prepare an estimate of the value of the house or buildings agreeably to the terms of the grant. The Engineer will be guided by his departmental rules in making the estimate, taking into consideration the valuation of the materials composing each building,* its state of repair, accommodation and general convenience. Should the rent charged be found to exceed fifteen per cent. of the bona fide value of the buildings, it shall be reduced to that standard. It is to be understood that this percentage includes the cost of all annual and necessary repairs, &c., which the house-owner is bound to make. The proceedings of the board and estimate of the Engineer will be forwarded through the channel above prescribed to the Quartermaster General, and eventually, if necessary, to Government.

2005. In the event of the house-owner refusing to lower his rent according to the terms of his lease he will be liable to have it cancelled. Should he decline to make the repairs required, a house board will be assembled to decide upon what is really required and what expense is to be incurred; the house will be repaired agreeably to its decision and the bona fide cost deducted from the rent.

2006. In the case of parties possessing buildings on land for which no grant has been issued, the above stipulations are equally binding; but, should they refuse to conform to them, they will be obliged to have the buildings removed from off the ground, within six months from the date of the receipt of the order to do so.

2007. No building of any kind is to be erected in a cantonment without the sanction of the Commander-in-chief, which must be applied for, through the station and divisional authorities, to the Quartermaster General. This applies to public departmental buildings as well as all others. Every application should state clearly the description and size of the building it is proposed to erect, and the purpose for which it is required, and should be accompanied by a sketch of the proposed site showing the buildings and roads, &c., in its immediate vicinity.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE primary object of this Bill is to overcome the great and increasing difficulty which military officers experience in obtaining houses near their lines or other place of duty, or even within the limits of cantonments. This matter is dealt with in Chapter V of the Bill, which, while insisting generally on the prior claim of military officers to occupy houses in cantonments, specially provides that the claim is not to extend to houses which are occupied as banks or have been occupied for three years as hotels or shops, and that disputes respecting the amount of rent to be paid for houses claimed by military officers are to be settled by committees of arbitration in which the civilian element will be predominant if houseowners so desire. Such privileges with respect to residence in cantonments as members of the Civil Service and other civilians enjoy in some parts of India are to cease, the only houses which are not to be subject to the prior claim of military officers being those already mentioned and houses owned by or under the control of railway administrations or appropriated by the Government to the use of such officials as postmasters and telegraph-officers whose residence in cantonments is necessary for the public convenience.

Nearly all land occupied by houses in cantonments has been granted to houseowners, or their predecessors in interest, by the Government under the rules for the time being applicable to the cantonments and identical with or similar to those set forth in the second schedule to the Bill. Local Governments have been asked to state, for the purposes of Chapter V and section 35, what the exceptions, if any, are within the territories which they respectively administer.

2. Of the other portions of the Bill the following only appear to call for remark:—

(1) Section 2.—It is proposed to repeal all existing Cantonment Acts in force in British India and several obsolete enactments relating to cantonments and

- (2) Section 3.—The words “officer” and “soldier” are defined for the purposes of Chapters V and III, respectively; and the definition of the expression “spirituous liquor” is designed to remove difficulties which have arisen in the construction of that expression in existing enactments.
- (3) Sections 4-7.—It is proposed that every cantonment be a subdivision of the district in which it is situated, and that the Subdivisional Magistrate be called the Cantonment Magistrate. If, as a Magistrate, the Cantonment Magistrate requires assistance, it can be given by the appointment of a Special Magistrate under section 14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882. If, as Judge of a Court of Small Causes, he requires assistance, it can be given to him under section 8 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887. Officers who are now invested with power to try breaches of rules, not as Magistrates but in pursuance of an order of the Local Government under section 28, Act III of 1880, section 20, Madras Act I of 1866, or section 12, Bombay Act III of 1867, must be appointed Special Magistrates and, as such, observe the few rules prescribed in Chapter XX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, for the trial of summons-cases.
- (4) Section 8.—This section vests the administration of the cantonment police in the District Superintendent under the general control and direction of the District Magistrate. Commanding officers of cantonments are to be relieved of the duty, which is now unnecessarily imposed upon them, of serving processes issued by the Courts for execution in cantonments.
- (5) Sections 17-21.—These sections give a legal status to cantonment funds and cantonment committees. The want of such a status has been a not infrequent cause of inconvenience.
- (6) Section 28.—This section, which would make every cantonment a sub-district for the purposes of the Indian Registration Act, III of 1877, and the Cantonment Magistrate the Sub-Registrar of the sub-district, and require the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, with respect to the registration of documents, to be observed in every cantonment, is designed to reduce the difficulties which now occur in the maintenance of registers of immoveable property in cantonments.
- (7) Section 29.—Several of the powers which it is proposed to take for making rules are not given by enactments now in force.

The 12th October, 1888.

G. CHESNEY.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 12th October, 1888:

NO. 18 OF 1888.

A Bill to amend the Indian Marine Act, 1887.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian 1887. Marine Act, 1887; It is hereby enacted as follows;

1. For sub-section (2) of section 2 of the Indian Marine Act, 1887, XIV of 1887. Amendment of section 2, Act XIV of 1887. the following shall be substituted, namely:

"(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, vary any of the definitions in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) as occasion may appear to him to require, and the references to those clauses in the definition of the expression 'superior officer' in clause (e) of that sub-section shall be construed to be references to them as varied by any notification published under this sub-section and for the time being in force."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to enable the Governor General in Council, as occasion may require, to vary the definitions of "gazetted officer", "warrant officer" and "petty officer" in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of section 2, sub-section (1), of the Indian Marine Act, 1887. Inconvenience has resulted from the present hard-and-fast rules with respect to the classification of officers of the lower grades of the Indian Marine Service.

The 12th October, 1888.

PROPOSED RULE.

"PASSENGERS going by steamer to Chandbally must be provided with a ticket; but it is left to the owners of the steamers to decide whether the tickets will be issued on the steamer or on shore.

"The tickets issued on shore must bear serial numbers, and those on board are to be taken from a book with counterfoils. Before the steamer starts, the agent shall report to the Commander the number of tickets issued on shore, and on arrival the Commander shall send this report to the police officer, together with a statement showing the number of tickets issued by himself. He must show his ticket book to any police officer desiring to see it."

NOTICE BY THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BENGAL.

SUPPLY BILLS.

Notice is hereby given that supply bills for sums of Rs. 500 and above in even rupees are usually obtainable on the treasuries named below at the rates of premium shewn.

Any person desiring to obtain a supply bill should send to the Bank of Bengal, Calcutta, a written application containing the following information—(1) his own name and address; (2) the name of the person to whom payment is to be made; (3) the treasury on which the bill is to be granted; and (4) the amount for which the bill is to be granted. With this application the cost of the bill (the amount plus the premium) should be paid into the Bank. If payment by telegram is desired (but this is admissible only in cases in which the name of the payee has been previously registered in the Accountant-General's office), the fact should be stated in the application, and an additional rupee paid with the cost.

The Bank of Bengal will, if the amount is available at the treasury named, receive the money tendered, and grant a receipt, returning the application therewith. The receipt and the application should then be sent to the Accountant-General's office, by which the bill will be granted.

The Bank of Bengal will be advised by the Accountant-General on the 1st and 16th of each month of the amounts available at the several treasuries, and will receive the amounts tendered by the first comers till those amounts are exhausted.

If the Bank refuses to receive any sum tendered owing to the amount not being available at the treasury, the application will be retained by the Bank and forwarded by it to the Accountant-General, who will advise the Bank and the applicant if the amount can be made available.

NOTIFICATION.

The 25th October 1888.—The following rules, framed by the Magistrate of Burdwan, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, under section 15 of the Bengal Ferries Act I (B.C.) of 1885, have been accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor, and are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES UNDER SECTION 15, ACT I (B.C.) OF 1885 FOR THE DISTRICT OF BURDWAN.

Rule 1.—In these rules the term “Magistrate” includes—

- (a) the District Magistrate of Burdwan and any Magistrate subordinate to him and appointed by him in that behalf;
- (b) the District Board of Burdwan in respect of any public ferry, the management of which has been vested in it under section 35 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885; and any Local Board in the district of Burdwan when legally vested with powers in respect of any public ferry by the District Board of Burdwan.

Rule 2.—Every public ferry in the district of Burdwan shall either be held khas by the Magistrate or be leased by public auction.

Rules for the management of public ferries held khas.

Rule 3.—For every public ferry which is held khas, the Magistrate shall from time to time—

- (a) provide such boats, landing-stage, rest-houses, and other appliances as he shall think proper;
- (b) appoint a suitable person to superintend the plying of the ferry, provide and pay boatmen, receive the authorised tolls, and remit the same to the treasury;
- (c) fix, with the approval of the Commissioner, the tolls to be levied from persons using the ferry;
- (d) cause a schedule of such tolls, legibly painted in oil-paint in the vernacular, to be fixed up at every landing-place;
- (e) determine the maximum number of passengers, animals, carts, vehicles, and goods which each ferry-boat shall carry, and cause a notice to this effect to be affixed to each boat;
- (f) determine the hours within which the boats shall ply, and the minimum number of journeys to be made every day;
- (g) provide for the prompt conveyance of the mails at all times across the ferry.

Rule 4.—Any person may compound for tolls payable for the use of the ferry; and if the ferry should be closed before the expiry of the period for which such person has compounded for tolls payable for its use, he shall be entitled to a refund, the amount of which shall bear the same proportion to the whole sum paid by him as the period remaining bears to the whole period for which he compounded. Such refund shall be made under the orders of the Magistrate.

Rules for leasing out ferries.

Rule 5.—When it has been determined to lease the tolls of any public ferry by auction under section 9 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885, the Magistrate shall, at least 30 days before the auction is held, cause an advertisement of such auction to be published, both in English and in the vernacular, in such place and in such manner as to him shall seem expedient.

- (a) Such auction may be adjourned from day to day by notice given in open court without the issue of any fresh advertisement.

Rule 6.—The advertisement shall specify—

- (a) the time and place of the sale;
- (b) the period for which the ferry is to be leased, and the dates between which the lessee shall be bound to ply the ferry every year;
- (c) the number and description of the boats to be maintained, the strength of the crew to be employed on each, and the maximum number of passengers, animals, vehicles, and the bulk or weight of goods each is authorized to carry;
- (d) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide the boats and to keep them in repair;
- (e) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide and keep in order the landing-stages, and the rest-houses or travellers' sheds, if any, at either or both termini of the crossing;
- (f) the minimum number of crossings to be made daily at any particular season of the year;

- (g) the rate of tolls to be levied ;
- (h) the persons and things to be ferried over free of toll as provided in Rule 14 ;
- (i) the instalments in which the rent for the ferry is to be paid ; and
- (j) such other particulars as the Magistrate shall consider necessary.

Rule 7.—A copy of the advertisement, and of the Rules and the Form of Agreement required to be executed under section 9 of the Act, shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the Magistrate's office, and shall be duly notified on the day of the auction.

Rule 8.—On the day of the auction, the lessee to whom the ferry has been knocked down shall deposit one quarter's rent as security for the due fulfilment by him of the conditions of his lease. This deposit may, however, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be dispensed with in the case of small ferries in which boats or canoes are not provided by Government.

Rule 9.—In cases in which the ferry is leased for only a year, or part of a year, the lessee shall be held liable for the rent for the entire period the moment the ferry has been knocked down to him. In cases in which the ferry is leased for a number of years, the liability for each year's rent shall accrue from the first day of the year.

Rule 10.—The contract which the lessee will be required to execute under section 9 of the Act shall be in the form appended to these rules. If not executed within two months from date of sale, the Magistrate may re-sell the ferry.

Rule 11.—As soon as the contract has been executed by the lessee, the Magistrate shall furnish him, free of charge, with a copy of these rules, a list of the authorised tolls duly signed under section 19 of the Act, and two notice-boards having legibly painted on them in oil-paint in the vernacular the schedule of tolls applicable to the ferry, the number of boats which the lessee is bound to keep plying, the number of men by whom each boat is to be manned, and the maximum number of passengers, &c., each boat is allowed to carry. The notice-boards shall be fixed by the lessee in a conspicuous place at both ends of the ferry, and shall be kept by him in a proper condition. On the expiry of his lease, they shall be returned by him to the Magistrate.

Rules for the management of ferries leased by public auction, and for regulating their traffic.

Rule 12.—The lessee shall be bound to ferry over diligently, carefully, and with the least possible delay, all passengers, vehicles, animals and goods which may come to the ferry ghât to be ferried over.

Rule 13.—The rate of tolls to be levied shall be those fixed by the Magistrate, with the approval of the Commissioner, under section 18 of the Act.

Rule 14.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dâk-runners and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers, and their followers { when travelling on duty with
- (d) Police and other public officers and process-servants { their bond fide baggage, horses, palkies or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

Rule 15.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

Rule 16.—The ferry shall ordinarily ply between sunrise and sunset ; but the lessee may employ the boats in ferrying passengers across at any time after sunset, provided each boat so employed carries a light, which must be displayed in a conspicuous part of the boat.

Rule 17.—The Magistrate may, if necessary, fix the times for the crossing of the mails and dâk-runners, and may, as occasion arises, vary such times. He shall in all such cases give notice in writing to the lessee of the times at which the mails are to be ferried over, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the lessee to see that arrangements are specially made for the crossing of the mails immediately on their arrival at the ferry ghât, and that no delay is allowed to occur in their transit.

Rule 18.—The lessee shall provide and keep in proper order, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, the landing-stages on both sides of the ferry, and shall move them when necessary according to the rise and fall of the water. He shall also provide proper rest-houses or travellers' sheds on the banks of the ferry as required by the Magistrate, and shall make all proper arrangements and provide all suitable accommodation on the ferry-boats for passenger and goods traffic. He shall also keep in such order the slopes or approaches for a distance not exceeding 100 feet.

Rule 19.—The lessee shall mark on each boat in oil-paint the number of passengers, animals and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorized to carry at a single trip.

Rule 20.—When any ferry which has been leased for a given period is discontinued under the orders of the Magistrate before the expiry of that period, the lessee shall be allowed a deduction in the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the term of the lease.

If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the lessee has suffered any loss, consequent on the discontinuance of the ferry, the Magistrate may allow him such compensation as he thinks is deserved. But if the discontinuance of the ferry is due to the lowness of water in the river, no compensation should be allowed to the lessee.

Rule 21.—In the event of the ferry being discontinued before the expiry of the lease, either by order of the Magistrate or otherwise, all persons who have compounded for the tolls for its use shall be entitled to receive a refund calculated as in Rule 4, and unless the claims of all such persons have been satisfied by the lessee, the Magistrate shall have authority to satisfy the claims out of the deposit made by the lessee under Rule 8.

Rule 22.—The lessee shall furnish to any police officer or other person empowered by the Magistrate, all information in his power regarding suspicious persons or classes of persons who may have been, or may come to be, ferried over.

Rule 23.—The lessee shall be bound to furnish such returns of traffic as may from time to time be called for by an order in writing by the Magistrate, and for this purpose he shall keep up a register of traffic in the form to be prescribed by the Magistrate.

Rule 24.—If the lessee desires to establish communication across the ferry by means of a bridge of any kind, he shall first obtain the sanction in writing of the Magistrate, and shall, on obtaining such sanction, carry out any orders which the Magistrate may make regarding the opening of such bridge for the through passage of vessels and rafts. Such bridge shall on no account obstruct the free passage of the stream.

Rule 25.—The Magistrate may at any time require the lessee to repair or replace any boat which he considers to be in a dangerous state of disrepair, and the lessee shall thereupon be bound to repair or replace it as directed. And if the lessee fails to carry out the work the Magistrate may cause the same to be done and recover the cost in the same manner as other public demands.

Rule 26.—Police officers will report at once to the Magistrate of the District any instance of mismanagement of a public ferry, the insecurity of the boats, landing-stages, slopes or approaches, and any other defect in the working of the ferry which may come to their notice.

Rule 27.—The ferry boats belonging to any public ferry shall not be plied when the current, wind or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe and endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 28.—A register in the following form, showing the demand and collection on account of rents payable for tolls of public ferries, shall be kept up by the Magistrate.

Receipts on account of ferry , farmed by , at an annual rent of Rs.

Form of Agreement.

The Secretary of State for India in Council doth hereby lease to me hereinafter called the lessee, son of _____, resident of mouzah _____;
pergunnah _____, thana _____, district _____;
and I, the said lessee, do hereby take the lease of the public ferry across the river _____ _____ and situated on the road from _____ to _____ at the rent of Rs. _____ upon and under the following terms and conditions, viz.—

1. I, the lessee, have deposited _____ with the intent that the Magistrate shall hold the same until the determination of the lease, as partial security for the due performance by me of the stipulations herein contained, and for the observance by me of the provisions of the Bengal Ferries Act I (B.C.) of 1885, and the rules framed under it, and may deduct therefrom any rent which may become due or penalties which may be awarded under sections 23, 24, and 25 of the said Act.

2. I, the lessee, do hereby acknowledge to have received a copy of the rules under section 15 of the Act aforesaid, and to be aware of the provisions of section 10 of the Act, under which I am legally bound to conform to them. I also acknowledge to have received a list of the tolls to be levied at the ferry.

3. The lease to me is to be for _____, namely, from the _____, to the _____, and during this period I shall be bound to ply the ferry from the _____ to the _____ every year.

4. I hereby agree—

- (a) (to provide boats for the ferry and) to keep the boats (provided by the Magistrate for the ferry) in proper repair;
- (b) to employ a crew of _____ men on each boat;
- (c) to make arrangements that the boats shall start at the hours _____ from the landing-places;
- (d) to (provide and) keep in order the landing-stages and slopes or approaches on both banks of the river.

5. I shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dāk-runners and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
 - (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
 - (c) Military officers, soldiers and their followers
 - (d) Magistrate, police and other public officers and process-serving peons
 - (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
 - (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
 - (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.
- { when travelling on duty with the bond fide baggage, horses, palkies or other conveyances.

6. I shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

7. I hereby agree to pay the rent in the following instalments :—

		Rs. A. P.	Date.
1st	...	...
2nd	...	...
3rd	...	...
4th	...	...

8. If the rates of toll are reduced during the currency of my lease, or the exemptions from the payment of it are extended, this agreement is to be modified accordingly. I shall be given a fair opportunity of satisfying the Magistrate as to the effect of the change, and if the terms proposed by him thereafter are not such as I can reasonably accept, I will, according to the law, immediately carry into effect the order reducing the rates of toll, or extending the exemption from payment of it, but will at the same time state the amount of rent I may be willing to pay under the altered circumstances of the case. Should my offer appear to the Magistrate to be inadequate, it shall be competent to him to remove me and place another person in charge of the ferry, and for such time as I remain in charge of the ferry, after the issue of the order reducing the rates of tolls, or extending the exemption from payment of it, I shall pay rent in proportion to the amount of the reduction.

9. If I make default in the payment of the rent for the ferry, or of any penalty which may be lawfully imposed, or if I do not observe and perform the covenants herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to remove me from the charge of the ferry, and to settle the same with some other person or hold it khas. After such removal I shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of the ferry, or to levy any toll therefor. And if the rent on re-letting the ferry fall short of the amount at which it was leased to me, and the Government or District Board or Municipality thereby incur loss, I shall be held responsible for such difference or loss, the amount of which may be deducted from my deposit. If the deposit does not cover the loss incurred, the rent due from me, and the amount of tolls refunded by the Magistrate under Rule 21 of the rules under section 15 of the Act, the total amount which is deficient shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in section 12 of the Act.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay, from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

10. I will not assign, sublet or part with the possession of the ferry without the previous consent in writing of the Magistrate.

11. I shall not claim any compensation on account of roads being closed for repairs, or on account of inundations or the breaking down of bridges or deficiency of water in the river on which the ferry is situated.

NOTIFICATION.

The 25th October 1888.—The following rules, framed by the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, under section 22 of the Bengal Ferries Act I (B.C.) of 1885, have been accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor, and are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES UNDER SECTION 22, ACT I (B.C.) OF 1885, BURDWAN DIVISION.

Rule 1.—All private ferries shall be registered in the office of the Magistrate of the district in which they are situated, and particulars under the following heads shall be entered in the application for registration:—

- (a). Name of the ferry and names of the villages and thannah in which, and the river across which, it is situated.
- (b). The number and description of the boats to be maintained, and the strength of the crew to be employed on each.
- (c). The rates of tolls to be levied.
- (d). The maximum number of passengers, animals, vehicles and bulk or weight of goods to be carried by each boat.
- (e). The periods or season during which the ferry is to be plied every year.

Rule 2.—Before a private ferry is registered, the Magistrate shall satisfy himself that the statements contained in the application are correct.

Rule 3.—If the proprietor of any private ferry shall not apply, as required by rule 1, for its registration within three months from the publication of these rules, the Magistrate of the district may serve upon him a written notice requiring him to furnish the particulars stated in Rule 1 within a stated period of not less than one month; and any proprietor on whom such a notice has been served in respect of any ferry shall not maintain the same, or allow it to be maintained, after the expiry of the period fixed in such notice, unless the particulars required by Rule 1 shall have been furnished to the Magistrate as ordered.

Rule 4.—The proprietor of every private ferry shall be bound to adhere to the terms of his application, or of any statement furnished by him under Rule 3, and shall not reduce the number of boats or crews to be maintained by him, or allow any of his boats to carry an excess number of passengers, animals, vehicles or weight or bulk of goods.

Rule 5.—The proprietor shall mark legibly in oilpaint on each boat the number of passengers, animals, and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorized to carry at a single trip.

Rule 6.—A board showing the rates of tolls legibly painted in oil, shall be permanently exhibited at each landing place.

Rule 7.—The ferry shall ordinarily ply between sunrise and sunset, but the proprietor may ply the boats after sunset, provided each boat carries a light, which must be placed in a conspicuous part of the boat.

Rule 8.—The ferry shall not ply when the current, wind, or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe, or to endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 9.—The Magistrate may direct that any boat used in any private ferry may be examined by such officer as he may depute, and may prohibit the use of such boat if he is satisfied that it is of such a kind, or in such a condition, that its use is dangerous to life or property.

Rule 10.—The owner of every private ferry shall report without delay, at the police station within whose jurisdiction the ferry is situated, the occurrence of any accident at the ferry resulting in serious injury or in loss of life.

Rule 11.—The Magistrate may require the owner of any private ferry to state the name of any person to whom such ferry may be leased, or who may be placed in charge of such ferry.

Rule 12.—The person in charge of a private ferry, and all persons employed in working a private ferry-boat, shall be responsible that such boat shall not be overladen; and every person having been directed not to enter a fully laden boat, or not to load animals and goods in it, shall be bound to obey such direction.

NOTIFICATION.

The 25th October 1888.—The following rules, framed by the Magistrate of Hooghly with the approval of the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, under section 15 of the Bengal Ferries Act I (B.C.) of 1885, have been accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor and are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES UNDER SECTION 15, ACT I (B.C.) OF 1885, FOR THE DISTRICT OF HOOGHLY.

Rule 1.—In these rules the term “Magistrate” includes—

- (a) the District Magistrate of Hooghly and any Magistrate subordinate to him and appointed by him in that behalf;
- (b) the District Board of Hooghly in respect of any public ferry, the management of which has been vested in it under section 35 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885; and any Local Board in the district of Hooghly when legally vested with powers in respect of any public ferry by the district Board of Hooghly.

Rule 2.—Every public ferry in the district of Hooghly shall either be held khas by the Magistrate, or be leased by public auction.

Rules for the management of public ferries held khas.

Rule 3.—For every public ferry which is held khas, the Magistrate shall from time to time—

- (a) provide such boats, landing-stages, rest-houses, and other appliances as he shall think proper;
- (b) appoint a suitable person to superintend the plying of the ferry, provide and pay boatmen, receive the authorised tolls, and remit the same to the treasury;
- (c) fix, with the approval of the Commissioner, the tolls to be levied from persons using the ferry;
- (d) cause a schedule of such tolls, legibly painted in oil-paint in the vernacular, to be fixed up at every landing-place;
- (e) determine the maximum number of passengers, animals, carts, vehicles, and goods which each ferry-boat shall carry, and cause a notice to this effect to be affixed to each boat;
- (f) determine the hours within which the boats shall ply, and the minimum number of journeys to be made every day;
- (g) provide for the prompt conveyance of the mails at all times across the ferry.

Rule 4.—Any person may compound for tolls payable for the use of the ferry; and if the ferry should be closed before the expiry of the period for which such person has compounded for tolls payable for its use, he shall be entitled to a refund, the amount of which shall bear the same proportion to the whole sum paid by him as the period remaining bears to the whole period for which he compounded. Such refund shall be made under the orders of the Magistrate.

Rules for leasing out ferries.

Rule 5.—When it has been determined to lease the tolls of any public ferry by auction, under section 9 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885, the Magistrate shall, at least 30 days before the auction is held, cause an advertisement of such auction to be published, both in English and in the vernacular, in such place and in such manner as to him shall seem expedient.

- (a) Such auction may be adjourned from day to day by notice given in open court without the issue of any fresh advertisement.

Rule 6.—The advertisement shall specify—

- (a) the time and place of the sale;
- (b) the period for which the ferry is to be leased, and the dates between which the lessee shall be bound to ply the ferry every year.
- (c) the number and description of the boats to be maintained, the strength of the crew to be employed on each, and the maximum number of passengers, animals, vehicles, and the bulk or weight of goods each is authorised to carry;
- (d) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide the boats and to keep them in repair;
- (e) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide and keep in order the landing-stages and the rest-houses or travellers' sheds, if any, at either or both termini of the crossing;
- (f) the minimum number of crossings to be made daily at any particular season of the year;
- (g) the rate of tolls to be levied;

- (h) the persons and things to be ferried over free of toll as provided in Rule 14.
- (i) the instalments in which the rent for the ferry is to be paid; and
- (j) such other particulars as the Magistrate shall consider necessary.

Rule 7.—A copy of the advertisement, and of the Rules and the Form of Agreement required to be executed under section 9 of the Act, shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the Magistrate's office and shall be duly notified on the day of the auction.

Rule 8.—On the day of the auction the lessee to whom the ferry has been knocked down shall deposit one quarter's rent as security for the due fulfilment by him of the conditions of his lease. This deposit may, however, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be dispensed with in the case of small ferries in which boats or canoes are not provided by Government.

Rule 9.—In cases in which the ferry is leased for only a year, or part of a year, the lessee shall be held liable for the rent for the entire period the moment the ferry has been knocked down to him. In cases in which the ferry is leased for a number of years, the liability for each year's rent shall accrue from the first day of the year.

Rule 10.—The contract which the lessee will be required to execute under section 9 of the Act shall be in the form appended to these rules. If not executed within two months from date of sale, the Magistrate may re-sell the ferry.

Rule 11.—As soon as the contract has been executed by the lessee, the Magistrate shall furnish him, free of charge, with a copy of these rules, a list of the authorized tolls duly signed under section 19 of the Act, and two notice-boards having legibly painted on them in oil-paint in the vernacular the schedule of tolls applicable to the ferry, the number of boats which the lessee is bound to keep plying, the number of men by whom each boat is to be manned, and the maximum number of passengers, &c., each boat is allowed to carry. The notice-boards shall be fixed by the lessee in a conspicuous place at both ends of the ferry, and shall be kept by him in a proper condition. On the expiry of his lease they shall be returned by him to the Magistrate.

Rules for the management of ferries leased by public auction and for regulating their traffic.

Rule 12.—The lessee shall be bound to ferry over diligently, carefully, and with the least possible delay, all passengers, vehicles, animals and goods which may come to the ferry ghât to be ferried over.

Rule 13.—The rate of tolls to be levied shall be those fixed by the Magistrate, with the approval of the Commissioner under section 18 of the Act.

Rule 14.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail carts, dâk-runners, and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals, and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.

Rule 15.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

Rule 16.—The ferry shall ordinarily ply between sunrise and sunset; but the lessee may employ the boats in ferrying passengers across at any time after sunset, provided each boat so employed carries a light, which must be displayed in a conspicuous part of the boat.

Rule 17.—The Magistrate may, if necessary, fix the times for the crossing of the mails and dâk-runners, and may, as occasion arises, vary such times. He shall in all such cases give notice in writing to the lessee of the times at which the mails are to be ferried over, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the lessee to see that arrangements are specially made for the crossing of the mails immediately on their arrival at the ferry ghât, and that no delay is allowed to occur in their transit.

Rule 18.—The lessee shall provide and keep in proper order, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, the landing-stages on both sides of the ferry, and shall move them when necessary according to the rise and fall of the water. He shall also provide proper rest-houses or travellers' sheds on the banks of the ferry as required by the Magistrate, and shall make all proper arrangements and provide all suitable accommodation on the ferry-boats for passenger and goods traffic. He shall also keep in such order the slopes or approaches for a distance not exceeding 100 feet.

Rule 19.—The lessee shall mark on each boat in oil-paint the number of passengers, animals, and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorised to carry at a single trip.

Rule 20.—When any ferry which has been leased for a given period is discontinued under the orders of the Magistrate before the expiry of that period, the lessee shall be allowed a deduction in the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the term of the lease. If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the lessee has suffered any loss consequent on the discontinuance of the ferry, the Magistrate may allow him such compensation as he thinks is deserved. But if the discontinuance of the ferry is due to the lowness of water in the river, no compensation should be allowed to the lessee.

Rule 21.—In the event of the ferry being discontinued before the expiry of the lease, either by order of the Magistrate or otherwise, all persons who have compounded for the tolls for its use shall be entitled to receive a refund calculated as in Rule 4, and unless the claims of all such persons have been satisfied by the lessee, the Magistrate shall have authority to satisfy the claims out of the deposit made by the lessee under Rule 8.

Rule 22.—The lessee shall furnish to any police officer or other person empowered by the Magistrate, all information in his power regarding suspicious persons, or classes of persons who may have been, or may come to be, ferried over.

Rule 23.—The lessee shall be bound to furnish such returns of traffic as may from time to time be called for by an order in writing by the Magistrate, and for this purpose he shall keep up a register of traffic in the form to be prescribed by the Magistrate.

Rule 24.—If the lessee desires to establish communication across the ferry by means of a bridge of any kind, he shall first obtain the sanction, in writing, of the Magistrate, and shall, on obtaining such sanction, carry out any orders which the Magistrate may make regarding the opening of such bridge for the through passage of vessels and rafts. Such bridge shall on no account obstruct the free passage of the stream.

Rule 25.—The Magistrate may at any time require the lessee to repair or replace any boat which he considers to be in a dangerous state of disrepair, and the lessee shall thereupon be bound to repair or replace it as directed. And if the lessee fails to carry out the work the Magistrate may cause the same to be done and recover the cost in the same manner as other public demands.

Rule 26.—Police officers will report at once to the Magistrate of the District any instance of mismanagement of a public ferry, the insecurity of the boats, landing stages, slopes or approaches, and any other defect in the working of the ferry which may come to their notice.

Rule 27.—The ferry boats belonging to any public ferry shall not be plied when the current, wind or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe and endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 28.—A register in the following form, showing the demand and collection on account of rents payable for tolls of public ferries, shall be kept up by the Magistrate:—

4. I hereby agree—

- (a) (to provide boats for the ferry and) to keep the boats (provided by the Magistrate for the ferry) in proper repair;
- (b) to employ a crew of men on each boat;
- (c) to make arrangements that the boats shall start at the hours from the landing places;
- (d) to (provide and) keep in order the landing-stages and slopes or approaches on both banks of the river.

5. I shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dāk-runners and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers and their followers
- (d) Magistrate, police and other public officers and process-servants } when travelling on duty with their bond fide baggage, horses, palkies or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

6. I shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

7. I hereby agree to pay the rent in the following instalments:—

			Rs.	A.	P.	Date.
1st	...	...
2nd	...	...
3rd	...	...
4th	...	...

8. If the rates of toll are reduced during the currency of my lease, or the exemptions from the payment of it are extended, this agreement is to be modified accordingly. I shall be given a fair opportunity of satisfying the Magistrate as to the effect of the change, and if the terms proposed by him thereafter are not such as I can reasonably accept, I will, according to the law, immediately carry into effect the order reducing the rates of toll, or extending the exemption from payment of it, but will at the same time state the amount of rent I may be willing to pay under the altered circumstances of the case. Should my offer appear to the Magistrate to be inadequate, it shall be competent to him to remove me and place another person in charge of the ferry, and for such time as I remain in charge of the ferry after the issue of the order reducing the rates of tolls, or extending the exemption from payment of it, I shall pay rent in proportion to the amount of the reduction.

9. If I make default in the payment of the rent for the ferry, or of any penalty which may be lawfully imposed, or if I do not observe and perform the covenants herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to remove me from the charge of the ferry, and to settle the same with some other person or hold it khas. After such removal I shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of the ferry or to levy any toll therefor. And if the rent on re-letting the ferry fall short of the amount at which it was leased to me, and the Government or District Board or Municipality thereby incur loss, I shall be held responsible for such difference or loss, the amount of which may be deducted from my deposit. If the deposit does not cover the loss incurred, the rent due from me, and the amount of tolls refunded by the Magistrate under Rule 21 of the rules under section 15 of the Act, the total amount which is deficient shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in section 12 of the Act.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

10. I will not assign, sublet or part with the possession of the ferry without the previous consent, in writing, of the Magistrate.

11. I shall not claim any compensation on account of roads being closed for repairs or on account of inundations, or the breaking down of bridges or deficiency of water in the river on which the ferry is situated.

NOTIFICATION.

The 25th October 1888.—The following rules, framed by the Magistrate of Howrah, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, under section 15 of the Bengal Ferries Act, I (B.C.) of 1885, have been accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor, and are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

• RULES UNDER SECTION 15, ACT I (B.C.) OF 1885, FOR THE DISTRICT OF HOWRAH.

Rule 1.—In these rules the term “Magistrate” includes—

- (a) the District Magistrate of Howrah, and any Magistrate subordinate to him and appointed by him in that behalf;
- (b) the District Board of Howrah in respect of any public ferry, the management of which has been vested in it under section 35 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885; and any Local Board in the district of Howrah when legally vested with powers in respect of any public ferry by the District Board of Howrah.

Rule 2.—Every public ferry in the district of Howrah shall either be held khas by the Magistrate, or be leased by public auction.

Rules for the management of public ferries held khas.

Rule 3.—For every public ferry which is held khas, the Magistrate shall from time to time—

- (a) provide such boats, landing-stage, rest-houses, and other appliances as he shall think proper;
- (b) appoint a suitable person to superintend the plying of the ferry, provide and pay boatmen, receive the authorised tolls, and remit the same to the treasury;
- (c) fix, with the approval of the Commissioner, the tolls to be levied from persons using the ferry;
- (d) cause a schedule of such tolls, legibly painted in oil-paint in the vernacular, to be fixed up at every landing-place;
- (e) determine the maximum number of passengers, animals, carts, vehicles, and goods which each ferry-boat shall carry, and cause a notice to this effect to be affixed to each boat;
- (f) determine the hours within which the boats shall ply, and the minimum number of journeys to be made every day;
- (g) provide for the prompt conveyance of the mails at all times across the ferry.

Rule 4.—Any person may compound for tolls payable for the use of the ferry; and if the ferry should be closed before the expiry of the period for which such person has compounded for tolls payable for its use, he shall be entitled to a refund, the amount of which shall bear the same proportion to the whole sum paid by him as the period remaining bears to the whole period for which he compounded. Such refund shall be made under the orders of the Magistrate.

Rules for leasing out ferries.

Rule 5.—When it has been determined to lease the tolls of any public ferry by auction under section 9 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885, the Magistrate shall, at least 30 days before the auction is held, cause an advertisement of such auction to be published, both in English and in the vernacular, in such place and in such manner as to him shall seem expedient.

- (a) Such auction may be adjourned from day to day by notice given in open court without the issue of any fresh advertisement.

Rule 6.—The advertisement shall specify—

- (a) the time and place of the sale;
- (b) the period for which the ferry is to be leased, and the dates between which the lessee shall be bound to ply the ferry every year;
- (c) the number and description of the boats to be maintained, the strength of the crew to be employed on each, and the maximum number of passengers, animals, vehicles, and the bulk or weight of goods each is authorised to carry;
- (d) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide the boats and to keep them in repair;
- (e) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide and keep in order the landing-stages and the rest-houses or travellers' sheds, if any, at either or both termini of the crossing;
- (f) the minimum number of crossings to be made daily at any particular season of the year;

- (g) the rate of tolls to be levied ;
- (h) the persons and things to be ferried over free of toll as provided in Rule 14 ;
- (i) the instalments in which the rent for the ferry is to be paid ; and
- (j) such other particulars as the Magistrate shall consider necessary.

Rule 7.—A copy of the advertisement, and of the Rules and the Form of Agreement required to be executed under section 9 of the Act, shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the Magistrate's office, and shall be duly notified on the day of the auction.

Rule 8.—On the day of the auction, the lessee to whom the ferry has been knocked down, shall deposit one quarter's rent as security for the due fulfilment by him of the conditions of his lease. This deposit may, however, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be dispensed with in the case of small ferries in which boats or canoes are not provided by Government.

Rule 9.—In cases in which the ferry is leased for only a year, or part of a year, the lessee shall be held liable for the rent for the entire period the ferry has been knocked down to him. In cases in which the ferry is leased for a number of years, the liability for each year's rent shall accrue from the first day of the year.

Rule 10.—The contract which the lessee will be required to execute under section 9 of the Act shall be in the form appended to these rules. If not executed within two months from date of sale, the Magistrate may re-sell the ferry.

Rule 11.—As soon as the contract has been executed by the lessee, the Magistrate shall furnish him, free of charge, with a copy of these rules, a list of the authorised tolls duly signed under section 19 of the Act, and two notice-boards having legibly painted on them in oil-paint in the vernacular the schedule of tolls applicable to the ferry, the number of boats which the lessee is bound to keep plying, the number of men by whom each boat is to be manned, and the maximum number of passengers, &c., each boat is allowed to carry. The notice-boards shall be fixed by the lessee in a conspicuous place at both ends of the ferry, and shall be kept by him in a proper condition. On the expiry of his lease, they shall be returned by him to the Magistrate.

Rules for the management of ferries leased by public auction, and for regulating their traffic.

Rule 12.—The lessee shall be bound to ferry over diligently, carefully, and with the least possible delay, all passengers, vehicles, animals, and goods which may come to the ferry ghât to be ferried over.

Rule 13.—The rate of tolls to be levied shall be those fixed by the Magistrate, with the approval of the Commissioner, under section 18 of the Act.

Rule 14.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dâk-runners, and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals, and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers, and their followers
- (d) Police and other public officers and process-servants } when travelling on duty with their bond fide baggage, horses, palkies, or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

Rule 15.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

Rule 16.—The ferry shall ordinarily ply between sunrise and sunset ; but the lessee may employ the boats in ferrying passengers across at any time after sunset, provided each boat so employed carries a light, which must be displayed in a conspicuous part of the boat.

Rule 17.—The Magistrate may, if necessary, fix the times for the crossing of the mails and dâk-runners, and may, as occasion arises, vary such times. He shall in all such cases give notice in writing to the lessee of the times at which the mails are to be ferried over, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the lessee to see that arrangements are specially made for the crossing of the mails immediately on their arrival at the ferry ghât, and that no delay is allowed to occur in their transit.

Rule 18.—The lessee shall provide and keep in proper order, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, the landing-stages on both sides of the ferry, and shall move them when necessary according to the rise and fall of the water. He shall also provide proper rest-houses or travellers' sheds on the banks of the ferry as required by the Magistrate, and shall make all proper arrangements and provide all suitable accommodation on the ferry-boats for passenger and goods traffic. He shall also keep in such order the slopes or approaches for a distance not exceeding 100 feet.

Rule 19.—The lessee shall mark on each boat in oil-paint the number of passengers, animals, and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorised to carry at a single trip.

Rule 20.—When any ferry which has been leased for a given period is discontinued under the orders of the Magistrate before the expiry of that period, the lessee shall be allowed a deduction in the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the term of the lease. If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the lessee has suffered any loss, consequent on the discontinuance of the ferry, the Magistrate may allow him such compensation as he thinks is deserved. But if the discontinuance of the ferry is due to the lowness of water in the river, no compensation should be allowed to the lessee.

Rule 21.—In the event of the ferry being discontinued before the expiry of the lease, either by order of the Magistrate or otherwise, all persons who have compounded for the tolls for its use shall be entitled to receive a refund calculated as in Rule 4, and unless the claims of all such persons have been satisfied by the lessee, the Magistrate shall have authority to satisfy the claims out of the deposit made by the lessee under Rule 8.

Rule 22.—The lessee shall furnish to any police officer or other person empowered by the Magistrate, all information in his power regarding suspicious persons or classes of persons who may have been, or may come to be, ferried over.

Rule 23.—The lessee shall be bound to furnish such returns of traffic as may from time to time be called for by an order in writing by the Magistrate, and for this purpose he shall keep up a register of traffic in the form to be prescribed by the Magistrate.

Rule 24.—If the lessee desires to establish communication across the ferry by means of a bridge of any kind, he shall first obtain the sanction, in writing, of the Magistrate, and shall, on obtaining such sanction, carry out any orders which the Magistrate may make regarding the opening of such bridge for the through passage of vessels and rafts. Such bridge shall on no account obstruct the free passage of the stream.

Rule 25.—The Magistrate may at any time require the lessee to repair or replace any boat which he considers to be in a dangerous state of disrepair, and the lessee shall thereupon be bound to repair or replace it as directed. And if the lessee fails to carry out the work the Magistrate may cause the same to be done and recover the cost in the same manner as other public demands.

Rule 26.—Police officers will report at once to the Magistrate of the District any instance of mismanagement of a public ferry, the insecurity of the boats, landing-stages, slopes or approaches, and any other defect in the working of the ferry, which may come to their notice.

Rule 27.—The ferry boats belonging to any public ferry shall not be plied when the current, wind, or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe and endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 28.—A register in the following form, showing the demand and collection on account of rents payable for tolls of public ferries, shall be kept up by the Magistrate:—

Receipts on account of ferry , farmed by , at an annual rent of Rs.
[Signature of officer holding sales.]

 across the river , and situated on the road from to at the rent of Rs. upon and under the following terms and conditions, viz.—

1. I, the lessee, have deposited with the intent that the Magistrate shall hold the same until the determination of the lease, as partial security for the due performance by me of the stipulations herein contained, and for the observance by me of the provisions of the Bengal Ferries Act, I (B.C.) of 1885, and the rules framed under it, and may deduct therefrom any rent which may become due or penalties which may be awarded under sections 23, 24 and 25 of the said Act.

2. I, the lessee, do hereby acknowledge to have received a copy of the Rules under section 15 of the Act aforesaid, and to be aware of the provisions of section 10 of the Act, under which I am legally bound to conform to them. I also acknowledge to have received a list of the tolls to be levied at the ferry.

3. The lease to me is to be for _____, namely, from the _____ to the _____, and during this period I shall be bound to ply the ferry from the _____ to the _____ every year.

4. I hereby agree—

- (a) (to provide _____ boats for the ferry and) to keep the boats (provided by the _____ Magistrate for the ferry) in proper repair;
- (b) to employ a crew of _____ men on each boat;
- (c) to make arrangements that the boats shall start at the hours _____ from the landing-places;
- (d) to (provide and) keep in order the landing-stages and slopes or approaches on both banks of the river.

5. I shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dāk-runners and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers, and their followers {when travelling on duty with
- (d) Magistrate, police and other public officers and {their bond fide baggage, horses, process-serving peons {palkies or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

6. I shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

7. I hereby agree to pay the rent in the following instalments:—

4th	...	...

But if at any time before the expiry of the period for which the ferry has been leased to me, I be removed therefrom for any breach of the terms and conditions of the lease, or for any wilful breach of any of the rules under section 15 of the Act, I shall be liable to pay rent up to and including the instalment due next after my removal.

8. If the rates of toll are reduced during the currency of my lease, or the exemptions from the payment of it are extended, this agreement is to be modified accordingly. I shall be given a fair opportunity of satisfying the Magistrate as to the effect of the change, and if the terms proposed by him thereafter are not such as I can reasonably accept, I will, according to the law, immediately carry into effect the order reducing the rates of toll, or extending the exemption from payment of it, but will at the same time state the amount of rent I may be willing to pay under the altered circumstances of the case. Should my offer appear to the Magistrate to be inadequate, it shall be competent to him to remove me and place another person in charge of the ferry, and for such time as I remain in charge of the ferry after the issue of the order reducing the rates of tolls, or extending the exemption from payment of it, I shall pay rent in proportion to the amount of the reduction.

9. If I make default in the payment of the rent for the ferry, or of any penalty which may be lawfully imposed, or if I do not observe and perform the covenants herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to remove me from the charge of the ferry, and to settle the same with some other person or hold it khas. After such removal I shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of the ferry or to levy any toll therefor. And if the rent on reletting the ferry fall short of the amount at which it was leased to me, and the Government or District Board or Municipality thereby incur loss, I shall be held responsible for such difference or loss, the amount of which may be deducted from my deposit. If the deposit does not cover the loss incurred, the rent due from me, and the amount of tolls refunded by the Magistrate under Rule 21 of the rules under section 15 of the Act, the total amount which is deficient shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in section 12 of the Act.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay, from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

10. I will not assign, sublet or part with the possession of the ferry without the previous consent, in writing, of the Magistrate.

11. I shall not claim any compensation on account of roads being closed for repairs, or on account of inundations, or the breaking down of bridges or deficiency of water in the river on which the ferry is situated.

NOTIFICATION.

The 25th October 1888.—The following rules, framed by the Magistrate of Bankoora, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, under section 15 of the Bengal Ferries Act I (B.C.) of 1885, have been accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor and are published for general information.

COLMAN MACAULAY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES UNDER SECTION 15, ACT I (B.C.) OF 1885, FOR THE DISTRICT OF BANKOORA.

Rule 1.—In these rules the term “Magistrate” includes—

- (a) the District Magistrate of Bankoora and any Magistrate subordinate to him and appointed by him in that behalf;
- (b) the District Board of Bankoora in respect of any public ferry, the management of which has been vested in it under section 35 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885; and any Local Board in the district of Bankoora when legally vested with powers in respect of any public ferry by the District Board of Bankoora.

Rule 2.—Every public ferry in the district of Bankoora shall either be held khas by the Magistrate, or be leased by public auction.

Rules for the management of public ferries held khas.

Rule 3.—For every public ferry which is held khas, the Magistrate shall from time to time—

- (a) provide such boats, landing-stage, rest-houses and other appliances as he shall think proper;
- (b) appoint a suitable person to superintend the plying of the ferry, provide and pay boatmen, receive the authorised tolls, and remit the same to the treasury;
- (c) fix, with the approval of the Commissioner, the tolls to be levied from persons using the ferry;
- (d) cause a schedule of such tolls, legibly painted in oil-paint in the vernacular, to be fixed up at every landing-place;
- (e) determine the maximum number of passengers, animals, carts, vehicles, and goods which each ferry boat shall carry, and cause a notice to this effect to be affixed to each boat;
- (f) determine the hours within which the boats shall ply, and the minimum number of journeys to be made every day;
- (g) provide for the prompt conveyance of the mails at all times across the ferry.

Rule 4.—Any person may compound for tolls payable for the use of the ferry; and if the ferry should be closed before the expiry of the period for which such person has compounded for tolls payable for its use, he shall be entitled to a refund, the amount of which shall bear the same proportion to the whole sum paid by him, as the period remaining bears to the whole period for which he compounded. Such refund shall be made under the orders of the Magistrate.

Rules for leasing out ferries.

Rule 5.—When it has been determined to lease the tolls of any public ferry by auction under section 9 of Act I (B.C.) of 1885, the Magistrate shall, at least 30 days before the auction is held, cause an advertisement of such auction to be published, both in English and in the vernacular, in such place and in such manner as to him shall seem expedient.

- (a) Such auction may be adjourned from day to day by notice given in open court without the issue of any fresh advertisement.

Rule 6.—The advertisement shall specify—

- (a) the time and place of the sale;
- (b) the period for which the ferry is to be leased, and the dates between which the lessee shall be bound to ply the ferry every year;
- (c) the number and description of the boats to be maintained, the strength of the crew to be employed on each, and the maximum number of passengers, animals, vehicles, and the bulk or weight of goods each is authorised to carry;
- (d) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide the boats and to keep them in repair;
- (e) the liability or otherwise of the lessee to provide and keep in order the landing-stages, and the rest-houses or travellers' sheds, if any, at either or both termini of the crossing;
- (f) the minimum number of crossings to be made daily at any particular season of the year;
- (g) the rate of tolls to be levied;

- (h) the persons and things to be ferried over free of toll as provided in Rule 14;
- (i) the instalments in which the rent for the ferry is to be paid; and
- (j) such other particulars as the Magistrate shall consider necessary.

Rule 7.—A copy of the advertisement, and of the Rules and the Form of Agreement required to be executed under section 9 of the Act, shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the Magistrate's office, and shall be duly notified on the day of the auction.

Rule 8.—On the day of the auction, the lessee to whom the ferry has been knocked down shall deposit one quarter's rent as security for the due fulfilment by him of the conditions of his lease. This deposit may, however, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be dispensed with in the case of small ferries in which boats or canoes are not provided by Government.

Rule 9.—In cases in which the ferry is leased for only a year, or part of a year, the lessee shall be held liable for the rent for the entire period the moment the ferry has been knocked down to him. In cases in which the ferry is leased for a number of years, the liability for each year's rent shall accrue from the first day of the year.

Rule 10.—The contract which the lessee will be required to execute under section 9 of the Act shall be in the form appended to these rules. If not executed within two months from date of sale, the Magistrate may re-sell the ferry.

Rule 11.—As soon as the contract has been executed by the lessee, the Magistrate shall furnish him, free of charge, with a copy of these rules, a list of the authorised tolls duly signed under section 19 of the Act, and two notice-boards having legibly painted on them in oil-paint in the vernacular the schedule of tolls applicable to the ferry, the number of boats which the lessee is bound to keep plying, the number of men by whom each boat is to be manned, and the maximum number of passengers, &c., each boat is allowed to carry. The notice-boards shall be fixed by the lessee in a conspicuous place at both ends of the ferry, and shall be kept by him in a proper condition. On the expiry of his lease they shall be returned by him to the Magistrate.

Rules for the management of ferries leased by public auction and for regulating their traffic.

Rule 12.—The lessee shall be bound to ferry over diligently, carefully, and with the least possible delay, all passengers, vehicles, animals and goods which may come to the ferry ghât to be ferried over.

Rule 13.—The rate of tolls to be levied shall be those fixed by the Magistrate, with the approval of the Commissioner, under section 18 of the Act.

Rule 14.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail carts, dâk-runners, and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers, and their followers { when travelling on duty with their
- (d) Police and other public officers and process- { bonâ fide baggage, horses, palkies serving peons or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

Rule 15.—The lessee shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

Rule 16.—The ferry shall ordinarily ply between sunrise and sunset; but the lessee may employ the boats in ferrying passengers across at any time after sunset, provided each boat so employed carries a light, which must be displayed in a conspicuous part of the boat.

Rule 17.—The Magistrate may, if necessary, fix the times for the crossing of the mails and dâk-runners, and may, as occasion arises, vary such times. He shall in all such cases give notice in writing to the lessee of the times at which the mails are to be ferried over, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the lessee to see that arrangements are specially made for the crossing of the mails immediately on their arrival at the ferry ghât, and that no delay is allowed to occur in their transit.

Rule 18.—The lessee shall provide and keep in proper order, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, the landing-stages on both sides of the ferry, and shall move them when necessary according to the rise and fall of the water. He shall also provide proper rest-houses or travellers' sheds on the banks of the ferry as required by the Magistrate, and shall make all proper arrangements and provide all suitable accommodation on the ferry boats for passenger and goods traffic. He shall also keep in such order the slopes or approaches for a distance not exceeding 100 feet.

Rule 19.—The lessee shall mark on each boat in oil-paint the number of passengers, animals and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorised to carry at a single trip.

Rule 20.—When any ferry which has been leased for a given period is discontinued under the orders of the Magistrate before the expiry of that period, the lessee shall be allowed a deduction in the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the term of the lease. If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the lessee has suffered any loss, consequent on the discontinuance of the ferry, the Magistrate may allow him such compensation as he thinks is deserved. But if the discontinuance of the ferry is due to the lowness of water in the river, no compensation should be allowed to the lessee.

Rule 21.—In the event of the ferry being discontinued before the expiry of the lease, either by order of the Magistrate or otherwise, all persons who have compounded for the tolls for its use shall be entitled to receive a refund calculated as in Rule 4, and unless the claims of all such persons have been satisfied by the lessee, the Magistrate shall have authority to satisfy the claims out of the deposit made by the lessee under Rule 8.

Rule 22.—The lessee shall furnish to any police officer or other person empowered by the Magistrate all information in his power regarding suspicious persons or classes of persons who may have been, or may come to be, ferried over.

Rule 23.—The lessee shall be bound to furnish such returns of traffic as may from time to time be called for by an order in writing by the Magistrate, and for this purpose he shall keep up a register of traffic in the form to be prescribed by the Magistrate.

Rule 24.—If the lessee desires to establish communication across the ferry by means of a bridge of any kind, he shall first obtain the sanction in writing of the Magistrate, and shall, on obtaining such sanction, carry out any orders which the Magistrate may make regarding the opening of such bridge for the through passage of vessels and rafts. Such bridge shall on no account obstruct the free passage of the stream.

Rule 25.—The Magistrate may at any time require the lessee to repair or replace any boat which he considers to be in a dangerous state of disrepair, and the lessee shall thereupon be bound to repair or replace it as directed. And if the lessee fails to carry out the work, the Magistrate may cause the same to be done and recover the cost in the same manner as other public demands.

Rule 26.—Police officers will report at once to the Magistrate of the District any instance of mismanagement of a public ferry, the insecurity of the boats, landing-stages, slopes or approaches, and any other defect in the working of the ferry, which may come to their notice.

Rule 27.—The ferry boats belonging to any public ferry shall not be plied when the current, wind or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe and endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 28.—A register in the following form, showing the demand and collection on account of rents payable for tolls of public ferries, shall be kept up by the Magistrate.

Receipts on account of ferry , farmed by , at an annual rent of Rs.

He shall in all such cases give notice in writing to the lessee of the times at which the mails are to be ferried over, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the lessee to see that arrangements are specially made for the crossing of the mails immediately on their arrival at the ferry ghât, and that no delay is allowed to occur in their transit.

Rule 18.—The lessee shall provide and keep in proper order, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, the landing-stages on both sides of the ferry, and shall move them when necessary according to the rise and fall of the water. He shall also provide proper rest-houses or travellers' sheds on the banks of the ferry as required by the Magistrate, and shall make all proper arrangements and provide all suitable accommodation on the ferry-boats for passenger and goods traffic. He shall also keep in such order the slopes or approaches for a distance not exceeding 100 feet.

Rule 19.—The lessee shall mark on each boat in oil-paint the number of passengers, animals and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things it is authorised to carry at a single trip.

Rule 20.—When any ferry which has been leased for a given period is discontinued under the orders of the Magistrate before the expiry of that period, the lessee shall be allowed a deduction in the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the term of the lease.

If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the lessee has suffered any loss, consequent on the discontinuance of the ferry, the Magistrate may allow him such compensation as he thinks is deserved. But if the discontinuance of the ferry is due to the lowness of water in the river, no compensation should be allowed to the lessee.

Rule 21.—In the event of the ferry being discontinued before the expiry of the lease, either by order of the Magistrate or otherwise, all persons who have compounded for the tolls for its use shall be entitled to receive a refund calculated as in Rule 4, and unless the claims of all such persons have been satisfied by the lessee, the Magistrate shall have authority to satisfy the claims out of the deposit made by the lessee under Rule 8.

Rule 22.—The lessee shall furnish to any police officer or other person empowered by the Magistrate, all information in his power regarding suspicious persons or classes of persons who may have been, or may come to be, ferried over.

Rule 23.—The lessee shall be bound to furnish such returns of traffic as may from time to time be called for by an order in writing by the Magistrate, and for this purpose he shall keep up a register of traffic in the form to be prescribed by the Magistrate.

Rule 24.—If the lessee desires to establish communication across the ferry by means of a bridge of any kind, he shall first obtain the sanction in writing of the Magistrate, and shall, on obtaining such sanction, carry out any orders which the Magistrate may make regarding the opening of such bridge for the through passage of vessels and rafts. Such bridge shall on no account obstruct the free passage of the stream.

Rule 25.—The Magistrate may at any time require the lessee to repair or replace any boat which he considers to be in a dangerous state of disrepair, and the lessee shall thereupon be bound to repair or replace it as directed. And if the lessee fails to carry out the work, the Magistrate may cause the same to be done and recover the cost in the same manner as other public demands.

Rule 26.—Police officers will report at once to the Magistrate of the district any instance of mismanagement of a public ferry, the insecurity of the boats, landing-stages, slopes of approaches, and any other defect in the working of the ferry which may come to their notice.

Rule 27.—The ferry boats belonging to any public ferry shall not be plied when the current, wind or state of the weather is such as to render the crossing unsafe and endanger the lives of the passengers.

Rule 28.—A register in the following form, showing the demand and collection on account of rents payable for tolls of public ferries, shall be kept up by the Magistrate:—

Receipts on account of ferry , farmed by , at an annual rent of Rs.
[Signature of officer holding sales.]

Serial number.	DETAILS OF PAYMENTS.	Amount.	Amount	PAYMENT.				REMARKS.
				Date.	Number of challan.	Initials of Magistrate or Vice-Chairman.	Initials of Treasury Officer.
		Rs.	Rs.

Rule 29.—A quarterly statement shall also be kept showing the demand, collection, and arrears up to date on account of rents for public ferries.

Form of Agreement.

The Secretary of State for India in Council doth hereby lease to me hereinafter called the lessee, son of , resident of mouzah , pergunnah , thana , district , and I, the said lessee, do hereby take the lease of the public ferry across the river ;
, and situated on the road from to , at the rent of Rs. upon and under the following terms and conditions, viz.—

1. I, the lessee, have deposited with the intent that the Magistrate shall hold the same until the determination of the lease, as partial security for the due performance by me of the stipulations herein contained, and for the observance by me of the provisions of the Bengal Ferries Act, I (B.O.) of 1885, and the rules framed under it, and may deduct therefrom any rent which may become due or penalties which may be awarded under sections 23, 24, and 25 of the said Act.

2. I, the lessee, do hereby acknowledge to have received a copy of the rules under section 15 of the Act aforesaid, and to be aware of the provisions of section 10 of the Act, under which I am legally bound to conform to them. I also acknowledge to have received a list of the tolls to be levied at the ferry.

3. The lease to me is to be for _____, namely, from the to the _____, and during this period I shall be bound to ply the ferry from the _____ to the _____ every year.

4. I hereby agree—

- (a) (to provide _____ boats for the ferry and) to keep the boats (provided by the Magistrate for the ferry) in proper repair;
- (b) to employ a crew of _____ men on each boat;
- (c) to make arrangements that the boats shall start at the hours _____ from the landing-places;
- (d) to (provide and) keep in order the landing-stages and slopes or approaches on both banks of the river.

5. I shall not charge or demand tolls for ferrying over—

- (a) Mails, mail-carts, dāk-runners and Government telegraph messengers on duty.
- (b) Commissariat stores, animals and vehicles, when accompanied by a challan from the Commissariat officer.
- (c) Military officers, soldiers, and their followers { when travelling on duty with
- (d) Magistrate, police and other public officers { their bond fide baggage, horses, and process serving-peons { palkies, or other conveyances.
- (e) Executive officers of the District Road Department when travelling on duty.
- (f) Coolies engaged in repairing roads, with their tools and instruments.
- (g) Persons carrying dead bodies or property sent in by the police.

6. I shall not charge or demand tolls from persons who wade or swim across, or take cattle or other animals or property across at their own cost and risk, or from persons who cross themselves, or take other persons across without charge, in their own boats.

7. I hereby agree to pay the rent in the following instalments:—

		Rs. A. P.	Date.
1st	...	...
2nd	...	...
3rd	...	...
4th	...	...

But if at any time before the expiry of the period for which the ferry has been leased to me, I be removed therefrom for any breach of the terms and conditions of the lease, or for any wilful breach of any of the rules under section 15 of the Act, I shall be liable to pay rent up to and including the instalment due next after my removal.

8. If the rates of toll are reduced during the currency of my lease, or the exemptions from the payment of it are extended, this agreement is to be modified accordingly. I shall be given a fair opportunity of satisfying the Magistrate as to the effect of the change, and if the terms proposed by him thereafter are not such as I can reasonably accept, I will, according to the law, immediately carry into effect the order reducing the rates of toll, or extending the exemption from payment of it, but will at the same time state the amount of rent
I may be willing to pay under the altered circumstances of the case. Should my offer appear to the Magistrate to be inadequate, it shall be competent to him to remove me and place another person in charge of the ferry, and for such time as I remain in charge of the ferry after the issue of the order reducing the rates of tolls, or extending the exemption from payment of it, I shall pay rent in proportion to the amount of the reduction.

9. If I make default in the payment of the rent for the ferry, or of any penalty which may be lawfully imposed, or if I do not observe and perform the covenants herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to remove me from the charge of the ferry, and to settle the same with some other person or hold it khas. After such removal
I shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of the ferry, or to levy any toll therefor.
And if the rent on re-letting the ferry fall short of the amount at which it was leased to me, and the Government or District Board or Municipality thereby incur loss, I shall be held responsible for such difference or loss, the amount of which may be deducted from my deposit. If the deposit does not cover the loss incurred, the rent due from me, and the amount of tolls refunded by the Magistrate under Rule 21 of the rules under section 15 of the Act, the total amount which is deficient shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in section 12 of the Act.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

10. I will not assign, sublet or part with the possession of the ferry without the previous consent in writing of the Magistrate.

11. I shall not claim any compensation on account of roads being closed for repairs, or on account of inundations or the breaking down of bridges or deficiency of water in the river on which the ferry is situated.

34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 73, 74, 75, and 76	...	Kishenpur Station, ditto	The 7th January 1889.
77, 78, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 112, 119, and 120	...	Bilashpur ditto, ditto	The 10th ditto.
129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 152, 153, 154, and 155.	...	Durbhanga Court Station, ditto	The 13th ditto.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions :—
1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the lands closer than three feet from its foundation.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.
3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceeds Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the 15th day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid either to the Collector or into the Government Treasury, Durbhanga.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue-free to the highest bidders.
6th.—The purchaser shall be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sale, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final consideration of the Board of Revenue should not be accorded to the proceedings.

A. H. WARDE-JONES, for Collector.

Reported Darbhanga Collectorate, the 10th August 1888.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned plots of land, no longer required by Government, situated along the Eastern Bengal State Railway, in the district of 24-Pergunnahs, will be put up to sale at the villages in which the plots of land are situated, on the 6th, 7th and 8th of November 1888.

The purchasers of the several plots of land will be subject to the following conditions:—

1st.—The purchasers will have no power to make any excavations on the land nearer than fifteen feet from the Railway fencing, or plough the land closer than three feet from the fencing.

2nd.—If the amount of purchase-money does not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount must be paid down at once.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount must be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale shall be cancelled, the sum deposited being forfeited to Government, and the lot again put up for sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

4th.—The balance of purchase-money due under the third condition may be paid to the Deputy Collector for Railways at Sealdah.

5th.—The plots of land will be sold revenue free to the highest bidders.

6th.—The purchasers will be put in possession on receipt of the orders of the District Collector approving of the sales, but such possession shall be liable to be disturbed in case the final confirmation of the Board of Revenue is accorded to the proceedings.

H. A. D. PHILLIPS,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal

The 24th November 1886.

The following revised advertisement is published in substitution for that which appeared at page 1084, Part I of the Calcutta Gazette of the 9th July 1884:—

The Indian Law Reports,

Published under Authority.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad, and comprise four series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat, and the Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay, and Allahabad respectively.

In supersession of the previous advertisements, on and from the 1st April 1888, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows for current issues as well as for back numbers of the Reports from 1876:—

Terms of subscription payable annually in advance.

For the complete series, including postage, Rs. 22-8.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA. LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 18th October, 1888:

No. 19 OF 1888.

A Bill to amend the Law relating to Fraudulent Marks on Merchandise.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to fraudulent marks on merchandise; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Merchandise Marks Act,
Title, extent and commencement. 1889.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of April, 1889.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "trade mark" has the meaning assigned to that expression in section 478 of the Indian Penal Code as amended by this Act:

(2) "trade description" means any description, statement or other indication, direct or indirect,—

(a) as to the number, quantity, measure, gauge or weight of any goods, or

(b) as to the place or country in which any goods were made or produced, or

(c) as to the mode of manufacturing or producing any goods, or

(d) as to the material of which any goods are composed, or

(e) as to any goods being the subject of an existing patent, privilege or copyright, and the use of any figure, word or mark which according to the custom of the trade is commonly taken to be an indication of any of the above matters shall be deemed to be a trade description within the meaning of this Act:

(3) "false trade description" means a trade description which is untrue in a material respect as regards the goods to which it is applied, and includes every alteration of a trade description, whether by way of addition, effacement or otherwise, where that alteration makes the description untrue in a material respect, and the fact that a trade description is a trade mark or part of a trade mark shall not prevent such trade description being a false trade description within the meaning of this Act:

(4) "goods" means anything which is the subject of trade or manufacture: and

(5) "name" includes any abbreviation of a name.

Amendment of the Indian Penal Code.

3. For that part of Chapter XVIII of the Indian Penal Code which relates to Trade and Property Marks, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"Of Trade and Property Marks."

"478. A mark used for denoting that goods have been made or manufactured by a particular person or at a particular time or place or that they are of a particular quality is called a trade mark, and for the purposes of this Code the expression "trade mark" includes any trade mark which is registered in the register of trade marks kept under the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, and any trade mark which, either with or without registration, is protected by law in any British possession or foreign State to which the provisions of the one hundred and third section of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, are, under Order in Council, for the time being applicable.

"479. A mark used for denoting that moveable property belongs to a particular person is called a property mark.

"480. Whoever marks any goods or any case, package or other receptacle containing goods, or uses any case, package or other receptacle with any mark thereon, in a manner calculated to cause it to be believed that the goods so marked, or any goods contained in any such receptacle so marked, were made or manufactured by a person by whom they were not made or manufactured, or that they were made or manufactured at a time or place at which they were not made or manufactured, or that they are of a particular quality of which they are not, is said to use a false trade mark.

"481. Whoever marks any moveable property or goods or any case, package or other receptacle containing moveable property or goods, or uses any case, package or other receptacle having any mark thereon, in a manner calculated to cause it to be believed that the property or goods so marked, or any property or goods contained in any such receptacle so marked, belong to a person to whom they do not belong, is said to use a false property mark.

"482. Whoever uses any false trade mark or any false property mark shall, unless he proves that he acted without intent to defraud, be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

"483. Whoever counterfeits any trade mark or property mark used by any other person shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

"484. Whoever counterfeits any property mark used by a public servant, or any mark used by a public servant to denote that any property has been manufactured by a particular person or at a particular time or place or that the property is of a particular quality or has passed through a particular office or that it is entitled to any exemption, or uses as genuine any such mark knowing the same to be counterfeit, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine.

"485. Whoever makes or has in his possession any die, plate or other instrument for the purpose of counterfeiting a trade mark or property mark, or has in his possession a trade mark or property mark for the purpose of denoting that any goods were made or manufactured by a particular person or firm by whom they were not made or at a time or place at which they were not made or that they are of a particular quality of which they are not, or that they belong to a person to whom they do not belong, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

"486. Whoever sells, or exposes or has in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, any goods with a counterfeit trade mark or property mark affixed to or impressed upon the same or to or upon any case, package or other receptacle in which such goods are contained, shall, unless he proves—

- (a) that, having taken all reasonable precautions against committing an offence against this section, he had at the time of the commission of the alleged offence no reason to suspect the genuineness of the mark, and
- (b) that, on demand made by or on behalf of the prosecutor, he gave all the information in his power with respect to the persons from whom he obtained such goods or things, or
- (c) that otherwise he had acted innocently, be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

"487. Whoever makes any false mark upon any case, package or other receptacle containing goods, in a manner calculated to cause any public servant or any other person to believe that such receptacle contains goods which it does not contain or that it does not contain goods which it does contain or that the goods contained in such receptacle are of a nature or quality different from the real nature or quality thereof shall, unless he proves that he acted without intent to defraud, be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

"488. Whoever makes use of any such false mark in the manner last aforesaid shall, unless he proves that he acted without intent to defraud, be punished as if he had committed an offence against the last foregoing section.

"489. Whoever removes, destroys or defaces any property mark, intending or knowing it to be likely that he may thereby cause injury to any person, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both."

Trade Descriptions.

(2) The provisions of this Act respecting the application of a false trade description to goods, or respecting goods to which a false trade description is applied, shall extend to the application to goods of any false name or initials of a person, and to goods with the false name or initials of a person applied, in like manner as if such name or initials were a trade description, and for the purpose of this enactment the expression false name or initials means as applied to any goods any name or initials—

- (a) not being a trade mark, or part of a trade mark, and
- (b) being identical with, or a colourable imitation of, the name or initials of a person carrying on business in connexion with goods of the same description and not having authorised the use of such name or initials.

5. (1) A person shall be deemed to apply a trade description to goods who—

- (a) applies it to the goods themselves, or
- (b) applies it to any covering, label, reel or other thing in or with which the goods are sold or are exposed or had in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, or
- (c) places, encloses or annexes any goods which are sold, or are exposed or had in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, in, with or to any covering, label, reel or other thing to which a trade description has been applied, or
- (d) uses a trade description in any manner calculated to lead to the belief that the goods in connexion with which it is used are designated or described by that trade description.

(2) A trade description shall be deemed to be applied whether it is woven, impressed or otherwise worked into or annexed or affixed to the goods or any covering, label, reel or other thing.

(3) The expression "covering" includes any stopper, cask, bottle, vessel, box, cover, capsule, case, frame or wrapper, and the expression "label" includes any band or ticket.

6. If a person applies a false trade description to goods, he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, and unless he proves that he acted without intent to defraud, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

7. If a person sells, or exposes or has in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, any goods or things to which a false trade description is applied, he shall, unless he proves—

- (a) that having taken all reasonable precautions against committing an offence against this section he had at the time of the commission of the alleged offence no reason to suspect the genuineness of the trade description, and
- (b) that, on demand made by or on behalf of the prosecutor, he gave all the information in his power with respect to the persons from whom he obtained such goods or things, or
- (c) that otherwise he had acted innocently, he be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and in case of a second or subsequent conviction with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Unintentional Contravention of the Law relating to Marks and Descriptions.

8. Where a person is accused under section 482 of the Indian Penal Code of using a false trade mark or property mark by reason of his having applied a mark to any goods, property or receptacle in the manner mentioned in section 480 or section 481 of that Code, as the case may be, or under section 6 of this Act of applying to goods any false trade description, or under section 485 of the Indian Penal Code of making any die, plate or other instrument for the purpose of counterfeiting a trade mark or property mark, and proves—

Unintentional contravention of the law relating to marks and descriptions.

- (a) that in the ordinary course of his business he is employed, on behalf of other persons, to apply trade marks or property marks, or trade descriptions, or, as the case may be, to make dies, plates or other instruments for making, or being used in making, trade marks or property marks, and that in the case which is the subject of the charge he was so employed and was not interested in the goods or other thing by way of profit or commission dependent on the sale thereof, and
- (b) that he took reasonable precautions against committing the offence charged, and Forfeiture of Goods.

1860. 9. (1) When a person is convicted under section 482 of the Indian Penal Code of using a false trade mark, or under section 486 of that Code of selling, or exposing or having in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, any goods with a counterfeit trade mark applied thereto, or under section 487 or section 488 of that Code of making, or making use of, a false mark, or under section 6 or section 7 of this Act of applying a false trade description to goods or of selling, or exposing or having in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture, any goods to which a false trade description is applied, or is acquitted on proof of the matter or matters specified in section 486 of the Indian Penal Code or section 7 or section 8 of this Act, the Court convicting or acquitting him may direct the forfeiture to Her Majesty of all goods and things by means of, or in relation to, which the offence has been committed or, but for such proof as aforesaid, would have been committed.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed to affect the provisions of Chapter XLIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882.

(3) Courts in the exercise of their discretion with respect to the direction of forfeiture under this section shall observe any instructions which the Governor General in Council may issue for their guidance.

Amendment of the Sea Customs Act, 1878.

1878. 10. For clause (d) of section 18 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

of 1860. “(d) goods having applied thereto a counterfeit trade mark within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, or a false trade description within the meaning of the Indian Merchandise Marks Act, 1889:

(e) goods made or produced beyond the limits of the United Kingdom and British India and having applied thereto any name or trade mark being, or purporting to be, or being a colourable imitation of, the name or trade mark of any person who is a manufacturer, dealer or trader in the United Kingdom or in British India, unless—

(i) the name or trade mark is, as to every application thereof, accompanied by a definite indication of the goods having been made or produced in a place beyond the limits of the United

(ii) that place and the country in which it is situated are in that indication indicated in letters as large and conspicuous as any letter in the name or trade mark.”

11. The following shall be added after section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, namely:—

[50 & 51 Vict., c. 28, s. 16 (2), (3), (4), (5), (7) & (8).] VIII of 1878.

“19A. (1) Before detaining any such goods as are or may be specified in or under section 18 or section 19, as the case may be, or taking any further proceedings with a view to the confiscation thereof under this Act, the Chief Customs-officer or other officer appointed by the Local Government in this behalf may require the regulations under this section, whether as to information, security, conditions or other matters, to be complied with, and may satisfy himself in accordance with those regulations that the goods are such as are prohibited to be imported.

(2) The Governor-General in Council may make, revoke and vary regulations, either general or special, respecting the detention and confiscation of goods the importation of which is prohibited, and the conditions, if any, to be fulfilled before such detention and confiscation, and may by such regulations determine the information, notices and security to be given, and the evidence requisite for any of the purposes of this section, and the mode of verification of such evidence.

(3) Where there is on any goods a name which is identical with, or a colourable imitation of, the name of a place in the United Kingdom or British India, that name, unless accompanied in equally large and conspicuous letters by the name of the country in which such place is situate, shall be treated for the purposes of sections 18 and 19 as if it were the name of a place in the United Kingdom or British India.

(4) Such regulations may apply to all goods the importation of which is prohibited by section 18 or under section 19, or different regulations may be made respecting different classes of such goods or of offences in relation to such goods.

(5) The regulations may provide for the informant reimbursing any public officer and the Secretary of State for India in Council all expenses and damages incurred in respect of any detention made on his information, and of any proceedings consequent on such detention.

(6) All regulations under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India.”

Supplemental Provisions.

12. On the sale or in the contract for the sale of any goods to which a trade mark or mark or trade description has been applied, the seller shall be deemed to warrant that the mark is a genuine mark and not counterfeit or falsely used, or that the trade description is not a false trade description within the meaning of this Act, unless the contrary is expressed in some writing signed by or on behalf of the seller and delivered at the time of the sale or contract to and accepted by the buyer

[51 & 52 Vict.,
c. 28, s. 19.]

13. (1) This Act shall not exempt any person from any suit or other proceeding which might, but for the provisions of this Act, be brought against him.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall entitle any person to refuse to make a complete discovery or to answer any question or interrogatory in any suit or other proceeding, but such discovery or answer shall not be admissible in evidence against such person in any prosecution for an offence against this Act.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to render liable to any prosecution or punishment any servant of a master resident in British India who in good faith acts in obedience to the instructions of such master, and, on demand made by or on behalf of the prosecutor, has given full information as to his master.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to bring the law of India relating to fraudulent marks on merchandise into accord, as far as local circumstances admit, with the law of England as enacted in the Merchandise Marks Act, 1887. The Bill adopts the provisions of that Act with respect to false trade descriptions and recasts on the lines of that Act that part of the Indian Penal Code which relates to trade marks and property marks and that part of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, which relates to the prohibition of the importation into British India of goods bearing false descriptions or marks.

PART VI.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making
Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 20th September, 1888:

NO. 13 OF 1888.

A Bill to supplement certain provisions of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement by legislation in the Council of the Governor-General for making Laws and Regulations certain provisions of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[Act XXII of 1870, and see 34 & 35 Vict., c. 34, s. 3.]

1. The City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889, shall, so far as regards—

(a) the jurisdiction thereby conferred upon Appellate Benches of Municipal Authorities and upon Presidency and other Magistrates and Courts of Small Causes or any Judge of such a Court, and

(b) the decisions, orders and other proceedings of those Benches, Magistrates and Courts or of any such Judge, be as valid as if they had been passed by the Governor-General of India in Council at a meeting for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

2. (1) If before or on the hearing of an appeal under section 217¹⁸⁸ of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, any question of law or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document, which construction may affect the merits, arises, on which the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay entertains reasonable doubt, the Chief Judge may, either of his own motion or on the application of either or any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement, with his own opinion on the point, for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

(2) When a reference is made to the High Court under sub-section (1), the provisions of sections 618 to 621, both inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes and to the High Court, respectively.

3. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from a decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, when the amount of the claim in respect of which the decision is passed exceeds two thousand rupees.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure with respect to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to appeals under sub-section (1), and orders passed therein by the High Court may, on application to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes, be executed by him as if they were decrees made by himself.

(3) A decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, shall, if an appeal does not lie therefrom under sub-section (1), be final.

4. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from an order passed by a Presidency Magistrate under section 515 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888.

(2) The High Court may from time to time make rules for regulating the admission of appeals under sub-section (1) and the procedure to be followed in the adjudication thereof.

(3) When an appeal has been preferred to the High Court under this section, the Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay shall defer action upon the order of the Presidency Magistrate until the appeal has been disposed of :

(4) But, when the appeal has been disposed of, he shall forthwith give effect to the order passed therein by the High Court, or, if the order of the Presidency Magistrate has not been disturbed by the High Court, then to his order.

(5) When disposing of an appeal under this section the High Court may direct by whom the costs of the appeal are to be paid, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion. [Act XIV 1882, s. 219.]

(6) Costs so directed to be paid may, on application to a Presidency Magistrate, be recovered by him, in accordance with the direction of the High Court, as if they were a fine imposed by himself. [Act X, 1882, s. 148.]

5. An appeal to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay under either of the two last foregoing sections shall, for the purposes of No. 156 of the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, be deemed to be an appeal under the Code of Civil Procedure in a case not provided for by No. 151 and No. 153 of that schedule. [XV of 1877, XIV of 1882.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of the first section of the accompanying Bill is to remove all room for doubt as to the validity of those clauses of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889, and the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, which, as creating in Presidency-towns tribunals having authority to make final orders, might be held to be in derogation of the jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William and at Bombay respectively.

The other sections of the Bill invest the High Court at Bombay, as a Court of Reference and Appeal, with certain jurisdiction which can certainly be conferred by the Governor-General in Council, but the conferment of which by the Governor of Bombay in Council might possibly be called in question.

RESOLUTION ON THE BOARD'S REPORT ON WARDS' AND ATTACHED ESTATES IN THE LOWER PROVINCES FOR THE YEAR 1887-88.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Darjeeling, the 28th September 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on Wards' and Attached Estates in the Lower Provinces for the year 1887-88.

THIS excellent report, submitted on a new plan, is a great improvement over its predecessors. It is divided into three parts, the first of which contains a general review of the management of estates in the whole province; the second furnishes an account for the year of report of important estates with a rent-roll of Rs. 50,000 and upwards; and the third part gives special notices of estates taken in charge or released during the year. By this method of treatment, and the exclusion of all superfluous matter, the interest of the report has been enhanced, while its bulk has been materially diminished.

2. The balances of revenue and cesses due to Government at the close of the year show some reduction. It is satisfactory to observe that the large arrears (Rs. 57,422) due from the Sultangacha estate have been paid since the close of the year, and that the property has been released from attachment. The collections of rent and cesses due to estates under the Court of Wards amount to 97·4 per cent. on the current demand. This is a larger percentage than has been attained for many years past. The following comparative statement shows the demand and collections during the past three years :—

YEAR.	Arrear demand.	Current demand.	Collection.	Percentage of collection on current demand.	Remissions.	Balances.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.		Rs.	Rs.
1885-86	80,52,304	99,61,581	83,00,837	99.9	3,89,493	82,98,987
1886-87	81,47,589	1,04,06,359	96,80,351	98.0	3,00,428	84,84,423
1887-88	1,16,30,931	1,08,41,499	98,81,714	97.6	2,15,927	1,16,98,615

The collections were satisfactory in the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, in portions of the Bhargulpore and Rajshahye Divisions, and in the districts of Chittagong and Noakholly. The result is worst in the Chota Nagpore Division, where the failure to collect is conspicuous in several of the estates under management.

3. The large increase in the arrear demand of the year is due to the assumption of charge of the Bhowanipore (Boroda Prosad Roy's) estate with a balance of over 27 lakhs of rupees, of which more than 25 lakhs are practically irrecoverable. The circumstances of this estate afford, as the Board remark, another striking illustration of the manner in which zemindari accounts are generally kept in Bengal. The current demand of rent and cesses in this property is only one and a half lakh of rupees. The accumulated balances amount to eighteen times the current demand; and although nearly the whole of them are irrecoverable, they have not been struck off. The Manager has now been directed to take measures for their early adjustment, and to apply for remission after careful enquiry. The Srinagar estate is another property which shows balances considerably in excess of the current demand. The demand of this estate is Rs. 2,62,239; and notwithstanding that over 10 lakhs of rupees of arrears, which were due from the time of the old proprietor, were remitted in 1884-85, the recorded balances still amount to Rs. 7,42,645. It is reported by the Settlement Officer that these arrears consist for the most part of rents of land long ago relinquished or abandoned, and are therefore unrealizable; but that until the settlement of each separate village is taken in hand, full particulars for remission cannot be supplied.

4. The current rent and cess demand of the Burdwan Raj estate was Rs. 45,64,664, and the arrears amounted to Rs. 39,07,569. The collections were Rs. 45,28,233, or 99.2 per cent. on the current demand, against 97.9 and 98.2 per cent. in the two previous years. The greater portion of the estate is let in putni, and the collections are therefore made without much difficulty. In Koojung, which is managed directly under the Collector of Cuttack, the demand is Rs. 1,19,167 and the collections Rs. 93,704, or 76.6 per cent.; while in Soojamoota, also under direct management, in the district of Midnapore, where the demand is Rs. 93,663, the collections amounted to only Rs. 9,206, or 9.8 per cent. The Board explain that the extremely unsatisfactory result in Soojamoota is due to the fact that the tenants have taken advantage of the dispute between the Dowager Maharani and the Court of Wards to evade payment of their rents to anyone. Subsequently they raised objections to the demand, as shown in the books of the Raj, on the ground that it included illegal cesses. The abwabs included in the Soojamoota rent-roll are 28 in number. Of these, 9, which were incorporated with the rent 18 years ago, are both equitably and legally payable, and they will in future be shown in the rent receipts, not as cesses, but as part of the rent, which in fact they really are. The claim to the remaining 19 cesses, including zemindari dak cess and Company's batta, has been abandoned. Since the close of the year it has been necessary to entertain a special establishment for the recovery of more than Rs. 2,25,000 of arrears which were about to be barred by limitation. The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that the Collector will, by the exercise of his personal influence on the spot, be able to save the tenantry from the execution of the greater number of certificates which have been made.

5. In the Tikari estate, where the current demand of rent and cesses is Rs. 6,85,485 and the arrear demand Rs. 4,12,200, the collections amounted only to Rs. 6,25,684, or 91 per cent. on the current demand. It is explained that the management was hampered by the difficulties incident to the transition from a system of farming leases to one of direct management. The fertility of the lands largely depends on the maintenance of the village embankment and irrigation works, which have been greatly neglected by the thikadars. But making all allowance for these difficulties, the results are not satisfactory. In the Dighaputtea estate, with a current demand of Rs. 4,74,519 on account of the property of the elder ward, the collections amounted to Rs. 4,73,365, or 99 per cent. In the Nashipore estate the collections were 111 per cent. on the current demand, and in the Cossim Bazar estate 115 per cent. In the Srinagar estate the collections were 96 per cent.; in Nurhan 91·6 per cent. only. Among other large properties, the collections were very satisfactory in the Syedpore, Chanchal, Nuddea, Malwar, Raj Krishna Banerjee and Courjon estates. In the Dhankoor estate the difficulties of management proved too great for the Manager, who resigned. The collections were only 78 per cent. on the current demand. It is hoped that the present Manager, Baboo Troylokya Nath Lahiri, who brings a favourable reputation with him from his administration of the Burdhankoti estate, in Rungpore, will be able to show better results. The Kanika estate, in Cuttack, which was slowly recovering from the severe damage caused by the cyclone and storm-wave of September 1885, again suffered considerable injury from the cyclone of May 1887, and it was found necessary to remit collections in the area affected. The recoveries amounted to 88 per cent. on the current demand, against 82 and 75 per cent. in the two previous years. The Collector reports that rents throughout the estate are fair and moderate, but complaints have been made of illegal exactions by the mustagirs and village headmen, and it has been necessary to issue orders prohibiting the collection of unauthorized cesses.

6. The whole question of the survey and record of rights in wards' estates has been under discussion during the year, and full reports on the subject have been received from the Board and from the Director of Land Records. After the amplest consideration, the principle has been established that surveys shall only be undertaken in those estates in which funds are available, and which have no proper rent-roll upon which a certificate of arrears could be based. The proposals of the Director were therefore considerably modified, and, in accordance with the suggestions of the Board of Revenue, the programme has been revised so as to include the following estates only:—

NAME OF ESTATE.	Estimated area.	Estimated cost of surveys and records of rights.
	Acres.	Rs.
1. Srinagar	500,000	2,40,119
2. Sunkerpore	176,000	88,000
3. Maldwar	105,255	52,627
4. Chooramon (ijmali properties) ...	52,910	26,455
5. Burdwan Raj (Koojung)	229,366*	70,000
6. Burdwan Raj (khas mehals, including Soojamoota)	98,000	50,000
7. Kanika	333,392†	55,000
8. Cossim Bazar (pergunnah Sarail) ...	195,370	1,00,000
9. Dakhin Shahbaspore (subject to the consent of the proprietors to the survey)	62,824	31,412
10. Jogearah	1,276	500

7. Although the scheme now sanctioned appears to be meagre in comparison with the more ambitious proposals put forward by the Director, the Lieutenant-Governor considers that a programme which comprises the professional survey, the record of rights in, and the settlement of, eight or ten large wards' estates, comprising more than a million acres, is really a large undertaking, and quite as much as the Court of Wards is justified in attempting at present. His Honour entirely agrees with the Board of Revenue that the procedure under the Tenancy Act, which is calculated to produce very beneficial results where disorder prevails, should not be extended to other estates merely because they are large, or solvent, or valuable. It is also very important that

* Of this 100,000 acres are in forest, and the outer boundary only will be demarcated.
† Only 83,000 acres are supposed to be under cultivation.

in regard to each estate it is proposed to survey, the funds in hand and time available should be borne in mind. It is always advisable that the proprietors of estates should have some money in hand when their estates are released. A very large amount is indeed likely to be a fatal gift. But some money is necessary for inaugurating a new regime and for the expenses which a large landlord, just out of his tutelage, is bound by the pressure of those around him to undergo.

8. In regard to the first four estates abovementioned, action has already been taken. A party has been supplied by the Survey Department for the traverse and cadastral survey of the Srinagar estate. The settlement operations have been placed under Mr. Collin. The work commenced in December 1887, and it is calculated that it will be completed by the 31st December 1890. The Sunkerpore and Muldwar surveys are also being conducted by a professional party, but in the Chooramon estate the measurement has been done by non-professional agency. The Lieutenant Governor is aware that these operations are receiving the close attention of the Board and of the Director of Land Records, but he observes with some anxiety that in the Sunkerpore estate, where the proceedings are approaching completion, the expense incurred is much larger than was anticipated. The proceedings now in hand are necessarily experimental in character, and may therefore be expected to be more expensive than they will ultimately become when greater experience has been gained. It is unsatisfactory to observe the small proportion of the expense which had been recovered from the co-sharers, both in the Srinagar and Sunkerpore estates. The account given by the Board of the Chooramon settlement is not creditable to the Court of Wards' administration. The survey has been completed, but, through the neglect of the Manager, who appears to be too infirm for his work, the settlement has been left untouched, and it has been found necessary to appoint a special Settlement Officer to undertake duties which should properly have been discharged without any additional expense to the estate. The Commissioner writes of this property:—

"The financial position of the estate is not good, though it is under no liabilities, owing to heavy expenditure incurred on account of the survey and settlement of the estate. The collections have become bad, and the balances are mounting up. All the Government securities have been expended, and the Manager reports that it will be difficult to realize sufficient rent to pay up expenses before the collection of the new year 1295 B.S. is commenced. Besides, the ward's house is in a dilapidated condition and ought to be rebuilt, but the Collector fears that it will be impossible to do so in the present condition of the estate."

The Lieutenant Governor understands that the Board have already taken serious notice of the state of things described, and that no further orders of Government are required. It is necessary that the unremitting attention of all officers concerned should be devoted to the improvement of the property during the short period which remains before its proprietor will attain his majority.

It is reported that the putwaries of the Srinagar estate are being trained in survey work to enable them to correct the maps and maintain the records in future, and that similar attempts are being made in Dinagapore, but have not proved very successful, as only 15 men have received certificates of efficiency. These efforts should be persevered with, although the Lieutenant Governor is not very sanguine of their success. It is important to enlist local co-operation as much as possible in all these proceedings.

9. In addition to these operations, which are being carried on under the supervision of the Director, the survey and settlement of the estates of Raj Krishna Banerjee and Fazal Ali Khan, in the Chittagong district, have also been effected. The result in these cases appears to be very successful from the financial point of view, and is creditable to the general Manager, Baboo Koilas Chunder Das, and Assistant Manager, Baboo Jogendro Kumar Bose, by whom the work has been done. The Lieutenant Governor acknowledges also the valuable service rendered by Mr. Slack in his capacity of special Settlement Officer of wards' and encumbered estates in the Chota Nagpore Division.

10. The account given by the Board of the condition of the tenantry in wards' estates and of the education of wards is generally satisfactory. The contribution in aid of schools and dispensaries during the year shows an increase: it amounts to Miscellaneous.

Rs. 98,209. Agricultural experiments have been conducted in several estates, as usual, and occasionally with success. The Board have, since the close of the year, issued orders to all Commissioners that, within the limits and under the conditions already laid down by Government, such encouragement as is practicable may be given to the progress of agricultural improvements in the properties under the charge of the Court of Wards. A sum of Rs. 1,000 has been sanctioned from the resources of the Cossim Bazar estate, as a contribution to the fund which is being locally realized, by merchants and zemindars who are interested in the silk industry, for experiments which, it is believed, will prove very valuable in improving the breed of silk-worms.

11. It is unnecessary to follow the Board's report throughout the detailed account furnished of the more important estates under management, or of those which were released during the year. The information given is complete, and will be useful for reference. But the Lieutenant-Governor considers it desirable to reproduce in this resolution the following remarks, which are recorded by the Collector of Burdwan, regarding the claims of the Dowager Maharani up to date:—

"In July 1887, when His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor paid a visit to Burdwan, the Dowager Maharani requested him to pass orders for the payment of her increased allowance and delivery of the minor landed properties to her and settlement of her claims to the jewellery. In regard to the making over of the minor properties and payment of the increased allowance, His Honour laid down the following conditions:—

"(a) That the papers of Koojung and Soojamoota should be first fully delivered by her.

"(b) That the hoarded coin and jewels should be counted and catalogued, and the jewels valued.

"In the November following I reported that the first condition, viz., the surrender of papers, had been fulfilled by her as far as lay in her power, though the Managers were divided in their opinion on this point.

"The hoarded coin was counted and catalogued in August 1887, but the general catalogue of the jewels is not yet finished. This work was begun in October by Mr. McIntosh, Assistant Collector, and subsequently placed by me in the hands of Mr. Taylor, the Joint-Magistrate. On his appointment as District Judge of Burdwan, on the 21st January last, the inventory work was stopped for some time. In March it was resumed by Mr. McIntosh, Assistant Collector, then by Mr. Brown, Assistant Collector, and on his transfer by Mr. McIntosh again. He was relieved by Deputy Collector Baboo Shyamadhaba Roy, specially deputed for this purpose. As the Dowager Maharani was not responsible for the delay in drawing up the catalogue, she was reported to have earned the fulfilment of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor's promise, and the Board directed the immediate surrender to her of the minor landed properties, which were accordingly made over to her on the 26th March last. With regard to the payment of her increased allowance, the Board directed that this payment should be made as soon as the 160 items of jewellery included in schedule F were identified and catalogued, as this identification was a necessary preliminary to the settlement of her claim. The Dowager Maharani, however, refused to admit that the payment of the allowances could be delayed for the identification of the 160 items of jewellery. Meanwhile a dispute had arisen between her and the Managers, the latter claiming the right to catalogue the valuables in her apartments, while she refused to admit that these valuables belonged to the estate. She protested against any delay in the payment of the allowances on this account. Finally, she agreed to abide by the arbitration of Mr. Pugh as regards the 160 items of jewellery, and to accept the valuation of them by Messrs. Cooke and Kelvey of Calcutta. She also consented to execute the deed of compromise as settled by Mr. Pugh. The Board therefore directed me, on the 16th May 1888, to pay her allowance in future at the increased rate, and to arrange for the payment of the arrears of her increased allowance from the 28th September 1886 at once. These orders have since been carried out. Moreover, at the request of the Dowager Maharani, the draft deed of compromise has been drawn up by the Government Solicitor instead of by the Government Pleader of Burdwan. The conclusion of the compromise now only awaits the arbitration of Mr. Pugh, and meanwhile all its conditions, about which no dispute remained—that is, all but the terms regarding the jewellery—have been carried out."

The arbitration is over, but the Board report that the award has not yet been given, and that the terms of the deed of compromise have not been finally settled. An allowance of Rs. 9,000 a month, with arrears, with retrospective effect from the 28th September 1886, is now paid to the Dowager Maharani by the estate.

12. In July 1887 the Lieutenant-Governor gave his sanction to the adoption by the late minor Maharani Benodeyi Debi of Lala Bijon Behari Kapur, son of Lala Ban Behari Kapur, as a son to her husband, the late Maharajah Aftab Chand Bahadur. It was with great regret that His Honour heard of the death of the Maharani on the 13th of May last. The young Maharaj Kumar, to whom the name has been given of Bijoy Chand Mahtab Bahadoor, is reported to be well behaved and very intelligent. His guardians are Lala Ban Behary Kapur, his natural father, and Lala Lachmi Narain Khanna, father of the late Maharani Benodeyi Debi. Since the close of the year a suit has been instituted in the High Court by the Dowager Maharani to set aside the adoption and to obtain possession of the Raj estate.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to notice the services of the Commissioners and Collectors, who are commended by the Board for their work in the Wards' Department. The Board's observations will, as usual, be communicated to the Appointment Department. The following Managers are named by the Board for their efficient service:—

- Baboo. Bogolanund Mookerjee, Cossim Bazar estate, Moorshedabad.
- „ Kali Naman Roy, Chanchal estate, Maldah.
- „ Koylas Chandra Das, General Manager, Wards' estates, Chittagong.
- „ Jogendra Kumar Bose, Assistant Manager, Wards' estates, Chittagong.
- „ Gyanendra Lal Rai, Nuddea estate, Nuddea.
- „ Troyloko Nath Lahiri, Burdhankotee estate, Rungpore.
- „ Rasick Lal Ghose, Haripore estate, Dinagopore.
- „ Moti Lal Mookerjee, Dalbhoom estate, Singbhoom.
- „ Adhur Kali Mookerjee, General Manager, encumbered estates, Hazaribagh.
- „ Poresch Nath Ghose, General Manager, encumbered estates, Manbhoom.
- „ Krishna Chandra Gupta, Pogose estate, Mymensingh.
- „ Okhoy Narain Deb, Jamkunda estate, Balasore.

14. The high estimation in which the Court of Wards' management is deservedly held in these provinces cannot fail to be amply sustained by the results which are shown in this report; and although in one or two instances, owing to the inefficiency of local agents, there may have been a comparative failure in administration, the general result is highly satisfactory and honourable to the Court of Wards. This success is largely due to the special knowledge and ability which Mr. Reynolds has displayed in presiding over this important department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. S. COTTON,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

FLOODS IN THE BURDWAN DIVISION.

The following correspondence is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 2nd October 1888.

Famine No. 3305—135 Fam., dated Calcutta, the 2nd October 1888.

From—P. NOLAN, Secretary to the Government of Bengal,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. '33RG, dated the 22nd September, 1888, submitting a report from the Collector of Burdwan, dated the 16th September, 1888, on the recent inundation of the Adjai and Damudar rivers in his district.

2. The action taken by Mr. Oldham and his Sub-divisional Officers is approved by Government, and the further report promised is awaited. I am to request that no time may be lost in submitting the full reports which have been called for from the other districts of your division, and especially from Midnapore, where the injury from floods appears to have been greatest. The Lieutenant-Governor is confident that in any cases where it may have been found necessary to afford relief to the suffering population, action has been at once taken.

3. The question of the Damudar embankments has repeatedly been under the consideration of Government in the Public Works Department, and, with reference to the present inundation, is being again considered. But the restoration of these embankments has always been condemned by Engineers, who have, on previous occasions, enquired into the matter, and the reasons for the rejection of the proposal are fully stated in Colonel McNeile's letter No. 452I, dated 12th March, 1885, to which the Collector refers in his report. These reasons still hold good, and therefore sufficient cause has not been found for modifying to any extent the orders on the subject.

4. The injuries caused by floods divide themselves into three classes,—(1) the deposit of sand, causing deterioration and even destruction (for the time being at least) to the soil, (2) the destruction of crops and villages by the erosive action of the floods, and (3) their destruction by excessive flooding. The first two classes can no doubt be remedied at a comparatively moderate cost. The floods of the Damudar have been under observation since the orders of the 12th March, 1885, were issued, and there appears to be some grounds for believing that it may be advisable to make certain arrangements at the main breach, (the Jankooli), in order that the discharge through it may be to some extent restrained. It is very doubtful, however, whether a gradual raising of the area injured temporarily by sand deposit will not in the end be extremely beneficial, and the results of the floods of the present season will possibly give an answer to the question whether the floods should be in any way restrained. As regards the third class of injuries, the objections mentioned in Colonel McNeile's letter to the closing of these breaches, acting as escapes, are as strong as ever, whilst the soil in most instances is greatly benefited by the fertilising silt deposited by the floods. Such benefit is, however, in some cases counterbalanced by the retention of the water on the flooded area for too long a time, and this is due to the want of a proper outfall. It is just as impossible now as ever to entertain either of the proposals hitherto put forward for the remedy of this state of affairs, viz, the retention of the floods of the Damudar within its own embankments down to the Hooghly, or the diversion of the flood spill into any other lines than those through which it now gradually finds its way into the Hooghly; but, in connection with the floods in the Cossye and Selye rivers, it appears necessary to investigate the possibility of improving the outfall of the Roopnarain river, and the improvement of the latter would possibly affect beneficially the outfall of the Damudar flood spill. It is understood that a proposal for carrying out the investigation just mentioned is under the consideration of the Public Works Department of this Government, though grave doubts are expressed as to the feasibility of increasing the capacity of the Hoopnarain river at all.

No. 53RG, dated Burdwan, the 22nd September 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

With reference to your No. 3119—125Fam. of the 13th instant, I have the honour to submit copy of a further report, No. 1246G of the 16th idem, from the Collector of Burdwan, on the effects of the late floods caused by the overflow of the rivers Adjai and Damudar. Mr. Oldham is watching the matter sufficiently. He is in personal communication with me.

No. 1246G, dated Burdwan, the 16th September 1888.

From—W. B. OLDHAM, Esq., Collector of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Commissioner of Burdwan.

In reply to your No. 177RG, dated 10th September 1888, calling for a report on the effects of the recent floods in the town of Cutwa and the Cutwa sub-division, and to your endorsement No. 61RG, dated 14th September 1888, on Government letter No. 3052—118Fam., dated 8th September 1888, enquiring about the results of the floods from the Damudar, I have the honour to furnish the following provisional report on the floods in the Burdwan district on the last week of 1888.

2. It has been ascertained that there has been no loss either of human life or of cattle from the floods. There has been considerable loss, amounting in many villages to total destruction, of the standing crops, and a very great number of huts have fallen down, though so far I cannot learn that any of the good mud houses of the ordinary kind to be found in a rural village have been seriously injured. Though I hold a balance of about Rs. 2,000 in my local Famine Relief Fund available for the relief of emergent cases, and there is a similar private fund held by private trustees in the town of Burdwan, no applications for such relief have yet been made, and no cases requiring it have been reported. The only applications which have been the direct outcome of the floods have been for the restoration or construction of certain embankments.

3. From the information now available, which I believe to be complete, I estimate the area of serious damage to crops, that is, in which the standing crops have either totally, or to the extent of three-fourths of them, been destroyed, to be 120 square miles. This area

$$\begin{array}{r} 20 \times 3 = 60 \\ 20 = 20 \\ 20 \times 1\frac{1}{2} = 60 \end{array}$$ same sub-division including

$$\begin{array}{r} 20 \times 1\frac{1}{2} = 30 \\ \hline 120 \end{array}$$ may be generally described as the margin of the Adjai for a depth of $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles on each side of its course through the Cutwa sub-division; of a similar margin on the right bank of the Bhagiruthi for a distance of 20 miles in the the peninsulas; and in the head-quarters sub-division of a similar margin on the right bank of the Damudar from opposite Burdwan to Gotan in the south east extremity of the district about 20 miles. The floods of course penetrated very much further, but in large areas their incursion has been solely beneficial, and the extent of loss between those areas and the margin described varies.

4. The effects of the floods in the different localities inundated will be very different. Floods from the Bhagiruthi, when so local as those now reported on are, have always been found to more than compensate for the immediate damage they cause. The same with some qualification may be said of the Adjai floods, though they sometimes leave long narrow stretches of sand. In this district the Damudar floods have been always most beneficial to the country in which they but slightly affect the standing crops by their depositing the silt, while they have been disastrous to the tract in which their rush has entirely destroyed the standing crops as they leave it coated with thick sand.

5. My information about the Cutwa sub-division has been drawn from the diaries just received of the experienced Sub-divisional Officer Baboo Jadu Nath Bose, who has been visiting the inundated tracts. The floods in the town of Cutwa reported to you under my endorsement No. 1111G, dated 31st August 1888, had no further effect beyond causing the extreme inconvenience and alarm and damage to some habitations described in that correspondence, and no further report regarding them is necessary. The most serious damage done in any one spot has been the destruction of the zemindari embankment at Fatehpore on the Adjai, which was constructed only in May last at a cost of about Rs. 8,000 raised by subscription. Though the Sub-divisional Officer found the Bhagiruthi peninsulas completely submerged, and the houses standing out of the water as if on piles, while the women and children had been sent to the mainland for safety, the male population were either busy fishing or amusing themselves in their enforced idleness. The main products of these tracts are their splendid cold-weather crops. In the Sub-divisional Officer's opinion the floods were far more extensive and severe in the Nuddea district than on the right bank of the Bhagiruthi. The Adjai flood was the highest within memory. The severest damage must have been caused by its carrying away the Fatehpore embankment, and regarding this I will report again. The greater part of the country on its left bank, which I visited in February last, has been left uncultivated for years, partly because of its exposure to inundation and partly because the land has been spoiled by previous floods.

6. As regards the Damodar floods, the chief reference is the correspondence which closed with the orders of Government conveyed in Colonel McNeile's letter No. 452I, dated 12th March 1885, on the subject of the Jankooli embankment. It has been noticed in my successive Land Revenue and Annual Administration Reports that the agitation regarding this Jankooli case has never ceased to be maintained, chiefly by Baboo Chakan Lal Roy of Chakdighi and his brother taluqdars. They are at this moment pressing Government to re-open the case, which has been frequently noticed by the Press, both English and Native, throughout the year. The present floods of course have afforded capital for this agitation, and though, as far as I have ascertained, they have not been so immediately destructive as those from the Adjai, the notice of them by the Press, which has taken no notice of the floods in Cutwa, is accounted for by the agitation regarding the Jankooli case. As these results were to be predicted with certainty, I had been very carefully watching the Damodar floods from the first, and as soon as they subsided, sent the Excise Deputy Collector on an excise tour through the south Damodar tract with orders to ascertain quietly what the result of the inundation had been. He returned yesterday, and the information, which I have provisionally given was obtained from his verbal report. Meanwhile the senior Sub-Deputy Collector has been sent out to hold a public enquiry, and I have arranged to spend four or five days in the flooded tract myself this week.

7. Meanwhile I am in a position to meet any cases requiring relief either in Cutwa or on the Damodar. As regards the means for preventing those calamities in future, the case of the south Damodar country is in the hands of Government, and I have nothing to add to the information which has been given in the correspondence regarding the Jankooli embankment and breach. As regards the floods from the Adjai, I cannot report till I have received further information from Cutwa, and till I have visited the localities myself; but in this case, too, I believe that no preventive measures can be adopted except those which are suggested and approved by the professional advisers of Government. The present case of the Fatehpore embankment adds confirmation to the instance afforded by the embankment which Mr. Larminie constructed at Jankooli in 1882 at a cost of Rs. 11,000, which was absolutely effaced within a month of its construction (vide the correspondence ending with this office No. 2114G, dated 26th February 1885).

No. 452I., dated Calcutta, the 12th March 1885.

From—LIEUT.-COL. J. M. MCNEILE, R.E., Joint-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Public Works Dept,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I AM desired by the Lieutenant-Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 110, dated 19th December last, on the subject of a breach in the Janculi embankment on the right bank of the Damooda, and the damage caused by the spill of flood-water at and near that place, and in reply to make the following remarks.

2. As noted in your letter, the restoration of the embankments on that bank of the river has been pronounced objectionable by the engineers who have thoroughly investigated the question, but it will be well here to explain briefly the reasons for this objection.

From calculations of the slope of bed and of the waterway of the river it is known that the total possible discharge between the embankments below the great bend of the river east of Burdwan is (approximately) 150,000 cubic feet per second, while the volume brought down by the river during a heavy flood is about 350,000 cubic feet, and there is consequently a total spill over the bank of about two lakhs of cubic feet per second escaping at various points below Sangatghola (a few miles above and on the opposite side to Jcojooty).

It is quite clear, then, closing the breaches at and below this point with anything like really effective embankments would only cause worse and possibly more disastrous breaches lower down. The water cannot be kept within bank or embankment limits down to the mouth of the river. It was to reduce the average depth of the flood passing over the country that the removal of 20 miles of embankments was ordered in 1856-59, and the same argument is equally valid now.

3. Turning next to your suggestion to provide outlet channels, you will see that this would involve the construction of a new river capable of carrying in extreme flood 200,000 cubic feet per second, or larger than the actually existing channel of the Damooda itself. To prevent the risk of an excess of water passing down this channel, and to send the required amount down it to relieve the Damooda, a very extensive regulator would be necessary at the bifurcation, and the new channel must be carried down to the Hooghly, as neither the Damooda itself lower down, nor the Hoopnarain could carry off such an additional volume: the new channel or river would therefore have to be some 60 miles in length.

All this would involve an outlay in work and land which it is not worthwhile attempting to estimate, and it must be recollected that in the case of any partially remedial measures, there would certainly in some year or years be loss caused where there is none now, or where it cannot be laid to the charge of any specific work. As soon as ever there was an excuse for charging any Government channel, or embankment, or want of embankment, demands for compensation would pour in, and it is impossible to guess even what Government might be compelled to pay on this account.

4. It is not denied that the existing floods cause some damage, nor is it argued that such a spill as is under consideration ever occurs, without in some cases serious flooding and loss of crop, but the floods are not wholly detrimental. The flow of water is in some years and in some places such as to drown or even wash away portions of the crops; but if this occurs early in the year, a second crop is successfully grown, and in any case a large quantity of fertilizing silt is spread over miles of country beyond the special tracts in which devastating floods are now complained of, and a gradual and very important and beneficial raising of the level of the country is in progress.

5. On a full consideration of all the facts of the case, the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that it is more than doubtful whether any practicable measures in the direction of partial remedy of the flooding complained of would not result in more harm than good; that nothing at all could be done except at great expense, for which there would be no return, while the entire outlay would have to be borne by Government; and that it is certain that any works executed would undoubtedly give rise to complaints elsewhere, quite as loud as these now made, and possibly more valid. His Honor is therefore unable to reconsider the orders passed on the subject of non-reconstruction of the Janculi and other embankments on the right bank of the Damooda, or to entertain proposals for any drainage works to carry off the flood spill into other lines than those through which it now gradually finds its way down to the Hooghly.

FLOODS IN THE MIDNAPORE DISTRICT.

The following is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated 1st October 1888.

No. 28R.G., dated Burdwan, the 11th September 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, copy of a report by the Collector of Midnapore on the effect of the recent floods in his district. I gather that they might have been prevented by a more efficient system of embankment; and it is for His Honour to consider whether estimates should be prepared of the cost of what is required. Respecting present distress, I think that Mr. Vowell is fully sensible of the gravity of the situation, and may be trusted to report promptly if relief is required. Beyond the injury done to their dwellings, I doubt whether much distress will be felt by the cultivators until the period when they might have expected a return from their winter crop. I believe there was not much in store which they could lose, and the labour market of Calcutta and its Suburbs is so easily accessible that the means of subsistence can be earned without difficulty. It is gratifying to learn that the Deputy Magistrate in charge of the sub-division of Ghatal, Baboo Kumad Nath Mukerji, has been doing his duty in the emergency.

No. 1818G., dated Midnapore Collectorate, the 8th September 1888.

From—C. H. VOWELL, Esq., Collector of Midnapore,
To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I HAVE the honour to state that I have visited Ghatal with the Executive Engineer for the purpose of seeing the effect of the recent floods.

2. The heavy rains of the 23rd and 24th ultimo brought down all the rivers from the west and north-west in heavy flood, and the various circuit embankments under the Executive Engineer of Midnapore were breached in 137 places, being in many instances overtopped.

3. The tract of country most severely affected, rather more than 100 square miles, is comprised in thanas Daspore and Ghattal; the former thana is bounded on the north by the Selye and on the east by the Rupnarain rivers. Ghattal is bounded on the south by the Selye and on the east by the Darkeshwar.

4. With the exception of a few patches in the north-west of Daspore, the whole crop has, in that thana and in about 40 square miles of thana Ghattal, been swept away, and the fields are still under water. Great damage has been done to the mud huts of the villagers, which have fallen down in all directions. There has fortunately been very little loss of life, only four persons having been reported drowned, and the loss of cattle is also stated to have been small.

5. The Sub-divisional Officer, Baboo Kumad Nath Mukerji, showed great promptness in at once starting off himself and sending his canoongo and police in other directions, in order to relieve the worst cases of distress. The cost has been met from a fund raised on a previous occasion to meet such disasters. The people of Daspore thana have been very unfortunate of late years with their winter crop.

6. In 1885 it was swept away by flood, and again in 1887, while in 1886 the crop was a poor one. When these floods occur, the custom is to sow boro paddy over the tract, and it is irrigated by bunds thrown across the Selye and Cossye rivers by the zemindars.

7. The Sub-divisional Officer has considerable engineering knowledge, and I have requested him to see that these bunds are put up wherever necessary, and properly constructed. He has also been directed to report on the necessity of making loans to the cultivators under Act No. XII of 1884.

8. This crop, however, is not reaped until February or March, and the Sub-divisional Officer apprehends some distress among the labouring classes. For the present, paddy was coming plentifully into the market, and the price of rice had actually fallen at Ghattal.

9. There is cheap and easy communication for the people of this sub-division with Calcutta, and the custom of going away to find labour for a part of year is already common among large numbers.

10. It is therefore possible they may tide over the internal without assistance. I have, however, directed the Sub-divisional Officer to carefully watch the condition of the villages, and I shall myself be out on tour there within a month or two.

11. Considerable loss has also been caused in the other sub-divisions. From Contai I have not yet received detailed accounts; but the tract in Pataspore and Bhugwanpore thanas, which is suffering from want of drainage, is certain to be in a worse condition than last year.

12. In Tumlook the country to the east of the Cossye was swamped by a breach a short way below Panchkura. It was similarly flooded last year, but boro can be grown there.

13. In the head-quarter's sub-division damage has been done about Sabong, Pingla and Moyna on the south of the canal, but its extent cannot be at present gauged.

14. On the other hand, there is no doubt the abundant rain has done much good in parts where the crop had been previously very backward. This was especially the case in the strip of Contai along the sea coast.

DISTRESS IN KHOORDA.

The following correspondence on the subject of the present distress in Khoordah is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated 2nd October 1888.

No. 125T—R, dated Darjeeling, the 29th September 1888.

From—H. J. S. Corron, Esq., Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Revenue Dept.,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Dept.

In continuation of my letter No. 3066—419Fam., dated 10th September 1888, I am directed to submit, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Commissioner of Orissa, No. 1843R, dated 20th September 1888, and its enclosures, forwarding a report for the fortnight ending on the 31st August on the present scarcity in the districts of his Division.

2. It is satisfactory to find that with a seasonable rainfall the condition of the people has considerably improved. But the Lieutenant-Governor notices as an evidence of the real scarcity of food that while the works at Angul, when the labourers were paid in cash, failed to attract more than some 300 labourers a day, the number rose at once to about 1,500 as soon as the tehsildar began to pay them in grain at the daily rate of three quarters of a seer per man. It may be hoped, however, that with cheaper prices, improved prospects and the measures of relief which have been set on foot, all grounds for serious anxiety will soon pass away.

3. The Lieutenant Governor has nothing further to add to the observations of the Commissioner, which appear sound and judicious.

No. 1843R, dated Cuttack, the 20th September 1888.

From—C. F. WORSLEY, Esq., Commissioner of the Orissa Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN accordance with paragraph 9 of the Bengal Famine Code, I have the honour to submit copies of reports, noted in margin, from the Collector of Pooree and the Sub-divisional Officer of Khoorda, regarding the administration of relief in Khoorda sub-division during the fortnight ending 31st August 1888.

Letter from Collector of Pooree to Commissioner of Orissa, No. F, dated 11th September 1888.

Letter from Sub-divisional Officer of Khoorda to Collector of Pooree, No. 531, dated 8th September 1888.

2. No material change has occurred in respect of area and population affected, number of relief circles, and officers in charge; but the crops have been greatly benefited by good rain and favourable weather, and the condition of the people generally has improved.

3. A detailed list of the public works which are being carried out is given in the Sub-divisional Officer's report (paragraph 3). The total number is 115, of which—

4 are road works under the District Board,

1 is the Cuttack-Ganjam road work under the Public Works Department, 110 are Government khas mahal improvement works.

The Collector has been unable to supply figures showing the expenditure incurred and the numbers employed on works under the District Board and Public Works Department. The average daily number of persons employed on Estates Improvement works was 944, viz. 687 men, 54 women and 203 children, at a cost of Rs. 2,839. The numbers seem to have varied a good deal from day to day, probably according to the greater or less demand in each locality for labour in the fields.

4. The daily average number of persons receiving gratuitous relief is shown to have been 1,524, viz. 315 men, 366 women and 824 children. This number appears disproportionately large as compared with the number employed on village works. As to the excess over the preceding fortnight's figures, it is reasonable to believe that, as the working of the relief circles became more thorough and minute, many new cases of destitution would have been brought to light. But though this explanation is quite satisfactory up to a certain point, I earnestly hope and expect that, with improved prospects of crops, cheaper food-grains, and the substantial assistance afforded by relief measures, the expenditure on gratuitous relief will be found to have decreased considerably during the present month.

5. Tuccavi advances, amounting to Rs. 59,853-8, were made to 20,724 cultivators during the month of August, the amount advanced during the fortnight under review having been Rs. 18,944-8.

6. The stock of food-grains in the sub-division is reported to be sufficient, and mahajans in some places have begun to resume their business of lending grain. Prices of food-grains have become fairly easy, the price of common rice ranging from 15½ to 21 seers, and moong and kulthi selling at much the same rates.

7. In the 7th paragraph of his report, the Sub-divisional Officer refers to the opening, as a relief measure, of paddy godowns at Pichkuli and Baligurh in the Western Circle No. III, and also of another such godown at Jenkia in the Rameswar Circle No. IV. As the purchases of grain seem to have been

5. From the South Chilka tracts the Inspector reports that heavy rain began to fall from the 20th, and the people have taken advantage of this rainfall to go in for transplantation. The crops here will no doubt suffer severely, as they have, more or less, for the last three years; but, as pointed out last April, the people residing in this neighbourhood are not dependent on their fields for a living. They have salt work, fishing, and other sources of subsistence, and though more clamorous for relief than anywhere else in the district, they are not really reduced to a state approaching starvation. A report from the District Superintendent, who has been inspecting the outposts in that neighbourhood, corroborates the views expressed above.

6. The number of public works open in or near the affected tracts within the sub-division are detailed by Mr. Taylor in paragraph 3 of his report. In addition to these works, two small tanks have been excavated at Nathpur and Satpara to relieve the distress south of the Chilka under the supervision of the Salt Inspector.

7. The daily average numbers in receipt of gratuitous relief in the sub-division are given in paragraph 4 of Mr. Taylor's report. In Satpara the expenditure during the fortnight has been only Rs. 13-7.

8. Mr. Taylor gives the daily averages of men, women, and children employed on works in paragraph 5 of his report, but these figures apply only to those employed on works described in 3(d). (a) To these should be added 960 or 64 persons a day employed in the South Chilka tracts. For (a and b) works no accurate figures have been supplied me either by the Executive or the District Engineer.

9. As regards clauses (6), (7), and (8) of Chapter I, I have little to add to Mr. Taylor's report, except to point out that though advances have been freely given, yet the amount so given is probably not 25 per cent. of the amount applied for. In the Sudder sub-division a number of applications for advances was made during the fortnight, but they were refused by me in every case, as I was satisfied that they were not legitimate demands for assistance, but merely attempts to obtain funds for paying rent, or for other objects than those represented in these applications. In Satpara the expenditure during the fortnight on works and gratuitous relief has been Rs. 214-7-3. The balance in hand was Rs. 35-13-1, and Rs. 100 has been sent afterwards.

10. It will also appear, from Mr. Taylor's report, that the instructions conveyed in the remaining chapters of the Famine Code have been carried out so far as has been practicable, considering the peculiar conditions of this distress, which has been felt in all its intensity by only the poorest classes over a large area, though no doubt the numbers affected would have been much larger but for the timely assistance given, chiefly in the form of advances under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

11. I need only add that, in accordance with paragraph 6 of your No. 1687R of the 28th ultimo to the Government of Bengal, I issued instructions to the Sub-divisional Officer on the 30th ultimo (as reported to you in my No. 881 of that date) to restrict the grant of advances in future to residents of villages, where there had been failure last year of at least half the crop, and to issue instructions to all circle officers that gratuitous relief should in future be confined strictly to those who cannot work for their living. This has now been done.

12. Though the numbers who have been relieved gratuitously during the past fortnight exceed those that were so treated in the preceding one, I am not prepared to admit that such relief has been granted hitherto too freely. From a perusal of the diaries and nominal rolls, it appears that Circle Inspectors have, as a rule, been exercising great care in this matter. The only case where I am inclined to think that the Circle Inspector has been perhaps too generous, especially to Brahmins and other respectable Hindus, is in the Banpur Circle. I propose going there very shortly, and will test the work done in this circle, and if I find my suspicions are confirmed, will take measures to prevent a continuance of this ill-judged liberality. Meanwhile, very stringent orders have been sent by Mr. Taylor forbidding the grant of gratuitous relief, except where it is actually in dispensable.

No. 531, dated Khoorda, the 8th September 1888.

From—W. C. TAYLOR, Esq., Sub-divisional Officer of Khoorda,
To—The Collector of Pooree.

Chapter I, section 9, Famine Code.—In accordance with section 9, Chapter I of the Famine Code, I have the honour to submit a report for the fortnight ending on the 31st August 1888.

1. The area of distress during the fortnight under report, the portion of the population affected, and the number of relief circles, remain much the same as was given in my last report. The only difference as regards circles is that I have placed Baboo Darpanarain Das in charge of zillah Balabhadrapur in addition to Banpur, as Baboo Gagan Chundra Das had more than he could do in zillah Rameswar and Kubui.

2. Section 9, clause 2.—The general state of the affected tracts has improved during the fortnight, owing to the good rainfall, opening of so many works, and the improved state of the crops.

For the north-east circle Baboo Nadia Chand Dutt reports that "the state of the rice crop throughout is encouraging. The mandia crop at places, and chiefly on the side of Bhargavi and Dayah rivers, is excellent, and will be gathered within a fortnight. The beali crop on the banks of Bhargavi and Dayah rivers is very good, but unfortunately this crop is limited in zillahs Khoorda and Tapung. The panichi rice crop in zillah Dandimal will be gathered within the 15th of the current month.

"The rainfall is good at present. A statement for the fortnight obtained from the Forester of Dandimal is given below :—

"During the fortnight under report the condition of the people is improving, and that no death from starvation will occur if the relief operations continue up to the end of the current month."

For the North-West Circle, Moonshi Dadar Buksh reports that "the state and prospects of crops at present are not very promising everywhere."

"The rainfall in the first fortnight was 6.85 inches, and second fortnight 8.76."

"The condition of the distressed people in general is gradually improving. The cause of this may be attributed to the adult members being able to get field and other works, and their condition will be more so if some more works be started here and there."

"On the 20th ultimo, while I was returning from Paniara, I heard from a passenger at Makund Prosad that one old woman was lying on the road at Padanpur and was about to expire. On this I immediately sent my peon with some chura and sugar. The peon went to the spot and fed her and informed me of the matter. As there was heavy shower that evening, I sent a cart and brought her here. Fire was made, and she was warmed and fed with milk for several days together. She is now improving, and there is no fear for loss of her life. Had not the matter been brought to my notice immediately, she would have most probably breathed her last on the road. She is under my care. This day a cloth worth annas 7½ has been given to her."

"This old woman is now quite well and declines to go home."

It is reported by Canoongo Netranund Putnaik that one named Dina Barik of Kuaput in Haldia died of starvation. The zemindar of Haldia is to blame for this death, as he did not himself take proper care of the poor man, nor did he inform me of his distressed condition."

Baboo Bhagbut Nand, for the western circle, reports that "the copious and continued rainfall from 20th to 23rd ultimo, and the occasional showers since fallen, have enabled the ryots to puddle all the lands; but as the rain came too late, and as the plants were previously attacked with mooli, the outturn of the paddy crop will be very poor."

"Heretofore suan was rendering great assistance to the people, but after puddling it has totally disappeared. The people are now managing with the wages they get for weeding, doing work on roads, bunds, &c., executed from the Estates Improvement Fund and the gratuitous relief distributed among them. After 8 or 10 days the grain from weeding will be discontinued. Mandia has been grown on a limited scale in this circle for want of sufficient surplus waste lands, and no material assistance can be expected from this source."

"As reported before, 4 annas of the total population have no property whatever and live by day labour. Three annas of these will have to be kept up by supply of labour, and the remaining one anna, physically unfit to do work, by gratuitous relief at least up to end of November."

"The only case of death from starvation that came to my notice is that of Madhub Gurn of Haibnat. The sarbarakar reported his death to have resulted from starvation. I visited the place on the 24th ultimo, and after enquiry came to know that Madhub had been to Calcutta and returned home, being attacked with dysentery. He suffered from the disease for two months, and was improving when this scarcity of food-grains appeared. He was compelled to take suan which aggravated his illness, and he died on the 12th ultimo."

For Rameswar Circle Baboo Gagan Chundra Das reports that "the prospect of the crop is yet uncertain. The weeding is in progress in most fields. Generally speaking, it may be said that the prospect of crop—I mean paddy—is good from Nalsing and Barpakharia to the north and Kuhuri to the south, and in other parts not very encouraging. The large tracts of land from Sarpani to Siko, and from Siko to Gur Mantir, and to the south and west of it, hold out a very bad prospect, and I believe there will be more or less complete failure of the crop; but I must say it is yet in a state when it is difficult to speak with certainty the one way or the other."

"There was good rainfall on 17th, 24th, and 25th August 1888, and sprinkling of it on several other days."

"The lower rates at which the construction of improvement works has been given to piece-workers do not attract the people, and I am glad to note this has not interfered much with the field work. At present the people are engaged in weeding the paddy-fields, but in a few days the weeding will be over, and they will be thrown out of employment, and will be helped by the work in these roads and dams we are constructing for tiding over the present difficulty. There is some work on the Public Works Department road, and the contractors complain of the difficulty of getting coolies now."

made locally, and no competition with grain-dealers is allowed, the measures, in my opinion, are free from objection.

8. The instructions issued by the Collector to the Sub-divisional Officer for restricting the grant of advances, and to all circle officers for confining gratuitous relief strictly to those who cannot work for their living (vide paragraph 11 of the Collector's report), were confirmed by me without delay. It is most desirable that, having enabled the cultivators by the grant of necessary advances to tide over a period of sharp pressure, we should gradually withdraw and make way for the revival of customary transactions between them and the mahajans, wherever the latter are willing or may appear prepared to take our place. Our policy now should be, as I have impressed on the Collector, not to maintain fully and continuously the system which we have hitherto been compelled to apply, but to contract or suspend operations from time to time by the light of daily experience and observation, and again, if necessary, to renew them.

9. The Sub-divisional Officer has observed, in paragraph 9 of his report, that "anyhow a further sum of Rs. 10,000 should be sanctioned for gratuitous relief." The Collector has left the remark unnoticed, and I am disposed to think that it is unnecessary at present to ask for any additional specific sum. Before accepting any estimate in this matter, it will be best to await the results of the instructions lately given by the Collector. Any reasonable amount that may in the meantime be urgently needed I will myself sanction in anticipation of the approval of Government. But at present I really fail to see how, if the prospects of crops have greatly improved, if grain be fairly cheap and employment everywhere available, and if the Circle Inspectors have nearly gauged the full extent of helpless destitution, we can be justified in apprehending a continuance or increase of such distress. The interests of distressed persons themselves, and of the public alike, require that the administration of gratuitous relief in villages, which is specially open to abuse and injurious in its tendencies, should be firmly restricted or discontinued at the very earliest opportunity.

10. I again regret to note that a few deaths (8) have been reported as being more or less due to starvation. Of these, not more than one (if even one) can be proved to have resulted from starvation alone. Sad as such occurrences are, I fear that they are not peculiar to Khoorda, but are common in most years to all thickly-populated countries and districts. At the present time each such occurrence is reported with an avidity that is unknown in ordinary years, when it would probably be ascribed to the disease most prevalent for the time being. I am convinced that all reasonable precautions have been taken for the saving of life, and that the circle officers can in no way be held responsible for such isolated cases of death as have been specially brought to notice.

11. In paragraphs 6—9 of his report, the Collector has furnished a few details regarding the administration of relief in the South Chilka tracts. The necessary assistance has been rendered quietly, efficiently and economically.

12. I now proceed to make a few remarks regarding the condition of Banki, Angul, and the Tributary State of Baramba.

13. The special enquiries that were being made in Banki at the time of submission of the last fortnightly report (28th August) have shown that, with the exception of a very few villages in the extreme south-western corner of the estate, viz. Kalaputhur and other adjacent villages, there is no such pressure as is likely to require measures of relief properly so-called. But within the last two days Mr. Desgratoulet, the District Engineer, who has been on tour in that neighbourhood, has reported instances of individual distress, which lead the Collector and myself to think that some special assistance may be necessary. As a precautionary measure, therefore, we have resolved to open some additional small improvement works in the affected tract, and to place them under the charge of the District Engineer, who will also be supplied with a moderate sum of money for the relief of any destitute families which may come under his notice. The affected area adjoins the most distressed circle (No. III) of Khoorda sub-division. In another portion of the estate, where some pressure is felt, tuccavi advances and district works will in all probability afford the requisite assistance.

14. In Angul district there has been a steady improvement during the present month, and I expect that all cause for anxiety will shortly disappear. For a time there was a great scarcity of grain, and the Estates Improvement works failed to attract more than some 300 labourers a day. But when the ehsildar lately imported 500 maunds of rice from Talcher State, and began to pay the labourers in grain at the daily rate of three-fourth seer per man, the number at once rose to about 1,500. Employment is now available in the fields, and fairly good crops of maize and marua are being harvested. These will shortly be followed by the beali rice harvest, which is expected to be good. The late or sarad rice crop also promises well. I am happy to state that the ryots of the affected tract (the western half of Angul) have to a man declined to take tuccavi advances when limited to one-fourth of the small rents which they pay, a proportion which I considered sufficiently high under all circumstances, and that the sanctioned sum of Rs. 300 remains intact. The measures already adopted, viz. the remission by Government of Rs. 4,917 arrears of rent, the relaxation of Forest Rules, the opening of Estates Improvement works, and the judicious distribution of small sums in the shape of charitable relief, have enabled the distressed classes to weather the difficulties caused by the almost unparalleled failure of the rains in June and July, and by the partial loss of crops in 1887. I consider that the tehsildar, Baboo Narain Chundra Naik, has shown firmness and resourceful capacity in dealing with the recent state of things in Angul.

15. Copies of the reports submitted by Baboo Nanda Kishore Das, Assistant Superintendent of the Tributary Mehals, after his visits to the States of Baramba and Narsingpore (now under direct management) were forwarded to the Chief Secretary with my letters Nos. 1072P.W. and 1080P.W., dated 3rd and 6th September 1888 respectively. I need only here mention that, on the facts reported, I increased the amount sanctioned for tuccavi advances in Baramba State from Rs. 2,000 to Rs. 4,000, and approved of advances being made up to an aggregate sum of Rs. 1,000 to petty dealers for the importation of grain, and that I considered it unnecessary to make any grant for tuccavi advances in Narsingpore. I may add that in consequence of the improved position in Angul, and of his services being required for work of another kind, Baboo Nanda Kishore Das was not deputed to visit that district.

16. Several of the Chiefs in the south-western half of the Tributary Mehals have been obliged this season to give exceptional aid to their tenants, but owing to the comparatively scanty population of these States, the distress in no case could have been so severe as in Khoorda.

17. I must apologise for my delay in submitting these reports, which has been due to my being engaged in holding sessions in Dhenkanal State.

No. F, dated Camp Khoorda, the 11th September 1888.

From—D. B. ALLEN, Esq., Collector of Pooree,
To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report in accordance with section 9, Chapter I of the Famine Code for the fortnight ending 31st ultimo, together with a copy of the Sub-divisional Officer's report, No. 531 of the 8th instant.

2. According to Mr. Taylor, "the area of distress during the fortnight under report, the portion of the population affected, and the number of relief circles, remain much the same as was given in his last report;" but "the general state of the affected tracts has improved during the fortnight owing to the good rainfall, opening of so many works, and the improved state of the crops."

3. The condition of each circle in detail is given in the extracts from the reports of Circle Inspectors, quoted in paragraph 2 of Mr. Taylor's report.

4. The views expressed by the Sub-divisional Officer are confirmed by the daily reports submitted to me by the police officers in charge of every thanna, and outpost throughout the district, and also by my own observations. I was touring about the sub-division from the 16th to the 25th ultimo, and was up in the western circle when the heavy rainfall (which was general all over the sub-division) commenced on the 20th. Speaking generally, there is no lack of water now for the paddy-fields, which have been puddled and weeded, and, where necessary, transplanted. The latter operation is still going on, and that and weeding has afforded great relief to the landless day labourers, who have all along been the chief sufferers from the prevailing distress.

It must be remembered, however, that the paddy crop is not yet out of danger. The late rains have rendered it safe for the present, but it is backward in a greater part of every circle, and a cessation of rain later in the season may still cause a considerable failure, and consequently a renewal of severe distress. As the Inspector of Rameswar Circle remarks, "there is for the present a lull in the distress, yet the relief operations must continue for some "Five deaths from starvation were reported during the fortnight, but I have not been able to ascertain the truth of the report, and it must be received with caution. At the same time I think the deaths may be due wholly or partially to deficient nourishment. In fact, I think many deaths will ensue when the crops will first become cheap and available, as the starving people will eat more than they can digest.

"For the present, I should say there is a lull in the distress, yet the relief operations must continue for some time. The nature and extent of the distress should not be considered very light in consideration of the paucity of deaths, as the time of death is not yet over, and there may be many more deaths in a few days if the relief operations are closed soon."

For Banpur Circle, Baboo Durpouarain Das reports that "the state of crop in this circle appears on the whole prosperous and fair; but the paddy plants sown in May and June on some lowlands in Simas, Chatragur, Kanthimal, Panchupalli, Sunakhalla and Niruna having been covered over by swan grass have to a great extent been rotten after they were puddled. The ryots have, however, now re-cultivated a portion of such lands and transplanted them with fresh plants, and there remain still more lands for transplantation.

"There had been sufficient rain during the month under notice, and no rain is wanted for a fortnight."

3. Section 9, clause 3.—The public works opened during the fortnight are—

- (a).—1. Road work under the District Board on the Baghmari and Bolegurb road, Western Circle.
2. Road work on the Khorda and Patnaikia road.
3. Road work on the Bhaliahari and Bingy Tangy village road.
4. Road work on the Kurharmal and Bajpur village road.

(b).—Repairs and metalling along the whole length of the Ganjam trunk road, and repairs to the Daya river embankments, all under the Executive Engineer, Pcoree Public Works Division.

(c).—Nil.

(d).—The Government khas mehal improvement works carried out from funds allotted by the Board of Revenue from the management grant, and specially distributed with a view to relief.

Total ...	5,044	5,860	13,191	24,389
Daily average ...	815	366	824	1,524

(b) Persons relieved through private agency.—No private agency relief opened in August, and no data regarding numbers relieved by private charity.

5. Section 9, clause V.—The daily average number employed on the works named in clause 3 cannot be given accurately, as the persons working and number employed vary from day to day. The total numbers employed are given at 10,995 men, 865 women, and 3,253 children from which the daily averages struck come to—

(a) Men ...	687
(b) Women ...	54
(c) Children ...	203

6. Section 9, clause VI.—We have not organized relief under this clause, but a few seers of cotton have been given to females at Jajharsing for spinning, and it is proposed to give them remuneration at the minimum ration rate.

* This includes 294 persons of whom details are not available.

Three bharans of paddy were given out by Rai Bhagbat Mahanti, Bahadur, Tehsildar of Khordab, for husking in Jajharsing village. The number of women and girls employed on this work is not known.

7. Chapter I, section 9, clause 7.—The stock of grain in the estate is sufficient, but mahajans seeing the prospect of crops to be unfavourable will not advance their grain as usual; but since there has been copious rainfall throughout the sub-division, they have begun in some localities to lend paddy more or less freely to their old constituents and also to sell for cash.

Section 7.—The following is a list of prices of food-grains and salt prevailing in the several circles as reported by circle inspectors, canoongoes and police, in seers of 80 tolas per rupee:—

	Paddy, seers.	Rice, seers.	Moong, seers.	Kolthi, seers.	Salt, seers.
North-west and North-east Circles	36	15½ to 18½	15½ to 17½	14½ to 16½	9 to 10½
Western Circle	36	15½ to 21	15½	17	9
Rameswar Circle	34 to 36	15½ to 18½	15½	17½	10½
Banpur Circle	34 to 44	17 to 18	21	15½	9

Baboo Nadia Chand Dutt reports that the selling price of foodgrains and salt in his circle was as follows:—

Rice	17½ seers per rupee.
Paddy	36 ditto.
Moong	15½ ditto.
Kalai	14½ ditto.
Salt	9 ditto.

Munshi Dadar Bax reports that the prices of food-grains and salt during the fortnight were as follows:—

Paddy	36 seers per rupee.
Rice	18½ ditto.
Kalai	19½ ditto.
Moong	17½ ditto.
Kolthi	28½ ditto.
Salt	10½ ditto.

Baboo Bhagbat Nand reports that the price of rice varied from 15½ to 21 seers (80 tolas weight) per rupee, but that rice was not procurable without great difficulty in any village of the circle. Since the opening as a relief measure of paddy godowns at Pichkali and Bolegurb, the difficulty has to some extent disappeared. It is absolutely necessary that these godowns should be kept up till end of November or even longer. Care is taken not to interfere with the local price quoted for dhan, which is 36 seers, by measure, equal to about 36 seers of 80 tolas per rupee.

For the Rameswar circle, Baboo Gagan Chandra Das reports that the prices of food-grains and salt are gradually coming down. Several mahajans are now selling paddy at Gooipa a, Burpokharia, Olsing, Sarpari, Bhusandpore, Mantir, Arong, and this is a most hopeful sign. The price of salt has come down from 2 annas 3 pies to 1 anna 6 pies a seer. A godown for the sale of paddy at 36 seers was opened at Jenkia, the head-quarters of the circle. The necessary dhan was purchased at Olsing, only three miles from Jenkia, and the village mudi received an advance of Rs. 20, with which he purchases rice at Tangy at 14 seers, selling at Jenkia at 13 seers.

For Banpore Circle, Baboo Darpanarayan Das reports that the foodgrains are available for purchase in that circle at the following rates:—

Paddy	34 seers per rupee.
Rice	17½ ditto.
Moong	21 ditto.
Kalai	15½ ditto.
Arhur	15½ ditto.
Kolthi	28½ ditto.
Salt	9 ditto.

Chapter I, section 2A, Clause 8.—Rupees 45,000 under the Agriculturists Loans Act was received during the first fortnight from the Collector of Pooree, which was sanctioned by Government in their No. 2570—95 Fam. of the 6th August 1888, and Rs. 20,000 during the fortnight under notice, which also was sanctioned by Government in their No. 2882—104 Fam., dated 14th August 1888.

At close of the month Rs. 20,000 more was sanctioned by the Commissioner of the Division and the Collector in his No. 877 of the 30th ultimo. These further advances are restricted as a general rule only for those villages where the loss of crops was estimated for last year at not less than eight-sixteenths.

Rupees 28,372 was sanctioned by Government in their No. 2570-95 Fam. of the 6th ultimo for works of estates improvement, of which Rs. 10,000 was received during the first fortnight, and Rs. 5,000 during the period under review on bills passed by the Collector. For gratuitous relief Rs. 15,000 was sanctioned, vide Government letter quoted above.

CHARITABLE RELIEF.

9. (a) Under this head out of the Rs. 15,000 received Rs. 8,137-6 was made over to the circle inspectors for administration of relief up to 31st August 1888, and Rs. 1,980 was advanced for purchase of paddy and rice for sale at places where not procurable. This amount will, as far as possible, be recouped, excluding Rs. 150 worth of paddy which was given away gratuitously by Moonshi Dadar Bux in his circle.

During the current month the expenditure will be, I think, heavier than that during August, as we are finding severe distress in places where it was not expected. Anyhow a further sum of Rs. 10,000 should be sanctioned, as the Rs. 4,892-10 in hand will not last beyond the 18th instant.

The expenditure during the fortnight was Rs. 3,840-13-10, and 24,389 persons were temporarily relieved during the same period or 16 days.

The average per head therefore comes to 2 annas 6 pies, or to less than one pice each per diem. As this small sum is evidently insufficient by itself, a great number of those relieved must have done work or eked out a livelihood in some other way.

(b). Out of Rs. 15,000 received on account of improvement works, Rs. 2,679-4-8 was paid for works executed before relief operations were commenced, and Rs. 7,810 spent on works opened after the beginning of the relief operations, and Rs. 478 has been laid out in the purchase of tools. Rs. 2,839 was spent during the fortnight under review.

Section 9, clause 8 (d) (2).—Of the amount sanctioned under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, Rs. 59,853-8 was advanced to 20,724 ryots of the estate during the month, of which Rs. 18,944-8 was spent during the fortnight under report.

(c). Balance in hand at close of month—

(a). Rupees 4,882-10 gratuitous relief.

(b). Rupees 4,032-11-4 improvement works, plus Rs. 13,372 not drawn yet.

(d) (2). Rupees 5,146-8 tuccavi advances, plus Rs. 20,000 received in September. Required for gratuitous relief Rs. 10,000 more.

CIRCLE ORGANIZATION AND RELIEF.

10. Chapter II, section 10, Famine Code.—As reported for the past half of August, the estate was divided into five relief circles as follows:—

- I. North-east Circle under Baboo Nadia Chand Dutta, Sub-Deputy Collector, as Circle Inspector in addition to his regular duties, assisted by Canoongoe Janardan Das as Assistant Inspector.
- II. North-west Circle under Moonshi Dadar Bux, Sub-Deputy Collector, in addition to his regular duties, assisted by Canoongoe Netranand Patnaik.
- III. Western Circle, Baboo Bhagbat Nand, temporary Sub-Deputy Collector on relief duty, assisted by Baboo Hiralal Mukherjee, Inspector of Police, and Canoongoe Chintamani Patnaik.
- IV. Rameswar Circle.—Baboo Gogan Chandra Das, Deputy Magistrate and Deputy Collector of Pooree, assisted by Canoongoe Banabar Das.
- V. Banpur Circle.—Baboo Darpanarayan Das, Excise Inspector and Income-tax Assessor, assisted by Canoongoe Ras Behari Patnaik.

11. Since writing my last report the circles have been all divided into blocks or local agencies in accordance with section 21 of the chapter. Government sarbarakars and other persons of respectability have been appointed local agents, and I have given two local agents jointly for each local agency. In addition to the local agents, sub-inspectors of relief have also been appointed for each circle.

12. The organization now consists of—

1. Circle Inspectors, Deputy and Sub-Deputy Collectors.
2. Assistant Inspectors, Canoongoes and Police Inspectors.
3. Sub-Assistant Inspectors.
4. Local Agents.

13. The number of local agents and sub-inspectors for each circle are as follows:—

			Block.	Local Agent.	Sub-Inspector.
1.	North-Eastern Circle	...	36	72	5
2.	North-West	...	17	39	6
3.	Western	...	67	95	14
4.	Rameswar	...	36	74	7 or 8
5.	Banpur	...	9	32	...

14. Each pair of local agents have about ten villages to attend to, and each sub-inspector has to supervise the work of about nine local agents.

15. The duties of inspectors and assistant inspectors, sub-inspectors, and local agents are those prescribed in Chapter 2 of the Code.

16. Chapter III, Famine Code.—So far as applicable, the provisions of Chapter III have been attended to in the works opened; but as these works are items of ordinary khas mehal improvement, and as our object has been to keep the distressed in their own villages by providing work within a reasonable distance, all the sections of the chapter are not applicable.

17. Chapter IV, Famine Code.—It has not been found necessary as yet to open poor houses. Village relief and local works have hitherto been found sufficient.

18. Chapter V.—The provisions of sections 82, 84, 85 have been attended to. Some commencement has also been made under sections 82 and 83, but cotton and thread are not easily obtainable. No orphanages have as yet been opened, and so far as known no children have been abandoned or left without friends or relations.

19. Chapter VI.—No measures for the protection of cattle are at present required.

20. Chapter VII.—The police are acting in accordance with this chapter so far as is necessary.

21. Chapter VIII.—The public health has been fairly good, and there has not been anything special for medical officers to do.

22. Chapter IX.—Khordah sarbarakars are local officers under this chapter, but they have not as yet been directed by Government to submit the reports prescribed in the Famine Code.

23. The local agents and sub-inspectors have now been directed by me to supply all necessary information regarding the condition of the people, the state and prospects of crops, and the approximate areas under cultivation of different crops, with lists of the distressed persons in their blocks.

The mean pressure of the seven days 29.779
The average pressure of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office ... 29.733

The total number of hours of bright sunshine 50.3
The maximum possible number of hours of sunshine 84.0

The mean temperature of the seven days 84.3
The average temperature of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office 83.1
The extreme variation of temperature 14.8
The maximum temperature 90.9

The highest velocity of the wind in one hour 16
The highest pressure of wind on one square foot lbs.

The mean relative humidity 83
The average relative humidity of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office 85

The total fall of rain from 23rd to 29th September 1888 1.74
The average fall of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office ... 1.71
The total fall from 1st January to 29th September 1888 64.07
The average fall of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office ... 58.47

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

o overcast, g gloomy, p passing temporary showers, t thunder, d dew.

CALCUTTA, the 2nd October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 28TH OF SEPTEMBER 1888.

At the close of the previous week the inrush of monsoon winds following in the rear of the severe cyclonic storm which had passed through Orissa on the 16th still continued to flow over Bengal. The monsoon winds were, however, gradually diminishing in force, and for the first two or three days of the week only, weather in Bengal and over the Bay remained of very light south-west monsoon character. Pressure commenced to fall from the 23rd, the fall being generally moderately rapid at the stations on the Arakan and Pegu coasts, and on the 24th and 25th suspicious weather obtained in the east of the Bay, but this tendency to the formation of a barometric depression passed away, and weather again became fine. The westerly element in the wind directions then commenced to increase in strength, and in some cases winds became even north-westerly, and gradually the easterly and south-easterly winds which had set in on the 24th were driven back, and rainfall gradually became lighter and more local in character from the middle of the week, and though on the 23rd a considerable amount of rain fell, on Friday, the 24th, only a few showers were reported. At the end of the week, therefore, conditions were clearly those which usually obtain at the close of the rainy season in Bengal. Pressure was fairly uniform over the province; temperature had risen rather rapidly, and was about 2° above the normal; more or less westerly, and in some cases even north-westerly, winds were reported at all except the extreme eastern stations. Humidity had decreased moderately at the western and central stations in the province, and fine weather generally was reported, rain showers being very few in number, and generally light in amount.

Pressure—Has been above the normal for the greater part of the week, though at its close it had become nearly normal, and the mean pressure has been in excess by amounts which range up to about a tenth of an inch at some of the western stations, the excess at Cuttack equalling 0.113 inch and at Hazaribagh 0.110 inch. The general mean pressure of the province has been above the normal by about 0.07 inch to 0.08 inch. In Assam pressure has been in excess of the normal by 0.043 inch.

Temperature.—Owing to the comparative lightness of the rainfall during the week, temperature has generally been in excess of the normal. The mean temperature of the whole province for the week has been 1.5° above the normal, and in Orissa the excess has equalled 2.5° , and in South-West Bengal and North Bengal the excess has been 2° . In Assam a slight excess of 0.2° only is reported.

Rainfall—As previously stated, has been comparatively light during the week. The heaviest falls have occurred in North Bengal, the stations in which have averaged 1.32 inches, which is, however, more than two inches in defect of the normal. In East Bengal a fall of 1.10 inches has been received which is again nearly two inches less than the usual amount. Orissa and South-West Bengal have received falls, which average rather less than an inch, and both are about an inch and a quarter in defect of the normal. North Behar has only received a fall of about half an inch or two and a half inches less than the usual fall at this period; while South Behar and Chutia Nagpur have received falls which average about a quarter of an inch, and these districts are one and two-thirds inches in defect. The falls generally over the province have therefore not equalled more than about 30 per cent of the normal.

The following districts have, however, received fairly good falls during the week:—Nuddoa, Rajshahye, Rungpore, Darjeeling, and Singbhoom; while on the other hand the falls in Bogra, Mozufferpur, Durbhunga, Sarun, Shahabad, and Gya have been particularly scanty.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 28th of September 1888:—

MEMORANDUM.

THE chief features in the mortuary statistics of the districts in Bengal, for the month of July 1888, deduced from the table annexed to this memorandum, are—

1. That the deaths of 113,931 persons were registered out of a population of 66,163,884 in these districts, presenting a death-rate of 20·64 per 1,000 per annum, against 19·08 per 1,000 in the preceding month, and 24·84 per 1,000 during the corresponding month of 1887, indicating, as compared with the former period, a fair advance in the registration of deaths, and that of the latter period a great retrogression.

2. That the highest casualty-rates were returned from the following districts :—

Districts.	Ratio per mille.	Districts.	Ratio per mille.
Darjiling	45·12	Patna	27·96
Chumparun	38·76	Hazaribagh	27·96
Julpaiguri	33·36	Bogra	27·18
Manbhum	31·80	Monghyr	25·80
Gya	28·44	Cuttack	25·68

3. That, referring to the incidence of the diseases mentioned in the table given below, it is seen that cholera prevailed with considerably less fatality during the month under notice, as compared with the results of the corresponding month of the preceding year, and that the death rates from the other diseases exhibited only fractional variations :—

	Ratio per mille during—
	July 1888.	July 1887.
Cholera	1·56	5·52
Small-pox	·12	·07
Fever	14·16	14·52
Bowel-complaints	·72	·84
Injury	·60	·72
Other causes	3·12	2·88

4. That, while injury proved nowhere markedly fatal, cholera, small-pox, fever, bowel-complaints and the maladies coming under the head of "Other causes" displayed their greatest activity in the following districts :—

Cholera.	Ratio per mille.	Small-pox.	Ratio per mille.	Fevers.	Ratio per mille.
Chumparun	16·32	Chumparun	2·16	Julpaiguri	30·72
Manbhum	12·84			Darjiling	24·96

Singbhum	2·16

Bowel-complaints.

Other causes.

	Ratio per mille.		Ratio per mille.
Darjiling	13·20	Puri	11·64

5. That distributed under the heads of Sex, Class and Age, the mortality of the month under notice stood as follows :—

According to Sex.	Ratio per mille.	According to Class.	Ratio per mille.	According to Age.	Ratio per mille.
Males	22·56	Christians	11·52	Under 1 year	158·28
Females	18·72	Hindus	21·60	1 and under 5 years	25·20

OFFICE OF SANITARY COMMISSIONER FOR BEHAL,

W. H. GREGG, Dip. Publ. Health, Camb.,
Off. Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal.

The 1st October 1848.

MEMORANDUM.

THE returns from the principal Municipalities in Bengal presented, during the week ending 15th September 1888, the following results :—

1. That births and deaths were recorded in these Municipalities at the rates respectively of 21·1 and 29·4 per 1,000 of population, as opposed to 22·6 and 35·7 per 1,000 in the preceding week, indicating a large reduction in the registration of both the events, particularly of deaths.

2. That these events were returned in the highest proportions from the following Municipalities :—

Births.			Deaths.
		Ratio per mille.			Ratio per mille.
Monghyr	...	46·1	Gya	...	99·1
Darjiling	...	39·1	Arrah	...	41·9

			Bhagulpore	...	31·7
			Beauleah	...	31·5
			Patna	...	30·8
			Midnapore	...	29·4

3. That, in comparison with the results of the preceding week, there was a considerable reduction in the death-rates from cholera, fever and the maladies coming under the head of "Other causes," and only small differences in the casualty-rates from the rest of the diseases as will be seen from the table given below :—

						Ratio per mille during the weeks ending—cial census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1931, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives before, as it was not necessary to re-census the population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans is not to be employed as a basis of calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

FLOODS IN THE 24-PERGUNNAHS AND NUDDEA DISTRICTS.

THE following reports from the Commissioner of the Presidency Division with their enclosures are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 6th October 1888.

No. 47MG, dated Calcutta, the 26th September 1888.

From—A. SMITH, Esq., Commissioner of the Presidency Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith a memorial presented to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor by some Catholic Missionaries, regarding the distressed condition of the people in the southern portion of the 24-Pergunnahs owing to the recent floods. A copy of letter No. 551G, dated the 19th instant, from the Collector of the 24-Pergunnahs, reporting on the above memorial, is also submitted herewith for the information of the Government.

2. I agree with the Collector in thinking that no aid is now required, and, from knowledge of the resources of the locality concerned, I do not think it likely any will be required when the floods subside.

3. The further reports promised, and the result of the examination with the Executive Engineer of the embankment, with a view to the provision of sluices where needed, will be submitted when received.

No. 551G, dated Alipore, the 19th September 1888.

From—C. W. BOLTON, Esq., Officiating Collector of the 24-Pergunnahs,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the memorial* regarding the recent floods in the southern portion of this district, submitted to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor by certain Roman Catholic Missionaries, which was forwarded to me with your memorandum No. 14Oct.M.G., dated the 8th instant.

* Herewith returned.

2. I had intended, before the receipt of the memorial, to travel to Diamond Harbour by road and return by train, in order to obtain a general idea of the extent of damage done by the floods, and had not started earlier because it would have been useless to do so while the crops were completely submerged. The actual damage done could only be ascertained after the subsidence of the water, when the proportion of the crops which had survived the long immersion could be seen. I accordingly proceeded to Diamond Harbour by road on the 11th instant. The road passes through low and comparatively high country, and a fair indication of the effects of the floods in the Diamond Harbour sub-division may be obtained from the state of tracts traversed. As far as Bistupur, 12 miles from Alipore, I found that the crops had suffered to some extent, but not very badly, while in places they were looking extremely well. At Bistupur itself great damage had been done, and I was informed that some villages to the north-east were equally bad. Between Bistupur and Rajarhat some villages had lost the greater part of their crops, while others had suffered less. From Rajarhat to Sarisha, however, the destruction appeared general, the whole country being under water; but a small portion of the crops might even here survive on further subsidence of the water. From Sarisha to Diamond Harbour the crops looked well, though backward, the country being high on account of its proximity to the river. In the neighbourhood of Diamond Harbour itself there was a very large expanse of green crops. On my journey back by rail, I found the country under water from about two miles out of Diamond Harbour to Mograhat. North of Mograhat, for four or five miles, there was much water in parts, but after that the country presented the ordinary aspect at this season of the year, and the crops looked well. The portion of the sub-division which has suffered most from the floods is, therefore, the tract lying between two parallel lines from Rajarhat to Sarisha, running in a direction between east and south-east as far as the Sunderbuns. What the precise extent of the destruction in this tract has been it is still impossible to say, but I fear that hardly one-fourth of the crop has escaped. Until the water has subsided another foot or more no correct estimate of the loss can be formed, and I propose accordingly to have another local enquiry made at the end of this month, and shall then submit a further report. After that, again, another enquiry will be made when the rains have completely ceased, in order to estimate finally the probable outturn of the crops. Although outside the above tract there are excellent crops, I was struck by the backward condition of the plants, and I fear that unless the rains are later than usual, even these crops will not yield a good outturn, owing to the delay in the breaking of the rains and the short fall for some weeks after the plants were transplanted late, and they are not as far advanced as usual at this time of the year. Their backwardness has no doubt also rendered them less able to bear the long immersion following the heavy rain which brought about the floods. Transplantation could also not be completed in many villages until after the heavy rain, and it may be even now going on in a few places. Good rain in the last week of this month, and even in the first week of October, is thus needed to ensure the healthy growth of these crops until the ear begins to form. I was glad to find in many of the villages submerged that there were still seedlings available, and that they were being transplanted wherever practicable. The extent of land thus cultivated will, however, be very small.

3. For enquiry in connection with the memorial, I deputed the Sudder Sub-Deputy Collector to visit the villages in the Sudder sub-division, and the Diamond Harbour Sub-Deputy Collector to visit those in that sub-division. The former inspected the crops of 35 villages which lie north-east of Bistupur between Amgachi and Bonhughly, and he estimates that only four annas of the aman crop has survived, while the aus crops, owing to damage by the floods, will not yield more than a three-anna outturn. I am inclined to think that this estimate for both crops is too low. The villages visited by the Diamond Harbour Sub-Deputy Collector lie immediately to the south of Mograhat, embracing an area of about six miles in length by four in breadth. The whole of this area he found under water, the crops being entirely submerged, except about 400 bighas in one village. The crops are, he fears, entirely lost in this tract. After every allowance for possible exaggeration and for crops which may yet appear alive above the water, it is quite clear that the damage done in the villages visited by this officer has been very extensive, and that the people will be very badly off for some time to come. Taking the sub-division as a whole, however, the Sub-divisional Officer thinks, and I do not believe his estimate to be too sanguine, that there will be a six-anna crop. In other parts of the district, notwithstanding some destruction here and there, there will, I think, be a fairly good crop. I do not therefore anticipate any want of food, although prices may rise. As regards the villages where the greatest damage has been done, I see no necessity at present for any relief measure. The destruction of the aman crop will be felt by the people later, when they would in the ordinary course have reaped the produce. In any case they would not at this season have been gathering in a fresh stock of food. The missionaries state that they are actually suffering because, having no crop in prospect, they cannot procure advances from the money and grain-lenders. This is doubtless to some extent true; but these advances cannot be long withheld from them, and friends and relations will give temporary assistance in grain or money to those who require it. In any case it is impossible at this season to undertake relief by road works, as the state of the country will not admit of the construction of roads, and cash advances are altogether undesirable as a form of relief. As regards the fishermen to whom the missionaries refer, it should be stated that they have resumed their occupation and are likely to gain rather than lose from the accumulation of water.

4. On full consideration, I think that no official action is at present required for the assistance of the people in the flooded tract, and I am hopeful that none will be required later. Equally destructive floods have occurred elsewhere from time to time without relief being undertaken by the State, and it is reasonable to expect that in this case also the people, though suffering a good deal, will pass through the calamity without the need of relief. It is satisfactory to note that in almost every petition which has been presented to me in connection with these floods, the only definite request made is that the zemindars may be desired not to press for rents, and in Government estates that the collection of rents may be kept in abeyance. The people themselves apparently do not anticipate that they will be in want of food. It is impossible to suggest officially to the zemindars that they should abstain from the collection of rents, unless the Government is prepared to suspend at the same time the collection of the land revenue—a measure which I could not advocate in this case. I am, moreover, disposed to think that the zemindars will not, under the circumstances, be wanting in consideration to their tenants. In the Government estates leniency will be shown in the collections according to the condition of each tenant, and it may be necessary later to recommend remissions.

5. A further report as to the state of the inundated tract will be submitted to you after the end of this month, and a fuller report after the 15th October. The severity of these floods and their long continuance are attributed by the people to the blocking up of the drainage by roads, embankments and cross dams across certain natural outlets, and there appears to be much truth in this view. The insertion of sluice gates in suitable places would, no doubt, be a great boon to the country: but the zemindars and their tenants have hitherto shown no readiness to provide the funds, and the works have been deferred from year to year. If still in charge of the district during the next cold weather, I propose visiting the whole line of embankments with Executive Engineer, selecting sites for sluice gates, and making a strong effort to get the landlords and ryots of all villages to be benefited to subscribe. If the sites of the sluice gates be selected so as to serve the largest number of villages, the proportionate cost to each village would be reduced, and the probability of obtaining the co-operation of the landlords and ryots would be greater.

To the HON'BLE SIR STEUART COLVIN BAYLEY, Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

YOUR HONOUR—

We the undersigned Catholic Chaplains residing in the villages situated south of Calcutta, beg to solicit Your Honour's kind consideration and the assistance of Government on behalf of the distressed population of the whole district in which we labour, in consequence of the late storm and the complete ruin of their crops.

We respectfully represent that, in more than forty villages over which our ministrations extend, the poor inhabitants, Christians as well as Hindoos, are left without any hope of a harvest this year, and owing to the abundance of water cannot have recourse to fishing which is their means of subsistence at this time of the year.

We have liberally spent what scanty means we had for the relief of their misery; but the magnitude of the calamity forces us to apply to Government for aid.

What makes the situation of our poor villagers quite helpless is that they cannot, as in other years, live by small loans of paddy which they borrow on the security of the coming harvest.

Living, as we do, for a great number of years in the very midst of these poor people, we think that we are best able to point out their real wants and to see that the assistance reaches the truly needy. This is what prompted us to submit the present memorial, and to entreat Your Honour to give it your favourable consideration.

With every respect, we beg to remain,

Your Honour's most obedient servants,

JULIAN BANCKAERT, S.J.

ALBERT MAENE, S.J.

J. DEJAINS, S.J.

FRED. GREGORY, S.J.

Raghapur, Station of Bistopoor, Sub-District of Alipore.

No. 69MAct. dated Camp Krishnaghur, the 27th September 1888.

Memo. by—A. SMITH, Esq., Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

Copy submitted to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department, for information.

2. It will be seen that the injury to crops has been greatest in the Sudder sub-division.

3. The enquiries I have made satisfy me that there neither is any severe distress, nor is there any likely. The discomfort will pass away with the subsidence of the water, which has already fallen.

4. The flood of 1885 followed on two years of drought, and found the cultivators in some difficulty at the commencement. It was followed by inordinately good cold-weather crops, and the two intermediate years have been years of good harvest. The ryots are thus well set up, and meet the present calamity with the advantage thus given.

5. It was feared in 1885 that sickness might attend the drying up of the floods, but none came, and it is to be hoped that none may come this year.

6. Some sickness then appeared among cattle, owing, it was believed, to the use of the fresh vegetation as food. If this should occur, some help in the shape of veterinary doctors may be needed to meet it. Action, however, may wait till it is seen if the aid is needed or not.

7. I do not anticipate that any other aid will be needed. One result of the floods is to increase the demand for labour. Road damages have to be repaired. Cold-weather crops, especially wheat, will be sown on a larger scale than usual, and the larger area needs more labour. Flood injuries to the houses of the well-to-do have also to be put right. All this affords labour to those who need it. The loans under the Agricultural Loans Act, for which budget provision exists, will permit of aid where needed to the cultivators themselves, and I agree with the Collector in thinking it unlikely the whole sum available will be wanted.

No. 1332G, dated Krishnaghur, the 27th September 1888.

From—W. C. MACPHERSON, Esq., Offg. Collector of Nuddea,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit a statement showing the estimated outturn of the aus and amun rice crops in this district in the present year. The holding off of the rains till nearly the end of June, and excessive rainfall in July and August, have been unfavourable to the rice crops, and a very large quantity of the aus on the chur lands has been lost.

2. The floods of the Bhgairuthi have been unusually high in the Sudder sub-division (thannas Kaligunge and Nakasipara), and the spills of the Jellinghee and Churni were also more severe than usual in the Obupra and Hanskhali thannas. There has been much discomfort in the riparian villages, where flood-water has risen higher than in ordinary years on the village sites.

3. I do not think that there is any severe distress, nor do I anticipate that there will be. One or two applications only for loans under the Agricultural Loans Act have been presented to me, which are now being enquired into. I have an allotment of Rs. 12,000 for advances under the Agricultural Loans Act, and I do not expect that I shall have to spend nearly the whole allotment. The Sudder canoongoe is enquiring as to the necessity of making advances in thannas Nakasipara and Kaligunge in the Sudder sub-division, which appear to have suffered most from the inundation.

4. I have also asked the Sudder Local Board to begin road works in the thannas last named, as early as possible, in order that the labouring classes may be able to get work before the harvests.

10 square miles were waste. The area affected by the Fatehpore breach is 15 square miles, of which five square miles were waste. There was another isolated area on the right bank nearer Cutwa, where the Adjai overflow joined a marsh which overflowed. The area of damage from this was five square miles, though it, too, will be compensated for by the boro or April rice cultivation, which will be carried on in the marsh. So far as is known, there has been no extensive sand coming from these floods; and, as already reported, there was no loss of life or cattle. It seems I was mistaken in saying the Adjai flood was the highest ever known. The Assistant Engineer informs me that by his readings near the Bhedia Railway-station (Loop Line, East Indian Railway), the flood of 1885 was three feet higher. At Cutwa town, however, where the mouth of the Adjai, as is usual with these rivers, is choked, the flood was the highest ever known. Its duration, too, was unexampled.

II.—THE DAMUDAR FLOODS.

4. These were by nearly a foot the highest on record. As regards their effect and the communication made by Ambica Churn Gupta to Government regarding them (received under your No. 59RG of 7th September 1888), which I beg herewith to return, I cannot do better than attach a copy (extract) of a letter, which I wrote to Lala Ban Bihari Kapur, who had addressed me on behalf of certain memorialists, and the public concerned, regarding the Jankooli breach, on the subject. Every village in the tract affected was visited either by myself or the Excise Deputy Collector, or the senior Sub-Deputy Collector. In my first report I estimated the area of total loss and serious damage at 80 square miles on the basis of a continuous marginal belt. On visiting this belt myself, I found that it was by no means continuous, and I have reduced my estimate to 20 square miles, of which 15 square miles were affected by the Jankooli breach. Of the damage done by it, a considerable portion has been the work of previous years. No application for relief in any form, even by loans under the two Agriculturists Loans Acts, has been made from this south Damudar tract, either to myself or to my subordinates while on tour, or at my office here. In this connection it is worth mentioning that a private relief fund, held by native managers, gentlemen of good position, which was first raised in 1885 to meet distress following on the inundation of that year, exists in Burdwan. When the disastrous fire at Culna took place in March 1887, this fund contributed liberally to the relief that was then required. I enquired if the managers intended to take any steps with regard to the recent floods, and was informed that there was absolutely no occasion for doing so, as all that the people had suffered from was the fright and temporary inconvenience inseparable from such an occasion.

5. With regard to the Jankooli breach, I promised to bring the state of affairs to the notice of Government, though I believe Government must be acquainted with the subject from enquiries made in the Public Works Department on the many memorials which have been presented direct. The last orders communicated to this office were those conveyed in Colonel McNeil's No. 452J, dated 12th March 1885, and the subsequent orders received with your office No. 422, dated the 18th March 1886, by which the Collector of this district was forbidden to take proceedings for the closure of this breach. The aspect of the country at and from Jankooli is indeed deplorable. As far as the eye can see, it is covered with a barren coating of sand, or a rank growth of khasia grass, a product which is almost absolutely useless. The once flourishing village of Jankooli is reduced to nine houses, occupied by labourers, and in all its area there is not, as far as I could see (for I could not distinguish silt from sand in the prevailing slush) a single rood of cultivable land. The taluqdar of it, and the neighbouring village of Kalara, has lost all income from his taluq. This state of things has prevailed ever since the zemindari embankment at Jankooli was first breached in 1881; but what continues to cause alarm, and to keep up the agitation on the subject, is the uncertainty as to how far the volume of sand which each flood carries through this breach will be borne and deposited. A map showing the area destroyed by sand was prepared in 1885, and the Assistant Engineer informs me that another is now under preparation. Of course, in view of the decisions on the subject already given, it is impossible for me to suggest a remedy. I have only to say that, after a careful consideration of the terms and consequences of the agreement entered into in 1805 by Government with the Rajah of Burdwan, I think that any remedy which may be thought practicable should be undertaken by Government and not left to the people themselves.

6. In my letter to Lala Ban Bihari Kapur I have referred to the comparative safety of the country south and west of the Damudar; and though this involves an engineering question, I beg permission to say a few words regarding it. The most casual observer, who walks, as I did, along both banks of the Damudar, cannot fail to be struck with the difference in the country on each side. I believe that a prominent motive for the order which was passed in 1855 for the removal of some of the embankments on the right bank was to afford relief to the left bank embankment. The wisdom of that order, as regards the country on the right bank, has been proved by the sequel, for it has risen to a height which will soon secure it from any inundation. It, therefore, presents a solid barrier to the floods, which flow far above not only the fields, but the habitations on the left bank. The relief which the removal of the right bank embankments has been giving must soon cease to operate, and it is impossible to shut one's eyes to the catastrophe which in each successive rains must threaten the people and houses and crops and important public works—the Eden Canal, if not the Railway—which at present are only guarded by the frail protections of the left embankment.

No. 418G, dated Cutwa, the 22nd September 1888.

From—BABOO JADUNATH BOSE, Sub-divisional Officer, Cutwa,
To—The Collector of Burdwan.

WITH reference to your No. 1260G of the 19th instant, asking if any relief is wanted for the people of the inundated tracts, I have the honour to state that up to the moment of writing this report, no emergent cases of distress have come to my notice.

2. I have visited almost the whole of the inundated tract, except the portion south of Ketugram, and it appears to me that time is yet required to develop any distress should it hereafter occur.

3. The damages done by the inundation have not yet been fully ascertained, all the lands not having yet emerged out of the flood, and the information in connection with it being still in course of collection.

4. The only relief asked by the people themselves as yet is in the shape of agricultural loans under the Act, of the aggregate amount of Rs. 647, by about 52 ryots, of chur Sujapore, Mongram, and Narsingpore, in the Sujapore portion of the flooded tract.

5. In Agradipa, which is comparatively lower than the Sujapore tract, the damage appears to be somewhat heavier. The zemindar informed me that he had relieved some urgent cases of distress.

6. Agradipa is peculiarly situated, and the zemindar would suffer by desertion of his ryots if he did not interest himself in protecting them. The people of the Dhaoras or Buna hamlets only asked some relief work to be started after the subsidal of the flood, as they would soon be in want of work. I shall report again should any actual necessity for relief work hereafter arise.

7. There can be no doubt that the inundation will leave a rich silt by which the ryots will largely profit. The silt in the Sujapore chur had, I ascertained, in places been about nine inches or even a foot deep. The lands remained under water for about three weeks; people say the inundation has been of the longest duration known for some years. The layer of silt deposited must therefore have been comparatively thicker. I think we would not be much out of the mark to estimate the average thickness at four to six inches.

8. The ryots were frank enough to tell me that under favourable circumstances they looked forward to a splendid rabi crop. The only difficulty in prospect was to tide over the intervening period before the ripening of the crop.

9. The ryots of Sujapore alone told me that the silt of the Bhagirathi was not so good as that of the Adjai and the Babla; that it contained a large mixture of sand, from which some of the lands would suffer. Their statements may only be partially true, but there can be no doubt as to the net result of the inundation in leaving a rich silt behind.

10. A very large extent of land, compared with that of other years, is expected to be sown with rabi this year. Time has not arrived in my opinion for asking for any pecuniary relief. I would only ask that fifteen maunds of Buxar wheat seed, in addition to that which I have already asked for, and for which I have promised to pay, may be sent as soon as possible, to be advanced to the most needy of the ryots, if necessary free of cost.

11. I expect more applications for agricultural loans, and I think these loans to the limit of, say, Rs. 1,000 may be advanced. If this recommendation is approved, I beg that a canoongoe may be temporarily deputed to hold the usual preliminary enquiries necessary to the advance of these loans.

Extract paragraph 12 of a letter, dated the 22nd September 1888, from the Collector of Burdwan to LALA BAN BIHARI KAPUR.

12. The sum is that, though the Damudar floods of the 27th and 28th August last were the highest on record, not a human life nor a single head of cattle has been lost in them; the damage done by them has been strictly local; my Deputy Collector and myself have not yet been able to report a single case requiring charitable relief; except in the damaged area, the crops in the country affected by them is the finest that it has borne for years; and even including the damaged area, the average crop is the finest since 1886. But the chief result to notice is the extent to which the level of the country has been raised, and security against damage in the future been already attained. The immense difference between the height of the country on the right and left banks can be seen by any one who walks, as I did, along both banks for some miles. The cultivators on the left bank already envy the finer crops and superior soil of their brethren on the other side; and though they have been protected hitherto by the embankment from the river, which in flood flows far above their heads, they have only too much reason to envy their opposite neighbours for having at length attained a position independent of any such frail protection. In brief, though the floods of August 1888 have been the highest ever known, and notwithstanding the natural alarm and the great inconvenience which they created at the time of their prevalence, it can be affirmed that there never have been floods in the Damudar, which have caused so little real damage to the country on its right bank. On the other hand, the recent floods have brought inestimable benefits to that country, by renewing the fertility of its soil, and by raising still further its level.

W. C. MACPHERSON,

Offg. Collector of Nuddea.

The 27th September 1888.

INUNDATIONS OF THE DAMUDAR AND ADJAI RIVERS IN THE BURDWAN DISTRICT.

THE following report from the Commissioner of Burdwan with its enclosures is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated 9th October 1888.

No. 39RG, dated Burdwan, the 28th September 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN continuation of my No. 33RG of the 21st instant, I have the honour to submit herewith copy of a letter No. 1320G of the 27th instant, with its enclosures, from the Collector of Burdwan, reporting on the effects of the recent floods in his district by the overflow of the rivers Adjai and Damudar. I am satisfied that Mr. Oldham, with whom I am in daily communication, has correctly estimated the amount of damage done. I make no remark on the engineering questions raised, which must be settled by professional engineers.

No. 1320G, dated Burdwan Collectorate, the 27th September 1888.

From—W. B. OLDHAM, Esq., Collector of Burdwan,
To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

IN continuation of my No. 1246G, dated the 18th instant, I have the honour to furnish the final report on the effects of the floods of the last week of August 1888 in this district. The total area, in which crops were lost or very seriously damaged by them, is 50 square miles.

I.—THE ADJAI AND BHAGIRUTHI FLOODS, CUTWA SUB-DIVISION.

2. In my previous report, the area of total loss of, or very serious damage to, crops from these floods was estimated, on the details therein given, at 90 square miles. From the more accurate information now obtained, and a rough map furnished by the Sub-divisional Officer of Cutwa, this estimate must be reduced to 30 square miles. I have eliminated the loss from the Bhagiruthi floods, which were calculated to have affected an area of 30 square miles altogether. Though the lands were entirely submerged, and the rice crops on them entirely destroyed, the lands themselves are all chur, on which rice is cultivated to provide for the event of the rivers not rising, but by far its most remunerative crops are wheat and other winter and spring crops, and these are most remunerative after a flood which has drowned the rice. It would be misleading, therefore, to reckon the recent loss of the rice on these tracts as serious damage, even if it is damage at all. The Sub-divisional Officer's letter No. 448G, dated 22nd instant, a copy of which I beg to annex, shows this very clearly. The great duration of the recent floods, while improving the silt deposits, very much enhanced the immediate inconvenience, and the damage to huts ordinarily done by a flood with prolonged wet weather; and in view of these facts, I have written for the Buxar wheat, which the Sub-divisional Officer wishes to distribute, and will entertain the applications for the advances under the Loans Act to which he refers. The only special reason for considering the latter is that rent collections must stop till the winter crops are harvested, when they will be paid with interest. The only request the people themselves have made to me is to induce the taluqdar to stay his ordinary collections till they get in their rabi crops when, they say, they will pay him in full.

3. My estimate of the area of total loss or serious damage from the Adjai floods was 60 square miles. But from the Sub-divisional Officer's map, I find that, instead of covering a continuous belt of country one-and-a-half miles broad on each side of the river throughout its course in the sub-division, as I first gathered from his diaries, the belt which they did cover is interrupted. Along the right bank it only runs for 10 miles in the extreme west of the sub-division. This was from the breach in the zemindari embankment at Fatehpore and was the scene of the heaviest damage done by the recent floods anywhere in the district. But even this tract includes a large area of waste land. The next belt of seriously damaged country is on the left bank of the Adjai from opposite Cutwa town, where the Bhagiruthi water joined the flood westward for 11 miles to the border of the Beerbhoom district. This tract of country has always been exposed to the combined Adjai and Bhagiruthi spill, and large stretches of it have been covered for years with coarse grass, and the cultivation in it is not continuous and is always precarious. The area is about 25 square miles, of which fully

FLOODS IN THE JEHANABAD SUB-DIVISION OF THE HOOGHLY DISTRICT AND IN THE MIDNAPORE DISTRICT.

The following papers are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Dated 9th October 1888.

Secy. to the Government of Bengal.

No. 38R.G., dated Burdwan, the 27th September 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN continuation of my No. 37R.G. of the 24th instant, I have the honour to submit copy of a letter from the Collector of Hooghly (his No. 1231 of the 21st idem, with its enclosure) reporting on the damage done in the Jehanabad sub-division by the recent flood, and to request that a sum of Rs. 2,000 may be granted to the district, as applied for by the Collector, for gratuitous relief in rebuilding houses and for advances under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

2. I accept Mr. Toynbee's views, and think it satisfactory that a half return may eventually be expected from later crops on the flooded land, and that the present distress is confined to want of accommodation.

3. I have in a demi-official letter authorised Mr. Toynbee to spend, in anticipation of sanction, such money as he may find necessary for immediate needs.

No. 1231, dated Hooghly, the 21st September 1888.

From—G. TOYNBEE, Esq., Collector of Hooghly,
To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

IN reply to your circular No. 59R.G., dated 7th September 1888, and circular No. 61R.G., dated 14th instant, I have the honour to forward herewith copy of a report, No. 266, dated 19th September 1888, from the Sub-divisional Officer of Jehanabad, on the damage done by the floods in his sub-division. Although this officer has only recently joined, he was in Ghatal in 1885-86, and has a good knowledge of the circumstances of the people in the south-west of the district. The Sub-Deputy Collector, who has visited the flooded tracts, has a thorough knowledge of the flooded tracts in which the Government khas mehals lie.

2. I agree with the Sub-divisional Officer in thinking that no scarcity of food is to be apprehended, but that the people have suffered, and will have to suffer, considerable privation before they can rebuild their houses, and that the poorest of them may require some help in this respect. The damage done seems to be very similar in character and extent to that done by the floods of 1885-86, on which occasion the Calcutta Relief Committee gave Rs. 2,000 and Government Rs. 1,000 (excluding Rs. 500 for Howrah), besides an advance of Rs. 2,000 under the Agricultural Loans Act. Of the first sum of Rs. 2,000 all was expended, of the second only Rs. 488, and of the third Rs. 1,900 was expended; in all Rs. 4,388, viz., gratuitously Rs. 2,488 and as loans Rs. 1,900. I would ask therefore that for the present a grant of Rs. 1,000 may be made for gratuitous relief in the way of rebuilding houses and Rs. 1,000 as advances under the Agricultural Loans Act. This will, I believe, meet all urgent cases, and the Sub-Deputy Collector may be employed in its distribution where actually needed.

3. The prevention of similar calamities in future is not a matter on which I can venture to give an opinion, as it is entirely an engineering question. As the west embankment of the Damoodar has been definitely abandoned, I fear there is no remedy. It should be remembered that rubber crops are grown over the greater part of the flooded area, and that most of the people are connected with Calcutta and are fairly well off in spite of the annual inundations.

No. 266, dated Jehanabad, the 19th September 1888.

From—MOULVI BUZAL KARIM, Sub-divisional Officer of Jehanabad,
To—The Collector of Hooghly.

REFERRING to your No. 1075 of the 31st ultimo, I have the honour to submit the following report on the floods which overtook the eastern and southern portion of the sub-division in the latter part of August.

2. The incessant downpour of the heavy rains in the latter part of August caused the overflow of the Damoodar, Rupnarain, Darkessur, and of the various khals and rivulets which join with the big rivers. The eastern portion of the sub-division, consisting of the jurisdictions of Singute and Pursurah outposts, was thus overflowed by the Damoodar and its branches, and the southern portion mostly by the overflow of the Rupnarain and partly by the Darkessur. It is a known fact that these portions, especially the eastern part of the sub-division, are more or less affected by the floods every year; but the last floods rose very high twice, and a great portion of the country still lies under water. The Sub-Deputy Collector learnt on enquiry that the highest flood this year rose about 18 inches above those of the previous 20 years, and his opinion is confirmed by the oldest men of the flood-affected tracts.

3. The last floods have done considerable damage to crops. Before the floods, trans-plantation of paddy was complete in the affected tracts. The young paddy, both aghani and aus, thus lying for a considerable period under water, was totally destroyed. The enquiry made by the Sub-Deputy Collector shows that the crops of nearly the whole of the jurisdictions of Pursurah and Singute outposts, and of thana Khanacool with the exception of three or four villages, have been totally destroyed.* In some places whence the floods have

* While the crops of thana Jehanabad, excluding Pursurah, have not suffered more than 10 per cent. of total rice-producing area. subsided, retransplantation has been commenced, though the seedlings could be procured with much difficulty and costs; but it is estimated that the area of such lands will not exceed 5 per cent. of the damaged portion. The difficulty of producing seedlings at this portion of the year is a great obstacle to any extensive scale of retransplantation.

4. You are aware perhaps that the Damoodar floods annually leave a large extent of land without paddy crops. The extraordinary rise of water this year has doubled the extent of such damaged area. It is estimated that nearly the half or a little less of the total area (the crops of which have been destroyed this year) will produce rubbee, boro and other crops, leaving the other half without any produce. Thus, taking 100 as the unit of the area damaged, I may make the following calculations:—

5 per cent. retransplanted paddy.
45 ,, rubbee boro and other crops.
50 ,, producing crops.
50 ,, net loss.

5. Taking these figures into consideration, and the excellent crops which the jurisdiction of thana Goghat and the unaffected portion of Jehanabad are expected to yield, I do not think there is at present any reasonable cause of apprehension of a famine or scarcity visiting the sub-division on account of the loss of crops caused by the floods.

6. But I must note here that the last floods have not only destroyed the crops, but have rendered many homeless. The mud-walled houses which are made in this part could not stand against the incessant heavy rains and the rise of the floods above the ordinary level, and the result was that a good many houses in the flood-affected tracts especially gave way, thus rendering many almost homeless. It is to this only that a majority of the people now suffer, and their sufferings may continue or even take a serious shape if they could not prepare their necessary sheds before the cold weather sets in. The Sub-Deputy Collector, who visited the flood-affected tract, reports that many poor cultivators, widows and beggars have become entirely destitute of homes or sheds, and they have been very sparingly accommodated in the houses of some neighbours who may have one or two sheds of their own. Of course those who have means have already begun to rebuild some temporary shed, but the poor classes suffer considerably from want of sufficient accommodation. To alleviate the sufferings of those classes who have no means to make new houses within a reasonable time, the Sub-Deputy Collector proposes that some aid may be given to them for the reconstruction of small sheds wherein they may live; and I, agreeing with this view, would request you to obtain a grant of Rs. 2,000 for the relief of those who have no means left to build houses before the severity of the cold weather tells upon their health and constitution.

† Total number of villages ... 147
 „ „ of houses .. 2,278

Besides the above, in 9 villages 60 per cent. of the houses was damaged.

7. A long list† prepared by the Sub-Deputy Collector shewing the number or percentage of houses destroyed in each village, is herewith annexed.

No. 3342—138Fam., dated Calcutta, the 4th October 1888.

From—H. J. S. Corron, Esq., Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Revenue Dept.,
 To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 38R.G., dated 27th September 1888, with its enclosures, reporting on the damage done by the recent floods in the Jehanabad sub-division in the district of Hooghly.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor sanctions the grant of Rs. 1,000 for gratuitous relief, and also the advance of Rs. 1,000 under the Agricultural Loans

Act. The Lieutenant-Governor approves also of the orders you have passed authorising the Collector of Hooghly to spend whatever money he may find necessary for immediate needs. A careful account of expenditure should be kept, and a further report submitted in due course.

No. 402RG, dated Burdwan, the 22nd September 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces.

IN forwarding herewith copy of a letter, No. 1894 of the 14th instant, from the Collector of Midnapore, reporting on the effect of the recent flood in his district, I have the honour to request that, under the circumstances stated, a further sum of Rs. 2,000 may be allotted to the district of Midnapore for agricultural loans under Act XII of 1884.

No. 1894G, dated Midnapore, the 14th September 1888.

From—C. H. VOWELL, Esq., Collector of Midnapore,
To—The Commissioner of Revenue, Burdwan Division.

SINCE writing my No. 1818G, dated 8th instant, on the effect of the floods in the district, I have received some further reports concerning the state of the villages in the south of the head-quarters and in Contai. A detailed report has not yet come from the Sub-divisional Officer; but from what I can gather, I think there is little doubt we shall have to assist with agricultural loans. Only Rs. 1,000 has been assigned to this district, none of which has yet been spent. I request that, in anticipation of my detailed report, you will give me a further credit of Rs. 2,000.

No. 929A, dated Calcutta, the 1st October 1888.

Memo. by—K. G. GUPTA, Esq., Offg. Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces.

COPY submitted to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, in the Revenue Department, for sanction, with reference to Board's letter No. 918A, dated 27th September 1888.

MR. REYNOLDS.

No. 152T—R, dated Darjeeling, the 8th October 1888.

From—P. NOLAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department,
To—The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue Department.

WITH reference to your endorsement No. 929A, dated 1st October 1888, and annexures, I am directed to convey the Lieutenant-Governor's sanction to the allotment of a further sum of Rs. 2,000 to the district of Midnapore for agricultural loans under Act XII of 1884.

Abstract of the results of Meteorological Observations taken at the Alipore Observatory in the month of September 1888.

	Inches.	Date.	Hour.
The mean pressure of the month	29.739
The average pressure of September from 24 years' registers ...	29.682
The highest pressure in the month	29.935	20th	10h.
The lowest pressure in the month	29.542	15th	16h.
The range of pressure	0.393
The total number of hours of bright sunshine during the month	160.2
The maximum possible number of hours of sunshine ...	367.0
The mean temperature of the month	82.9
The average temperature of September from 24 years' registers	83.3
The highest temperature in the month	91.3	15th.
The lowest temperature in the month	75.2	18th.
The range of temperature during the month	16.1
The mean daily range of temperature	9.9
The greatest range of temperature in one day	12.9	28th.
The mean humidity of the month	86
The average humidity of September from 24 years' registers ...	85
The mean vapour tension of the month	0.966
The average vapour tension of September from 9 years' registers	0.987
The mean cloud proportion of the month	6.49
The average cloud proportion of September from 11 years' registers	7.22
The total rainfall of the month	9.97
The total rainfall indicated by a Beckley's self-registering rain-gauge (mouth of the gauge about 52 feet above the ground)	9.90
The average fall of September from 48 years' registers ...	10.18
The greatest fall in 24 hours	2.32	1st.
The number of rainy days in the month	16
The average number of rainy days in September from 24 years' registers	21
The mean maximum equilibrium temperature of solar radiation during the month	148.6
The mean difference of sun and air temperatures	55.9
The greatest sun temperature	159.0	21st.
The greatest excess of sun over air temperature	70.2	21st.
The mean temperature of the nocturnal radiation thermometer on woollen cloth	75.4
The mean depression of the nocturnal radiation thermometer below the minimum air temperature at 4 feet above the ground	2.4
The greatest depression of the nocturnal radiation thermometer below the minimum air temperature	4.2	5th & 21st.
The mean movement of the wind per day	68.5
The greatest movement of the wind in one day	283.0	16th.
The greatest movement of the wind in one hour	18.0	21st, noon to 1 P.M.
The number of hours with winds from each of the 8 points—

N. 32, NE. 18, E. 66, SE. 152, S. 87, SW. 116, W. 48, NW. 49, Calm 152.

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park-street Observatory). The barometer is about 3 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore .003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently equal; and finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards is found to read 0.6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

CALCUTTA, the 9th October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 5TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE weather conditions of the past week displayed opposite characteristics at the beginning and at the close of the period. For the first two days westerly and even north-westerly winds of light or moderate force prevailed fairly generally throughout the province, any rainfall was slight and scattered, and a moderately settled appearance was the general characteristic of the weather. On the first there were indications of a change; the wind drew into North and North-West in South-West Bengal and Orissa, into North-East in Assam and Northern Bengal, and into South-East in East Bengal, and though the weather remained fine, it became evident that a fresh inrush of monsoon winds preceded by a barometric storm was imminent. By the morning of the 4th the barometric depression had assumed a well-defined shape and position, the centre lying midway between False Point and Diamond Island. The wind circulation throughout the whole of Bengal was influenced by this depression, and was everywhere cyclonic; but owing to the increasing dryness of the atmosphere, due to the larger changes of the weather, the weather remained generally fair, and, except in Orissa, very little rain was experienced.

Pressure.—Was unsteady during the week. It was decreasing on the 29th of September, increasing generally between the 30th and the 4th of October, and decreasing everywhere on the 5th. It has been about the normal for the week, though at the close it was generally falling below the average.

Temperature.—Owing to the continued absence of general rain, temperature remained high. The excess was greatest ($2^{\circ}0'$) in North Bengal, and was considerable in Orissa, South-West and East Bengal, North Behar and Assam, while it was slight in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur. The maxima have ranged between 93° and 97° , which is rather high for the time of year.

Rainfall.—Has continued light. In North Behar there has been no rain, and in North Bengal only an insignificant amount. On the other hand, in South-West Bengal, the week's deficiency has been slight, and nearly the normal amount of rainfall has been received.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Province for the week ending Friday, the 5th of October 1888:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h, and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed at the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

THE principal Municipalities in Bengal (excepting Dacca and Narainganj, from which no returns have been received up to date) returned, during the week ending 22nd September 1888, the birth and death-rates of 20·3 and 30·3 per 1,000 of population, respectively, as opposed to 21·2 and 30·6 per 1,000 in the preceding week, indicating a falling off in the registration of births.

2. The highest proportions of births and deaths were returned from the following Municipalities :—

Births.			Deaths.
		Ratio per mille.			Ratio per mille.
Monghyr	...	47·9	Gya	...	87·4

			Bhagulpore	...	29·9

3. From the subjoined figures taken from the table appended to this memorandum, it appears that during the week under notice the mortality from the maladies coming under the head of "Other causes" had on the whole diminished much, but no noticeable variations in fetal results occurred from the rest of the death-causes :—

MORTALITY ACCORDING TO—

[illegible]

The ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as they were not reliable owing to the census of the community taken in February 1931, was not reliable owing to the above facts, except for all heads in the above table, except those recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

A special census of the Europeans in the Territory Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community taken in February 1931, was not reliable owing to the above facts, except for all heads in the above table, except those recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

If, therefore, as it was not necessary re-counting them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except those recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

The censuses are based on calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

General remarks on the fluctuation of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during month ended 25th August 1888.

INCREASES.

Coal and coke.—There was an increase in both upwards and downwards coal and coke traffic; that in the former is due to demands from foreign Railways, and the latter to despatches to Howrah for ocean steamers and for export.

Wheat.—Due to demand for export.

Jute, raw.—This is attributable to despatches from the Eastern Bengal State Railway to the jute mills in Calcutta and neighbourhood.

Minerals.—This is a continuation of the increase reported for several months past.

Oil.—This was chiefly in kerosine oil from Howrah.

Railway material, Foreign.—This increase was in short lead traffic for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

Saltpetre.—Due to despatches to Howrah for export.

Seeds.—The increase was chiefly in linseed and mustard seed—the former for export and the latter for local consumption.

Bones.—A continuation of the increase reported for several months consecutively.

Piece-goods, European.—This was principally in long distance traffic from Howrah to the North-Western Provinces and Punjab.

DECREASES.

Gram and pulses.—Due to absence of demand.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—The decrease was not important, and last year's despatches were particularly good.

Other rain and spring crops.—Due to heavy demand last year, owing to scarcity in Rajputana.

Brass and copper.—This is attributable to the continuance of high prices.

Salt.—This decrease was in imported salt.

Sugar, refined and unrefined.—This was principally in long lead traffic from Howrah and stations on the Dinapore district.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SALT DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR 1887-88.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT—SALT.

Darjeeling, the 9th October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Administration of the Salt Department for the year 1887-88.

During the year under review there were two important administrative changes, (1) the increase of the duty on all kinds of salt from Rs. 2 to Rs. 2-8 per maund, and (2) the extension of the Indian Salt Act XII of 1882 to the districts of the Orissa Division, and the formal transfer of the control of the Salt Department to the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Madras. The result of the increase in duty, which took effect from the 19th of January last, on the consumption of salt, was not discernible, the Board report, during the year under review, but it should be noticed in reporting on the administration of the current year.

2. The following statement shows the receipts and charges of the Department during the past six years:—

The results of the year under review, as compared with the previous year, show a decrease of Rs. 10,66,523, or 5·3 per cent. in the receipts, and of Rs. 2,179, or ·9 per cent. in the charges. There was a decrease under all the heads of receipts; that under the head of Duty was due to smaller clearances, and that under the head of Rent of warehouses to the reduction of the rate of rent from Rs. 5 to Rs. 3 per 1,000 maunds. The decrease in the charges was nominal.

3. The total quantity of salt in stock at the commencement of the year was 10,14,529 maunds: of this 8,49,348 maunds had been imported, and the remainder was excise salt. During the year 99,86,076 maunds were imported, and 1,03,559 maunds were manufactured, against 1,03,79,688 maunds and 66,483 maunds, the corresponding figures for last year. The stock in hand at the close of the year was 11,75,347 maunds. Importation of salt was confined during the year to the ports of Calcutta and Chittagong. There was a decrease of 3,93,349 maunds as compared with the total quantity imported in the previous year. Salt was imported chiefly from the United Kingdom, Bombay, Arabian and Persian Gulfs, and Aden. The trade with Italy, which was formerly only second in importance to that with the United Kingdom, ceased entirely this year, owing, it is said, to the growth of transactions with Aden and other Arabian ports. The receipts from the Arabian and Persian Gulfs and Aden are increasing rapidly, but the absence of imports from India, and the recent development of Perim as a coaling station, are likely to interfere with the facilities for exporting salt from the latter port. The clearances of salt from ship-board showed a decrease of 4,35,806 maunds, or 5·5 per cent., in Calcutta, and an increase of 23,197 maunds, or 28 per cent., in Chittagong. The total quantity cleared from bond in all ports amounted to 17,59,788 maunds, against 18,09,213 maunds in 1886-87, and realized a duty of Rs. 36,75,377, against Rs. 36,18,426.

4. Salt was manufactured under the Excise Rules in Orissa alone. Compared with the previous year, the quantity of salt manufactured in Cuttack diminished by 12,526 maunds, owing partly to the reduction in the number of aurungs, and partly to the loss sustained during the heavy rains of June and July 1887. In Balasore the decrease, amounting to 32,532 maunds, was caused by large importations of Liverpool salt; while in Pooree there was an increase of 82,134 maunds, due to the resumption of business by the manufacturers, who, being apprehensive of the Madras Rules, had given up the industry in the previous year. The sales of excise salt decreased from 2,35,657 maunds to 1,82,860 maunds in quantity, and the amount of duty realized fell from Rs. 4,71,315 to Rs. 3,82,854. The decrease is attributed to the importation of salt from Ganjam and Liverpool, and to the cessation of the manufacture of Punga salt.

5. The consumption of salt in the saliferous districts fell off from 10,68,515 maunds in 1886-87 to 10,62,402 maunds in the past year. The decrease occurred in all the districts except Chittagong and Balasore, where there were small increases of 571 maunds and 851 maunds respectively. There was an increase of 80, or 22·2 per cent., in the number of seizures, while there was a decrease of 1,123 maunds, or 69 per cent., in the quantity of salt attached, and of 525 maunds, or 91·4 per cent., in the quantity of salt confiscated. The number of cases instituted for offences against the Salt laws, increased from 425 in 1886-87 to 501 in the present year. The amounts realized as fines and disbursed as rewards were Rs. 2,300 and Rs. 1,307, against Rs. 2,327 and Rs. 1,904, respectively, in the previous year.

6. The following table compares the despatches of salt into the interior by the different water routes and railways during the past two years—

YEAR.	Via Balli Khal.	Via Sankrail.	Via Gewakhal.	Via Kidderpore.	Via Ballinghatta.	Total carried by water.	By the East Indian Railway.	By the Eastern Bengal and Calcutta and South-Eastern Railways or via Chitpore.	Via Rutherford Ghat.	Total carried by rail.	GRAND TOTAL.

From the figures given above, it appears that there was a decrease of 1,33,712 maunds in the quantity of salt conveyed by water, and an increase of 3,984 maunds in the despatches by rail

7. The quantity of salt bonded during 1887-88 was 21,53,021 maunds, against 21,01,423 maunds in the previous year. The increase occurred entirely in the bonding of Liverpool salt, and may be ascribed to the reduction in the rate of rent which came into operation at the beginning of the year. The quantity remaining in store at the end of the year was 10,37,324 maunds, against 8,08,374 maunds at the commencement.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

COLMAN MACAULAY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE OUTSTILL SYSTEM IN HOOGHLY AND HOWRAH.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT · EXCISE.

Darjeeling, the 13th October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

WHEN the outstill system was generally introduced in these Provinces, one of the tracts excluded from its operation was the Revenue district of Hooghly, including Howrah. Subsequently the sub-division of Jehanabad, which was under the outstill system, was transferred from the jurisdiction of Burdwan to that of Hooghly. The shops in the excluded tracts were supplied from five distilleries (Bhastara, Radhanagore, Mohiari, Hooghly and Serampore), of which the first three were situated at some distance from district or sub-divisional head-quarters. One of the recommendations of the Excise Commission was that the Bhastara and Radhanagore distilleries should be closed, and that the Mohiari distillery should be removed to the head-quarters of the Uluberia sub-division. The Board of Revenue, on examining the question in communication with the local officers, came to the conclusion that a preferable measure would be the extension of the outstill system to the whole area hitherto supplied with liquor from these distilleries. It was pointed out that the fees realized from Bhastara and Radhanagore did not even cover the expenses of the repairs of the buildings, much less the cost of the establishment maintained at the distilleries. The fees paid in 1885-86 were Rs. 106-14, against establishment charges only of Rs. 1,900. And there were clear indications that the requirements of liquor-consumers were to a great extent supplied by smuggling from the adjoining outstill tract. The proposed distillery at Uluberia, on the other hand, would have had to supply a tract separated by river only from the outstill jurisdiction of the 24-Pergunnahs on one side and Midnapore on the other, and there was evidence that smuggling of outstill liquor was rife in this part of the Howrah district. The Board accordingly, influenced by the strong representations of the local officers, recommended, in preference to the proposals of the Excise Commission, the extension of the outstill system to the whole of the Hooghly Revenue district, with the exception of a densely populated suburban area extending from Mugra to the southern limit of the Howrah Municipality. This proposal was accepted by Sir Rivers Thompson in Government orders No. 2071T—F, dated 3rd November 1886, as well as the Board's proposal to appoint a specially qualified Excise Deputy Collector to supervise the arrangements connected with the change of system. As was observed in Government Resolution, dated 5th December 1887, the result was the reduction of the number of distillery shops from 139 to 47, while the number of outstills in the district was only increased from 30 to 52. In November 1887, the Lieutenant-Governor received from the Secretary to the Indian Association a letter in which it was declared that, under the new system, facilities for obtaining liquor had been provided; that the price of liquor had been largely reduced; and that crime, immorality and drunkenness had increased. The Association supplied statements put forward by its agents, and Sir Stuart Bayley, deeming it right to cause such definite allegations to be thoroughly investigated, deputed to this duty Mr. E. V. Westmacott, Magistrate of Howrah.

2. Before Mr. Westmacott's report was submitted, it was decided, at the instance of the Government of India, to depute a special officer to Madras and Bombay to study the systems of Excise in force in those Presidencies, and since that time the Secretary of State has requested that the comparative merits of the outstill and other systems may be carefully examined in their application to Excise Administration in Bengal. These enquiries are still under consideration. A copy of Mr. Westmacott's report was, however, unofficially supplied to the Board of Revenue some time ago, and the Lieutenant-Governor is anxious that the recommendations which it contains may be carefully considered in all districts before the ensuing Excise settlements for 1889-90. The changes of system indicated in Mr. Buckland's report are of such a nature as to require very long and careful consideration, and would take a considerable time to mature, even should they be eventually approved. Meanwhile, it is expedient to reform the defects discovered in our existing machinery, and from this point of view Sir Steuart Bayley deems it advisable to review briefly the conclusions at which Mr. Westmacott has arrived on the representations of the Indian Association.

3. At the outset, the Lieutenant-Governor desires to express his acknowledgments of the public service rendered by the Association in examining the subject of the outstill administration in Hooghly and Howrah, and laying before Government the allegations of its agents and correspondents. Those allegations have been fully and patiently investigated by Mr. Westmacott; and though some of them have not borne the test of enquiry, the scrutiny to which they have been subjected has had the result of making manifest several defects, which it is both the duty and the interest of Government to remedy. Notwithstanding that the recommendations of the Excise Commission in regard to the capacity of stills and fermenting vats have been nominally introduced, it has been found that the effect of these measures has been practically neutralized, and the consumption of intoxicating drink increased, by the selection of inappropriate sites for shops, by an unduly low rate of duty being fixed on the estimated consumption in calculating the upset price of the stills, and by the capacity of stills and vats originally fixed being "afterwards increased in proportion to the fees the abkars were willing to pay for their licenses," thus giving rise to an undue cheapening of liquor and offering improper facilities for its sale in the interior and its introduction surreptitiously into the urban and suburban areas under the fixed duty system. It is not too much to say that the safeguards which the Excise Commission considered absolutely essential to justify the continued existence of the outstill system have in this tract been so little kept in view that the system became scarcely distinguishable from that which in paragraph 102 received the severe condemnation of the Commission as being likely to foster the very evils which Mr. Westmacott's report has brought to light. On this point the Commission say, in comparing the sudder distillery with the outstill system:—

"There is no difference in principle between the two systems, provided care be taken to limit the producing capacity of the outstills, and to make the revenue paid on each proportionate to its capacity. On the other hand, there is a radical difference between any system under which stills are taxed according to their producing power, or a duty is levied on the amount produced, and any system under which the distiller obtains the privilege of making as much spirit as he can on payment of a sum fixed without reference either to the amount actually produced by him or his means of production. The Commission have no hesitation in condemning the latter for all times and places, whether it takes the form of outstills without limit of producing power, or farms, or any similar arrangement."

The Lieutenant-Governor accepts generally the views contained in the whole of this paragraph, and whatever may be his decision ultimately as to the possibility, under proper safeguards, of so working the outstill system as to free it from the reproach of artificially stimulating the sale of an unnecessarily cheap liquor, he is confident that in this instance those safeguards have not been carefully applied, and the reproach above indicated has been incurred because the system, to which alone the Commission gave its approval, has not been properly, and with all its necessary restrictions, introduced. Its introduction at all into this tract was an exception to the general policy adopted, and it was therefore specially desirable that there should be no relaxation in the safeguards which were recommended. It is probable that in other parts of Bengal the errors brought to light by Mr. Westmacott may equally obtain; and without attempting to decide, without further experience, whether the outstill system, as safeguarded by the recommendations of the Commission, can ultimately be maintained, the practical matter for immediate consideration is the reform of errors in the administration of the system actually in force over the greater part of Bengal.

4. It is unnecessary for the Lieutenant-Governor to discuss in detail each individual statement of personal experience which the informants of the Indian Association have brought forward. These have been examined by Mr. Westmacott. It will be more profitable to consider the general issues arising out of the representation which has been submitted to Government.

5. The first point which Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has established, is the extremely objectionable position in which most of the outstills have been placed. Of the eight outstills referred to specially by the Indian Association, and reported upon in detail by Mr. Westmacott (Singur, Kristonugger, Amta, Haripal, Sripore, Chanditolla, Jhapurda and Juggutbulluhpore), every one is described as occupying an objectionable site. It is shown that they are situated on the public roads, in the middle of villages, or close to schools, or at the junction of great lines of communication. It is impossible to avoid the conclusion that, in selecting these sites, the Special Deputy Collector failed to have regard to some of the most important considerations of Excise Policy, and that his proceedings were insufficiently controlled by the local authorities. On this point Mr. Westmacott observes :—"The outstills generally occupy the sites of previously licensed shops, but the fact that liquor is now drunk on the premises to a much greater extent than before, added to the smell inseparable from the process of distillation, renders the outstill a far greater public nuisance than the shop ever was." It is also to be observed that those shops were very much more numerous than the outstills, and the concentration of drinkers at the outstills called for increased care in the selection of their sites. The circumstance, to be presently referred to, that liquor has been much cheapened under the outstill system is another cause of the increased consumption on the spot, thereby bringing into greater prominence the prevalence of intoxication. It is Mr. Westmacott's opinion that much of the feeling against the outstills in Hooghly has arisen from their objectionable positions: and he recommends that no outstill should be permitted within at least one furlong of any town or market-place, or any road leading to it. He also recommends that, where the dealer cannot procure an objectionable site, or is unwilling to sink his money in a temporary venture, the Government should take up the land required and let it out to the outstill licensee. This is a question on which the Lieutenant-Governor would be glad to have the Board's opinion. There are obvious objections to the Government being more closely connected than it is at present with the direct manufacture and sale of spirits; but from the point of view of increased control and better supervision the proposal has much to recommend it. It is clear that spirit cannot be manufactured after the country method, in the midst of a populous bazar, without grave inconvenience to the comfort and health of the inhabitants, and without offering patent and needless facilities for intoxication. The existing arrangements must be thoroughly revised before the next settlements. Having regard, however, to the density of the population in parts of the tract in question, and particularly of the villages referred to by the Indian Association, the Lieutenant-Governor would wish the Board to consider whether it might not be advisable in some cases to apply the system adopted, on the recommendation of the Excise Commission, for towns in which the establishment of central distilleries is not desirable. Liquor is manufactured outside the inhabited portion of the village, and is sold at retail shops in selected places. Whatever may be the decision on this point, the retention of most of the existing sites referred to by Mr. Westmacott cannot clearly be permitted.

6. It is alleged by the Indian Association that, while the position of the outstills has facilitated the supply of liquor and presented temptations to drinking, the lowering of the price of liquor has largely stimulated its consumption. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has shown how seriously the price of liquor has been lowered, and how little restriction has been placed on the abkar's natural desire to extend his manufacture and his sale of the cheapened liquor. He admits, too, that these causes have necessarily led to an increase of consumption, though the conclusion he draws as to actual increase in drunkenness among the drinking class, or the spread of habits of drinking to classes previously free from them, is different. Mr. Westmacott rightly draws attention to a misleading form of expression employed both by the Indian Association and by other bodies and persons who have discussed the question of Excise Administration in this country. The words "sobriety" and "drunkenness" are frequently used to indicate habits and conditions very different from those suggested by the use of these terms in countries where no class of society can be described as total abstainers from the use of intoxicants. By the term a "sober" man is represented, not a man who preserves his sobriety, though he may use stimulants in moderation, but a man who rigidly abstains from their use; by the term a "drunkard" is understood, not a man who drinks to intoxication, but a man who drinks at all. This confusion of terms has undoubtedly caused much misapprehension, and led to the acceptance and promulgation of very exaggerated views of the extent and intensity of the evils caused by errors in Excise Administration. That the price of liquor has, however, been seriously reduced under the outstill system in Hooghly there can be no question whatever: the remedy will be discussed further on. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has shown that in this particular tract it is not the case, as is generally supposed, that outstill liquor is weaker than that supplied from the central distilleries. An interesting table given by him shows that, especially at outstills in the vicinity of the sudder distillery area, liquor has been manufactured of a strength considerably exceeding that of liquor formerly supplied from the distilleries, while it is nevertheless sold at a much lower price. At Sarenga, for instance, in the head-quarters sub-division of Howrah, the strength of the liquor was found to vary from 18° to 15° under proof, and the price from 6 annas to 10 annas per bottle; while the three shops which this outstill has replaced sold, in 1886-87, liquor not stronger than 28° under proof at one rupee per bottle. Generally he finds that in the Hooghly sub-division and in Serampore there is no material difference between the strength of distillery and that of outstill liquor. In the Howrah sub-division outstill liquor is considerably stronger than the distillery liquor, but the outstills probably distil strong liquor to be smuggled into the urban areas of Howrah and Calcutta. The fact, however, that the cheaper liquor of the outstills is yet as strong as the old liquor of the sudder distillery is an undoubted element in producing increased consumption.

The evidence which Mr. Westmacott has obtained appears to support his conclusion that "the cheapening of liquor has not induced its use among classes who previously abstained from it; and in the classes which previously drank, the number of individuals who use liquor has not been proved to have greatly increased: still less is it proved that there is more drunkenness." He does not find that the allegations that habits of drinking have spread among women, among schoolboys, among persons of the higher classes, or among land-holding peasants, are accurate; and his view is supported both by the statements of local witnesses and by the opinions of officials of experience. Nor does he find that, even among landless labourers, the increase in drinking at all represents an equal increase in drunkenness. It is clear, however, that such a result must follow if the reduction in the price of liquor were to be maintained; while nothing can be more obvious than that the revenue has suffered grievously by the very cause which promotes the consumption of spirits, and threatens the spread of intemperance. The Lieutenant-Governor fully concurs in Mr. Westmacott's recommendations for the imposition, by raising the upset price of the outstills, of a graduated scale of duty, beginning, on the border of the urban area, with a rate very little less than that levied at the sudder distilleries. His recommendations on the subject of limiting the capacity of stills are not equally clear and convincing. Apparently he thinks that a strict limitation will be met on the part of the abkars by having recourse to a shorter period of fermentation and using a thicker wash, which is found in distillation to produce a large amount of fusel oil, rendering the liquor unwholesome. He would therefore forego the attempt to limit the size of the stills and vats. In this view, the Lieutenant-Governor cannot concur. Unless the experiment of limiting their capacity, or, in other words, of restricting the amount of proof spirit to be distilled in a month in each outstill, can be successfully carried out, Sir Steuart Bayley is unable to see how the outstill system can fail to degenerate into one under which the outstill-holder becomes a farmer pure and simple, with full power and every inducement to cheapen his liquor and increase the consumption thereof to the utmost possible extent. The mere raising of his upset price will not remedy this. It will diminish his profits in the first instance, but this will only push him, by every device, legitimate and illegitimate, to seek more customers. The attempt, through the medium of an upset price, to assimilate the duty paid by the outstill holder on every gallon of liquor manufactured by him, with the still-head duty paid at the sudder distillery, is manifestly nullified when the outstill-holder has it in his power to increase his outturn ad libitum, and thereby reduce the duty paid on each gallon; and under Mr. Westmacott's proposal he would have this power to an extent unrestricted by anything but the limits within which his capital and enterprise would enable him to push his sales. In fact, the system approximates perilously to that which the Excise Commission specially condemned and desired to exterminate. The Lieutenant-Governor is not blind to the dangers pointed out by Mr. Westmacott, as well as by the Commission, but he must insist on the safeguards of limited capacity in the stills, and a similar, though, in proportion, a somewhat less restricted, capacity in the vats, so as to avoid the temptation to too short fermentation, being given a full and fair trial, for it is his present opinion that, unless by this or some other means the outturn of liquor from an outstill can in practice be restricted, it will be exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, to justify the continued retention of the system.

The Lieutenant-Governor agrees with Mr. Westmacott in his views as to the expediency of fixing a more adequate minimum price also. The Board will be asked to give careful attention to these suggestions before the next settlements, and to report upon the suggestion, which at first sight does not commend itself to the Lieutenant-Governor, that the excise detective establishments should be placed under the regular Police Administration of the district.

7. As has been stated above, the Lieutenant-Governor is not at present prepared to pronounce finally upon the system or systems to be adopted in Bengal; but with the removal of outstills from objectionable sites, a real and practical limitation in the supply of liquor, an increase in its cost by the imposition of higher rates of fees, and an increase in the minimum price to be charged, it may confidently be hoped that the grounds of complaint, which have been most reasonably put forward in Hooghly and Howrah, will cease to exist. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry, however, indicates distinctly, in the interests both of public morality and of the State revenue, the need of examining the administration of the outstill system in other districts in the light of the conclusions which he has established. He remarks :—"Consumption has been allowed to increase, while excise revenue has been sacrificed by the policy of dealing with each district separately, and by permitting unnecessary differences in the incidence of duty on liquor in adjoining tracts." The whole scope of his report tends to support the opinion, which is held by many high authorities, that the administration of Excise in Bengal should, as in other Provinces, be placed under the charge of a special officer, whose duty would be to visit every district, and examine and direct the operations of the department in personal communication with the local officers. This question is under reference to the Government of India in connection with Mr. Buckland's report of his enquiry in Madras and Bombay. Meanwhile, Mr. Westmacott, on being relieved of his present appointment of Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, will be placed on special duty under the Board of Revenue, and charged with the supervision of the approaching Excise settlements.

8. In conclusion, the Lieutenant-Governor desires to thank Mr. Westmacott for the thoroughness and impartiality of his enquiry, and for the lucid and well-considered report in which he has embodied its results.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

COLMAN MACAULAY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

FLOODS IN THE DISTRICT OF MIDNAPORE.

THE following papers are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 16th October 1888.

No. 40RG, dated Burdwan, the 2nd October 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN continuation of my No. 28RG of the 11th ultimo, I have the honour to forward copy of Mr. Vowell's report (his No. 3478G of the 29th September 1888) on the floods in the district of Midnapore, and to draw special attention to the part of it relating to the Contai sub-division. The engineering questions, and the eventual result of the loss of crops, may be left for future consideration; the immediate question is that of providing shelter and food for those who have been rendered houseless. Respecting this, I telegraphed to Mr. Vowell for further information, and he replies—“Houseless, sheltered in remaining houses or in sheds or embankments, feed themselves by loans if poor.” The prices of rice, which Mr. Vowell quotes, do not indicate any scarcity of food, so long as the people have wherewithal to buy it. I am telegraphing to Mr. Vowell to spend whatever is necessary to provide shelter and food for those who cannot provide for themselves, and to hire the boats he finds necessary for the officers deputed on enquiry. I approve of the measures he has taken, and request that the two Sub-Inspectors of Police whom he has deputed may be relieved by other officers deputed to perform their ordinary police duties.

I intend to visit the Contai sub-division shortly.

No. 3478, dated Midnapore, the 29th September 1888.

From—C. VOWELL, Esq., Magistrate of Midnapore,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

WITH reference to the telegram noted on the margin, received from the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, I have the honour to forward a report on the recent floods complete for the whole district, my last, No. 1818 of the 8th instant, having dealt principally with the Ghattal sub-division which I had then just visited.

Dated 22nd instant.

2. I have now been over the worst parts of the Contai sub-division in company with the Sub-divisional Officer, and returned through the centre of the head-quarters sub-division, which also lies under water.

3. The flooded tracts are—

- (1) In Ghattal the Daspore thana and part of Ghattal thana, rather more than 100 square miles flooded by the Silve and Cossye.
- (2) In Tumlook nearly the whole of Kassijora pergunnah flooded by the Cossye, 63,000 acres.
- (3) In the head-quarters, part of Sobong thana and almost the whole of its outpost Mainah, 106 square miles.

This area was flooded partly from the Kaliaghari river bursting a zemindary embankment, and partly by water from the north breaking a tuccavi embankment on the Buxi khal.

(4) In Contai—

- (a) The Dubda basin flooded partly by water being jammed back across the canal, the outlets to the east having silted up, 30—50 square miles.
- (b) Large portions of the Bhagwanpore and Patashpore thanas, rather more than 150 square miles, flooded through defective drainage.

In the whole of these areas there has been very little immediate loss either of human life or of cattle, but the destruction of mud huts has been great, and deaths by snake-bites and of children from drowning are common. The cattle, as far as I saw, were not badly off, as there was plenty of fodder to be found among the roofs of fallen houses.

4. As regards Ghattal, the thana of Daspoore has been unfortunate in losing its crops in 1885 and again in 1887, and having had only a poor one in 1886. It has, however, the compensating advantage of being able to grow a boro crop by damming up some of the rivers.

The flooded area has been plotted out into charges by the Sub-divisional Officer, who receives regular reports on the condition of the people; and as the sub-division is in close communication with Calcutta, and the labouring classes are in the constant practice of going there to work, I do not apprehend cause of anxiety. The Sub-divisional Officer received Rs. 200 from a former flood fund, and distributed a part of it in rice, when the first rush of the water rendered it difficult to obtain provisions. The last advices from him continue favourable. The kaimonto was being resown where possible, boro planted for seedlings, and labourers going away in large bodies for work.

5. In Tumlook, the Kassijora pergunnah suffered the heaviest loss, but in other parts damage was also done. In Kassijora boro can be resown. The pergunnah was badly flooded last year, but afterwards reaped a good boro crop.

A Committee to relieve distress has been started and a small subscription raised. The Sub-divisional Officer reports that some applications for loans under the Agricultural Loans Act have been made. The population of the sub-division is fairly well-to-do, and many of the labourers emigrate every year for work during the cold season. The case of this sub-division will be sufficiently met by private charity and by loans under the Act.

6. In the Sobong thana of the head-quarters sub-division the floods are said to have risen $1\frac{1}{2}$ feet above previous record, and it is marvellous there was no loss of life. Even now, after it has fallen 7 feet, the water is high on the villages. The cattle driven on to the tops of the embankments were said in places to have been standing belly deep in water. The loss of houses here, it is needless to say, is great.

The Mainah pergunnah is a very fertile one, and in a report on the last flood in 1885, it is stated that, the people say of it, one crop in five is sufficient to support the population. Previous to 1885 there had been a number of good seasons. The water will run off in October as the Kaliaghai falls; and I have requested the Executive Engineer to make further cuts in the embankment without calling for security in order to facilitate this. Boro can be grown to a small extent and winter crops, such as onions, kalai-bhaunt and til on the homestead patches.

The Canoongoe has been engaged during the week in receiving applications and making the necessary enquiries under the Agricultural Loans Act, and 400 petitions for loans have already been put in; the embankments have been extensively breached, and the expenditure on them must be large. The work is done by local labour, and I have asked the Executive Engineer to start repairs as soon as possible.

The people were already repairing their houses with mud, which had to be transported from distances in boats.

The part of the sub-division will, for the present, be watched by Baboo Bissessur Banerjee, Deputy Collector, who has a thorough knowledge of the district, and by the Canoongoe; but I do not think anything beyond private charitable relief will be necessary.

7. In Contai we have first the Dubda basin. Little need be said of it except to express a hope that a remedy may be found, as the sluices through the canal intended for its protection have only aggravated the mischief. The entire crop has been destroyed, and the water is still standing. Boro cannot be grown here, but there was a good crop last year, and there have been no floods for the previous ten. Relief will not therefore be necessary.

8. The most serious case is that of the Baugwanpore and Pattaspore thanas of this sub-division. Here there is a lake of water as far as the eye can reach. Even the homestead patches are submerged, and the houses are in many cases either fallen or half under water.

A good deal of the land is held by the ryots of estates at present under Government management, and you are aware from previous reports how this area has been long suffering from destruction of its drainage channels consequent on the silting back of the rivers. Large tracts of the land have borne no crop for three or four years, and are becoming covered with rushes and water weed, showing that the water stands throughout the year. The rim of the basin has this year been much extended by the heavy rains which found no outlet, and the water has deepened so considerably as to destroy houses even on elevated sites.

There is no prospect of any crop, nor of any earthwork in the immediate neighbourhood, and the mahajans are naturally enough withholding loans, there being no visible security or prospect of any. Harvesting in other districts will not commence till December, nor can much be done on roads or embankments locally before the middle of November at earliest.

9. The prospect, therefore, is serious; and if the Engineering Department find no immediate remedy, and the people do not emigrate en masse, widespread measures of relief will shortly become necessary. The Sub-divisional Officer, as you are aware, proposed to spend Rs. 18,000 a month on gratuitous relief, the only form possible, basing his calculation on 90 villages with a population of 16,000 requiring maintenance.

After going over the ground with him, I do not think this expenditure to be immediately necessary. The people are of course much depressed by the outlook, but there were no signs of lack of food, and the villages seemed to contain the ordinary proportion of well-nourished persons. The children indeed seemed rather above than below the average. They have been selling their cattle largely at low prices, as it is impossible to keep them under the circumstances. Those that remained were in fair condition.

There was no general cry for food, although people crowded round petitioning to have the water drained away.

We met the Agent of the Contai Relief Committee. Only a small sum had been given him, and he had distributed some 20 maunds of rice. We saw the Pattaspore zemindar and respectable persons of the neighbourhood. From none of these did I gather that relief was urgent. I had also placed Rs. 200 in the hands of the Sub-divisional Officer, but up to date nothing had been expended. The pinch, if it comes, will be from the end of October till the middle of December.

When urged to go away to seek work, the reply of the men was that they could not leave their families now without any roof to cover their heads. But in the end, the destruction of the houses may turn out to be rather fortunate than otherwise, as having no funds to rebuild it may compel them to move off in search of a kindlier soil, instead of lingering on in a state of semi-starvation.

When charity or relief comes, I would, therefore, deprecate its application to the rebuilding of any dwellings in this submerged country.

10. For the present, I have placed the Sub-Deputy Collector in immediate charge of this area. He will be assisted by two Sub-Managers of the Khas Tehsil Department and by two Sub-Inspectors of Police. I would request your sanction to the immediate employment of two other Sub-Inspectors to carry on the ordinary thana work. I propose these officers, because they know and are known to the people. They will therefore obtain reliable information more easily, and their presence will not lead to any general cry for assistance.

My instructions have been to them to move constantly about, making unobtrusive enquiries into the condition of the poorer classes, and noting where relief is likely to be first required, and advising the people to move off in search of work. They have also to find out where any boro can be grown, and, if necessary, offer Government loans under the Act, and to assist traders in transporting grain for sale to outlying villages.

Three boats will be necessary for this staff at a cost of Rs. 70 a month, and I also request authority to spend up to Rs. 5,000 in anticipation of sanction in case any urgent and unforeseen necessity may arise. I shall myself again visit this part in a month, and the Sub-divisional Officer will go there shortly before me.

11. In conclusion, I have to report that the crops, where not damaged by floods, promised to be good over the whole district.

Prices rose about 2 seers the rupee in the flooded tracts the week after the flood, but fell again almost immediately. They now stand as noted in the margin, and grain is being exported to Calcutta. As you will remember, prices were very low during the cold weather, and the ryots held back their stocks waiting for a rise.

With the exception of the Contai sub-division, the health of the people has not yet suffered. In Contai fever has been and is very bad, but this is not primarily due to the floods under report. Special supplies of febrifuge have been asked for.

The District Board has been asked to start earthwork at as early a date as possible; and I request that similar instructions may be given to the Public Works Department as regards the embankments.

A meeting will be held on the 3rd proximo to obtain subscriptions.

No. 200TR, dated Darjeeling, the 13th October 1888.

From—H. W. C. CARNDUFF, Esq., c.s., Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal,
Revenue Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 40RG, dated the 2nd October 1888, submitting copy of a report from the Collector of Midnapore, regarding the floods in that district, and in reply to say that the Lieutenant-Governor approves your action in authorising Mr. Vowell to incur the expenditure necessary for providing shelter and food for those unable to provide for themselves, and for hiring boats for the use of the officers deputed on special enquiries. Orders on your proposal for the deputation of additional police officers, to relieve the two sub inspectors engaged by the orders of the Collector in these enquiries, will be issued from the Judicial (Police) Department of this office.

2. The Irrigation Department of this Government has been requested to take into its early consideration paragraphs 6, 7, 9 and 11 of Mr. Vowell's report which relate to that Department.

3. I am to request that you will submit a further report after your visit to Contai.

BEHAR.	25 Chittagong Hill Tracts. „ 10, '88	5.02	Weather—very hot and close with heavy banks of clouds gathering from the south-south-west every evening for the first half of the week followed by stormy weather with strong gale from south-west on 5th, 6th, and 7th. Jum paddy a low average crop. Cotton crop very short. Plough-paddy and sugarcane doing fairly well.
	Hill Tipperah „ 10, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot and nights cool. Prospects of amun paddy, til and cotton fair.
	26 Patna „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—nights and mornings cool, days hot. Fields being prepared for rubbi sowings. Paddy saved from flood is failing for want of rain. Scarcity seems probable in the Behar sub-division, and elsewhere in a less degree.
	27 Gya „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—hot. Paddy suffering very seriously for want of rain; some already past recovery. Cultivation for rubbi also retarded. Rain imperatively necessary. Prices rising. Common rice selling at 13½ seers per rupee.
	28 Shalabad „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—clear and bright, mornings somewhat cold. Bhadai harvest almost over. Prospects of paddy most critical except on canal irrigated lands. Rain badly wanted both for aghani and rubbi . Prices falling except in Buxar.
PATNA DIVN.	29 Darbhunga „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and hot, but cool in the morning and night. The bhadai crops for the whole district are about ½ths of an ordinary crop. The want of rain for the last four weeks has seriously affected the prospects of the rice crop, which cannot now be better than ½ths of an ordinary crop. The northern pergunnahs have suffered most. Rain is much wanted for the cultivation of the rubbi crops. Sugarcane crop is of excellent promise. Rice 13½ seers per rupee in Darbhunga.
	30 Mozufferpur „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—fair, but rather hot in daytime. Bhadai harvest completed. The rice crops are suffering from want of rain, and unless rain falls there will be almost a total loss of the crop in the extreme north, and a poor outturn generally. Prices rising. Traders buying up rice for export.
	31 Sarun „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot, nights cool. Rain much wanted for high land paddy. Fields are being prepared for rubbi sowings.
	32 Chumparun „ 12, '88	Nil	Weather—days warm, but nights cool, specially at dead hours. Rain wanted. Prospects of aghani still fair.
	33 Monghyr „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—bright. Rain absolutely required for the dhan crops and rubbi sowings. Unless some rain falls soon there is danger of scarcity, much of the former crop (bhadai) having been lost.
BHAGULPORE DIVN.	34 Bhagulpur „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—days warm for the season, nights cool. Rain wanted everywhere for paddy, especially in the Supul sub-division, where the crop is said to be beginning to wither in high lands. Kalai and kurthi doing well, but will no doubt, like other rubbi crops, benefit by rain.
	35 Purneah „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and warm. Present prospect of aghani crop only 8 annas, and if drought continues will be 4 or 5 annas. Aghani rice selling at 13 seers and bhadai at 16 seers per rupee.
	Kishengunge „ ...	0.18
	36 Maldah „ 13, '88	1.80	Weather—fair. Bhadai and haimanti paddy doing well. Rain much needed in some parts of the district for the winter crops. Common rice 20 seers per rupee.
	Chanchal „ ...	1.18
ORISSA.	Shubzunge „ ...	0.55
	Gajol „ ...	0.24
	37 Sonthal Pergas „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—turning moister with east winds and clouds. Rubbi sowings begun. Paddy doing well so far, but rain anxiously looked for.
	Pakour „ ...	0.78
	38 Cuttack „ 12, '88	0.06	Weather—fair and seasonable. Beali rice being gathered. Sarad growing well. Common rice sells at 17 seers per rupee in town.
ORISSA DIVN.	39 Pooree „ 11, '88	1.29	Weather—hot. Weeding of winter rice (sarad) still going on. Rain wanted. Common rice 19 seers 11 chittacks per rupee in the Sudder sub-division, and 16 seers 9 chittacks in the Khoordah sub-division.
	40 Balasore „ 12, '88	1.13	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of sarad crop very fair except in flooded tracts. More rain wanted.
CHOTA NAGPORE.
South-West Frontier Agency.
CHOTA NAGPORE DIVN.	41 Hazaribagh Oct. 12, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear. Bhadai still being harvested; outturn fair in some places and below the average in others. Sugarcane doing well. Condition of winter rice so far good, but some heavy rain wanted urgently for the high lands. Lands being prepared and rubbi crops being sown.
	42 Lohardugga „ 13, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot, mornings and evenings cool. Reaping of early paddy and goondli about to be completed. Prospect of winter paddy very unfavourable for want of rain. Prices steady.
	43 Singbhoom „ 12, '88	0.05	Weather—cold and bright. Rain is wanted in Dhalbhoom, and will be wanted all over the district shortly. Up to the present the crops are in excellent condition.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, DURING THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER 1888.

THE weather conditions in Bengal during September are generally similar to those of the previous monsoon months. The south-west monsoon continues to bring up large amounts of aqueous vapour, and during the earlier weeks of the month the rainfall, more especially in the western districts, is partly due to the Bombay branch of the monsoon current, though the greater part of the rainfall is undoubtedly brought up by the current blowing from the Bay of Bengal. The Bombay branch, however, gives way earlier than that from the Bay of Bengal, and from the second or the third week it ceases to influence Bengal. The Bay of Bengal branch also weakens during September, particularly during the latter half of the month, and at its close it almost withdraws from the province, and thus the rainfall in September in Bengal is decidedly smaller than in July and August, and the decrease is also greater in the western districts than elsewhere, from the cessation of the Bombay monsoon current comparatively early in the month.

The intermittent character of the monsoon rainfall has been frequently pointed out in previous summaries. Each heavy burst of rainfall appears to exhaust for the time being the supplies of aqueous vapour available for condensation. Hence, after each such burst, the monsoon current falls off, and appears to die away in and near its normal limits. Local variable winds set in over the Gangetic plain and extend eastwards. This goes on until the moisture current in the rear accumulates fresh supplies of aqueous vapour and renewed energy, when it again advances and gives general rain. The majority of these advances accompany a certain amount of atmospheric disturbance, which frequently takes the form of small moving depressions or cyclonic circulations or storms. These usually occur near the front of the increasing monsoon current, or near its limits of retreat. Hence these depressions may originate either over the land or the sea, according to the strength and other conditions of the monsoon current at the time. The chief meteorological features of the month are usually the depressions which introduce and accompany the bursts of rain. Their place of formation, the rapidity with which they follow one another, and the total amount of rain they give, depend mainly upon the strength of the monsoon current itself, whilst the directions which the depressions pursue, and the local distribution of rainfall, are determined by the local meteorological conditions prevalent during their formation and existence.

Normal distribution of rainfall.—The average distribution of rainfall for the month of September depends mainly upon the geographical relations of the province to the Bay of Bengal monsoon current, which are similar to those of the preceding month. The withdrawal of the Bombay branch westward deprives a portion of the province (chiefly the western districts) of one of its sources of rainfall, and also somewhat alters the conditions and relation of the province to the other branch. Hence the average distribution of the month of September differs, more especially in the western districts, considerably from that of the two preceding months of July and August.

The average rainfall of the month exceeds 20 inches in the districts at the foot of the hills in North Bengal. Between this area and a line running west and east through Bagdogra, and also in a small area in East Bengal, including Fenny and Noakholly, the mean rainfall varies between 15 and 20 inches. Between these areas and a curved line defined by the stations of Bettiah, Durbhunga, Bhagulpore, Godda, Berhampore, Goalundo, Manickgunge, Bagirhat, Diamond Harbour, Kendrapara and Pooree, and thus including the greater part of North-East and South-West Bengal and the northern districts of North Behar, the average rain is from 10 to 15 inches. In the area to the south and west of this line, including the whole of Behar, except the most northern portions, the northern and central districts of South-West Bengal, the Sonthal Pergunnahs, Chutia Nagpur, and the western districts of Orissa, the average rainfall is less than 10 inches, and ranges between 6 and 10 inches. The greater part of South-West Bengal and Chutia Nagpur, within this area, has an average varying from 8 to 10 inches. The average rainfall of the month is least in the Patna, Gya and Shahabad districts of South Behar, and in a small area in South-West Bengal, including the stations of Magoorah, Bongong, Ranaghat, Krishnaghur and Culna. In these districts the average rainfall very slightly exceeds 6 inches, and ranges between 6 and 7 inches.

Meteorology of the month.—It will be remembered that during August the weather was very disturbed, the variations of pressure during that month were large, and cyclonic storms of very considerable intensity were experienced at different times during the month. These conditions ceased with August, and during September the weather was much finer and more settled. Small storms, however, such as are usually formed over the Bay during the prevalence of the south-west monsoon, occurred on two occasions, and there occurred a storm which, to all appearance, was formed outside the Indian area in the Gulf of Tonquin, and which subsequently passed across the Siam Peninsula and entered the Andaman Sea.

The past month has been characterised by moderate general rainfall. In North Bengal and North Behar, indeed, there was some considerable deficiency, the total rainfall of the month in those two districts amounting to only 55 per cent. and 65 per cent. respectively of the normal fall, but in the other districts the fall was larger, varying between 70 per cent. and 89 per cent. of the usual amount received. The deficiency of rainfall though slight, and, as has been shown, generally unimportant, has been remarkably general. Throughout the whole province, only four stations exhibit an excess, and of these Midnapore is the only one where the excess is of any importance. All the other stations throughout Bengal show a deficiency ranging from as much as 13 inches at Julpigoree to less than half an inch at Manbhoom.

influence on the winds at any station beyond those in its immediate neighbourhood. Moderate rain accompanied it, and the weather was very cloudy. On the 2nd the depression still occupied the same position, and the winds and weather in its neighbourhood were unaltered. It passed inland on the 3rd and filled up.

Depression of 5th to 7th.—On the 5th, pressure was falling fast in the north-east corner of the Bay, and an area of relatively low pressure existed between Akyab and the mouth of the Megna. Rain was falling on the eastern side of the Bay from Chittagong southwards, while in Bengal and on the west side of the Bay (due to the northerly winds on the western side of the depression) the weather was fine. By the morning of the 6th the depression had intensified considerably, and had at the same time travelled westward towards the Orissa coast. The barometer had fallen slightly around the head and west of the Bay, while it had risen rather briskly in the east. A fairly well-marked cyclonic circulation of the winds existed around the centre of depression, and moderate rain was falling in Orissa and South-West Bengal. By the next morning, the 7th, the storm had passed inland, the barometer had risen, and the weather had assumed its normal monsoon characteristics. Balasore reported $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches, Dacca $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and Puri $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch of rain.

Depression of the 12th to 16th.—The final, and by far the most important, storm of the month was much more interesting and more extensive than either of the two preceding ones, which were of the ordinary monsoon type. On the 10th and 11th the reports showed a steadily falling barometer over Tenasserim and the Gulf of Martaban, and a steady north-westerly wind over Burma. On the 12th the wind had shifted to north-east at Moulmein and Rangoon, and a slight depression was shown around Tavoy. On the following day a very rapid barometric fall occurred over Tenasserim and Lower Burma, and it appeared that a depression was crossing the Eastern Peninsula from the Gulf of Siam. This storm travelled quickly across the Gulf of Martaban, so far as can be judged, developing quickly as it did so. On the morning of the 14th the centre lay to the north of Diamond Island, and a gale of wind prevailed over Lower Burma. On the 15th the centre probably lay in about lat. 18° N and long 90° E. It was advancing quickly west-north-west, but as only the coast observations are at present available, it is difficult to locate the centre exactly. The observations of the succeeding day showed that the storm must have crossed the Bay at a rate of about 20 miles per hour. Its centre crossed the Orissa coast near Puri, where at 8 A.M., some time probably after the actual moment of passage, the barometer was as low as 29.34 inches. Heavy rain was experienced all around the head of the Bay.

This storm subsequently travelled west-north-west and north-west as far as North-Western India, and gave exceedingly heavy rain to a very large part of Northern India. The storm was an exceedingly interesting one, not only on account of the exceptional rapidity with which it crossed the Bay, and the length of time during which it existed after it crossed the coast, but more particularly on account of its apparent place of origin. The existing evidence tends to show that the storm originated in the Gulf of Tonquin and crossed the narrow peninsula separating that Gulf from the Andaman Sea. If such be the case, it is the first recorded instance of the kind.

Pressure.—Though considerably reduced during the passage across the Bay of the abovementioned depression, has been generally somewhat above the normal average of the month. During the first week of the month, pressure over Bengal and the Bay was subject to both local and general irregular oscillations, but the final result showed an excess for the whole of Bengal and for Assam. During the first three days of the following week, viz., the 8th, 9th and 10th, the barometer continued to indicate an excess of pressure, but on Tuesday, the 11th, a fall set in which continued briskly, and by Friday, the 14th, brought pressure below the normal of the time of year. This depression of the barometer lasted until the cyclonic storm (noticed above) reached the land, after which pressure rose fast and was above the average until near the close of the month, when it fell again to about the normal.

Temperature.—During the present month the rainfall of Northern Bengal having been slightly deficient, temperature has been slightly in excess. Elsewhere the variations of the mean temperature from the normal have been slight and unimportant. The temperature all over the province and over Assam has been very uniform, the range (excluding Chutia Nagpur) being only slightly more than 1° . Assam had the highest maximum, North Bengal the lowest minimum during the month.

Rainfall.—Speaking generally, the greater part of the rainfall of the past month fell during the first half of the month, the latter part, after the passage of the concluding cyclone, having been fairly fine over the greater part of the province. Fairly general rain fell over the whole province on the first day of the month, but consequent on the appearance of northerly winds due to the feeble storm in the north of the Bay, there was a partial break in the rains between the 2nd and 5th. Subsequently as the storm passed westward, and southerly and south-westerly monsoon winds again established themselves throughout the province, rather heavy rain recommenced and fell during the 6th and 7th. Between the 8th and 14th there occurred a partial cessation in the rains. All districts, except North Behar, reported a defect during this week, but the weather was showery, and several heavy local falls were reported. Falls of 5 inches were reported during the week from Mymensingh and Dhubri, and of from 2 to $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches from East and North Bengal. During the next seven days, the 15th to 21st, the rainfall was in excess of the average in Orissa and South-West Bengal, and slightly deficient elsewhere. In Orissa the fall was exceptionally heavy. During the remainder of the month the weather, undisturbed by any depressions from the Bay, was fine, and the rainfall throughout the province comparatively slight.

The following table, which includes the above figures, gives a comparison between the actual monthly and total rainfall, and the normal rainfall of the province up to the end condensed summary of the rainfall data of the present year for each meteorological division. The first nine columns give the percentage amount of rainfall received in each month, and the last column the percentage rainfall of the whole period from the 1st of January to the end of September:—

METEOROLOGICAL DIVISION.	January.	February.	March.	April.	May.	June.	July.	August.	September.	Actual rainfall of first nine months of 1888 expressed as a percentage of the normal fall for the period.
Orissa	410	183	41	46	69	30	81	185	89	109
South-West Bengal ...	207	125	67	141	62	57	131	137	77	107

Chutia Nagpur	235	104	5	24	30	30	128	134	81	99

From this table it will be seen that for six of the meteorological divisions the actual rainfall of the first nine months of the present year equals or exceeds the normal average, and that at one only, viz., North Bengal, is there any deficiency. In Orissa, where the rains in the early monsoon were so deficient, there is now only a deficiency of 13 per cent. for the five months May to September.

The following table gives full data for the comparison of the actual and the normal rainfall of the month of September in all districts of the province. The figures are derived in the manner explained in preceding monthly summaries. The first column gives the average district rainfall as determined from the rainfall observations of the past 15 years. The second column gives the actual district rainfall as determined from the weighted actual rainfalls of the month at the reporting stations in the district. The third column expresses the ratio of the actual district rainfall to the normal district rainfall expressed as a percentage. The fourth column gives the same information as the third column in a slightly different form. It states by what percentage the actual rainfall varied in excess (+) or in defect (—) from the normal rainfall:—

CALCUTTA, the 16th October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 12TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE meteorological changes of the past week have been very important. Not only has a largish depression advanced from the Bay over Bengal and given very unsettled weather to a very considerable part of the province, but following on the disappearance of this depression there has occurred a barometric increase, the distribution of which has been such as to entirely change the conditions prevailing over Bengal and the Bay, and to produce strongly marked cold weather conditions. So long as pressure is relatively low in the Gangetic Valley, and relatively high in the south of the Bay, air from the Bay passes into Bengal in the shape of southerly winds, and so long as these conditions exist, cyclonic storms and rain travelling in the same direction are always liable to occur; but as soon as these conditions of pressure are reversed, and readings become relatively high in Bengal and low over the Bay, the wind changes to north and north-east, and the probability of storms or rain becomes very small.

The report of the 6th showed that the cyclonic storm, noticed in last week's summary, was approaching the coast on a north-east course, and that at 10 A.M. the centre lay to the east of Saugor Island; northerly to north-westerly winds prevailed over the whole of the western districts of the province; easterly winds in East Bengal, and south-easterly winds at Chittagong and Comilla. The winds were rather strong at the head of the Bay. During the night of the 6th the storm crossed the coast, and at 10 A.M. on the 7th the centre lay a little to the north-east of Dacca. The wind had shifted to west over the greater part of the province, but an irregular cyclonic circulation existed around the centre of the storm. Heavy rain had fallen in its path. On the 8th there was a general recovery of pressure, and conditions assumed their normal monsoon appearance, but this condition did not hold, as pressure rose steadily at the more northern stations, and only slightly in the south; hence the area of highest pressure was gradually developed along the foot of the hills, and northerly and north-easterly winds slowly extended over the province with fine weather and a steadily decreasing humidity.

Pressure.—Was almost everywhere below the normal average on the first day of the week. The defect was greatest (over 0·1 inch) at Saugor Island and Calcutta, but was considerable everywhere. On the 7th, owing to the passage inland of the storm noticed above, the relative distribution of pressure changed. In Orissa there was some little excess as compared with the normal, while the greatest defect, instead of being shown near Calcutta, was reported from the neighbourhood of Dacca and from Assam. On the 8th pressure was still below the normal average at most stations, but the defect was decreasing, and by the succeeding morning had been changed into an excess in the majority of districts. This excess became universal and large, and lasted until the close of the week.

Temperature.—The variations of temperature from the normal were irregular on the first day of the week, but during that day a general fall occurred, as the report of the following morning showed a large abnormal coolness throughout the whole province. During the 8th, 9th and 10th this defect of temperature held steadily, but at the close of the week the thermometer rose, and though the mean temperature did not exceed the normal average except at a few stations, the large defect previously noticed more or less disappeared. The greatest mean defect was in Orissa and South-West Bengal.

Winds.—Were cyclonic at the commencement of the week. They subsequently became very variable, and at the close of the period there were strong indications of the setting in of the north-easterly current which is characteristic of the cold season.

Rainfall.—No rain fell during the week in Chutia Nagpur, and none of any importance in Behar or Orissa. Elsewhere rain was fairly general during the first two days of the week, but after the 7th the fall practically ceased, and only slight local showers were experienced. The heaviest rainfall occurred in the path of the storm, and the only district reporting an excess is East Bengal. The following are the more important falls:—

Humidity and cloud.—The humidity and cloud proportion were high at the commencement of the week, but with the disappearance of cyclonic conditions the sky cleared.

Weather.—In the more western districts of the province the weather has been fine throughout. In the east the first two days were very unsettled, but as the barometer rose, and the storm broke up, the weather improved, and by the close of the week had assumed a settled appearance, with seemingly a promise of an early cold weather.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 12th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

KHOORDA FAMINE.

THE followings paper are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 23rd October 1888.

No. 1856R, dated Cuttack, the 24th September, 1888.

From—O. F. WORSLEY, Esq., Commissioner of the Orissa Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN accordance with paragraph 9 of the Bengal Famine Code, I have the honour to submit copies of reports, noted in margin, from the Collector of Pooree and the Sub-divisional Officer of Khoorda, on the administration of relief in Khoorda sub-division for the fortnight ending 15th September, 1888.

Letter from Collector of Pooree to Commissioner, No. 1T—R, dated 20th—21st September, 1888.

Letter from Sub-divisional Officer, Khoorda, to Collector of Poorees, No. 562, dated 16th September, 1888.

2. The most important items of information contained in the Collector's report are (1) that "there is at last a fair prospect of a permanent improvement in the condition of the poorer classes over the distressed area," and (2) that "in the current fortnight the whole of the Banpore Circle (No. V), with the exception perhaps of a small area near Kuhuri (about which the Collector is not yet quite satisfied), will be removed from the famine area." It is also satisfactory to find that the amount advanced for charitable relief in Khoorda sub-division during the fortnight under report had not exceeded Rs. 2,991-13-4.

I fully share the Collector's expectation that, if the weather continues favourable, the funds in hand, with some small additional grant for gratuitous relief, will prove sufficient for all requirements.

3. I think that what has been called "the lull in the distress" may fairly be considered a distinct diminution of distress, and that there is now no more ground than in ordinary years at this season to anticipate an early cessation of the rains.

4. I agree with the Collector that the storm of the 16th instant will be found to have done less harm than was at first apprehended. In Dhenkanal State, where the storm was probably as violent as in Khoorda, and where more than five inches of rain fell, the beali rice crop in many places was beaten down to the ground, but it was so nearly ready for cutting that the cultivators had no fears for its safety.

5. The local reports are not quite so full as usual, and it seems unnecessary for me to summarise their contents.

6. I notice with satisfaction that Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie, of Pooree, has subscribed one thousand rupees in aid of relief measures.

No. 1TR, dated Camp Banpore, the 20th—21st September, 1888.

From—D. B. ALLEN, Esq., Collector of Pooree,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the report required by the Famine Code for the fortnight ending on the 15th instant, together with a copy of the Sub-divisional Officer's No. 562 of the 16th idem.

2. As I am in camp at a considerable distance from head-quarters, where former reports have been left, I fear that the information now given may not be sufficiently complete; but I will not delay the submission of this report, as I desire to give the earliest intimation possible that there is at last a fair prospect of a permanent improvement in the condition of the poorer classes over the distressed area. Mr. Taylor himself admits that there is a distinct lull in the distress; and though during the fortnight under report there has not been any change in the affected area, or in the numbers of relief circles and of officers in charge, yet an attempt has been made to restrict relief operations, and in the current fortnight the whole of the Banpore Circle, with the exception, perhaps, of a small area near Kuhuri (about which I am not yet quite satisfied) will be removed from the famine area.

3. Owing to the rains having provided additional field work, orders were issued to the Sub-divisional Officer early in the fortnight to cease giving advances, except in particular cases (which were to be specially reported), in all villages which had not lost at least half the crop last season, and to impress upon all the Circle Inspectors that gratuitous relief must now be given with the greatest caution and only in the most urgent cases. These orders were approved of by you, and on the 11th instant I paid a flying visit to Khoorda in order to impress on Mr. Taylor the necessity for restricting relief operations now as much as possible, even though we might be forced later in the season to resume them.

4. General state of the affected tracts, &c.—On the 13th, I started for a tour of inspection of all the relief circles, beginning with the South Chilka tracts, where I found that the Salt Inspector, Baboo Beni Madhub Mookerjee, who has been kindly assisting me in this area, had, as I anticipated from his weekly reports, been administering relief effectually and at the same time very economically. All this area, comprising the pergunnahs of Manikpatna, Satpara, Andhari, Parikud, Malud and Badgarkoot, is a difficult country to deal with. The soil for the most part is poor and sandy, and winter paddy, the staple crop of these pergunnahs, generally fails, more or less, over a great part of this area every year. Total or partial remissions of rent have been frequent and the residents have become utterly demoralised. Pointing to their stunted crops, they delight in posing as paupers, utterly ignoring numerous other sources of income, such as salt manufacture, fishing, carrying, &c. Of this area the crops look worst in Manikpatna, though backward all over the South Chilka tracts. The wages earned from salt manufacture and embankment works this year are at least Rs. 18,000 in excess of the amount so gained in the previous year, and there is but little actual distress; but relief measures on a very small scale must be still continued in the neighbourhood of Satpara for some time longer.

5. In Parikud, where there was a good harvest last year, prospects of a good outturn are promising. In Malud and Badgarkoot the crops, though backward, look still better, and the mandia, now ripe for harvest, is a splendid crop, but unfortunately it is grown over a comparatively small area. No relief measures have been undertaken, nor are they now required, over these three pergunnahs; but it must be remembered that, should the rains cease prematurely, the crops, which now look so promising, will never ripen, and there may be serious distress later in the season.

6. In the Banpore Circle there is a marked improvement. Mandia is being harvested, and the paddy, though backward, is very promising. Prices are still high, but relief operations may now be discontinued over nearly the whole of this circle.

7. So far I have been able to speak from the reports of local officers corroborated by my own observations. As regards the other circles, I must refer to Mr. Taylor's report, which is, I regret, not so full and complete as the previous ones submitted by him. The course of the recent storm was fortunately much narrower than he anticipated; and the injury done by the wind is confined to a far smaller area than he imagined, judging from the devastation caused in Khoorda and its immediate neighbourhood. On the whole the rain which accompanied the storm has done more good than harm, and prospects generally over the remaining circles are improved. Still the lull in the distress may be only temporary, and in any case there must be a continuance of relief operations, at any rate for the present, over all the circles except that of Banpore.

8. Number of Public Works, &c.—The works under this head are, I believe, the same as previously reported, except that the heading 3 (d) is no longer blank, the Rani of Pooree having, at my request, taken measures to relieve her poorer ryots in the assigned villages in Rameswar circle. Her relieving officer is acting under Mr. Taylor's instructions, and Rs. 900 are being expended on small works of improvement in this area.

9. I have received no figures showing the daily average numbers in receipt of gratuitous relief. As reported last fortnight, such relief has been (I believe) given judiciously, and not too liberally, except in the Banpore Circle. The recent diaries of the Inspector of the Banpore Circle appeared to show that he was becoming too lavish in the distribution of this form of relief. Immediate orders were issued by Mr. Taylor and reiterated by myself, and yesterday I inspected his office at Barkul, where he had been directed to meet me. There is, I fear, no doubt that in the early part of this month he ceased to follow implicitly the instructions given him; but his ill-judged generosity was checked by the Sub-divisional Officer as soon as it was discovered. Operations in this circle have now been closed. The Circle Inspector has been sent back to his regular work as income-tax assessor, and the Police Inspector, who did excellent work in the Western Circle, and is now in this neighbourhood, has been directed to watch the effect of these orders and to report if it be necessary to give any further relief in this circle.

10. As regards columns 5 and 6 of section 9 of the Famine Code, I can give no further information, nor have I with me in camp figures for column 7. South of the Chilka I found paddy selling at 32 katak seers (i.e. 42 ordinary seers) for the rupee, and coarse rice at 12 (i.e. 15½ seers) for the rupee. The same figures were given me yesterday in the large market of Balugaon in this circle. Prices there were said to have risen within the last ten days, and that the rates in the early part of the fortnight under report were in 80 tola seers, paddy 52½, rice 18½, and mandia 31½ seers for the rupee. However, I am not sure that the information furnished me was correct, as every attempt is now being made to get more money out of Government by exaggerating the present distress.

11. The figures for column 8 are, as regards Khoorda, given in paragraph 8 of Mr. Taylor's report. For Satpara I had advanced Rs. 400 up to the close of the previous fortnight, and of that only a balance of Rs. 35-13 was then left. During the present fortnight I gave a further advance of Rs. 100 to the Inspector, and the total expenditure was Rs. 135-13, chiefly on the two works at Nathapore and Satpara, which (by the way) I inspected on the 15th instant. The balance in hand was nil. A further sum of Rs. 200 has now been advanced.

12. As regards future requirements, I cannot speak with any certainty till I have completed the round of the relief circles and had further consultation with Mr. Taylor. Unless the paddy crop should, after all, prove a failure—and this is a possible contingency that I must dwell upon, for the rains have been so eccentric this year that it is impossible to forecast what may happen—the balance in hand for tuccavi advances, over Rs. 18,000, and that for improvement works, over Rs. 14,000, should prove sufficient. Mr. Taylor asks for Rs. 10,000 for gratuitous relief in addition to the Rs. 1,890 now in hand. Some additional grant for gratuitous relief must, I fear, be given; but I trust that we may be able to manage with less than the amount now asked for. However, I hope to speak more definitely after seeing Mr. Taylor at Khoorda, where I expect to arrive on the 25th instant.

13. Owing to the illness of Kumar Girindra Narain Deb, who has now been compelled to take leave on medical certificate, the regular work of the district has been getting into arrears in spite of all our efforts; but the arrival of an additional Deputy Magistrate and Collector, whose appointment to Pooree has, I am glad to see, been gazetted, and the further restriction of relief operations, which I now hope for, will I trust enable us to recover some of the ground that has been lost.

With apologies for the unsatisfactory character of this report.

No. 562, dated Khoorda, the 16th September 1888.

From—W. C. TAYLOR, Esq., Sub-divisional Officer,
To—The Collector of Pooree.

I HAVE very little to say in reporting on distress for the first half of September beyond what was given in my report, No. 531 of the 11th instant.

2. So far as I can see, the distress is getting less pronounced: there is still a great deal of work in the fields, and we have a great many petty improvement works in progress.

3. There is, in fact, a distinct lull in distress, and the people are busy everywhere in trying to cultivate and repair the damage done to the paddy crop.

4. In some places beali and panichi dhan are being reaped, but the area under this early rice is very limited in Khoorda. Outside our boundaries in Cuttack and in the delta of the Pooree district, the beali crop is reported ready or nearly ready for the sickle, and to be a bumper crop. A severe storm or cyclone which occurred last night will, I fear, have done great damage to the beali and panichi dhan and to the mandia, china, and other millets now in ear and ripening, and also to the fields of sugarcane and pán gardens.

5. At Khoorda itself the damage done to trees is very great, and my own garden has been completely wrecked. Many trees in the forest and District Board bungalow compounds and on the roadsides have also been blown down. The storm was accompanied by upwards of six inches of rain, but as the greater part of the rice crop is still so small, this heavy rain will not do much harm in Khoorda, except to the very early paddy and mandia, above referred to. I have myself seen several fields of ripening mandia completely levelled and beaten down by last night's wind and rain.

6. As yet I have no information regarding the extent of the storm or the amount of damage done elsewhere; but both must be very great, as the wind blew furiously and in great gusts for fully six hours, commencing north of west at about 1-30 A.M., and subsiding from due south at 7 A.M.

7. From one place, eight miles off, I hear that the wind and rain were as heavy as at Khoorda, and for one to two miles off down the Cuttack road a number of telegraph posts have been blown down and communication by wire with Cuttack and Pooree interrupted. Heavy rain is also reported from Tangr, and an extraordinarily high flood in the Madagni river in Rameswar, which shows that the rain accompanying the storm has extended far to the west and south.

8. The following memorandum of receipts and expenditure will, I trust, be considered sufficient for this occasion, and I hope to report more fully and in detail at the close of the month.

The receipts and expenditure and balances under the several heads were for the fortnight as follows:—

(A)—Receipts—

			Rs.	A.	P.

b. For improvement works	...	...	5,719	7	10
(Besides Rs. 8,372 not as yet drawn).
d.(2) For tuccavi advances	...	...	18,350	8	0

Required Rs. 10,000 for gratuitous relief.

9. I have much pleasure in reporting that Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie of Pooree has subscribed one thousand rupees in aid of relief measures in the Khoorda villages of Rameswar and Tapang assigned to the temple of Jagunnath. Of this sum Rs. 900 will be expended on small works of improvement, of which her agent has already started several, and Rs. 100 will be distributed in gratuitous relief.

10. As no figures have as yet been received from the circle officers of the numbers gratuitously relieved or employed on works, I do not think it necessary to delay this report.

No. 216 T.R., dated Darjeeling, the 18th October, 1888.

From—H. W. O. CARNDUFF, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal,
Revenue Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1856R, dated the 24th September, 1888, submitting reports on the administration of relief to famine-stricken people in the Khoorda Sub-division for the fortnight ending the 15th September, 1888.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor observes with satisfaction the diminution in the symptoms of immediate distress and the prospect of permanent improvement, should the rice crops now ripening prove adequate. Under the circumstances a very careful estimate of the result of the coming harvest, upon the success of which so much depends, should be made. His Honour remarks that the Collector's report does not contain all the information required by section 9 of the Famine Code, and the absence of returns of the number of persons receiving gratuitous relief, and of those employed on public works, is an omission which should in future be remedied. Arrangements should be made for the regular submission of such returns, which are required, not only for the information of Government, but for the guidance of the local officers themselves.

3. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor may be communicated to Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie, of Pooree, for her generous subscription of Rs. 1,000 in aid of relief measures.

Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops.

Statement showing Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the crops in the different districts of Bengal, as reported to Government, during the week ending the 20th October 1888.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL.
Western Districts.
BURDWAN DIV.	1 Burdwan Oct. 20, '88	0.12	Weather—fine and cool. Rain is badly wanted throughout the district. Price of rice stationary.
	2 Bankoora „ 20, '88	0.22	Weather—days hot, nights cool. No rain anywhere except at Bankoora. It is much needed for amun rice. Prices continue stationary.
	3 Birbhum „ 20, '88	Nil	Cold weather setting in. The rice crop, which would have been bumper had there been good rain this month, is suffering severely for the want of it.
	4 Midnapur „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—dry, becoming daily cooler. The state of the flooded tracts much the same, but rain is necessary elsewhere to ensure good crops.
	5 Hugli „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. More rain wanted, especially in Jehannabad, for maturing winter rice on high lands. If there is no more rain this month the crop will be short. Rubbi cultivation going on.
	Howrah „ 22, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. State and prospects of crops fair.
Central Districts.
PRESIDENCY DIV.	6 24-Pergha. Oct. 23, '88	Nil	Weather—clear, cool and bright. Prospects of crops good in all sub-divisions except Diamond Harbour.
	7 Nuddea „ 20, '88	0.61	Weather—mornings and nights cool. Amun prospects fair in Ranaghat and Choondangah, generally poor elsewhere. Ploughing and sowing of rubbi crops going on.
	8 Khoolna „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops generally good; but amun rice on high lands wants more rain.
	9 Jessore „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Amun prospects good in all the sub-divisions except Bongong.
RAJSHAHY DIV.	10 Moorshedabad „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear, nights cool. In the Sudder sub-division the prospects of amun are good, elsewhere it is suffering for want of rain. Kalai promising. Rubbi sowings commenced.
	11 Dinagepur „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—cold with powerful sun. No rain during the week. Haimanti paddy suffering for want of rain. If rain does not fall soon the crop will be destroyed in most places.
	12 Rajshahye „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. Rain is urgently wanted for amun paddy which is withering. Lands are being prepared for winter crops.
	13 Rungpur „ 20, '88	0.06	Weather—clear and getting seasonably cold. The rainfall in the Kurigram sub-division has improved much the prospects of the winter rice. Rain much wanted in the Sudder and other sub-divisions. The tobacco plants are being transplanted.
	Kurigram „ ...	1.15
	14 Bogra „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Amun on high lands has commenced to wither for want of rain. Rain fell in the south of the district on the 13th. Crops will suffer severely if drought continues.
	Sherpur „ ...	0.40
	15 Pubna „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—fair and cool. Amun dhan and sugarcane seem better. Winter crops are still being sown. Moog , mashkalai , &c., are growing.
DACCA DIV.	16 Darjeeling „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—clear and cool in hills; rather warm in plains. Autumn rice is being harvested in hills, and rubbi sowings commenced; all crops flourishing. In plains winter rice benefitted by nearly 2 inches of rain, but still below average standard.
	17 Julpigoree „ 20, '88	1.08	Weather—days rather hot, nights and mornings cool. Rain much wanted for haimanti paddy. Sugarcane coming into the market. Jute-steeping still going on in places. No change in the price of rice.
	Eastern Districts.
	18 Dacca Oct. 20, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot and nights cool. Assini paddy nearly harvested. Prospects of amun paddy good. Winter crops being sown.
	19 Furreedpur „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and seasonable. Prospects of crops fair.
	20 Backergunge „ 18, '88	0.52	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops good.
	21 Mymensingh „ 19, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops good.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL—concluded.
CHITTAGONG DIVN.	Eastern Districts—concluded.
	22 Chittagong ...	...	Report not received.
	23 Noakholly Feni „ 19, '88	1-10	Weather—seasonable. State of amun generally good, but some damage was done in chur lands by rise of salt water as reported last week. Betelnuts and coconuts have generally been good.
	24 Tipperah „ 18, '88	0-53	Weather—seasonable. Standing crops, specially amun dhan , thriving vigorously, and prospects promising. Harvesting of jute being still pushed on in Chandpur sub-division, while it has been over in almost all other parts of the district.
	25 Chittagong Hill Tracts. „ 17, '88	0-12	Fine bright weather; mornings and evenings distinctly chilly, and the cold weather fogs are beginning to show themselves. Harvesting of jum crops continues.
BEHAR.	Hill Tipperah „ 17, '88	Nil	Weather—hot. Tobacco and chillies being transplanted. Reaping of jum paddy finished. Cotton and amun doing well.
	26 Patna „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—nights and mornings cool, days hot and bright. There is a general clamour for rain and water, and a total failure of the rice crop is apprehended. Fields are being prepared for rubbi cultivation, but with very little hope of a good crop if there be no rain shortly.
	27 Gya „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—mornings cool and days hot. Paddy withered and scorched in uplands. Preparation of rubbi fields being retarded for want of moisture in the land. No sign of rain. Scarcity apprehended.
	28 Shahabad „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—clear and bright; mornings and nights somewhat cold. Paddy suffering for want of rain except on canal-irrigated lands. Rubb sowing continues. Prices falling except in Buxar.
	29 Durbhunga „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and hot, but daily decrease in temperature both in the night and in the mornings. With no rain there is a sensible rise in prices all round. The export of rice has ceased. Carts are returning empty from Nepal and North Bhagulpoore. Dhan on the high lands withering and being cut for fodder and to make way for a cold-weather crop. Irrigation being actively carried on on the low lands. People in perfectly good condition at present, and no application for work being made. Rain sadly required for the rubbi cultivation. Average prices of common rice from 12 to 14 seers to the rupee.
	30 Mozufferpur „ 20, '88	Nil	There have been a few clouds almost every day, but at nights weather has been clear and cool. The bhadai harvest is over. The rice crop in the northern part of the district will be a very poor one even if there is rain; while in the extreme north and in high lands it has totally failed, being beyond all hope of recovery. In some places in the southern half of the district there may be a ten annas crop. Rain is required for the rubbi sowings. Prices rising. Rivers have very little water in them. Prospects gloomy.
	31 Saran „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. West wind prevailing. Mornings and evenings very cool. Rain urgently wanted for upland paddy and rubbi sowings. Moisture drying up owing to west wind. Irrigation is being resorted to where practicable. Prices rose rapidly during the past week, but have now declined a little. Anxiety is felt for crops on ground.
	32 Chumparan „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—mornings and nights cool, but days hot. Paddy suffering seriously for want of rain; it is withering in several places. Preparation being made for rubbi sowings. If there be no rain shortly, the prospects of the present and the future crops will be very poor.
	33 Monghyr „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and seasonable. Rain absolutely required both for the dhan crops and rubbi sowings. Prices of food-grains increasing.
	34 Bhagulpur „ 20, '88	0-22	Weather—days warmer for the season; nights cool. Except in those parts of the Sudder and Banka sub-divisions where it rained lately, the prospects of paddy are not good. Kalai and koorhee are doing well. Rain much wanted. In some places irrigation is being resorted to.
CHITTAGONG DIVN.	35 Purneah „ 20, '88	1-13	Regular cold season has apparently set in. Not a sign of the more rain that is so much wanted. Prospects of crops are decidedly bad, and may be expected to be worse if, as it seems, the rains are entirely over.
	36 Maldah „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and clear. Standing crops generally fair, but withering in some parts for want of rain. Common rice selling at an average of 19½ seers per rupee.
	37 Sonthal Perghs. „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—cold at night and hot in the day. Northerly winds. Prospects of low dhan good; higher dhan suffers from drought. Rain much wanted.
	38 Cuttack „ 19, '88	0-03	Weather—sunny and hot. Beali reaped. Sarad crop on high lands urgently require water, and is likely to suffer if rain does not fall in a day or two. There has been a general cry for water, and rain is very urgently wanted. Price of rice rising.
ORISSA DIVN.	39 Pooree „ 17, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and dry. Rain very urgently required for sarad crops, there being no water in the paddy fields. Second weeding of sarad still going on. Beali and mandia being harvested. Laghu rice in ear. Common rice 19 seers 3 chittacks per rupee in the Sudder sub-division and 16 seers 7 chittacks in the Khoordah sub-division.
	40 Balasore „ 19, '88	Nil	Weather—clear and getting colder. Rain urgently needed in every part of the district.
	41 Hazaribagh Oct. 19, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear. Rice on high lands beginning to suffer. Prospects bad. Rain urgently wanted.
CHOTA NAGPORE DIVN.	42 Lohardugga „ 20, '88	Nil	Weather—clear and cool. Rain urgently wanted. Standing crops are suffering badly. Ploughing of rubbi land is retarded for want of rain. Prices as before.
	43 Singbhoom „ 19, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and cool. Mornings and evenings quite chilly. Rain is urgently wanted. The winter rice crop is beginning to suffer seriously, and the price of rice is going up.
	44 „ „ „	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Rain much wanted for the high land paddy, which is CALCUTTA, the 23rd October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA-TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY,
THE 19TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE most remarkable feature about the weather of the past week has been its general quietness and its remarkable coolness at the close. Slightly unsettled conditions prevailed over a limited area over and in the neighbourhood of the hills during the first two days, but these conditions quickly disappeared, and after the 14th, throughout the whole province, fine, bright and in places cool weather prevailed. The pressure and wind conditions have not exactly coincided with the average, pressure having been relatively lower over the eastern portion of the province, Assam and the Eastern Peninsula, than is normally the case; while the reports of the India Meteorological Department show that abnormally high pressures have been reported from the Indian Peninsula, hence the barometric gradient has been for northerly winds all over the province, instead of, as is normally the case, for north-easterly winds in the east and north-westerly winds in the west. This unusual direction of the wind has been accompanied with high pressures, a low humidity, and at the close of the week with a low temperature. It is hence fair to assume that it was more or less a descending current largely derived from the hills to the north, and that the dry weather which has prevailed is due to this cause. From a consideration of the general excessive pressure which prevails, as well as from its distribution and the accompanying winds, it would appear that cold weather conditions are now firmly established over this part of India. Hence the centre of possible disturbance has been transferred from the north to the south of the Bay, and unless, owing to a most unusual change of conditions, this should be reversed, fine settled conditions should now prevail over Bengal. The rainfall and deficient pressures which occurred over and near the hills at the beginning of the week were not improbably accompanied with snow in the interior, a phenomenon which is usually followed by an onset of cool, dry air from the hills, and a brisk fall of temperature.

Pressure.—At the beginning of the week pressure was above the normal average at almost all stations, but the excess was very much less than it had been in the previous week, and at Darjeeling and Rungpore the barometric reading was below the normal. On the 14th there occurred a brisk recovery, which held during the following day. On the 16th the barometer again fell, and the excess of pressure over the normal was again slightly reduced. The reports of the 17th and 18th showed a continuance of the fall, while on the 19th there was another general and brisk recovery. Throughout the whole week the oscillations of pressure have been general and fairly uniform, and only on the 13th has the barometer at any station showed a pressure below the normal pressure of the time of year; on all other occasions there has been an excess, which has varied in amount according to the upward or downward oscillation in progress at the time. These general oscillations of pressure, if slight, are seldom accompanied with unsettled or changeable weather, which at this season of the year is usually associated with either a long-continued oscillation, or irregular barometric changes.

Temperature.—On the 13th the variation of temperature from the mean were irregular, between the 14th and 17th there was a more or less general excess; while on the 18th there occurred a brisk fall, and the reports of that and the following day exhibited a large abnormal coolness. The excess at the commencement and defect at the close of the week to a large extent balanced, and the final variations of the week exhibit only a slight general deficiency.

Winds.—Have been generally light. At first there was great variability in the general direction, but subsequently the direction became generally northerly.

Humidity and cloud.—Humidity has been generally low, and the cloud proportion on the whole very slight.

Rainfall.—At the great majority of stations there has been no rain, and in those places where it has fallen, the amount has been light and greatly below the average of the week.

The concluding table shows that no rain whatever fell in North Behar or Chutia Nagpur, and that the mean fall in all the other districts except North Bengal was less than one-tenth of an inch.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 19th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Δ dew, = fog.

MEMORANDUM.

THE returns of the principal Municipalities in Bengal, for the week ending 29th September 1888, disclose the following particulars:—

1. That births and deaths were recorded in these Municipalities at the rates, respectively, of 25·8 and 34·6 per 1,000, of population, as opposed to 20·6 and 29·3 per 1,000 in the preceding week, indicating a very considerable advance in the registration of both.

2. That they were registered in the highest proportions by the following Municipalities:—

Births.			Deaths.
		Ratio per mille.			Ratio per mille.
Narainganj	...	53·8	Gya	...	105·9
Monghyr	...	50·6	Arrah	...	53·8

of the Europeans in the Municipalities was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans is employed as a basis of calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

LIBERALITY OF KAZI SYUD REZA HOSSEIN, KHAN BAHADOOR.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EDUCATION.

Darjeeling, the 27th October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ the undermentioned letters—

From the Commissioner of the Patna Division, No. 379, dated the 30th July 1888.

From the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, No. 5414, dated the 2nd October 1888, regarding the endowment of Kazi Syud Reza Hossein, Khan Bahadoor, for the encouragement of English education among the Mahomedan youths of Patna.

Kazi Syud Reza Khan Bahadoor recently assigned an estate in the district of Patna of the annual value of Rs. 1,200 as an endowment for the English education of Mahomedan youths in the Patna College and the Oriental College of Aligarh, and has now offered to make over to Government a sum of Rs. 1,200, to be invested in Government securities, for the foundation of a scholarship of Rs. 4 a month, tenable for one year, to be awarded to the best student of the Entrance class of the Patna Anglo-Arabic School. The donor desires the scholarship to be paid, so long as the school exists, to the Secretary, the Local Government having, in the event of the closing of the institution, power to apply the income of the fund, at its discretion, to such purposes as may be deemed most likely to promote the advancement of English education among Mahomedan youths. The Lieutenant-Governor gladly accepts the Kazi's offer, and directs that the thanks of Government be conveyed to him for his public spirit and liberality. The Inspector of Schools, Behar Circle, will be the administrator of the fund, and will pay the scholarship on bills submitted by the Secretary to the Patna Anglo-Arabic School.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the Crops.

Statement showing Rainfall, Weather, and State and Prospects of the crops in the different districts of Bengal, as reported to Government, during the week ending the 27th October 1888.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL.
Western Districts.
BURDWAN DIVN.	1 Burdwan Oct. 27, '88	Nil	Early cold weather. The aus harvest was 11 or 12 annas of an average crop. The amun will be only 8 annas of an average crop unless good rain falls by 5th November. Price of common rice rising fast in Ranegunge and Cutwa, where it is now 16 seers per rupee on average.
	2 Bankoora „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and close. Rain urgently required to save much of the winter rice crop, and for cultivation of rubbi crops (latter, however, unimportant here). However irrigation going on, and even with no rain, rice crop expected to be 10 annas in the Sudder and 8 annas in the Bishenpore sub-division, and sufficient for local consumption. Exportation up-country has been vigorous during the week, causing a sharp rise in prices. This has ceased since yesterday (25th) and prices have again fallen; coarse rice now selling at 17 seers per rupee. Sugarcane doing well.
	3 Birbhum „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and cloudy. Rice is suffering severely from want of rain.
	4 Midnapur „ 27, '88	Nil	The weather continues clear and cold. The prospect of the amun crop is daily getting worse, but heavy export is going on and prices rising fast, except in two or three thanas, where the early crop has come into the market.
	5 Hugli „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cool and dry. Winter rice on high lands and retransplanted rice on flooded lands urgently in need of rain to mature it. Irrigation is being resorted to wherever possible.
	Howrah „ 29, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Rain wanted.
Central Districts.
PRESIDENCY DIVN.	6 24-Pergha Oct. 30, '88	Nil	Weather—generally hot, but cool in the morning. Prospects of crops continue good everywhere except in the flooded parts of the Diamond Harbour sub-division. Rain is, however, wanted for the crops on the higher lands.
	7 Nuddea „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days warm; mornings and nights cool. Prospects of amun rice poor in Kusitea and Sudder; fair in other sub-divisions. Ploughing and sowing for rubbi crops continue.
	8 Khoolna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Amun on high lands wants rain. Otherwise prospects are fair.
	9 Jessore „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Rain is wanted for amun paddy which is in ear. Sowings of winter crops going on.
	10 Moorshedabad „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear; nights cool; days hot. Amun suffering for want of rain. Kalai promising. Rubbi sowings commenced.
RAJSHAHY DIVN.	11 Dinagepur „ 27, '88	Nil	The last few days have been cloudy, but for the week the weather has been still and clear. Rain is badly wanted. The winter rice is withering, and much anxiety is felt. Price of common rice has risen. The mahajans are still exporting rice, but the cultivators are withholding their stocks.
	12 Rajshahye „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—very cool at night; hot sun in day time. Rice sells at an average of 17½ seers for the district, 14½ seers in the town of Beaulah. Crops not bad in Nattore; elsewhere rain most urgently required. Amun has suffered in many places.
	13 Rangpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and still with hot days and cool nights. Rain much wanted. Amun crop prospects bad. Tobacco being planted and other cold-weather crops being sown.
	14 Bogra „ 27, '88	Nil	Calm and cool clear weather. Amun is in ear in some places, but the crops of the high lands are being dried up for continued drought. Sugarcane and mashkalai are growing. Mustard is being sown. Til blossoming. Rain much wanted.
	15 Pubna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. Prospects of amun paddy good. Winter crops are being sown.
	16 Darjeeling „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine, but cloudy. Prospects of crops fair, but rain is badly wanted both in hills and plains.
	17 Julpigoreo „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—mornings and nights cool; days warm. Prospects of haimanti paddy are bad, especially in the Alipore tehsil. Transplantation of tobacco has commenced. Price of rice has risen. Common rice selling at the Sudder station at 16 seers per rupee.
Eastern Districts.
DACCA DIVN.	18 Dacca Oct. 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Ploughing and sowing of pulses and mustard going on in some parts of the district. Tobacco is being transplanted. Amun crops coming into ear. Prospects good.
	19 Furreedpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects continue fair. Land is being prepared for cold-weather crops, but rain is wanted.
	20 Backergunge „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops good, except in parts of Bhola, where the rice seedlings have been damaged by floods.
	21 Mymensingh „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Prospects of crops good.

No.	District and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather and state and prospects of the crops.
BENGAL—concluded.
Eastern Districts—concluded.
CHITTAGONG DIVN.	23 Chittagong ...	...	Report not received.
	23 Noakholly Oct. 26, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. State of amun generally good. Soil is being prepared for winter crops.
	24 Tipperah „ 25, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable, and getting very cool. The winter rice is coming on splendidly everywhere.
	25 Chittagong Hill Tracts. „ 23, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable, with foggy mornings; it has been distinctly warmer again the past two or three days. Gathering of jum paddy nearly over. Cotton plants are in pods here and there. Late rice crops in low lands progressing.
	Hill Tipperah „ 24, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. Amun paddy and cotton doing well. Chilly and tobacco continue to be transplanted.
BEHAR.
PATNA DIVN.	26 Patna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy and hot. Rain urgently wanted for paddy and rubbi sowings. From Behar it is reported that prices are rising fast, and without rain to allow of the ground being prepared for spring crops scarcity is very probable. Fodder is also scarce. Prices are high in other sub-divisions.
	27 Gya „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy for the past three days. Paddy is dying for want of rain. If it does not rain within four or five days, only four annas paddy crop can be expected. Sowing of rubbi crop also being much delayed.
	28 Shahabad „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and cloudy. Paddy crop withering for want of rain, except on canal-irrigated lands. Rubbi sowing continues where well water is accessible; but if no rain falls, such fields as are beyond the reach of well water will be left fallow. Fever prevalent to such an extent as to affect agricultural operations injuriously. Prices rising. Scarcity anticipated in parts.
	29 Durbhanga „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—clouds have collected during the last few days, but they clear away in the evening, leaving the nights starry and bright. There is prospect of light rain. There is now no doubt that all the unirrigable high land rice in the Madhubani and Durbhanga sub-divisions will fail. It is withering and being cut for fodder or to make way for a rubbi crop if rain should fall. The poorer classes are at present finding labour in irrigating lands where the crop still survives. In a month or so this source of labour will be exhausted. Prices are now high throughout the district.
	30 Mozufferpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot; mornings and evenings cool; cloudy during last three days. Rubbi sowings progressing. Rain most urgently wanted for winter rice all over, and for rubbi sowings in parts of the district. Paddy plants being cut for fodder for cattle in the north of the Sitamarhi sub-division. Prices rising.
BHAGLPORE DIVN.	31 Sarun „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot, close and sultry; clouding over; nights cool. Rain very urgently required for paddy. Rubbi is being sown, but with very little hope of a good crop if there be no rain shortly, because the whole area will not be sown. Prices of food-grains rising.
	32 Chumpran „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fair, but occasionally cloudy. Prospects of paddy crop bad. Irrigation being carried on wherever possible. Rubbi sowings germinating badly in places for lack of moisture. Rain badly wanted. Prices of food-grains rising.
	33 Monghyr „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days rather hot; nights somewhat cold. There have been some clouds for the latter part of the week, but no rain, which is very urgently needed throughout the district for the present and the future crops. Paddy scorched in high lands, and rubbi sowings retarded for want of rain. Prices rising.
	34 Bhagnipur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—too warm for the season and cloudy latterly. Much of the high land rice, especially in Snpoel, has been now irretrievably lost, and that on lower lands is suffering. Rubbi sowings retarded for want of moisture. Prices rising and prospects gloomy. Clouds, however, are gathering again.
	35 Purneah „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy, but no rain; warmer. In the absence of more rain, the aghani crop will not exceed 8 annas certain.
ORISSA.	36 Maldah „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and cool. Rain is urgently wanted for winter rice crops. Prospects not favourable. Price of common rice has risen to 12 seers since last week.
	37 Southal Pergals „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy and warm with easterly wind. No rain. Bhadai harvest over; outturn defective, about 8 annas. Prospects of rice becoming rapidly worse for want of rain. If none comes, crop will not much exceed 8 annas, and perhaps be less. Prices of rice (11 and 12 seers per rupee) rising.
	38 Cuttack „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and clear. Early sarad in ear. The paddy crops on high lands are withering. Those on low lands also likely to suffer, provided there be no rain shortly. Price of rice rising. Fields are being irrigated by water from canals and tanks.
	39 Pooree „ 25, '88	None registered, but a few slight showers yesterday and to-day in parts of the district, and the sky is overcast with clouds.	Weather—hot and dry. The prospects of the winter (sarad) crop are very critical for want of rain. If rain does not fall within a week or so the sarad crop will fail. Laghu sarad has been damaged by drought. Wherever it is possible, lands are being irrigated from all available tanks, rivers, ponds, &c. Common rice 16 seers 1 chittack per rupee in the Sudder sub-division, and 16 seers 10 chittacks in the Khoorda sub-division.
	Khoorda ...	Nil
CHOTA NAGPORE.	40 Balasore „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and clear. Beali rice and birki being harvested. Sarad rice in ear; suffering much from want of rain. Irrigation going on so far as possible. If no rain falls shortly, the outturn will be most seriously affected. Prices rising.
	South-West Frontier Agency.
	41 Hazaribagh Oct. 26, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear; rainless. Paddy crops on the high lands suffering for want of rain. Prospects of winter rice now very indifferent. Rain urgently wanted for paddy and rubbi crops. Prices rising.
	42 Lohardugga „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—warm and cloudy. Clouds hovering, but no rain. Anxiety experienced regarding winter paddy. Rubbi sowing is at a standstill for want of rain. Prices rising.
	43 Singbhoom „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—somewhat cloudy and warmer than in the previous week. No change in the prospect of the winter dhan , about quarter of which has been lost owing to the continued drought. There was a fall in the price of common rice at last market owing to the appearance of the new gora dhan .
CHOTA NAGPORE DIVN.	44 Manbhoom „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and close. All crops more or less damaged for want of rain. The paddy crop is estimated at from 6 to 10 annas throughout the greater part of the district.

CALCUTTA, the 30th October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVA- TIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 26TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE conditions which prevailed in Bengal at the close of the previous week were those which generally immediately precede the setting in of the cold weather in Bengal. During the present week, however, these conditions have, if anything, rather decreased in intensity, though still fine clear weather, with an almost complete absence of rain, has been reported in almost all cases throughout the week. Generally over the Bay a light northerly wind current has prevailed, and at the southern stations, along the Madras coast, fairly general rain has been reported, showing that the south-west monsoon current has partly recurred in the usual manner, but up to the present time the wind currents in Bengal have been very light and variable, and the steady northerly monsoon winds which usher in the cold weather have not yet set in.

Pressure.—At the commencement of the week pressure varied very slightly, and up to the 21st the changes were unimportant. From this date a steady rise of the barometer set in, which continued up till the 25th, and so rapid was the rise that on the 24th pressure was in excess of the normal by amounts varying between a tenth and a sixth of an inch, while on the 25th the excess ranged up to a fifth of an inch. This long oscillation then ceased, and pressure had fallen by small amounts on the morning of the 26th. For the whole province, taking into consideration only those stations at which reliable averages have been obtained, pressure for the week has been 0.08 inch in excess of the normal. In Assam the mean excess has been 0.085 inch.

Temperature.—Was at the commencement of the week decidedly below the normal, the defect in the mean temperature reported on the 20th averaging about 2° to 4°. On the 21st the defect had increased to from 3° to 4°, but from this date a continued increase in temperature was reported, which has lasted up to the close of the week. From the 22nd to the 24th the mean temperature was either in slight defect or not very far removed from the normal, but on the 25th the excess above the normal mean temperature ranged up to about 4° to 5°; while on the 26th it had increased to nearly 5° and 6°; and at Patna on this day the excess was 6.5°, and at Calcutta 6°. For the whole week the mean temperature of the province has been about half a degree below the normal; while in Assam temperature has been in excess by a tenth of a degree.

Winds.—The winds blowing over the province have been rather light and variable. Easterly winds commenced to set in near the hills on the 20th, and for the next two days the winds became more north-easterly; but for the last four days in the week the winds were decidedly irregular in direction, and the north-easterly current, which had commenced to blow, and which generally sets in with the cold weather, had to a considerable extent disappeared.

Humidity and cloud.—At the commencement of the week were both low; but from the 22nd there was a rather considerable increase in the humidity, and for the latter half of the week it was rather high. Cloud proportion remained low until the 25th, when the sky became rather heavily clouded in Behar, while the cloud proportion also increased in other districts.

Rainfall.—Except for a very light shower (0.07 inch) at Silchar on the 23rd, and for a rather heavy shower (0.72 inch) at Pooree on the 25th, the whole province has been rainless during the entire week.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 26th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

☁ fog, ☀ dew.

The mean temperature of the seven days ... 78.7
 The extreme variation of temperature ... 21.6
 The maximum temperature ... 89.0
 The mean relative humidity ... 76%

The total fall of rain from 21st to 27th October 1888 ... Nil

The mean temperature and humidity are obtained by applying to the mean of the 10h, 16h, and minimum readings a correction dependent on the range, and derived from the hourly observations at the Surveyor-General's Office, Chowringhee, in past years.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, INDIA ;

The 29th October 1888.

A. PEDLER,

for Offg. Meteorological Reporter to the Govt. of India.

MEMORANDUM.

THE returns of the principal Municipalities in Bengal for the week ending 6th October 1888 disclose the following results:—

1. That births and deaths were recorded in these Municipalities at the rates, respectively, of 24.5 and 31.3 per 1,000 of population, against 25.8 and 34.6 per 1,000 in the preceding week, indicating a falling off in the registration of both.
2. That the following Municipalities returned the highest proportions of births and deaths:—

Births.			Deaths.
		Ratio per mille			Ratio per mille
Narainganj	...	74.5	Gya	...	84.0
Bhagulpore	...	49.8	Serampore	...	63.0
